IRAQ FORCES ROUTED IN 2ND WAR AREA

British Take Axis Forces By Surprise In Africa

BOLD DESERT MOVE UPSETS NAZI PLANS

Nazis Still Stab At Tobruk

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt—A British mechanized force cutting behind the German and Italian positions on the Egyptian frontier has raced across the desert plateau and taken by surprise a considerable body of Axis troops, middle eastern headquarters announced Saturday night.

This bold sortie, reminiscent of the tactics used in routing the Italians last winter, was carried out in the Salum sector while the Axis forces stabbed repeatedly at British-held Tobruk, 80 miles to the west, only to wind up still in the southwestern corner of that port's outer ring of defenses.

Axis Losses Heavy

The thwarted Tobruk assaults were declared to have cost the Axis forces heavy losses. These attacks were carried out for the most part by Germans using tanks with considerable air support. The Middle East command said two St[illegible] said the persistent attacks indicated British hold on [illegible] the Axis drive [illegible] Africa. They added [illegible]ation of these attacks was to be expected.

The troops which swept behind the Axis line at Salum were said to have cut the Bardia-Tobruk road for a time while they were rounding up the surprised Germans and Italians. In additon to the prisoners they brought back a big field gun.

This daring maneuver also gained useful information concerning disposition of the Axis troops. Military quarters said the foray showed the British still retain their old cunning at desert warfare and are not losing the initiative.

Suez Drive Balked

Thus the Army of the Nile, outnumbered and awaiting reinforcement from the East, pursued the harassment of the German and Italian forces which rolled the British back from Libya to the Egyptian border but, so far, have been unable to continue their Suez-bound drive from that point.

Simultaneously with these land operations, RAF bombers pounded Axis shipping and an official announcement said a destroyer and a merchant ship were sunk in the Mediterranean.

Additional RAF units raided Axis communications in the western desert and were declared to have set afire a number of vehicles in a convoy near El Aden. The RAF command announced that a German bomber and two fighters were downed in the Tobruk area and the South African air force was credited with downing one Italian craft and destroying another on the ground in Ethiopia.

RIVER FLOOD DUE TUESDAY

Rains Up Rio Grande To 26-Foot Level

SAN BENITO—Flood stage in the Rio Grande at Brownsville can be expected by Tuesday with a rise to about 26 feet, J. L. Lytel, I. B. C. flood control project engineer, said Saturday night.

The river will continue to rise throughout the Lower Valley Sunday with Hidalgo expected to record about 30,000 second feet Sunday night Laredo reported 19,000 second feet and falling on Saturday and 32,000 second feet was recorded at Rio Grande City Saturday night.

The Rio Grande's rise is a result of general rains all along the watershed with heavy rains recorded from as far up the river as Presidio.

Mascot Disconcerts

CAMP EDWARDS, Mass — (AP) — "Popeye," the mascot parrot of Battery 1, 180th Field Artillery, has disconcerted the whole battery. When the brief command "attention" is shouted, Popeye promptly responds navally: "All hands on deck, the general is here."

Lucky Home Number

WILSON, N. C.—(AP)—Mrs. W. J. High won two automobiles in contests while living at No. 307 Whitehead avenue. Later she moved across town and Mrs. Sid Webb moved in. That night Mrs. Webb won a $150 theater jackpot.

WINNING THREESOME

OWNER: Warren Wright's father bred trotting horses. Warren switched to runners. He's had some good horses before but none as good as Whirlaway, two-year-old champ.

HORSE: Whirlaway was the top two-year-old with $77,275 in winnings. He was in the money in 13 of his 16 starts. The Hopeful Stakes victor was a disappointment in winter racing.

6-INCH RAINS FLOOD RIVERS

Cloudbursts Threat To Roads, Stock

By The Associated Press

A six-inch rain sent rivers in Texas and Oklahoma roaring out of their banks Saturday threatening highway bridges and livestock.

Oklahoma highway workers were placed in guard at the Red River bridge on U.S. Highway 277 near Burkburnett as the stream was three feet below flood level and still rising.

At Victoria in South Texas the Guadalupe was slowly rising at 30 feet. Record stage there is 31.4 feet reached in 1936.

Lowlands south and west of Victoria were under water. The river was two to three miles wide.

Arterial highways were closed in the Austin area.

Traffic was expected to be re-

WHIRLAWAY TAKES HOME DERBY CASH

Staretor, Outsider, Comes In 2nd

By SID FEDER

CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—"Whacky" Whirlaway, the little chestnut horse with the big full tail and the blinding stretch speed, ran away with the greatest Kentucky Derby of them all Saturday.

Fairly flying down the last long quarter mile, the stretch-running-est son the blue grass has boasted of in a long time galloped home by eight lengths, laughing off all the "ifs" they had tagged onto his chances and bringing screams of admiration from the biggest crowd ever to see a horse race in America —an officially estimated 100,000.

Comes From Behind

He did it by coming up from eighth place in the field of 11 under masterful handling by wise Eddie Arcaro, and he put the crusher on his critics so convincingly that his smashing speed broke the Downs and Derby record for the mile and a quarter. He hit the wire in the red-hot time of 2 minutes, 1 2/5 seconds, two-fifth of a second faster than it took Twenty Grand in posting the fastest previous time in the 66 years of Derby history.

Far down the track and out of the money as he came bouncing home all by himself were the "big horses" of this race — Charley (Lucky) Howard's California-owned Porter's Cap and Royce Martin's Our Boots, the colts which they said would leave Whirlaway in the dust when he committed his usual racing "sin" of running wide at the last turn. But the little standard-bearer of Warren Wright just pointed his tail out in back like a rudder and ran as true as an arrow to give Chicago its second straight Derby victory and win by as wide a margin as any horse ever has taken this run for the roses.

Only Johnston in 1939 and Old Rosebud in 1914 ever made such a show of their field. It was as if the Derby was run in two sections, and the only contest in the race found the rank outsider in the field, Hugh Nesbitt's Staretor, driving to a neck decision over another

Crystal Ball Gives Negro Seer Trouble

RICHMOND, Va.—(AP)—If "Master X," Negro seer, had glanced into his own crystal ball he could have foreseen some trouble for himself.

He left his crystal ball in his parked car, the sun rays focused through the glass into a burning spot of light—and set his car afire.

Pilots For British

TULSA, Okla.—(AP)—The World said Saturday night it had learned from a reliable source that the Spartan School of Aeronautics soon will start "mass production of pilots for Britain's Royal Air Force."

Snake Found Beside Laredo Man It Bit, Killed Last Friday

LAREDO —(AP)— A deadly coral snake was found Saturday coiled on a pillow beside the head of a man it killed.

Justice of the Peace L. Villegas said Francis M. Burch, 59-year-old crippled farmer who lived alone, was bitten in the side, apparently Friday night.

Villegas said a boy delivering goods to the farmhouse found the body and killed the reptile with a rifle.

Electricity On Wheels

Mobile Power Unit Due In Valley

MERCEDES—Managers of District 7 of the Texas Power Reserve Electric Cooperative in a meeting at Mercedes Saturday authorized the purchase of a mobile electric generating unit to be available to any section of this district in case of emergency.

This power plant on wheels, purchased mainly in line with the national defense movement, is sufficient to take care of any substation area in case the sub-station should be out of commission.

Most of Saturday's meeting was devoted to the discussion of operating problems. The meeting ended with an entertainment at Reynosa, Mexico, Saturday night with J. E. Wilder, manager of the Magic Valley Electric Cooperative Inc., of Mercedes, as host.

Other electric cooperative managers of this area who attended this meeting were Charles Beck of Cuero, Charles C. Fagg of Victoria, R. H. Hoffman of Karnes City, L. B. Walker of El Campo, M. S. Baker of Robstown, Robert L. Priest of Sinton. Leslie Roenigk representing the national REA applications and loan division, Washington, D. C., and Tom Shults of Cuero, an REA director of Dewitt county, also attended the meeting.

Vichy Says 26 U. S. Ships, Packed With Arms, Convoyed To Suez Canal

Vessels 'Packed To Funnels' And Accompanied By American Warships, Is Reported

By The Associated Press

VICHY, France — Diplomatic informants who usually are reliable said Saturday night they had circumstantial reports that 26 American merchant ships, stacked to the funnels with war materiel for the British middle-eastern armies and accompanied by American warships, had reached the Suez Canal.

The word used by the informants to describe the reported presence of United States naval vessels was that they were "convoying" the merchant ships.

In Washington, the Navy Department stated immediately upon receipt of the report: "No United States Navy ships are employed in convoy duty."

Maritime sources however said it was quite possible that the merchant ships reported at Suez had left United tSates shores with 75 mm. cannon and other materiel intended for Greece and Yugoslavia, and while it had been understood that these vessels were mainly Yugoslav and Greek freighters, some informed sources suggested that American vessels also might have headed for Suez via the Cape of Good Hope.

The report that the ships had arrived created a great stir in Vichy, where United States willingness as well as ability to convoy aid to Britain has been considered doubtful.

However, the fact that President Roosevelt recently suspended the neutrality ban on American ships entering the Red Sea and proceeding to Suez had been considered the forerunner of just such a move as reported Saturday.

In Cairo Friday British sources said that new equipment arriving in the Middle East, much of it American-made, is offsetting the British materiel losses in Greece.

LINDY AGAIN WARNS U.S. TO AVOID EUROPE

America Not Ready Says Flier

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh declared Saturday night America was not prepared to wage war abroad successfully but pleaded that we must and can defend our own nation.

He stressed particularly, in a speech prepared for an America First Committee rally, what he said was our inadequacy in the air.

He said that no matter how many planes we built and sent to England, we could not make the British Isles stronger than Germany in military aviation.

"Performance Inadequate"

"Not only is the performance of some of our vital types of service aircraft inadequate, but our total air force in the United States today, including both army and navy, both modern and obsolescent types, is not more than Germany can produce in a few weeks," he said. "It is a small fraction of her present airforce To enter a European war today with our air force would be almost as great a folly as that committed by France when she declared war on Germany n 1939"

It was Lindbergh's first speech since he resigned hi colonel's commission in the air corps reserve last Monday. The resignation followed President Roosevelt's press conference statement grouping Lindbergh with appeasers of the Revolutionary War and the copperheads of the Civil War.

Explains Resignation

Lindbergh referred to this early in his talk. He said:

"I resigned because I felt that the statements of the president left me no honorble alternative. This situation arose because I, together with millions of Americans, believe that our country should not enter the war in Europe while the president, and many with him, believe we should take part in that war."

"This is the third great nation that I have watched being led into war without adequate preparation and without the true facts and issues of the war being placed before the people," he continued.

"In England, in France and now in my own country, I have listened to politicians and idealists calling upon the people for war with hardly a thought of how that war is to be fought or won.

"I have seen France fall; I see England falling, and now I see America being led into the same morass.

"America Not Prepared"

I knew, in 1939, that England and France were not prepared to wage war successfully and I know that America is not prepared today

Legislators Here

12 To Attend Event In Valley Sunday

McALLEN—A party of 12 members of the Texas legislature and their guests arrived by plane in the Valley Saturday to attend the Sunday afternoon dedication of the new U. S. federal office building at Hidalgo.

The delegation included Speaker and Mrs. Homer L. Leonard of McAllen, Senator and Mrs. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg, Representative and Mrs. Hop Halsey of Lubbock, Representative and Mrs. Clinton Kersey of Bridgeport, Representative Obel McAlister of Fort Worth, Representative Emmett Morse of Houston and Bess Dunlavy and Martha Bradford of Austin, Speaker Leonard's secretaries

The group was met at the Brownsville airport by Sam Miller and Vannie Cook of McAllen, who brought 10 of the group here. Mr and Mrs. Kelley went on to Mifflin switch in Kenedy county to attend the annual meeting of the Aggie club of Texas A. and I. College.

Serbs Block Danube To Halt Nazi Oil Shipping

Rumanian Shipments May Be Delayed For At Least Three Months, Yugoslav Premier Claims

SOMEWHERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST—(AP)—General Dusan Simovic, premier of the refugee Yugoslav government, declared Saturday his troops had so effectively blocked the Danube River that it would be at least three months before the Germans could move any Rumanian oil into the Reich by barge.

Simovic said barges full of concrete had been scuttled in the Iron Gate, the gorge-like passage on the Yugoslav-Rumanian border and that by the most conservative estimates it would take three months to clear a channel.

The German radio reported only Friday that the Danube had been cleared for traffic despite the Yugoslav sinking of barges and dynamiting of bridges wherever possible.

Simovic and members of his government said that once Yugoslavia was occupied, the Germans began forcing mass migrations of Serbs in an effort to change the racial character of the region.

Telling of Serbs being forced to march many miles from home without food or water, one cabinet minister declared:

"This is the fate of a people which stood for its rights and fought valiantly for its freedom."

The government leaders said they had no authentic word from Croatia and Slovenia but were convinced the whole population would not accept the Nazi-fostered Croatian regime.

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

Nazis Concentrate In Middle East

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF

BERLIN —(AP)— An important turning point in the war appeared almost at hand Saturday as Berlin concentrated its attention on the swiftly moving events in the Middle East.

The possibility of some declaration of policy was discussed in informed quarters, and the words "new phase" was being heard as events speeded up in the Eastern Mediterranean and Asia Minor.

War's Phases

To date Germans have divided the war into sharply distinct phases: Poland, Norway, France, the Balkans.

Germans asked one another: Will a similarly distinct campaign be the Reich's next move?

Authorized spokesmen were noncommunicative save for such observations as "the war doesn't stand still" of "coming events cast their shadows before them."

But Germany's intense interest in the Near East was obvious and the cheering for Iraq, now fighting the British Imperial forces, swelled as new reports told of expanding operations there.

'British Encroachment'

The first semi-official comment, in the commentary service Deutsche Diplomatisch Politische Korrespondenz, said:

"Wherever a sense of honor still exists the greatest attention and recognition must be paid to the courageous stand of Iraq toward the

Duel Ends In Death For Missouri Youth

JOPLIN, Mo.—(AP)—A make-believe fencing "duel" between two schoolboy playmates with real foils resulted in tragedy Saturday night when one of the long steel blades pierced the right eye and penetrated the brain of one of the lads, killing him almost instantly.

Houston Man Killed

TUCSON, Ariz.—(AP)—Gene Finley, 23, of Houston, Tex., was killed Saturday when 14 freight cars derailed 30 miles southeast of here. Finley, riding on flat car loaded with heavy timber, was crushed.

FCC APPROVES RADIO CHANGE

NBC Must Dispose Of One Network Now

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Federal Communications Commission approved Saturday, by a 5 to 2 vote, regulations which it said were intended to increase the number of radio networks and give individual stations "wider latitude" in their dealings with the networks.

The new regulations, among other things, will:

Make it necessary for the National Broadcasting Company to dispose of one of its two networks, known as the Red and Blue; prohibit, unless it can be shown that public interest requires otherwise, the licensing of two stations in the same area to one network; sharply regulate the affiliation contracts between networks and stations.

No Challenge Seen

There was an immediate indication that the industry might challenge the regulations in the courts.

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, said in a statement that the order "constitutes usurpation of power which has no justification in law and menaces the freedom of the American system of broadcasting." He called a meeting of the executive committee of the association at New York on Wednesday and quoted from a recent resolution of the association's directorate which said:

"The philosophy of American broadcasting as expressed in decisions of the supreme court of the United States and the applicable statutes envisages control of programs, of business management and of policy in the broadcaster and not subject to the supervisory control of the government."

Four commissioners joined with Chairman James L. Fly in voting to promulgate the regulations, making the vote 5 to 2. Those voting with Fly were Paul A. Walker, George Henry Payne, Frederick I. Thompson and Ray C. Wakefield.

Regulations regarding existing contracts will not become effective for 90 days. Other regulations are effective immediately.

Tiny Red Ant Stops Fast Freight Train

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—A tiny red ant—the kind that climbs into your potato salad at picnics—halted a 67-car fast freight for 20 minutes Saturday.

Electricians found the insect between the contact points of an automatic switch that refused to function.

Cemetery Complex Costs Car Speeder

CLEVELAND— (AP) —David Newman, 36, arrested as he passed a cemetery at 44 miles an hour, explained: "I just have a fear of cemeteries. I like to get past them in a hurry. It's sort of a complex."

Judge William J. McDermott ruled it would cost Newman $5 for exercising that complex.

GOLDSBORO, N. C.—(AP)—Miss Siddie Outlaw, 91, checked up two firsts. Wearing a 30-year-old taffeta bonnet, she came to town from her farm home to see her first movie. Then she had her first manicure at a beauty parlor.

REP. JOHNSON RAPS STRIKES IN 1ST TALK

Senatorial Campaign In Full Swing

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

SAN MARCOS, Tex.—(AP)—Opening his campaign for U. S. Senator, New Deal Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson in a grim speech Saturday night questioned the right of labor or capital to strike in "this danger time" when the job of all is to save America.

The 32-year-old Congressman from central Texas who announced for Senator after a conference with President Roosevelt declared 'the government itself must prevent both capital and labor from taking advantage of the national need."

Roosevelt's Friend

Johnson has been a close friend of Mr. Roosevelt since his election to the House of Representatives in 1937 to succeed the Late Congressman James P. Buchanan of Brenham. In 1938 and 1940 he was returned to Congress without opposition.

"The time has come to say: strikes must cease!" Johnson asserted, "and saying it, to mean also shut-downs of coal mines, manufacturers who will not make bombers for Britain, and every form of monkey-wrenching defense.

'Anything less spells France. Anything less spells death for England.

"The issue is: no strikes in this danger time! There can be but one answer. Roosevelt, your leader in peace and war, or Henry Ford and the hundreds of little Fords who want to tell their government what to make, for whom, at how much

Man Missing

McAllen Man Last Seen Week Ago

EDINBURG — A McAllen truck driver who has been missing since last Sunday still has not been located, the sheriff's office disclosed Saturday.

The man s Ralph Erwin, employed by Bob Finch of McAllen as a coffee truck driver. About 25 years of age, he was last seen at about 3 a. m. April 27 at the McAllen residence at which he stayed. He is about five feet, eight inches in height, has curly black hair, and has an affection in one eye. He was wearing striped overalls and cowboy boots when last seen.

So far as is known Erwin has no relatives. Finch told officers he was at a loss to explain why Erwin should be absent for such a time.

OIL FIELDS PROTECTED BY RAF BOMBERS

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

BERLIN— (Sunday) —(AP)—The Reichstag is to meet at 6 p.m. today (10 a.m. CST) to "receive a declaration of the Reichs government."

An official announcement said "The German Reichstag will assemble at 6 p.m. tonight. On the day's agenda: a declaration of the Reichs government. The session will be broadcast over all German stations."

By The Associated Press

LONDON (Sunday) — British troops battling to preserve the empire's vast oil fields in the Middle East drove off Iraq forces attacking in the Basra area at the head of the Persian Gulf, it was learned in London early today.

RAF bombers and artillery were thrown into action against the Iraqi troops in this, the second battle area to develop in the suddenly flaring war in Iraq.

The British acknowledged last night that planes and men had been lost in a two-day battle at Habmaniyah airdrome.

Reinforcements Landed

Two contingents of reinforcements have been landed in recent days at Basra to help meet the threat to the precious flow of oil to the British Mediterranean fleet.

British quarters here branded as untrue German reports that Indian Colonials had surrendered to the Iraqi forces.

The official statement, admitting that "a number of our aircraft have been destroyed on the ground and some casualties have been sustained," said, however, that the RAF had paid the Iraqis back by blasting some of their guns into silence.

The battle continued Saturday night—but, authoritative sources asserted, the oil which alone makes Iraq a prize worth fighting for still flows by pipeline to the Mediterranean. Britain blames agents of oil-hungry Germany for provoking the two-day-old conflict.

The Iraq government, anti-British since a coup d'etat placed Raschid Ali Al Gailani in power as premier April 4, claimed destruction of 26 British planes at Habbaniyah, the RAF base 60 miles west of Baghdad; and said the British had lost mechanized units in a vain attack on Rutbah (Rusba) fort and airdrome, 250 miles west of Baghdad. The ministry of information said the Rutbah story was untrue, but acknowledged destruction of Habbaniyah planes, mostly trainers

A formal British communique said Habbaniyah was entirely surrounded by Iraq troops entrenched in the high ground overlooking the field and that since early Friday the un-

HOLDER QUITS WILLACY POST

Rikard Gets Tax Job In Water District

RAYMONDVILLE — John F. Holder, for nine years tax assessor-collector for the Willacy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, resigned his post Friday at request of the board of directors, he announced here Saturday. The resignation and request were confirmed Saturday night by Albert Hughes, board president.

Reid Rikard, former president of the district board, and long a power in district politics, was appointed in Holder's place, Hughes said Saturday night. Holder's resignation was effective as of close of business Saturday night; and Rikard will take over Monday.

The request and resignation came Friday afternoon, Holder said, when he was called into a special meeting of the board. No explanation nor reason for the request was given, although he requested one, Holder said. Hughes Saturday night said reason for the request for Holder's resignation was no particular secret, but that he did not want to discuss the matter over the telephone. He added that he hoped the matter would not be given continuous publicity, feeling that affairs of the district had had enough publicity in the past.

The resignation of Holder came as no surprise; since persistent rumors last summer and early last fall indicated likelihood of an eventual attempt to replace him and perhaps other employes of the district. Holder indicated Saturday that he might make a statement later.

VALLEY CAMP EVENT DRAWS 500 SCOUTS

Rain Hampers Annual McAllen Outing

McALLEN—More than 500 Boy Scouts and their leaders were back at home Sunday after cutting their two-day McAllen camporee in half because of rain.

Represented at the Cascade camping ground were 65 patrols from all of the Valley council's eight districts. Boys from almost every town in the section registered before stormy weather caused cancellation of the Kiwanis-sponsored camporee.

Rain Friday night dampened most of the campers who had gathered at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon to begin the meeting, but Camp Doctor Alfred Osborn pronounced the boys fit Saturday morning except for a few minor colds and noted the fact that spirits of the boys were the only things not dampened.

Adverse weather caused calling off of all contests scheduled Saturday morning, and boys hauled down their tents to prepare for the homeward journey after cooking breakfast. Leaders graded them only on the quality of their camp and the food they prepared.

Judging the boys on camping and cooking, 38 patrols from 23 troops were given the highest rating, standard. ther ratings with the highest listed first are Starr, Triangle and Participating. More than 30 other patrols won one of the three lower ratings.

Patrols rated Standard are: Weslaco Troop 41, Eagle; Troop 35, Bear, B. P. and Beaver; McAllen Troop 75, Wolf and Eagle, Troop 13, Flying Eagle and Indian, Troop 63 Tiger, Troop 12, Eagle; Raymondville Troop 27, Flaming Arrow; San Benito Troop 26, Beaver; Brownsville Troop 3 Fox, Troop 31 Lion, Troop 29 Rattle Snake, Flying Eagle and Black Beaver.

Donna Troop 4 Mohican, Troop 2 Rattlesnake and Hawk; Elsa-Edcouch Troop 8 Eagle, Bob White and Whiporwill; Mission Troop 18 Mohawk, Troop 22 Coon, Lone Star and Longhorn, Troop 20 Eagle and Bob White; Sharyland Troop 55 Blazing Arrow, Flying Eagle, Black Cat and Covered Wagon; Edinburg Troop 1 Beaver, Troop 45 Eagle, Troop 7 Lion; Harlingen Troop 21 Flying Eagle; Pharr Troop 24 Wolf.

To Stress Skills

In the Friday night campfire ceremony the boys repledged themselves to the Scout motto, "Be Prepared." They followed that ceremony by expressing their desire to cooperate in strengthening America through practicing their scouting skills.

Scout Leader A. H. Dreyer, Mercedes resident and Valley Scout executive, outlined the part scouting will be called to play in the defense program. He presented a resume of the part Scouts played in the World War and discussed the emergency service organization which will be perfected during May.

Scouts, he said, will begin Monday to distribute posters throughout the Valley on the defense bond campaign after a request for cooperation from President Roosevelt. Scouts will list places where posters are placed and reports on their activity will be sent to Washington May 10. Leaders were given the posters Friday night for distribution to Scouts.

John Boeye, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee on the camporee, was loud in his praise for the cooperation and leadership of the boys. His committee was assisted by the army, Lions Club, Rotary Club, border patrol, highway patrol and Sea Scouts. Thanks for the use of the Cascade camping grounds were expressed to M. R. Nelson, owner.

Ratings were announced late Saturday by Moody after the camps had been inspected and graded by heads of the camporee. The ratings were made against the standard rating plan and officials said results proved that even under the adverse weather conditions, "The Boy Scouts can take it."

newest encroachment of the British Empire." It charged Britain with "flagrant disregard of treaty and apparent provocative intention" in sending new contingents of troops into Iraq while units originally landed still were present in the country.

Irak, said Korrespondenz, now "knows the value of the British promise to Arab peoples. Britain . . . now is obtaining a receipt from a small but brave people for its presumptuous attempts to force its mastery on the whole world."

For the moment, however, Germany was doing, apparently, no more than expressing deep sympathy for Iraq. Officials would not discuss reports that the Iraq government had asked Berlin for help, nor would they indicate whether there was any prospect of such aid.

Attention again was engaged by the war on English commerce.

The high command's report that submarines, planes and surface craft sank ships totalling 1,211,000 tons in April gave some conception of the intensity of this campaign.

Informed German sources estimated British shipping losses since the beginning of the war at close to 11,000,000 tons and added: "With the exception of the United States, there is no country which can relieve Britain's need for shipping space."

Canada Hastens Airport Chain

Construction work on Pacific coast air bases is being advanced swiftly by Canada as it faces the uncertainties of war. The Canadian government has announced that it would spend $9,000,000 on the project, beginnisg with a base at Edmonton, Alberta, and extending to White Horse in the Yukon. Dots show how bases projected and already completed would form a chain from border to border. Presumably the bases would be available to U. S. planes.

Move To Oust Reynolds As Commitee Head Abandoned

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Administration supporters were reported Saturday to have abandoned—largely because of Republican opposition—an attempt to keep the chairmanship of the important Senate military affairs committee from Senator Reynolds (D-NC.)

Reynolds, senior Democratic member of the committee in point of service, has been in line for the chairmanship since the recent death of Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.)

By Senate tradition, a committee chairmanship goes to the senior member of the majority party. In the case of Reynolds, there were many protests against his advancement in view of his criticism of the administration's program of aiding Britain.

Some administration men attempted to lay the groundwork for a move within the Democratic steering committee, which recommends committee assignments, to pass over Reynolds and place Senator Thomas (D-Utah) in the chairmanship.

While some believed the steering committee might be persuaded to go against precedent and side-track Reynolds, the North Carolina Senator made it known that he would appeal any such decision to the Senate.

A quiet check of the Senate was said to show that practically all of the 28 Republicans would vote to uphold the traditional custom.

Reynolds Supported

In addition, the canvass indicated Reynolds would have the support of several Democrats who entertain views similar to his about the British aid program, and of some Democrats of opposite views who still were firmly against depriving any member of a chairmanship when he was entitled to it by seniority.

For this reason, Reynolds' opponents were said to have concluded that the wisest thing to do was to let matters take their course in the steering committee.

sumed on the Fort Worth and Denver highway where three washouts were reported in northwest Texas.

Red Rampages

The Red River washed across U.S. Highway 283 in Oklahoma disrupting interstate traffic and cutting deep holes in the roadbed.

The north fork of the Red in Oklahoma was rising one foot per hour. The river was a mile wide west of Terrel bridge.

At Union, Okla., the Canadian River was falling.

A bridge between Crowell and Benjamin was washed out.

At Camp Hulen on the Texas coast a heavy wind lashed the camp theater into a welter of muddy canvas and smashed equipment. Torrential rains accompanied the twister.

The rain belt extended roughly over all west Texas from the Panhandle to the gulf and western Oklahoma. Some showers fell in East Texas, and heavy rains fell in some central and north central points. Showers were forecast for East Texas Sunday.

Wichita Falls reported clearing skies in that area after the torrential rains sent the Pease River on a 12-foot rise.

Benefit And Damage

There were both benefits and damages from the precipitation. It was regarded as helpful for pasturage and cotton, but prospect of wheat rust was regarded at Wichita Falls as a serious threat to a bumper grain crop. Bright sunshine and dry night would alleviate this situation, crop authorities said.

Farm damage, if any, was regarded as negligible in the Lubbock area, regarded as typical of the south plains.

Typical reports were: Alice 2:34, Carrizo Springs 1.30, Falfurrias 2, Hondo 1.17, Uvalde 1.28, Corpus Christi 2.48.

In west Texas: Ballinger 1.90, Big Spring 1.86, Brownwood 1.80, Dublin 1.12, Eastland 2.40, Haskell 3.25, Kerrville 1.31, Lampasas 1.12, San Angelo 1.63, Abilene 2.14, Brady 1.37.

SP Engine Explodes; Four Train Men Die

SALINAS, Calif.—(AP)—A huge mountain locomotive pulling a 94-car Southern Pacific freight train exploded with a deafening blast Saturday ,killing four trainsmen and hurling jagged smoking steel in all directions.

Twenty boxcars and oil tank cars piled up like toys along the right-of-way. Wreckage of the powerful engine rolled 250 feet down the track after the blast and remained right side up. The explosion occurred six miles north of Salinas.

Nazi Plane Downed

LONDON—(AP)—A German plane was shot down off the Kent coast Saturday afternoon, the air ministry announced Saturday night in reporting some air activity near the southeast and southwest coasts of England.

AUTO MAKERS ARE RATIONED

Million Less Cars Due For Next Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Automobile manufacturers were advised by the office of Production Management Saturday that they could make 4,224,152 vehicles in the model year beginning August 1.

Individual allotments were assigned to each company, but officials said that the figures would not be disclosed by firms.

It was learned, however, that General Motors Corporation, Chrysler and the Ford Motor Company were reduced 21 1-2 per cent below their production this year.

Total output of the automobile industry this year was estimated at 5,289,974 cars and the overall reduction will amount to 1,057,994 or 10.15 per cent.

Californians Gain Even From Tremors

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Publicity-conscious southern California has turned even its earthqcakes to advantage.

Prof. John P. Buwalda, geologist at the California Institute of Technology, reports earthquakes were largely responsible for this section's mild climate. Among other things, they created the Gulf of California and the Salton Sea.

Finns Seem To Like The Idea Of Taxes

HELSINKI — (AP) — The Finnish government, in need of immediate cash and seeking to speed payment of property taxes, hit upon the idea of interest-bearing certificates.

The citizen could buy a certificate to the amount of his taxes, in advance, and receive six per cent interest on the money for the period between the purchase and the date the taxes were due.

The scheme was so successful that certificates are being sold now as desirable investments.

British Duel Nazi Raiders; 8 Downed

LONDON (Sunday) —(AP)— Britain's night fighters shot down six German bombers Saturday night and early today in the first hours of a terrific duel with strong forces of Nazi raiders.

Liverpool—for the third straight night—appeared the main target. Bombers rained down explosives there without the usual preliminary tactics.

4-H Meeting Tents To House Migrants

IRAQ FORCES ARE ROUTED

fortified cantonment had been blasted by tons of artillery shells.

Some of the guns were smashed by British bombers, but the shelling at point-blank range continues, and the Iraqi air force has tried to raid the airdrome, the British officials stated.

"As regards Iraqui claims to have occupied oil wells and all airdromes of the country," said the ministry of information, "it should be pointed out that these have always been in Iraqi hands with the single exception of Shaiba airdrome near Basra, where so far as is known no hostile action has been attempted."

Authoritative British sources said they were unable to reconcile this declaration with the fact that before the war the RAF was known to have operated several airdromes in Iraq and that this number presumably had been increased rather than decreased.

Nazi Stories Sensational

The German radio kept up a running command of sensational declarations concerning the Iraq struggle even while German officialdom professed relative disinterest.

Overheard in London, these broadcasts included assertions that British planes tried to raid the Baghdad residence of the premier;

That one British plane was shot down in two RAF raids on Iraq troop concentrations at Baghdad's Camp Rashid;

That the Iraq army had taken over all oil wells, pipelines, pump stations and fisheries;

That there was an artillery duel in "the southern area; and that Iraq artillery had set off big oil fires and ammunition explosions at "Cineldebane" airport. (This apparently was a garbled version of Dhibban, the settlement on Lake Habbaniyah near the British air base.)

Britain Worried

While Britain eyed the situation with undisguised concern, a British authority said the oil pipeline still was operating and that in any event the fleet had stored up "numerous and adequate" fuel reserves in the Mediterranean.

On the heels of a German broadcast that Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, British ambassador to Baghdad, had been chased into the embassy by a mob which objected to his distributing propaganda leaflets, Sir Kinahan informed london:

"All is quiet in Baghdad."

A similar report came from Basra, the Persian Gulf seaport which the German radio said that the British had "attacked"

Premier In Charge

(German radio reports heard in New York by CBS said the Iraq premier had personally taken charge of his troops and that the Iraq disturbance "may well grow into a major test between British imperialism and the entire Arab world"

(This was followed by German broadcasts that Egyptian students in Cairo demonstrated against the British and clashed with British soldiers, and that British Indian troops were going over to the Iraq side)

Informed Britons blamed the Germans entirely for the Middle East explosion and speculated that the Nazis were trying to cause discord in neighboring Syria, Palestine, Transjordan, Saudi Arabi and Iran.

The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, long a thorn in the British side, has received help "handsomely and heavily" from Berlin, British sources said, so a new anti-Jewish outbreak by the Palestine Arabs would be no surprise. (Dispatches from Beirut to Vichy, France, said some blood already had been spilled in Palestine and some Jewish leaders kidnapped by Arabs.)

Moslem War Expected

German agents long have been striving to shatter British and French influence by fomenting nationaist movements and encouraging a vague "Pan-Moslem" idea in the Middle East, the British said.

The future of troublous French Syria was designated a major question.

A Saturday meeting of the French cabinet in Vichy was cancelled suddenly when Vice Premier Jean Darlan left for Paris. The Middle East situation caused his trip, Vichy diplomatic circles said.

From French circles expressed belief thta in response to the Iraq premier's plea for German aid, the Nazis might send troops by transport plane or go through Turkey. They hoped Hitler would not decide to go through Syria, though that posisbility obviously was uppermost in their minds.

Laval Sees Abetz

Pierre Laval, chief French advocate of full co-operation with Germany, conferred lengthily in Paris with Hitler's representative, Otto Abetz.

The French expressed belief that the Germans had made a deal promising the anti-British Iraqi leadership in a new all-Arab state.

At the same time, the French were nervously on the lookout for movement of German troops toward Spain for a possible attack on Gibraltar.

She Looks Sweet, She Sings Sweet, But Is She Another Deanna Durbin?

By ROBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Even with a sweet voice, it takes time for a youngster to become an over-night sensation, and Kathryn Grayson, latest entry in the movie singing lists, is no exception to the rule that has held for her quartet of rivals.

Miss Grayson, recently turned 19, joined a field of 'teen-age coloraturas that includes Deanna Durbin, Gloria Jean, Susanna Foster and Edith Fellows. The new singing actress, after a year and a half under contract and "under wraps," makes a pleasant debut in the new Hardy film, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary."

Her Ambition—Opera

She's a shy miss, still a little terified by pictures, and still clinging to her early ambition for grand opera. She hasn't seen her first picture yet—only parts of it—and is trying, she says, to work up courage to see it all.

It takes no audience courage to see and hear Kathryn, however. She has a pert freshness and youthful prettiness further enhanced by the effortless ease with which she sails through arias or popular songs.

Kathryn (real name Zelma Hedrick, of Winston-Salem, N. C.) came to Los Angeles from St. Louis when her father, a real estate man and building contractor, came here to set up business with a former partner. She was continuing her voice lessons, with no thought of movies, when her talents were brought to studio attention and she was persuaded to sign a contract.

KATHRYN GRAYSON

"I had thought pictures would mean stopping my studies," she says, "but they assured me I could go on. And I've found I study harder at the studio than I did before."

For a year and a half, Kathryn has had a regular schedule of study under chosen tutors—a full eight-hour day which keeps her watching the minutes between classes.

Mickey Is "A Darling"

She was cast for her first film only when studio bosses deemed her ready. Kathryn herself wasn't so sure.

"I had flu all during the picture," she says, "and I didn't want to start off in such fast company. I'd heard that Mickey Rooney was a scene-stealer, and then there were all the others, such grand actors with so much experience. But Mickey was a darling—he helped me so much."

profit, or John L. Lewis and the hundreds of little Lewises seeking things now at the price of production.

"Depend On Leader"

"The President will not let you down . . . depend on the great heart of your leader, not on the hearts of men who say they lead you rightly, when they order you to lay down the very tools liberty must use to save itself."

Johnson, a member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, said "Britain is mighty wobbly" because it started late, "dawdled, appeased, waited for something to turn up."

"We have adopted the policy England must not fall," he declared. "But it can't continue without arms and planes or resist forever the great dictator who will start after us the day he shakes that island lose."

Energetic, forceful, the young congressman said he was seeking election to the Senate "knowing there is a chance I may be your war Senator."

But he made this promise:

"If the day ever comes when my vote must be cast to send your boy to the trenches, that day Lyndon Johnson will leave his Senate seat to go with him."

Touching on his experience in national affairs, he declared no other man in the Senate race "has that training and no other man can have it now. The time to train the firemen is before the fire breaks out."

Johnson said it was ridiculous to discount warnings that Germany may use bases in Africa and the Azores as springboards for an attack on the United States and South America.

"Modern bombers can hop from the Azores to New York, from Africa to Brazil, in a few hours," he said. 'Don't forget they ferry bombers to England over night).

TEXAS SENATE RACE IN FULL SWING NOW

By The Associated Press

Representative Lyndon Johnson's opening speech in his campaign for U. S. Senator, in which he urged unity behind President Roosevelt and questioned the right of labor to strike in time of danger, highlighted the race this week.

With Attorney General Gerald C. Mann mixing hand shakes with platform appearances, and Representative Martin Dies bearing down on defense and Fifth Column activities, the campaign was gradually picking up speed.

O'Daniel Is Question

Still a question mark was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's decision on whether to run. This was somewhat complicated by a series of north Texas appearances by his friend, Hal Collins of Mineral Wells, publicly asking for a 'go-ahead" sign from the voters. Collins, with an entourage of entertainers smacking of O'Daniel campaign tactics, drew good crowds in several cities last week.

Also undecided was Representative Wright Patman of Texarkana who has been considering a jump into the crowded arena.

In addition to the well-known figures there are numerous lesser known political aspirants including bearded Cyclone Davis, Jr., of Dallas as "the voice of temperance," air-minded John C. Williams of Rockport, a former naval flyer, and others.

Pierce Brooks May Run

Pierce Brooks of Dallas announced Saturday he had received 'hundreds of letters" urging him to announce. Brooks, in past campaigns candidate for railroad commissioner and lieutenant governor, said he had not made up his mind.

Dies spoke Saturday at Paris and next week was moving to Bomham, Monday; Sherman, Tuesday; Gainesville, Wednesday; Wichita Falls, Thursday; Vernon, Friday; Plainview, Saturday. Hometown and county campaign forces were organized and plans made for a speakers bureau to aid in the campaign.

Mann pledged his support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy at a Waco rally Friday and spoke at Weatherford, Waxahachie and Glen Rose Saturday. He planned further appearances and handshaking tours next week, but his headquarters had no definite announcement.

Johnson's forces were also hard at work organizing a statewide campaign. His opening speech indicated he would make political capital of the Roosevelt friendship, expressed soon after his announcement in Washington that he would make the race to succeed the Late Morris Sheppard in the June 28 special election.

to wage a successful war in Europe."

Lindbergh, who started to national fame as an air mail flyer in St. Louis 15 years ago, told of his pre-war visits to England and the continent and the lack of air preparedness he found in the British Isles, France and Russia He told of the air strength of Germany and how he had informed the then Prime Minister Baldwin of England of that strength.

"The prime minister was very courteous but he changed the subject immediately," said Lindbergh. "Time and again, whenever the opportunity arose, I talked to members of the British government about military aviation in Europe. They were aways courteous, but seldom impressed."

"Why must our people be divided over this question of European war?" he asked.

"Defend Civilization"

"Here in America we are prepared to win a victory. Here, we can defend a civilization as great or greater than any the world has ever known. We have every geographical advantage for defense. We have unlimited natural resources. We have the most highly organized industry in the world.

"And we have another advantage in defending our country—the most important of all. It is unity of purpose. Every true American is ready to fight to preserve our nation. Everyone of us is ready to lay down his life if necessary for the defense of America On questions of American defense, our strength is multiplied by the unity among us It is only when we are told that our destiny lies in Europe, in Asia, in the Suez, in Singapore or in Dakar, that we divide"

ARMY DEFERS PRE-MEDICS

Move May Avert U. S Doctor Shortage

WASHINGTON—(AP)—To avert a possible national shortage of doctors, the selective service system Saturday ordered deferment of military training for medical students who "give reasonable promise of becoming acceptable medical doctors."

A memorandum from Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service deputy director, instructed state and local boards to continue such deferments as long as the students progressed satisfactorily.

Local boards were urged to make sure that requirements of the armed forces for physicians and surgeons were filled, without summoning to military duty practicing doctors whose services were necessary to the community.

Hershey cited a recent survey by the Office of Production Management estimating a present need of 9,000 medical officers for the army, navy, public health service and veterans administration. To fill that need would remove about 5 per cent of the doctors now engaged in civilian practice.

Doctors Say Flying May Have Cured Old Cough Of Invalid's

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — (AP) — The story is told here of a 12-year-old girl for whom doctors gave up hope because of a persistent, apparently incurable cough.

She could not sleep. Eating was difficult.

As a last resort, the story goes, an aviator loaded her into a plane, flew for an hour at 4,000 feet and brought her back cured.

Doctors are debating whether the cure was due to psychological reaction or to actual benefits from a higher elevation.

ALL DRAFTEES TO GET FORMS

Call Order Will Not Be Altered, Said

AUSTIN — (AP) — Questionnaires will be sent immediately to all selective service registrants although the procedure will not alter previously announced draft calls, State Selective Service Director J. Watt Page announced Saturday.

The order which was dispatched to all local draft boards was to expedite classification and cut down time between calls for new selectees and their actual induction, Page said.

With classification complete, draft boards can more readily select the men to be called for physical examinations as quotas are announced, it was explained.

Page also said an amendment to selective service regulations now permits a 10-day lapse between a call for induction and actual induction. Previously the time period was five days. Under the new regulations it can be delayed as much as 60 days within the judgment of a draft board .

Major Port Of Entry Foreseen For Valley

American Automobile Association To Open McAllen Office For Mexican Travel

McALLEN—Expansion of McAllen as a major international port of entry to Mexico, and an enormous increase in tourist traffic, was predicted by civic leaders here after E. S. C. Coppock, manager of the American Automobile Association activities in South Texas, announced to Chamber of Commerce officials that an official AAA office will be opened in McAllen about two weeks before the paving is completed on the Reynosa-Monterrey highway.

Coppock said AAA officials estimated that 5,500 cars of AAA members would be directed through McAllen the first 12 months after the new road is opened. These cars, he said, would carry an average of three persons each. Coppock said travelers to Mexico spent an estimated $350,000 in Laredo in the past year.

The travel official said McAllen was selected because of its advantages and their analysis presented by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

This AAA office will be in addition to the three-man Mexican consulate maintained in McAllen; one of the four largest free Mexican travel information bureaus in the U. S., operated by the McAllen chamber; and regular travel trips operated from McAllen to Monterrey and special trips to Mexico City.

Coppock pointed out that travel expenditures in the U. S. in 1940 amounted to over five billion dollars, the third biggest industry in America. He said the fact that Reynosa was actually west of McAllen as well as south, plus the accommodations at McAllen and the aggressiveness of the Chamber of Commerce would likely perpetually insure McAllen's leadership as a port of entry.

Consul Lauro Izaguirre said records of the Mexican Department of Immigration revealed that during 1940 McAllen ranked next to Laredo on the U. S.-Mexican border in importance as a port of entry to interior Mexico.

To supplement all of these facts, it was pointed out, is the Southern U. S.' finest customs station, to be opened Sunday at the north end of the Reynosa bridge; the new $100,000 suspension bridge, and the soon-to-be completed Reynosa-Monterrey Highway, now lacking only about 32 miles of being paved.

BUILDINGS TO BE RESTORED

2 In Brownsville On State Committee

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville citizens are members of a permanent committee for the preservation of historical buildings in Texas They are Mrs. Volney Taylor and Harbert Davenport. Mrs. J. M. Burris of Dallas heads the committee.

Davenport recently was re-elected president of the Texas State Historical Association.

Under the direction of Samuel E. Gideon, professor of architecture at the University of Texas, the committee is making a study of early Texas buildings and, the methods by which they may be restored and saved. Their findings will be reported at a meeting of the Texas State Historical Association in October.

Groundwork for the study has already been laid. Filed with the Library of Congress are blueprints and photographs of 270 historical Texas landmarks.

The shrines preserved on the national records range from Judge Roy Bean's "Hall of Justice" at Langtry to San Antonio's famed San Jose Mission.

Interpreting the War News

Despite Nazi Diversions In Other Areas, English Invasion May Be Due

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

ASSUMING THAT Hitler will waste no time in seeking to exploit his Balkan victories, conjecture as to where he will strike next against Britain runs a wide gamut.

There is little yet of a definite nature yet there is growing belief both in London and in Washington that England itself will bear the brunt of new Nazi blows—this despite Nazi-Fascist diversions in the Mediterranean and Middle East.

Such a conclusion is suggested by American moves to extend sea patrol protection far into the Atlantic and to supplement quickly tonnage available for British war uses. Both London and Washington are increasingly apprehensive that a decisive shipping crisis in the Atlantic might come soon, months earlier than heretofore anticipated.

Crisis Due In 1941

Prime Minister Churchill recently indicated to Parliament that he did not expect Britain's shipping problems to become critical before 1942.

There has been no official statements from London on shipping losses since mid-April. None is due before mid-May. However Berlin claims its air force, submarines and surface craft sank 1,211,000 tons of British merchant shipping space or space used by the British during April. Other sources tend to confirm some if not all German claims.

Rising uneasiness in London parliamentary circles over recent developments in the Atlantic is reported. It has induced a promise by Churchill lieutenants of an accounting, probably in connection with the government-demanded confidence vote test next week.

Churchill Safe?

Escape from Greece of a far larger part of the Imperial forces trapped there than could reasonably have been expected virtually assures an emphatic approval of Churchill's leadership. Cummulative bad news which may be coming on the shipping situation probably can be partially off-set, also, by reference to the American sea patrol and shipping pool measures.

Those American moves must have been dictated by Washington knowledge of actual or anticipated events not available to the public. It may be that this information led to the conclusion, that Nazi gestures eastward to the contrary, Hitler has signaled his forces to turn now on England for a death stroke.

There is a rising tempo to the Nazi attack on England by air and sea and a change in their pattern.

Of greater significance, however, is the British and American official view that it is only by smashing England that Hitler can win the war this year as he has promised, or any year.

Behind it lies the further indiciated conclusion in both capitals that if England can survive until winter, her ultimate victory with American resources to back her is assured.

Refugees Chased In Bay By Big Fire

MANILA—(AP)—Driving thousands of refugees before it into Manila Bay, a raging fire swept through three square miles of tenements in the thickly populated Tondo district of Manila Saturday. At least three persons were killed and 25,000 left homeless.

Authorities reported property damage exceeded $250,000. Three thousand homes were destroyed by flames which burned themselves out on the edge of the bay.

Firemen and troops fought the blaze for nine hours while other soldiers and police controlled an estimated 100,000 onlookers and relatives. The blaze was visible over the entire city.

Graham Hears Will Construction

BROWNSVILLE — Judge W. R. Blalock of Edinburg acted as special judge in 103rd district court here Saturday to assist Judge James S. Graham.

He heard argument on a motion to quash citation in the case of Ben D. W. Wood vs. the Texas Bitulithic Company, an action to try title.

The case of Carl S. Dunnington, executor for the estate of Dr. M. D. Lile, Oklahoma City, vs. Newton Smith, et al, for construction of a will was in progress Saturday before Judge James S. Graham.

Judgments were obtained by Cameron County Water Control and Improvement District No. 5 in 103rd district court Saturday against two defendants in four suits. In three of the actions the defendant was the Los Ebanos Estates, Inc., and the fourth was Mrs. G. P. Grace, et al.

Insurance companies suffered a loss of approximately $1,000,000 when thousands of turkeys, covered by policies, were killed in a blizzard sweeping the midwest last fall.

NEW HIDALGO BUILDING TO GO ON VIEW

Dedication Program Scheduled Sunday

McALLEN—What will probably be the most gala celebration since the opening of the new international bridge between Hidalgo and Reynosa will take place Sunday at 12:30 p. m. on the American side of the river near the same new bridge.

Formal dedication of the new U. S. customs building at the north end of the span is the occasion for the fete. Speeches by prominent U. S., Mexico and Texas officials, military band music, a gesture of international goodwill from the Pan American Round Table of McAllen and a barbecue for invited visitors summarizes the program.

Broadcast Arranged

The ceremonies will be broadcast over KRGV between 12:30 and 1 p. m. All Valley and Reynosa people are invited to attend the dedication and inspect the new structure, Harry Hornby, U. S. collector of customs, said, adding that it is the finest customs house on the United States-Mexican border.

The barbecue at 1 p. m. in honor of distinguished guests will be attended by those wearing badges mailed out recently by those in charge of the program.

The McAllen Pan American Round Table added a new angle to the program which will be in charge of McAllen Chamber of Commerce Manager Paul T. Vickers, when they obtained Bishop William Capers to pronounce a Pan American invocation to open the ceremonies. Mrs. W. W. Dees of McAllen, immediate past director general of the Texas Pan American Round Table, will offer the invocation, and in behalf of the local group, will present the governors of Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon with small gift packages containing products manufactured in McAllen.

Brief Talks Planned

This feature, together with the display of the Pan American flag, was arranged by Mrs. Dees, Mrs. W. H. Moon and Allen F. Vannoy.

The remainder of the program will be taken up by talks of two minutes each by Speaker of the House Homer L. Leonard, Senator Rogers Kelley, Silvino Guzman, customs chief at Reynosa; Harry Hornby, William Whalen, U. S. immigration chief of San Antonio; Immigration Chief Enrique Ochoa Urtiz of Reynosa, General Pedro Lopez Tafoy, Reynosa garrison; Sam L. Miller, president of the Valley Bridge Company which owns the customs house, and Manager Joe E. Pate of the Valley Bridge Company. Music will be furnished by a Mexican orchestra from the Reynosa garrison as a break between the speeches.

LULACS GO TO DALLAS MEET

2 McAllen Members Leave June 12

McALLEN—Two members of the McAllen council of the League of Latin American Citizens will attend the national convention to be held at Dallas June 12 to 14 as official delegates.

Named by the council meeting in special session Friday night were Dr. E. G. Garza and J. R. Alamia with Joe V. Alamia and Dan Ceballos as alternates.

It was reported that a caravan of McAllen cars would make the trip to Dallas. Among those planning to go are F. M. Guerra, Raul Guerra, Ben Hernandez, J. M. Chapa and Romeo Vela.

J. R. Alamia reported that the special committee sent to the state legislature by the district convention here last Sunday met success with its efforts to push the bill now pending in the legislature providing a penalty for discrimination against members of the Caucasian race.

Reports on committee working on the district convention were made.

War May Mean Top Prices For Apples

LORIENT, France— (AP) —An excellent harvest and the British blockade may enable Brittany apple growers to win back domestic markets usurped in normal times by California, Florida and Canada. The refrigeration imports, known as Canadian apples, are usually sold as dessert fruit in the winter months in France. Despite lack of transport, Breton growers hope to preserve their present abundant crop for sale the year round.

Border's Newest Customs House Dedicated Sunday

McALLEN—High state officials of Texas, Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon will attend the formal dedication Sunday noon of the newest and most modern United States customs house on the U. S.-Mexican border, according to Paul T. Vickers, manager of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce and master of ceremonies at the dedication exercises.

The $20,000 Spanish-type structure, just completed for use of United States inspection services at the Hidalgo-Reynosa port of entry by the Valley Bridge Co., operators of the new international suspension bridge there, is 125 feet long and 50 feet wide. Of stucco and brick construction, it replaced old frame buildings which had been in use since 1927.

Speaker Homer Leonard of the Texas House of Representatives and State Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg will represent Texas at the ceremonies, which will be broadcast over Station KRGV, Weslaco, at 12:30 p.m. U. S. Customs Collector Harry Hornby and U. S. Immigration Chief William Whalen, both of San Antonio, will represent their respective services.

It was not certain whether Gov. Bonifacio Salinas of Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, and Gov. Magdaleno Aguilar of Victoria, Tamps., would attend in person or whether they would send their representatives. Other federal officials of both the United States and Mexico were expected to be in attendance.—Photo by Brad Smith, McAllen.

ELSA LEADING VALLEY RACE

2720-Car Total Far Ahead Of Others

HARLINGEN—Elsa had almost a thousand car lead over its nearest competitor in the Valley fruit and vegetable shipping race as of April 30, it is shown by combining the monthly shipping reports of the Southern Pacific and Missouri Pacific railroads.

Elsa, on the S. P., had a total of 2,720 cars as of April 30 as compared to 1,844 cars moved by Mercedes, leading shipping point on the Missouri Pacific.

Pharr was third with 1,748, San Benito fourth with 1,682, and Edinburg fifth with 1,680.

Other shipping points with over a thousand cars out by rail this season include Brownsville 1,475, Weslaco 1,389, and McAllen 1,045.

Other shipping points had the following totals: Mission 990, Alamo 988, Engleman 866, Harlingen 780, Santa Rosa 662, Donna 648, La Feria 426, Barreda 379, Laureles 355, Bayview 320, Edcouch 312, Sharyland 272, Raymondville 247, Lozano 164, Houser 146, Los Fresnos 115, Val Verde 114, San Carlos 84, Lantana 75, Adams Gardens 69, Esoes 65, Rio Hondo 58, San Juan 58, Stuart Place 51, San Perlita 51, Combes 44, Lindsay Gardens 36, McColl 25, Primera 21, Acacia 9, La Paloma 7, Slinkerts 7, Lyford 3 Southmost 3, Gays Switch 1.

Altogether, the railroads had moved only 22,071 cars of fruits and vegetables, a decrease of 4,239 cars over the same date last season.

Area Symphony Will Present Concert

EDINBURG — The symphony orchestra of the Rio Grande Valley will give a concert of semi-popular music Tuesday at the Edinburg Junior College auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Staged under the sponsorship of the Edinburg Music club, the concert will be one of the features of the observance of national music week here.

Music for the concert has been planned to suit the tastes of a varied audience. There is no admission for the concert.

Wood-Burning Finns Lack Coal Deposits

HELSINKI— (AP) —Finns, lacking native coal and short of money with which to buy large quantities abroad, conducted a wood-chopping campaign whereby 100,000 men cut 17,000,000 cubic meters or enough, if laid end to end as cordwood, to stretch from Finland to New York City and back again.

Vacant lots, yards outside apartment houses, and storage space behind office buildings are piled high with the wood, which will be the chief fuel this winter.

FARM BUREAU MEET SLATED

Membership Drive To Be Lined Up

EDINBURG—Hidalgo county's 19 local chairmen in the drive to enroll 1,684 Hidalgo county members in a projected new county chapter of the Texas and American Farm Bureau federations will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the 93rd district courtroom here, County Judge J. C. Looney announced. Saturday Looney is county membership chairman.

He said no reports on the progress of the membership work had been received, but that these would be compiled at the Friday session.

All of the 19 chairmen in various county communities have accepted their appointments, Looney said. The work was started about three weeks ago following a meeting at McAllen.

Similar campaigns are under way in Cameron county, where Cleve Tandy is chairman, and in Willacy county.

Red Cross, Utility Company Make Mobile First Aid Units Available

EDINBURG—Three mobile first aid units are due to go into service in Hidalgo county early next week as a result of the cooperation of the Edinburg office of the Central Power and Light Company and the Red Cross, Miss Adele Speed, Red Cross executive secretary for Hidalgo county, said Saturday.

The trucks will be owned and operated by the company, equipped with first aid kits and driven by employes of the C. P. and L. who have been instructed in first aid work.

Employes who will operate the trucks are W. C. Jones, Edinburg, manager; Howard Langston, construction chief; and Jimmy Smith, assistant. Jones and Langston have qualified as first aid instructors under the Red Cross set-up and Smith is an advanced student.

According to Miss Speed the three trucks will be the first mobile first aid units in this section of the state. Up to this time such designations have been limited to companies furnishing at least six trucks for the purpose. Robert F. Eaton, director of first aid, water safety and accident prevention for the Midwestern area of the Red Cross, was so appreciative of the interest of the C. P. and L., Miss Speed said, that the mobile unit program was modified and companies with as few as three operating units may now be included in the program.

All trucks will be equipped with Red Cross markers and the wording "Emergency First Aid, American Red Cross." Drivers in charge will be supplied with arm insignia in cloth with a like wording.

Under Red Cross requirements a mobile emergency unit consists of one or more men attached to the truck in connection with their regular employment. The men attached must have been trained in first aid by the Red Cross and given permission by their employer to give aid to victims of highway accidents as they come upon them in the course of their regular driving.

The service is not a substitute for medical attention, Miss Speed said, but is merely volunteer work in giving intelligent assistance until medical attention can be secured.

MEXICO ARMY TO MANEUVER

Compulsory Training To Follow Soon?

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Mexico's army staged its greatest maneuvers in history Saturday to intensify military preparations.

Two divisions of 6,000 men converged on Puebla state, preparatory to large scale mock battles to be fought Sunday and early Monday.

Military officials said the maneuvers were necessary to lay the foundations for compulsory military training, already approved by Congress but not yet put into operation.

The Mexican army has 52,000 officers and men. In 1940 it had a budget of 96,000,000 pesos (about $19,000,000) and in 1941 it was increased to 210,000,000 pesos (about $22,000,000).

U. S. CAVALRY SET TO HOLD MAY 5 RITES

Fort Brown To Honor Mexico Holiday

BROWNSVILLE — Cinco de Mayo, anniversary of the Mexican victory over French forces at Puebla on May 5, 1862, will be celebrated on both sides of the Rio Grande this week-end with civilian and military populations of Matamoros and Brownsville taking part.

The 124th Cavalry Regiment stationed at Fort Brown will hold its first full-strength mounted review in history on Monday in honor of the occasion, according to Col. Calvin B. Garwood, commanding officer.

Guests Of Honor

Guests of honor will be General Arturo Alatorre y Blanco, commander of the Mexican garrison at Matamoros, Mexican Consul Carlos A. Calderon of Brownsville, Mexican Consul Lauro Izaguirre of McAllen and other Latin-American notables, post officials said.

The review will begin at 10 a.m. Monday. All units of the 124th Regiment will take part. Troopers will ride with full packs and all field equipment.

Hidalgo and Juarez societies of Brownsville are set to open a three-day kermesse on the vacant square to the west of the Cameron county jail at 6 p.m. Saturday here. Mexican foods will be featured, and a representative of the Mexican consulate will probably speak at the opening.

Flag Raising Monday

Flag raising ceremonies at 6 a.m. Monday will feature the start of the celebration in Matamoros.

At 10 o'clock the grand parade will be held. Civil and military authorities will participate. Also students, teachers and labor unions.

At noon salvos will be fired, honoring the Cinco de Mayo heroes.

Special Program

A special program will start at 4:30 p.m. in front of the Matamoros City Hall. The official report will be read by the city secretary. Featured speakers will be Dr. Roberto Munoz Mireles. Musical numbers and declamations are also included in the program.

Special flag ceremonies will be held at 6 p.m.

Athletic Tests Slated

Music by the Matomoros municipal band will be featured at the Main Plaza from 8 to 10 p.m.

Athletic contests pitting civilians against soldiers will be held all day Monday at Mexican control station C1-K9 near Matamoros, beginning with a double-header softball game at 9:30 a.m.

Almacen SCOP will oppose Soliceno in the first game, and the second game will pit control station C1-K9 players against Aduana.

At 4 p.m., soldiers of the Matamoros garrison will oppose workers of the government control projects in tug-of-war, foot races, and other contests. Mexican cavalry troops of the 24th Regiment will also give exhibitions.

BORDER GETS CONSUL SOON

Reynosa Post Will Be Filled By U. S.

REYNOSA—A temporary United States consulate will be established in Reynosa for the second time within recent months, according to a notice issued by Nathaniel P. Davis, chief of the division of foreign service administration.

Davis' notification said, in part, "The department has continued to follow the situation on the Mexcaan border with close interest, and to avoid any possible inconvenience to those residing in and near Reynosa has decided to detail a consular officer temporarily to that place from the consulate at Matamoros for 60 days, commencing June 1, 1941."

A vice consul was placed at Reynosa last year on solicitation of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce, Congressman Milton West and others when a new regulation requiring passport visaes was enacted. The McAllen chamber recently reopened the matter by suggesting transfer of a U. S. officer from Matamoros to Reynosa in anticipation of necessity of renewing passports. More than 5,000 visaes were issued during 1940.

New U.S. Citizens

4 Mission Groups To Observe May 18

MISSION—Four civic and patriotic organizations have accepted invitations to participate in the Mission observance of "I Am an American" day, Sunday, May 18, honoring new citizens, it was announced this week by D. L. Rankin, president of the Mission Lions Club. The latter club is sponsoring the observance which will center on a program to be presented at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Strahle Park, downtown Mission.

Organizations which have announced plans for joining the Lions in conducting the program include the Mission Rotary Club, the Fred H. Morgan American Legion Post, and the Mission unit of the Border Patrol.

Persons who have become 21 years of age or become full-fledged citizens through completing naturalization during the past year will be honored during the program.

Getting Ready For 'Charley's Aunt'

BRWNSVILLE—Shown getting ready for a visit to the Valley by "Charley's Aunt" is Mrs. George McGonigle, Jr., wife of the president of the Brownsville Kiwanis Club, who is doing art work on sets for the popular Broadway play which the Kiwis will present at the high school here on May 13 and 14 and in the Harlingen city auditorium on May 15.

The play will star Burt Hinkly, Jr., John Barron, Leo Albritten, Charles Strong, Volney Taylor, Jr., Earl Brown, La Verne Walker, Josephine Taylor, Marjorie Wilson and Ermalee Dodson.

Tickets may be obtained from any Brownsville Kiwanian, from Otto Manske, ticket chairman, or from Mrs. R. N. Currie at the Old Opera House, where reserved seats may be chosen any afternoon. The Harlingen Lions Club will sponsor the showing in that city.

Prices: Reserved, 75 cents; general admission, 50 cents, and children, 35 cents.

Baby Party For All Born At Mercy Hospital In Last 10 Years Slated On May 12, National Hospital Day

BROWNSVILLE — Mercy Hospital will observe National Hospital Day, May 12, with a "Baby Party" in honor of all children born there during the last 10 years.

About 500 honor guests are expected for the occasion, according to Mrs. Joe C. Jordan, president of the Mercy Hospital ladies auxiliary, who, with the Sisters of Mercy, are sponsoring the event.

Invitations are being mailed to all the children whose births are on record at the hospital during the last 10 years. Those chldren born there during that period, but whose birth may not be recorded, are also invited to attend, Mrs. Jordan declared.

The children will be guests at an ice cream party on the hospital lawn. There will be special entertainment inside the building for adults.

The 124th Cavalry band, Fort Brown, will play on the lawn during the party.

This is the first time a party of the kind has been staged in Brownsville and may be made an annual event.

The party will start at 4 p. m. and continue until 7 p. m.

Invitations being mailed to the children whose births are on record at the hospital state:

"Your very first visit with us
you don't recall,
We know.
Let's see: a winsome baby you were and quite small.
And so:
A home-coming party we're having just for you.
Please, please,
Won't you come? And invite your mother, too.

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE STARTS

Cook, Dees To Head McAllen Campaign

McALLEN—A promotion drive to encourage the sale of national defense bonds and stamps in McAllen will get under way next week under the direction of Van E. Cook and W. W. Dees, chairman and vice chairman respectively of the McAllen unit.

Plans for the build-up campaign to promote interest in purchase of the bonds were laid Friday afternoon when the committee met to effect permanent organization. Cook and Dees were named to their positions.

The promotion activities include speeches before the McAllen civic clubs and school children with a special request to local merchants that they urge purchase of the bonds in their newspaper advertising and window display as frequently as possible.

Dees was named in charge of arrangements for the civic club speakers who will explain the purpose of the bond drive and the purchase plan.

Mrs. W. H. Moon was put in charge of arranging programs for the McAllen schools to encourage children to begin a savings stamp plan at the McAllen postoffice.

The committee emphasized the point that there would be no active subscription fund raised, placing purchase of the bonds as a purely voluntary effort on the part of all residents.

Seeking to increase sale here the committee will ask merchants to put a defense bond plug in their newspaper advertising copy and whenever feasible to include a bond display in their show windows.

Surplus Foods

Stamp Plan Members Get No Onions

EDINBURG—Nationally designated foods which will be available during May to families taking part in the food stamp plan were announced Saturday by the Surplus Marketing Administration in Edinburg.

Foods will be obtainable in local stores in each of the stamp plan areas in exchange for blue surplus food stamps. May and April lists are identical except that fresh onions have been removed from the list for this month.

Foods available are fresh grapefruit, oranges, apples, carrots, Irish potatoes, butter, raisins, pork lard, all pork except that cooked or packed in metal or glass containers, cornmeal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, dry edible beans, wheat flower, and whole wheat flour.

Engineers Busy

Tamm, Fitzgerald Win Two Projects

HARLINGEN—The local firm of Tamm and Fitzgerald has been engaged on two large projects in the Corpus Christi area, according to A. Tamm, member of the firm.

One of the projects is the $250,000 Aransas Pass seawall and the other is a $200,000 flood control project at Sinton.

The local firm has engineering supervision over the construction of the seawall at Aransas Pass intended to protect the city and some of its new national defense industries from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Sinton is seeking to protect itself from the flood waters of Chiltipin creek and also is engaging in a $100,000 paving project.

Tamm and Fitzgerald also are the engineers on the expansion of the Harlingen sewage disposal plant.

Sun Oil Employes On Annual Picnic

McALLEN—Forty-one employes of the Sun Oil company and their families spent the day Saturday at Padre Island on their annual outing. The company plays host to the group each year with such an event. Swimming, picnicking and fishing were on the schedule at Padre. Those in the party were employes connected with the McAllen office of the firm.

ENLISTMENTS IN AIR CORPS TO INCREASE

Requirements For Service Cut

BROWNSVILLE — A considerable stepup in Army air corps enlistments from Brownsville was expected next week, following the announcement Saturday by Sgt. E. J. Volkman, local army recruiting officer, that educational requirements for the air corps had been reduced.

An eighth grade education is now considered sufficient for enlistment. Previously four years of high school work was one of the basic qualifications. Physical requirements are unchanged.

The army has formulated a general intelligence quiz to substitute for the high school requirement.

"There is no limit to the number of enlistments that can be taken now," Sgt. Volkman said. "The air corps needs healthy intelligent young men in large numbers to keep pace with the rapidly expanding service."

Corporal Charles S. Moore has been assigned to the army recruiting office in the federal building and will be stationed here permanently as Sgt. Volkman's assistant.

Executive Lost?

Empty Boat Launches Utility Man Hunt

GAY HEAD, Mass. —(AP)— The finding of an unoccupied 27-foot power boat aground on Martha's Vineyard Island with her motor running precipitated a search Saturday for the boat's owner—Isaac T. Haddock, New England utilities executive.

Coast guards found the craft late Friday after island residents reported seeing her travelling aimlessly in choppy seas and a brisk wind.

Haddock, about 60 years old, was believed by coast guards to have spent Thursday night at Vineyard Haven and to have set out Friday in the craft, the Bingo, to fish a few miles south in the No Man's Land area.

FD's Tax Bill May Mean Incomes Levy

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some members of the House Ways and Means Committee said Saturday they viewed President Roosevelt's request for a $3,500,000,000 tax bill that would not "make the rich richer and the poor poorer" as a mandate for higher income taxes rather than new sales taxes.

Legislators charged with the task of drafting the revenue measure said they interpreted the chief executive's letter to the committee's chairman, Rep. Doughton (D-NC), broadly as a plea for enactment of the treasury's tax program which based on stiff increases in the surtaxes on middle bracket incomes.

Ambassador Mobbed

NEW YORK —(AP)— A German broadcast said that British Ambassador Sir Kinahan Cornwallis in Irak was "chased back into the embassy" by a crowd of Iraquis Saturday when he attempted to distribute leaflets in the streets of Baghdad. The broadcast said the leaflets asked the Iraquis to overthrow the Iraq government.

Nazi Freighter Sunk

NEW YORK—(AP)—The 3,290-ton German freighter Lech which left Rio de Janeiro five days ago in an attempt to run the British blockade was intercepted Friday by a British auxiliary cruiser and was reported sinking off Bahia, Brazil, maritime sources said Saturday.

Bundles For Britain Chapter Plans Hospital Relief Drive

McALLEN — Concurrently with the observance of "national hospital day" in England, members of the McAllen Bundles for Britain will stage a one-day hospital relief drive here Tuesday.

Members will solicit funds from McAllen residents in a downtown tag sale the proceeds of which will be turned into the English relief fund. The Sub Deb club will assist.

Meanwhile the group continued its plea for used medical instruments from Valley doctors. Dr J. C. Harrison of McAllen was the first local doctor to donate old used instruments to the organization.

Bundles officials said no instrument was too old or outmoded to be used in English hospitals where the need for them is acute.

Observance of the tag day will mark the second large benefit the McAllen unit has staged within a week. Proceeds from the bridge tournament last week netted $160.

Rev. W. W. Stewart, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church at Pharr, will turn over the collections from the night service Sunday, May 11, to the fund, officials announced at a special meeting held Friday morning.

Efforts to complete the knitting quota by Wednesday were pushed by Mrs. E. A. Polzin who asked that knitting be completed and turned in to her at her home.

Top Student

Obituary

Z. E. DAUGHDRILL

EDINBURG—Funeral services for Zeno E. Daughdrill, who died at the County-City hospital here after a brief illness, will not be announced until word has been received from a son in Oklahoma, the Kreidler Funeral home announced Saturday. Daughdrill had been living in Edinburg for the past four years.

MRS. HERMAN STREHLOW

SHARYLAND — Mrs. Herman Strehlow, 63, a resident of the Sharyland community for the past 23 years, died Friday night at her home six miles north of Shary boulevard.

She is survived by her husband; two sons, C. H. of Kansas City and E. H. of San Benito; a brother, Willie Wissling of Burnett Junction, Wisconsin; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Lampher and Mrs. Ella Gretzmeecher of Wisconsin; her father, William Wissling of Wisconsin; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services probably will be held Monday at the Kreidler chapel in Mission. The hour will be announced upon the arrival of a son from Kansas City. Interment will take place in Mission.

J. C (JIM) ROBISON

McALLEN — Funeral services for J. C. (Jim) Robison, 55, popular McAllen resident for the past 17 years who died here Friday morning, will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the First Methodist church.

Rev. F. H. Hamner, pastor, will officiate assisted by Rev. M. D. Council of Brownsville. Interment will be in Rose Lawn cemetery under the direction of the Martin-Nelson funeral home.

Besides his wide, Mr. Robison is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lucille Robinson of McAllen, three daughters, Mrs. Frances Hendricks and Miss Ila Jean Robison, both of McAllen, and Mrs. Helen Sinmers of West Columbia; a son, J. T. of McAllen; a brother and two sisters.

Pallbearers include Dr. W. E. Whigham, John Robinson, Glenn Reynolds, W. W. Dees, J. F. Parks and C. J. Thompson.

C. D. PENDLETON

HARLINGEN—Charles D. Pendleton, about 70, Valley pioneer, died Saturday in Oklahoma City after an illness of several months. Funeral services will be held at Muskogee Monday. Surviving are a sister in Virginia, and several nieces and nephews at Oklahoma City.

Deceased came to the Valley about 1912, and at one time was owner of the Point Isabel Hotel. For some years recently he has been a traveling salesman for a drug firm. Mrs. Pendleton died at Austin a few years ago while mo'oring.

Seek Pay Increase

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Richard Frankensteen, director of the CIO United Automobile Workers' drive to organize aircraft plants, announced Saturday that a 75-cents-per-hour minimum wage will be sought in discussions with officials of North American Aviation, Inc.

Four out of every ten persons in leading Texas cities depend upon the petroleum industry's payrolls for a living.

Model Plane Notes

By GARVER MURRAY

"ON THE threshold of manhood American boys in their teens stand inspired and impelled to seek self-expression, ready to try their wings. From this urge saints or sinners are born; led into one channel or the other by the instrument of expression put into their hands at this vital moment. It is this instrument that exercises body, mind and spirit for creation or destruction. What will build them into strong, virile manhood? That is the question. What will inspire them, prompt initiative, cultivate patience and tenacity, build their minds and bodies? Here lies no great mystery. Model planes have sired these virtues in the past and bless the future with promise of greater continued service. They give life to the dreams of our young men, in simple form and with little cost guiding them along the road to unbounded scientific study and research. Lillienthal, Langley, Wright, Douglas and a host of others have used them as stepping stones to success and greater aeronautical knowledge.

"In miniature, models present the problems of the large airplane designer and builder and the challenge of solution to those who would become great. Their delicate structures materialize the secret of the craftsman's deft fingers; the magic touch, which also gives form and life to modern air giants in the service of our country. All of these virtues, together with the blessings of vital physical activity in effort to follow fleeting planes, are the heritage of the Aeromodeler. Yes, if Youth makes Models, Models will make Men."

(The above was written by Charles Hampson Grant, editor of Model Airplane News, but I found it so interesting, that I wanted to be sure all you modelers would read it.) The government has recognized the modeler as a very useful person at the experimental laboratory at Langley Field in Virginia.

I had planned on having a meet here this afternoon, but it seems the weather is going to postpone it for me until next Sunday, although the regular gang is going to go out and do a little test flying, if the wind calms down enough. John Maltby is going to try out something he dug out of the heap—putting parts of several together to make one. Wayne Cole thinks he has his Mercury all ready, but he had had those same thoughts before. M. A. Tennison, Jr., is getting ready for some night flying—lights and everything. Scotty is still trying to get his Gladiator together, but he has his old reliable Buzzard ready to go. Harris Lou Bodie has just finished a Thermal Thumber, but his motor is taking a trip back to the factory. It should know the way alone by now.

Have a report that Jim Thomas is getting to see lots of country, and going to lots of places, but his model building is nil. Howell Tom has moved to Brownsville, so I guess Ph' Atteberry is happy to have someone to fly with. Didn't get my report from up the Valley this week, but I have learned not to look for it anymore, so I'm not disappointed. I hear some strange reports about Bill Younkin, but I don't believe them. Jimmy Jolly has been making the paper regular since the DeMolay have taken over the swimming pool at San Benito. Wonder if he has been making anything that will fly like a model arplane? Well, if you guys can stand a little wind come on out this afternoon around 2 p. m. and let's see what happens.

Ados.

WASHINGTON— (AP) —American army officers were ordered Saturday to Bagdad, Iraq, and Teheran, Iran, as military observers of developments in the Middle East.

Italian Outpost At Fike Now Captured

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony — (AP) — South African headquarters said Saturday that a small Italian outpost at Fike, part of the outlying defenses of Sciasciamana in southern Ethiopia, had been captured.

In the engagement 30 Italians were killed, 135 captured and 100 natives captured, in addition to 50 guns.

Solon Backs Bill To Ban Corrupt Races

AUSTIN —(AP)— Charging illegal expenditure of funds in the last gubernatorial race, Senator Joe Hill of Henderson Saturday was on record favoring additional legislation to prevent corrupt practices in political campaigns.

CAVALRY WILL LEAVE VALLEY

BROWNSVILLE—The 124th Cavalry Regiment, U. S. National Guard, is due to pull out of Fort Brown here and Fort Ringgold in Rio Grande City on the morning of Monday, May 26, regimental officers announced Saturday.

Troopers will travel overland in 72 motor transports to be provided by the Third Army, and horses will be shipped by rail.

The regiment will move back to Fort Bliss in El Paso, which it left several months ago to come here.

After 122 days of maneuvers and war games, the boys are scheduled to come trotting back to their Fort Brown stomping grounds.

ARMY THEME FOR REYNOSA MAY 5 FETE

Valley Residents Get Invitations

REYNOSA — Reynosa's observance of 'Cinco de Mayo" Monday will be centered at the military garrison under the command of Brigadier General Pedro Lopez Tafoya and Colonel Salvador Viramontes.

Gen. Tafoya, chief of the garrison, extended an invitation to Valley residents to attend the celebration at the garrison, when expert horsemen in the 24th cavalry regiment will perform to celebrate the 129th anniversary of the Battle of Puebla in a national Independence day program.

The entire city will join in the observance of the holiday by closing business places and offices.

Formal observance of the day will begin at 6 a.m. with a flag raising at the fort attended by garrison officials.

At 10 a.m. a downtown parade will get under way. In the line of march will be reserve officers in the 48th regiment, civil, military and federal officials with students in the public schools.

At 4 p.m. at El Campo Militar, the Reynosa garrison, a horse race will be the first feature in a military show. Six horses will run in the 00 meter race. The first and second place winners will be awarded metals by the commanders of the garrison.

In addition to the horse race the show will include riding and jumping contests, stunt riding and exhibitions of military formation. Prizes will be given winners of all divisions.

The day's program will close with a flag ceremony at 6 p.m.

Skeeter Control

Will Be Considered At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — Mosquito control and the food stamp plan were on the slate for discussion at a meeting of the Cameron county commissioners' court called for Monday morning by County Judge Oscar C. Dancy.

L. A. Bauer, county auditor, has requested Gerald Mann, Texas attorney general, to rule on the legality of the plan. The attorney general has previously ruled thta county commisioners' courts cannot legally participate in the plan by using money from the general fund.

Church Of God Sets Dedication Sunday

McALLEN — Formal dedication ceremonies for the new Church of God, South Broadway and Houston streets, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Inviting all members of the church and McAllen visitors to be present, Pastor Leslie L. Gaylord announced that Rev. M. B. Boucher would speak at the first services. He expressed thanks to church members and others who co-operated in the remodeling and construction of the new building.

Hidalgo Grand Jury Called For Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's May term grand jury will be empaneled in 92nd District Court Monday and a new schedule of trial settings will be made during the week by District Judge Bryce Ferguson.

District Attorney Tom Hartley said Saturday only a comparatively small number of criminal cases are scheduled for presentation to the jury, since the March jury which only recently completed its deliberations had about "cleaned up" the criminal docket.

Escaped Nazi Flier In Germany Again?

BERLIN—(AP)—To questions about German Fighter Pilot Baron Franz Von Werra, who escaped British internment in Canada and then jumped bail in the United States, a German spokesman replied Saturday he had gone to Peru "and probably isn't there any more." He would not discuss reports that the flier already is in Germany.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Behind a vanguard of strong rails which established numerous 1941 highs, the stock market moved ahead sufficiently, Saturday to neutralize losses incurred earlier in the week.

The best gains among the most active issues ran a little over a point, but steels generally failed to follow the upward lead and no great volume of buying developed.

The Associated Press ave rage of 60 selected stocks gained .1 of a point at 39.4. Turnover was 197,750 shares compared with 156,000 last Saturday, the smallest short-session day since March 8.

The rails, and, with them, the shares representing railroad equipment manufacturers, got their big lift from a prediction by the Association of American Railroads that carirer traffic would reach a maximum in 1943 and that roads would need 270,000 additional cars to carry prospective loads.

Even outshining the rails in brilliant performance was cotton, which climbed actively on United States senatorial action favoring an increased loan scale to close $1.10 to $1.35 a bale higher than Friday.

Other commodities also advanced sharply.

New highs were established for the year by Nickel Plate Preferred, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, American Car & Foundry Preferred, Skelly Oil, Pure Oil and Socony. Other gainers included Savage Arms, Air Reduction, Douglas, Yellow Truck and Du Pont.

The oils were aided by reports of increasing sales of gasoline at higher prices. Rails dominated the bond market.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Canadian dollar lost 1-16 of a cent in terms of the United States dollar in free foreign exchange trading Saturday. The Swiss franc and the Shanghai dollar were up slightly, and the Argentine "free" peso declined 1-20 of a cent.

Trading for the week was narrow with British pound showing a¼-of-a-cent gain and the Canadian dollar closing with a decline of ⅜ cent.

On Thursday the Shanghai dollar hit a new 1941 low but closed the week somewhat better.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Buoyed up by reports from Washington that efforts would be made to obtain 85 per cent of parity loans on five basic commodities, grain prices here soared to the best levels in weeks Saturday.

Wheat prices ranged up to 3¾ cents a bushel on the July delivery with all deliveries selling up 3 cents a bushel or more to the highest levels of the year. Some profit taking was encountered on the upswings, but was not sufficiently heavy to drag values down.

Wheat closed strong 2½-3⅝ cents higher than Friday's finish, May 94⅛-94, July 93⅜-¾, corn ⅝-1⅛ up, May 69, July 69, oats ⅝-1 cent higher, soybeans 4-4½ cents advanced, rye 2⅛-⅜ up, and lard 28-30 cents higher.

Eight Attend District Meet In Corpus

McALLEN — Newly elected officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in McAllen had taken over their posts this week, according to Commander Lee D. Rowe.

Immediately after the announcement Saturday he and other members of the McAllen group left for the two-day Sixth District convention in Corpus Christi. Those who accompanied Rowe were Floyd Dale, J. B. Burnette, J. F. Swanson, E. M. Birdsall, Jim Beakey, Captain H. L. Black and Bob Myatt.

Rowe named appointive officers and committees for the coming year at the last meeting of the veterans and voted resolutions which were presented at the convention.

Other officers elected were Myatt, senior vce commander; Frank H Long, junior vice commander; Dale, quartermaster; Captain Black, post advocate; Burnette, chaplain and Dr. W. F. Nicholas, post surgeon.

Appointive officers named were Birdsall, adjutant; E. R. Waldron, officer of the day; Beakey, patriotic instructor; Scott O. Dankers, post historian; Swanson, post service and legislative officer; Earl F Hersh, trustee; Myatt, trustee; W M. Weaver, guard; H. W. Hilton, color bearer, and Jesse F. Cummins, color bearer.

Committees named were Rowe, Beakey and Birdsall to the legislative; Hersh and Dr. Nicholas to the Salvation Army; Burnette to the house; Dankers to the degree team; Beakey to the Poppy Day; Cummins, Long and Dr. Nicholas to the investigating, and Hilton, Dankers and Myatt to the firing squad.

Will Try Again

The Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will make another stab Sunday at getting the season under way. Rain halted festivities in all of the parks except Brownsville last Sunday.

The McAllen Merchants will play the Southern Selects at Harlingen; the Brownsville Merchants go to Mission to battle the 30-30 Rifles; and the Brownsville Edelsteins will visit Comales and play a double-header.

The only thing that will stop the games Sunday will be rain and at the present writing prospects are bright for the sun to shine.

With games scheduled at opposite ends of the Valley, record crowds are predicted for Harlingen and Mission.

Tough Luck

Along with every Valley sports fan, we feel badly over Wade Spilman of Missions losing out in the state tennis meet and Chulo McNair in the golf tourney.

They were the Valley's last chances to grab an athletic title in the Interscholastic League get-together at Austin the past weekend.

Bass Fishing

From what we can learn, bass fishing in the Valley this season is not so hot.

To date we have had no good explanation why the fighters are not striking. Some say it is the weather, others the water, and still others that it is just lack of bass.

We would like to know who has caught the largest bass since the season opened. If you know, send us the dope.

We Pick One

While it is a bit difficult to believe, we named the winner of the Kentucky Derby.

On April 1st we sent in our selections and entered Frank Menke's Derby Ham and Hat contest for sports writers. It turned out that we were one of 75 who picked Whirlaway to win. And there were 469 entered.

In looking over our selections for the other four places, we find we fell down completely and there is little chance that we will win either a hat or a ham.

Open Tickets In Demand

Golf fans from almost every state in the union and many foreign countries will see the U. S. G. A. Open Championship at Fort Worth in June.

This is indicated by the sale of season tickets, which continues heavy. Requests came last week from such far-away places as Appleton, Wis.; Chicago. Addleborough, Mass.; New York City; Nashville, Tenn.; Independence, Kan.; Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio and many others.

Season tickets orders from these places are being filled as rapidly as possible. However, the committee in charge is anxious that all Southwestern fans who wish them obtain the over-all tickets as soon as possible.

Again, fans were warned by Chairman Max Highfill of the committee on tickets and badges that no more season tickets will be available after May 24. After that, only the $2.20 and $3.30 daily tickets will be available.

The season books are good for four days of practice rounds that will be $1.10 otherwise, for the first two days of the meet which will be $2.20 daily, and the big last day which will be $3.30. They are also good for any playoff, which will be $2.20 otherwise. The season tickets are $6.60. Orders are being taken at the Open Headquarters, Seventh and Houston Streets, Fort Worth.

Columbia Wins Blackwell Cup

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Putting on a driving finish, Columbia's eight-oared crew won the Blackwell Cup Regatta on the Schuylkill Saturday, nosing out the University of Pennsylvania by a half-length over the mile and five-sixteenth course. Yale, winner for four successive years, was third.

The Light Blues swept to victory in six minutes and 24 seconds, three seconds off the cup series record of 6:21 for the Henley course, which was set in 1935 by Penn.

Penn, which led until the last half-mile, was one second behind the winners. Yale was three-quarters of a length back in the three-crew event.

It was Columbia's first Blackwell Cup triumph since 1931.

Nazis Force Letters

BATAVIA, Java —(AP)— Highly-placed sources said there are indications Germans are making efforts to establish contact with residents of the Netherlands East Indies through forged messages or letters written under pressure and signed by relatives in Holland.

long-shot, the New York owned Market Wise, from the barn of Lou Tufano, for second place. Porter's Cap, leading money winner among the three year olds up to now and the colt the Far West was writing songs about, finished fourth.

Dispose Runs Sixth

Ten lengths away from "Whirly's" waving tail, was Rocky Palladino's Little Beans, the invader from Boston, fifth; the Texas speed horse, Robert Kleberg, Jr.'s Dispose, sixth; Tom Bragg's Blue Pair, seventh; Our Boots, eighth; J. Fred Byers' Robert Morris, ninth; Emerson F. Woodward's Valdina Paul, tenth, and trailing all the way, Cleveland Putnam's mud-running Swain, the Californian, who just couldn't get started on the lightning fast track.

Everything, crowd, betting, time, the money in the race, and the roar of the backers of the blue grass boy, made this the biggest Derby of all the 67 run here. By his victory, the flying little son of Blenheim II gave his family a Kentucky Derby triumph to join his Daddy's English "Darby" conquest. He brought $61,275 to owner Wright, the largest purse a winner ever picked up in the chase after this $75,000-added rainbow. He rewarded his backers a favorite's price of $7.80 for each $2 winning mutuel ticket held on him in the record-breaking Derby handle of $654,353. And finally, he rewarded the brilliant-riding Arcaro and the wise trainer Ben Jones, plain Ben from out of Missouri, with their second Derby victory in three years.

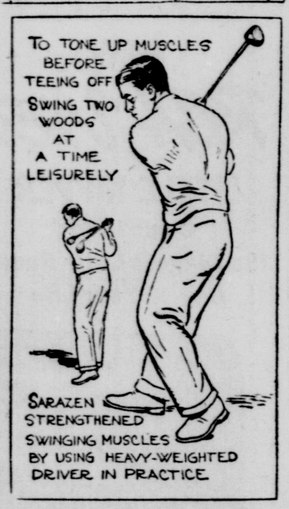
That was the real story back of this race. Whirlaway wasn't supposed to have a chance after the way he "ran out" in the Derby trial last Tuesday. Plain Ben just couldn't roll up his sleeves and work the magic this time like he did with limping Lawrin when he trained for Herbert Woolf in 1938.

Follows Instructions

So all Plain Ben did was import the generally-ranked best jockey of them all, and told him to ride "Whirly" just one way—lay back of the pack until they straightened out, then uncork the drive no one doubted he had all the time. He did just that—and it was just as simple as that. For three quarters of a mile he was as much as 17 1/2 lengths back of Dispose who set the pace through the first mile. At the mile mark, he started to move up. Arcaro, who also rode Lawrin for Ben, said later, he just couldn't hold him any more. As they straightened out for home, he took the lead as Arcaro piloted him between horses. And from there on, he was strictly the drum major in the parade.

Staretor, owned by a San Franciso fruit extractor, also closed with a mighty rush. So did Market wise. But Porter's Cap, a factor for a mile, weakened, and Our Boots, who whipped Whirlaway in four out of five meetings during their career, was never in it, despite repeated urging by Jockey Conn McCreary.

GRAPHIC GOLF



WARMING UP AND COOLING DOWN

Like the ballplayer warming up before taking his turn at bat, the golfer can also gradually attune his muscles for play. The pros make it a point to find time in which to drive a few off the practice tee but the average golfer, as a rule, has no such opportunity or time to get ready. The player can, however, swing a couple of clubs as shown above in a leisurely and smooth fashion back and forth to loosen up his muscles. The routine, primarily designed to eradicate the kinks, also comes in handy in adjusting one to calmer thought and action. Rushing to the golf course, the golfer is so often saturated with the sense of hurry and jerky action that his play reflects it. For the sake of better playing and enjoyment, a more tranquil temperament must prevail and a pretty fair cure lies in swinging the two clubs in slow motion tempo.

Another purpose is served in that the golfer feels the lightness of one club later in actual play and it can be swung with a more acute sense of feeling and velocity. Continued practice will strengthen the muscles of the arms and shoulder and give the grip. Gene Sarazen similarly employed an overweight driver for practice sessions for greater swing development.

Coffey To Meet Bob Riegel For TGA Title Today

Both In Rare Form Saturday

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Through a day of shot-making seldom equalled in the tournament's history, Billy Bob Coffey, the champion, and Bobby Riegel, a former titleholder, emerged into the finals of the Texas Golf Association tourney Saturday.

Riegel started the fireworks in his match with Jack Tinnin, Houston insurance agent who won the medal. Riegel won 2 and 1.

Riegel's drive on the first tee found the rough 70-yards to the left of the green. He sent a 10-iron shot soaring toward the carpet. The ball took two hops, settled into a roll a foot from the hole, and jumped in for an eagle two.

Tinnin chipped one in from a lie of 25 feet off the 12th green for a birdie 3.

Iverson Martin of Fort Worth, who fell before Coffey, 2 and 1, was 25 yards past the 9th green, but holed out his third shot for a winning 4. In his morning match, Coffey chipped in from 4 yards off the fifth green.

Riegel, also a Houston insurance man, was two under par for the day's play. In the morning, he eliminated veteran Horace Young of Houston, 6 and 5, ending the match with three straight birdies and a coasting bogey.

Coffey had a shaky experience in the morning with 15 year old Tyrrell Garth, Jr., home course player competing in his first state tournament.

The slight, black-haired youngster had Coffey one down through No. 16, but Coffey flashed two straight birdies, sinking putts of 10 and 18 feet, to pull out the match, 1 up.

Riegel, who won the championship three years ago, and Coffey will play a 36-hole match Sunday for the title.

Martin entered the semi-finals by defeating Ed Enderson of Houston 5 and 3. Tinnin disposed of Kyle Alford, Beaumont municipal champion in the morning, in 19 holes.

S. W. Conference Baseball

HOUSTON —(AP)— Coach Cecil Grigg's Rice Owls got five hit pitching from Bill Telschow here Saturday to defeat the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, 8-1, and chalk up their fourth straight Southwest Conference triumph.

Telschow walked nine men but tightened up in the clutches to leave 14 Frogs stranded on the bases. The Owls collected nine hits off Brumbaugh, Frank Carswell's triple with the bases filled being the most potent of the day.

Rice plays S. M. U. here Monday afternoon.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—A Texas Leaguer single by Ballow followed by Bill Buchanan's crashing drive over the left field wall gave the Texas Aggies enough runs Saturday to defeat Southern Methodist 2 to 1.

But the Mustangs were bitter-enders. They scored their lone tally in the ninth and had enough additional ducks on the pond to win. A right field foul line circus catch by Marland Jeffrey and a final Roy Peden throttled the Methodists, splurge of pressure by moundsman

Edelsteins Play Comales Today

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville semi-pro teams will be among a field of six squads who will attempt to continue play in the Valley League in three games scheduled Sunday.

The Brownsville Edelstein's, who are leading the loop with one victory and no defeats, will invade Comales for a double-header, beginning at 2 p.m.

At Mission, the Brownsville Merchants will tangle with the Mission 30-30 Rifles on Legion park at 3:30 p.m.

All but Edelstein's will be playing their opening loop contests.

Townsend Plan Put Into New Tax Bill?

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Downey (D-Calif) asserted Saturday that unless President Roosevelt soon recommended larger old age pensions, 10 to 15 senators would try to write the Townsend plan into the new tax bill.

Downey said Mr. Roosevelt told him last year that he would ask congressional approval of a federal pension system under which payments would be made to old people regardless of need or of state old age benefits.

The first industrial school on the North American continent was started by the Rev. James B. Finley at Upper Sandusky, O., in 1821. Wyandot Indians were the pupils.

Selects Play Merchants In League Opener Today

HARLINGEN—In a baseball game that holds promise of being hard-fought all the way, the Harlingen Southern Selects will meet the McAllen Merchants at Fair Park here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Selects, managed by Santos Bermea, were rained out last Sunday in their scheduled opener of the Valley Semi-Pro League and all the ceremonies scheduled that day will be staged Sunday. Mayor Hugh Ramsey will toss the first ball in the general direction of Joe "Slim" Wright. John Bell, president of the semi-pro circuit, will also be on hand to get the season under way here.

On the roster of the Selects are the following players: Gutierrez, Rios, Montalvo and Rodriquez, infielders; E. Flores, catcher;; Esqueda, Fast Contreras and Flores, outfielders; Guevara, Simpson and Mills, pitchers; Mills, Carpenter, Rojas and Chapa, reserves. All are well-known in Valley baseball circles, having played on teams here and over the Valley. Daily workouts have been taken and it is reported that all players are in top condition for the season opener.

The Merchants are one of the "new" teams in the Valley but they boast some of the best semi-pro and amateur players in this section. Among the players listed are: Billy Walsh, Clyde Chisum, Ted Koen and M. Barrero, pitchers; S. Califa, catcher; McLaughlin, Bush, Camillo, Guerra and J. Califa, infielders; R. Garza, Rolo Garza, Chano and Moya, outfielders. Walsh is the manager of the team.

Interest in this opening ball game is running high all over the Valley and the stands at Fair Park are expected to be filled Sunday afternoon.

Golf Champion Lawson Little Discusses Chance To Repeat

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some say the odds against a National Open golf champion repeating his victory are 25 to 1 but Lawson Little, current king, won't make 'em or take 'em.

"These odds usually are fictitious," he says, "they don't reflect the true situation."

Lawson says there are 30 or 40 players with the shot-making ability to win the title. "The crown is won by the man who happens to be not during those four rounds and who can avoid one bad round."

Little isn't satisfied with his putting now. He was a red-hot putter as amateur champion but, he says, "Medal play is different. You can't ram that ball at the hole in medal play. You always have to think of the next one. But I wish I had the confidence as a pro that I had as an amateur around the cup."

Little is sure of two things as the time approaches for the Open meet in Fort Worth, Texas, June 5. First, he isn't going into the tournament with fear that he won't win, and, second, he isn't going to wear himself out practicing.

"I want to hit my peak in the championship itself," he says.

Eligibility Of Player Hits Baseball Play-Off

WESLACO—The Weslaco Panthers were scheduled to play the McAllen Bulldogs in the fourth game of the final series to decide the Rio Grande Valley high school baseball championship here Saturday afternoon—and possibly the fifth game—but due to the failure of the McAllen nine to arrive, no game was played.

Quite a crowd of baseball fans was on hand to see the game, scheduled at 2:30 o'clock, but after some thirty minutes of delay, it was announced that no game would be played. There was nothing for Jack York, umpire, to do except forfeit the game to the Panthers.

The question of the eligibility of a Weslaco player had been brought to the attention of Weslaco and McAllen school officials and it was assumed that this was the reason for the failure of the McAllen team to take the field against the Weslaco nine.

In the final play-off, a three-out-of-five-game-series, the Panthers had won two games and the Bulldogs one. With the forfeiture of the game Saturday, the Weslaco nine is now credited with three wins and one loss.

Due to the question of the eligibility of the Weslaco player causing the high school baseball title to be far from a settled fact, it is quite likely that Bobby Cannon of Edinburg, district athletic director, will have to make a ruling before any definite claim to the crown can be made.

Semi-Pro Season Will Open Today

ENID, Okla.—(AP)—A great revival of the national sport was predicted Saturday night by Ray Dumont, semi-pro booster, as a result of the baseball activity in army camps over the country.

Here for the premier Sunday of the 1941 season of National Semi-Pro Congress, of which he is president, Dumont said:

"Many of the boys who would never have played baseball in their home city will get their chance in the army camps. When they return home, they will still want to play baseball, then, watch more teams than ever spring up!"

The semi-pro president brought with him a 20-foot pennant, emblematic of the 1940 National Championship, which will be raised in the ceremonies here Sunday. The pennant was won by the Champion Refiners of Enid last year in the tournament at Wichita. Enid went on to win the world title in a series at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dumont said approximately 40,000 semi-pro games would be played Sunday over the country.

In the local event, where the Bell Clothiers of Oklahoma City, will meet the Champlins, Gov. Leon C. Phillips will hurl the inaugural pitch. At 3 p.m. George Sisler, baseball great and commissioner of semi-pro baseball, will deliver a radio talk.

Dumont does not think the reign of Oklahoma teams in the semi-pro field is destined to last. Sooner nines have won four out of the past five National championships.

Baseball School Set At McAllen

McALLEN — Several ambitious baseball players in the Valley who desire to try out for a berth with the Columbia, Ogden, Tucson or Riverside, Calif., teams owned and operated by the Cincinnati Reds of the National League, had obtained enrollment blanks from the McAllen Chamber of Commerce Saturday.

A training camp will open in McAllen from June 16 to 20 at Legion Park. Tuition at the baseball training camp is free, but players must pay their own expenses. Full details and enrollment blanks may be obtained by any player sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the McAllen Chamber of Commerce or calling for the blanks, officials said Saturday.

The Works Progress Administration holds contracts for improving more than 350 airports at a cost of $150,000,000.

McALLEN — The McAllen High School Bulldog baseball team declined Saturday to finish the Valley championship play-off with the Weslaco Panthers after a question about the eligibility of one of the Weslaco players arose.

Carlos Ramirez, Weslaco shortstop who has played in all of the play-off games except the one Friday afternoon in McAllen is the player in question. Supt. John Gregory and Coach Maco Stewart of McAllen, after checking record, reported that Ramirez was now 19. According to the rules used in the baseball season in the Valley, all players must not have reached their 18th birthday before September 1 of the season in which they participate.

The matter of the boy's ineligibility was first brought to the attention of Stewart in an unsigned letter from a Weslaco fan. Stewart showed the letter to Weslaco's Coach Bill Cummins before the Friday game. Cummins said he felt the boy was eligible but did not play him Friday.

The Valley play-offs may be thrown into the cocked hat if authorities declare Ramirez ineligible. Both Santa Rosa and Pharr would then have a right to enter play again because forfeits from Weslaco would give them a higher percentage and would probably change the final standing that saw McAllen take first place and Weslaco second. There is some question also as to whether or not Edinburg's standing might be affected.

A final ruling will probably have to come from Coach Bobby Cannon, who is the Interscholastic League athletic director for this district.

After the McAllen school heads could not get a final ruling on the question, it was decided that they would not play the double-header Saturday, which was to decide the Valley title. McAllen had won one of the three-out-of-five play-off games and Weslaco tw-

McAllen Stars Set To Battle SP Ten Today

Double - Header Set At Palm City

McALLEN — The first softball game on the Sabbath in McAllen in several years will be held Sunday when the Southern Pacific ten from Houston meets the McAllen City League All Stars on the local diamond at 3 p.m. in a double header.

The Houston club is doubtless one of the strongest teams that has ever played in McAllen. They have beaten such strong clubs as York Oilers, Lindale and several other powerful clubs in the Houston League. The team roster includes one of the strongest pitching staffs in the country with Staruska, a left hander noted for his speed, and Collins, noted for curve ball twirling, as the stars.

Jack York and Jim Scoggins have been signed to umpire and will share duties Sunday with T. Modglin, portly Houston league arbiter. An admission price of 15 cents will be charged, for the double-header.

McAllen, choosing completely new teams for both games and using a big batch of Hidalgo county's best players, listed the following to start the first game:

In the second, the line-up will be selected from the following:

The Houston line-up:

R. Pruess, catcher; J. McMichael, catcher; J. J. Collins, pitcher; E. Strauska, pitcher; J. Bonneau, first base; A. Partlow,, second base; J. Roddy, shortstop; W. Kummings, third base; M. Franks, left field; B Rees, center field; W. Grant, right field; C. Edgley, short center, E. Rutan, utility; E. Jones, pitcher; E. La May, utility; A. Chalmbers, utility.

Members of the McAllen squad will meet the train on which the Houston players arrive at 5:45 a.m. Sunday, take them on a tour of the Upper Valley and play a round of golf before noon. After the game all who desire will accompany the Houston team to Reynosa on a sight-seeing tour.

Rifles To Meet Merchants Today

MISSION— Postponed from last Sunday because of rain, the opening game of the Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will be staged Sunday afternoon at Legion Ball Park, Mission, when the Mission 30-30's will meet the Brownsville Merchants. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Eddie Town, speedball artist, will be the starting pitcher for the Rifles. Howard Reichle, hustling little catcher, will complete the Rifles' battery. Reichle led the Rifles in hitting averages during the 1939 season, the last season in which the Mission club participated. George Strohmeyer is manager of the Rifles and Le Najo captain.

The Merchants have promised strong competition in Sunday's game, according to the manager, Adolfo Arguillo. The Merchants will be decked out in new uniforms to open their season.

Mission's starting line-up, announced by George Strohmeyer, will be: Barrera, 1b; Langerhans, 2b; Bloomfield, ss; Stevens, 3b; Rameriz, lf; Najo cf; Lowenstein, rf; Reichle, c; and Town, p.

DRAFTEES TO LEAVE

McALLEN—Union Bus Lines will run a special bus Monday to transport 30 Valley selectees to Fort Sam Houston for induction into the army. Manager L. D. Harris announced Saturday. Twenty-three of the boys will be picked up in Mission and seven in Rio Grande City. They will congregate in McAllen and leave together for the San Antonio fort.

Corpus Christi Net Stars Win At State Meet

Doubles Team Grabs Third Victory

AUSTIN—(AP)—For the third successive year, Corpus Christi Saturday won the Interscholastic League title in boys' tennis doubles.

Frank Whaley and Gordon Best of Corpus Christi downed Browne Baker and Perry Menking of Lamar, Houston, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Corpus Christi also won the title in girls' doubles, Alma Lee Sissom and Rosemary Walker defeating Helene McCarther and Gloria Levy of Ball, Galveston, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

It was the first time since 1914 when the competition started that a high school has taken the third successive title in boys doubles to retain the cup.

Richard Elliott of Trinity defeated Jack Urlrich of Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio, 6-0, 8-6, 6-1, to take the title in the boys' tennis singles.

In the girls' singles, Shelby Frizzell of Austin won the title by defeating Mary Jane Bullington of Paschal, Fort Worth, 8-6, 6-3.

State Cage Play Has New Set-Up

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)— Competition in high school basketball will be split into theree divisions next year, the executive committee of the Texas Interscholastic League decided Saturday.

The 1942 basketball tournament will be modeled closely on the three-league football set-up, with competition in AA, A and B conferences.

League Athletics Director R. J. Kidd said the revision will mean a fairer matching of squads. Instead of eight teams meeting each year for state honors, 24 will come to Austin to seek titles in three divisions.

Conference AA will include 106 schools, divided into 16 districts; Conference A, 291 schools, eight regions with four district each; Conference B, 721 schools, eight regions each with several districts.

The eight regional winners in Conference A and Conference B will be eligible to compete in Austin, March 5-7, for state honors. Conference AA will follow the same elimination route as football, district, bi-district, then state championship.

Schools Tie In Class B Meet

DENTON, Tex. — (AP) — Dalton Campbell of Hood county's Lipan High clipped 6.7 seconds off his own mile record of 4:43.6 Saturday at the state high school Class B track and field meet.

It was the only new mark set. Mertzon of Irion county and Orange Grove of Jim Wells county fought to a first-place tie in team honors.

Mertzon caught up with the Rio Grande Valley school by placing second in the final event, the mile relay. Each school registered 14 points.

Individual scoring honors were shared by Biscoe of Bullard High, Smith county, winner of the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Lee Roy Franke of Orange Grove, first in both hurdle races; and Houston Ellison of old glory, victor in the shot and discus. Each of the three tallied 10 points.

The 10 points of Biscoe and Ellison gave their schools a third-place tie with O'Brien high of Haskell county.

Winners in the new events on the state Class B card, whose performances will be written in the books as records, were:

Franke with 15.8 clocking for the lowered high hurdle race and a 23.6 timing for the shortened low hurdle event.

Ellison for his 124-foot, 7-inch heave of the lighter discus.

The Mertzon high 440-yard relay crew of McGregor, Cox, Teague, and Scott for their time of 45.4 seconds.

The word "panzer," referring to the German panzer division, means "armored."

SOUTHERN WILDLIFE

Foxy Farmer

D. W. Kolb, a ranger in McCurtain county, Oklahoma, tells us of one farmer's unique method of safeguarding his quail during the last hunting season. "At the beginning of the season," Kolb informs, "this farmer simply lured all the qauil on his farm into a trap, kept them well hidden and well fed during the shooting season, granted entrance to all who desired to hunt on his land and when the season closed, turned the well fattened birds out upon his broad acres once more!"

Lose A Hook—Save A Life

It is a hard matter to release a fish so skillfully that it will not die later. Once the tender, slimy outer covering is injured, the fish dies. He may look frisky as a colt when you let him go—but an unbelievably high percentage of the fish you handle die later.

Cut your snell or leader and release the fish with hook in him. You only lose a hook which can be bought for a nickel a dozen, and two or three inches of line. The hook will gradually disintegrate inside the fish with no ill effects.

Swallow-Proof Catfish Hook

"Anything that would keep an old cat from swallowing a hook so deep you have to tussle half an hour to get it out would be a boon to civilization!" That's the way most southern fishermen feel. Make a guard wire. Loop a piece of stiff wire through the eye of your hook. Twist the wire around the hook shank and bring both ends out straight to the sides. If a cat is big enough to swallow wire and all, he'd be old and tough and no one would believe he was that big anyhow!

Detour—Quail Nest Ahead

A mother quail and her nest of twenty-one eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Brackettsville in Kinney county and Rock Springs in Edwards county, Texas. The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest. All traffic was detoured around that spot until mama quail hatched nineteen of her twenty-one eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest.

Tough, Eh?

The lady of the house heard a knock at her door. Looking through the screen she saw a Chinese fish peddler. Not wishing to be disturbed, she called to her maid: "You go, Ella."

The Chinaman blinked his little eyes, thrust out his neck and sung out belligerently: "You go 'ella yourself!"

Fish Have Lubrication Too

While we don't know whether fish "change oil" every thousand miles, we do know that, in order to enable a fish to glide easily along in the water, its body is covered with a slimy mucus which is being constantly poured out in large quantities by special glands situated in the epidermis. This mucus makes the body of the fish slippery and also minimizes friction with the surrounding water.

Sorter Stretching It

We've firmly resolved to quit being surprised over anything new in the fishing line anymore. The latest thing that has caused us to lift our eyebrows is a complete line of rubber lures put out by Pachner and Koller, Inc., 2307 West 69th Street, Chicago, Illinois. They tell us that those lures are far more natural looking than the wooden variety and are real fish getters. Now sportsmen needn't stop at stretching the catch—they can stretch the lures too!

Jeff Davis Of Houston Wins State Track And Field Meet

Kingsville's Adame Takes Both Dashes

Paces Coast Team To Second Place

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN —(AP)— Iron-muscled Steve Lobue, mighty man of the Jeff Davis (Houston) Panthers, won the Texas schoolboy track and field championship here Saturday —with a little help from three other fellows in the closing event of a thrill-filled meet.

Lobue, 160-pound football star, scored 10 3-4 points as Jeff Davis staged a startling upset to bag the title over a highly-favored Sunset (Dallas) team that finished in a tie for fifth place.

Adame Paces Brahmas

Another one-man team, Henry Adame of Kingsville, had his school in the running until the last event —the mile relay. Adame had won both dashes and might have won again if he could have had three others to run with him.

Lobue was more fortunate. Anchor on the Davis baton crew, he was leading until the stretch when out of the turn shot driving Larry Wolf of Highland Park (Dallas). Running a 48.4 seconds quarter, Wolf passed Lobue and led him to the tape by four yards. But second place in the relay was good for three points to give Davis a total of 13 and the title.

Adame's Kingsville finished second with 10 points and Highland Park was third with nine.

Highland Park—had Wolf lived up to expectations in the quarter-mile—would have won the meet because Bill Hannum, the pole vaulter, tied for first.

Highland Park Fizzles

A victory in the quarter would have given Highland Park 14 points and the championship.

But Wolf, fading badly at the finish, was jammed between two runners as they raced neck-and-neck in second place, and Carlos Salinas of Laredo fouled the Highland Park star, jostling against Wolf and knocking him flat on the track but seven yards from the finish. However, even if Wolf had not been fouled he would have finished no higher than third. Salinas finished second but was ruled out because of the foul.

Conroe, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), Adamson (Dallas) and Carrizo Springs tied for fourth, each with seven points, while Goose Creek and Woodsboro tied Sunset for fifth; each making six points.

Shot Record Broken

One state record was bettered and one national mark equalled. H. B. Pendleton, Jr., of Woodsboro hurled the shot 54 feet 3-8 inch to better the record of 53 feet 1-2 inches, set in 1936, by Monte Earwood of Rock Springs.

Sunset failed to come through but did produce the outstanding mark of the day when Bill Hamman, blond hurdler, ran the 200-yard low hurdles in 22.1 to equal the national scholastic record set by Pollum of Topeka, Kans., in 1938.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Longview and Brackenridge (San Antonio), tied for sixth place with 5 points each. Other schools scored as follows:

Seminole 4, Reagan (Houston) 4, Smiley, 4, Laredo 3 1-2, Port Arthur 3 1-2, Port Neches 3, Iraan 3, Freer 3, Wharton 3, McKinney 3, Amarillo 2, White Oak 2, Baird 2, Doole 2, Uvalde 2, Palestine 2, Farwell 2, Robert Lee 2, Austin 1, El Campo 1, Gaston 1, Livingston 1, Tomball 1, Weatherford 1, Pittsburg 1, Brady 1-2, Marfa 1-2.

Lobue Back In 1942

Lobue, in track for his third season, still has another year to compete but it's the last for Adame.

Upsets were numerous. For instance Doneal Hill of Sunset who led the qualifiers in the 200-yard low hurdles Friday, was shut out in the finals Saturday. Marvin Harry, White Oak's 880-yard star who came to the meet heavily favored to win, finished third with Guy Dewald of Conroe galloping in first in 1:59.3.

Jim Hoff, who had been figured to score Sunset points in the half-mile, was shut out, finishing fifth.

Ralph Nelson of Adamson (Dallas) staged a surprise by winning the discus throw with 149 feet 10 1-4 inches after having been second to Pendleton all season. Pendleton was fourth Saturday.

Aubrey Vaughn, Laredo's highly-rated broad jumper, finished second to Lobue whose 22 feet 8 1-4 inches was three inches back of Vaughn's best jump for the season.

Mile Record Intact

The boy who was expected to break a record failed. Little Jerry Thompson, Woodrow Wilson's picture runner who had previously bettered the state mile mark, was first here Saturday but his time was 4:35.3, more than four seconds over the record.

Archie Jones of Longview beat the touted Raymond Jones of Austin and Alfonso Valls of Laredo in the 120-yard high hurdles in another upset. But the Longview runners' time was 14.1, considered excellent compared to national marks. This is a new event in Texas so there is no comparison with past state marks.

Bill Roark of Seminole and J. B. Patteson of Smiley tied for first place in the high jump at 6 feet, 3 inches, only one-fourth of an inch below the state record.

The Highland Park relay team came within seven-tenths a second of the record with a time of 3:25.9.

Adame ran the 100-yard dash in 9.9 and the 220 in 21.2, the former three-tenths of a second over the record and the latter four-tenths slower than the state standard.

Times in the 12th-yard high hurdles, 200-yard low hurdles and 440-yard relay automatically became state records as these events are new, the high hurdles because they are 3 inches lower than in the past.

Lobue was highpoint man by winning first place in the broad jump, second in the high hurdles, third in the high jump, and ran on the second place relay team.

Among those placing in the finals were:

Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 100-yard dash; Perkins of Port Arthur, fourth in 440-yard dash; Vaughn of Laredo, fourth in 220-yard low hurdles; Vaughn of Laredo and Andrus of Port Arthur tied for second at 22 feet 4 inches in broad jump; Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 220-yard dash.

Bobo's The Most Widely Traveled Of Baseball's Travelin'est Trio

AP Feature Service

NEW YORK—Eventually, if you listen long enough as Buck Newsom rattles off his accomplishments and records, you will learn that he is the most-traveled player in the major leagues.

Technically, he is tied with a couple of Polish boys for that record but Buck can shrug that off now for one of these co-holders is virtually an inactive performer and the other is hardly a star as is Newsom. So this practically gives him the No. 1 spot.

Each of the trio has played in both major leagues. Aloysius Szymanski, whose box score moniker is Al Simmons, was first to enter the majors, back in 1924 with the Philadelphia A's. Then came the other youngster of Polish extraction, Pete Appleton, born Peter Jablonowski. He was with Cincinnati in 1927.

Newsom, born Louis Norman, followed, breaking in briefly with Brooklyn in 1929. Comparatively few major leaguers remain with the same club during their entire careers but none has traveled about from team to team as have Al, Pete and Buck.

After a nine-year stretch with the A's, Simmons was sold to Chicago (with Jimmy Dykes and Mule Haas) for $150,000. Then Detroit bought him for $75,000 and a year later Washington paid $15,000 for his services. The Senators sold him to the Boston Bees and Cincinnati took him late last year when Boston released him. The Reds cut him loose after the season and the A's took him on again.

Appleton's itinerary reads like this: Cincinnati - Cleveland - Boston Red Sox-Washington-Chicago White Sox. And the great Bo-Bo who admits the Dodgers of old were daffy because they let him go, began with Brooklyn. After a stretch in the minors, the Chicago Cubs looked him over. Briefly, Buck says. And 'twas the minors again.

Newsom won 30 games in the Coast League in 1933 and the Browns acquired him. Washington paid $40,000 for Buck in 1935 and swapped him two years later to the Red Sox (with Ben Chapman) for Rick and Wes Ferrell and Melo Almada.

Boston exchanged him to the Browns (with Ralph Kress and Colonel Mills) for Joe Vosmik. And the Tigers obtained him two years ago in a swap with St. Louis that involved 10 players.

Strange that Washington, at one time or other, had each of the three.

While these players have spent their time rambling around, others like Ted Lyons, Mel Ott and Charles Gehringer have spent their complete playing years with one club. Lyons has been with the White Sox 18 years while Gehringer of Detroit and Ott of the New York Giants have been around 16 seasons.

Dick Bartell, Rollie Hemsley, Bump Hadley and Danny MacFayden have played with five different league clubs. Bruce Campbell, Ben Chapman, Virgil Davis, Leo Durocher, Gus Mancuso, Eric McNair, Julius Solters, Al Todd, Joe Vosmik, Fred Walker, Bill Werber, Gee Walker, Curt Davis, Whitlow Wyatt and Vito Tamulis have worn the uniforms of four clubs.

PHILADELPHNA—(AP)—A single in the sixth inning ruined Rookie Henry Gornicki's chances of pitching the major league season's first no-hit game Saturday as the tall right-hander hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6 to 0 one-hit victory over the Phillies.

It was the eighth consecutive triumph for the National League leaders and the second sparkling mound performance turned in by Cardinal rookies in the two-game series. Friday, Howard Krist set the Phils down 4 to 2 on five hits.

BROOKLYN—(AP)—A double by Pete Reiser and Ducky Medwick's single to left in the eighth inning gave the Dodgers their winning margin for a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

Kirby Higbe was credited with the triumph which he helped along with a two-run single in the fifth. But the former Philly pitcher wasn't around at the finish. Southpaw Kemp Wicker worked the ninth and, although a pinch-hit double by Lou Novikoff and a walk put two men on, got out of the jam without allowing a run.

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates climbed out of the cellar again Saturday, handing the Giants a 3 to 2 defeat that ran the New Yorkers' streak to six losses and a tie in their last seven starts.

The Bucs got a handsome pitching job from big Max Butcher, who allowed only six hits, all of them singles, and gave up only one through the first six innings.

Texas Sport Chatter

By TONY SLAUGHTER

And it wasn't on April Fool's Day. It happened last Thursday morning in the Tyler Telegraph.

And Sports Editor Cauley Munson had to get married to make the page one spread.

It seems Munson scooped his fellow workers with his wedding story. He was married a week ago in broad open daylight with no efforts to conceal it. All of the preparations, including the purchase of the ring and license took place right under the nose of Telegraph reporters. Open congratulations reached him at his office. Still he scooped the boys laboring around him.

My, my, what some folks do to make page one.

It looks like that trip to Hawaii erstwhile Coach Mose Simms at St. Mary's promised football players in 1941 is all off.

Simms has departed. He's looking around for a ranch in Coke county while San Antonio interests are having difficulties raising $25,000 to keep the grid program going.

Simms' silvery tongue could arrange for enough boats to transport four squads of D. X. Bible's University of Texas gridiron squad to Ankara and back.

INDIANS 4; RED SOX 2

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The amazing Cleveland Indians ran their winning streak to nine games Saturday by the simple expedient of jumping on Mike Ryba for four runs in the first inning. The resultant 4 to 2 triumph over the Boston Red Sox was Southpaw Al Milnar's third in four decisions.

Mr. Ryba, so versatile that he's frequently called a "one-man team," and all eight of his mates, couldn't prevent the quartet of extra-base blows which gave the league leaders the two-game series.

Roy Weatherly opened the Indians' first with a double and scored on Ken Keltner's triple. Lou Boudreau walked and Keltner tallied on Hal Trosky's fly. With the count three and two, Jeff Heath then lined his fourth home run of the season over the exit gate in League Park's right-center field. Ray Mack's triple later in the inning was wasted.

Ryba settled down and pitched four hitless innings and his two successors permitted no runs but the damage was done.

TIGERS 4; ATHLETICS 3

DETROIT—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers' star rescue man, big Al Benton, did his job again Saturday to safeguard a victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3, and give the home club a sweep of the two-game series.

Taking over with young Hal Newhouser in a jam in the eighth, Benton befuddled the A's with his sinker ball to hold the Philadelphia rally to two runs. It was Detroit's fourth victory in five games.

PATROLS NOT ADEQUATE TO HAMPER SUBS

Favors 'Delivering Goods To British'

By WILLIAM B. ARDERY

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Wendell L. Willkie, saying that the administration's existing sea patrol "is not adequate," declared Saturday that "we have got to get the goods delivered to Great Britain."

"The rate of sinkings is so serious that we should protect our cargoes of arms and food to England," the 1940 Republican presidential nominee asserted in an interview.

It was reported authoritatively that Willkie had sent word to President Roosevelt that he would support him in any move the chief executive might make to assure the delivery of American goods to Britain. Willkie himself told reporters:

Patrol Not Adequate

"If my information is correct, the present patrol method is not adequate to prevent our products from going to the bottom of the ocean."

Replying to reporters' questions, Willkie asserted that if he were president he would have military, naval and air experts advise him regarding the best method of protecting shipments to Britain and then would proceed on their advice.

"I am absolutely in favor of delivering the goods," he said, "whether it be by convoy, airplane accompaniment or any other method deemed best."

At the capitol, meantime, there were indications that Congress would hear increasing demands from some of its members for American convoys.

Sen. Guffey First

Senator Guffey (D-Pa) voiced the first such plea on Thursday, and it was disclosed Saturday that Senator Pepper (D-Fla) would express similar views in a Senate speech on Monday. Several other legislators were said to be withholding public statements of that nature because of uncertainty as to whether they might prove embarrassing to President Roosevelt.

Senator Tobey (R-NH), author of an anti-convoy resolution, contended Guffey's statement and Pepper's projected speech were part of an administration program to pave the way for convoys.

Willkie, questioned about public reaction to his recent article in Collier's magazine, advocating further help for Britain, asserted:

"I find that the people are confused and are searching earnestly, hoping that the administration will give them information and leadership."

Referring to the recent resignation of Charles A. Lindbergh from the air corps and President Roosevelt's decision not to renew the army reserve commission of General Hugh S. Johnson, Willkie said:

Says Lindy Wrong

"I don't think it contributes to leading the people to get into personal controversies with those of a different viewpoint. I wholly disagree with Col. Lindbergh, but in the words of Voltaire, 'I do not agree with a word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it.'

"The best way to dissipate any influence that Lindbergh might have is not to attack him personally, but to show the fallacy of his position.

"Likewise, no one has criticized me more of late than has General Hugh Johnson, but I think it exceedingly unfortunate that the failure to reappoint him came at a time when he was critical of the administration's foreign policy and those of us who disagree with his viewpoint."

Hitler Wants Discord

Willkie asserted that "nothing would delight Hitler more" than to see the American people "fall into the use of violent language about each other." He added:

"I am so firmly convinced that our foreign policy, enunciated by the administration and approved by an overwhelming majority of Congress in the enactment of the Lease-Lend Bill, is so right that we can finally convince all Americans of its wisdom. Certainly we can if we keep the channels of public discussion free and unclogged with the bitterness of personal recrimination.

Liquor Board Plans To Collect New Tax

AUSTIN—(AP)—The liquor board Saturday geared machinery to collection of added liquor taxes imposed in the recently enacted omnibus tax bill.

Administrator Bert Ford said the increased liquor impost was not collectable until 30 days after May 1 and full instructions for dealers and drug store permittees were being forwarded immediately.

Confessed Dynamite Slaying Held Hoax

LUISA, Ky.—(AP)—District Attorney M. J. Eagen of Scranton, Pa., said Saturday that Dwight O. Thorne admitted to him that he concocted a "confession" of being responsible for the dynamite slaying of William and Lois Rebhorn in Scranton last November.

Asked why he did it, Thorne replied:

"Even if I have to spend the rest of my life in the penitentiary, I can't tell you why I did it."

Tongue-Tied Singer Slowly Driving Mad U. S. Army Post

CAMP ROBINSON, Ark.—(AP)—A tongue-tied whipporwill has the officers of the 137th (Kansas) Infantry tearing their hair.

The night bird haunts the officers' quarters. It starts out on the "whip-poor—" call in great shape but can't get out the "will."

"The damned thing is driving us mad," said Capt. Guy E. Vining of Horton, Kas., adjutant of the regiment. "It's like hearing an orchestra play everything in a song but the last note."

Convict Sentenced In Prison Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Henri Young, convict-killer from Alcatraz, was labeled a cold-blooded murderer Saturday by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche who sentenced him for the knife-slaying of a fellow-convict.

A jury this week returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, although the government had asked death for 29-year-old Young, who knifed Rufus McCain to death in the prison last year. The jury thought "terrible conditions" at the prison for incorrigibles had temporarily deranged Young.

FD Okays Extending Insurance On Crops

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Roosevelt has approved the principle of extending federal crop insurance to commodities other than wheat, Chairman Fulmer (S-SC) of the House agricultural committee disclosed Saturday.

Fulmer made public a letter the President wrote Secretary Wickard saying that in view of "proven benefits" of crop insurance "consideration might now be given to the extension of federal insurance to other crops" as "reliable acturial bases are developed."

Missouri Students Win Their Strike

FORNFELT, Mo.—(AP)—The 130 Fornfelt high school students returned to class rooms—winners of a strike for reinstatement of Principal L. L. Schuette.

The pupils called their own recess and paraded around town for two days until the board of education called a special session Friday and offered a new contract to the popular teacher.

CAR LICENSE SALES CLIMB

$160,194 In Income For First Quarter

EDINBURG — Income from the sale of auto license plates in Hidalgo county in February, March and April reached a total of $160,194.56, County Treasurer K. W. Bonham announced Saturday.

The figure, one of the largest in recent years for this department of county and state revenue, includes virtually final reports on sales of truck licenses. The auto department of the tax collector's office turned in $5,364.32 in funds from such licenses for the week of April 26-May 3, Bonham announced.

The county and state share in the funds, the county receiving a majority of the early payments and the state receiving all above a total of $175,000 in county money.

Former Valley Girl Lecturer On Music

MISSION—Miss Martha McCurdy, graduate music student at Texas State College for Women, formerly of Mission and Pharr, presented a lecture recital of Texas folk songs at the college last week. Lecturing between numbers, Miss McCurdy was assisted by 21 senior music major students. She discussed the songs, using material from her master's thesis, "Choral Arrangements of Texas Folk Songs for Boys' Changing Voices."

Miss McCurdy was director of vocal music for three years at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School until she resigned to re-enter T.S.C.W. to secure her master's degree. She received her B.S. degree from that college in 1936. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCurdy of Kingsville, formerly of Mission.

Benson Ford Awaits Draft Service Call

MT. CLEMENS, Mich.—(AP)—Benson Ford, 21-year-old scion of the automobile family, Saturday awaited a call to a year's military training.

The Macomb county draft board No. 2 placed the grandson of Henry Ford in Class 1-A—available for immediate service—by a two to one vote.

MOTHER'S DAY LUNCHEON SET

San Benito Kiwanis Expect 60 Guests

SAN BENITO—San Benito Kiwanians have made their "dates" and an excellent program has been completed for the annual Mother's Day luncheon at noon Wednesday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel.

This Kiwanis party, begun by the local organization, has received national recognition and originated with Mrs. C. L. Milner, wife of the current president of the club.

About 60 mothers will attend the party for which the program has been planned by Grady St. Clair, vice president assisted by a committee of J. P. Ellis, Lee Roy Crawford and Elmer Morris.

Minister Speaker

Rev. R. O. Cawker, past president of the Corpus Christi club and pastor of that city's First Baptist church, will be the principal speaker. Other distinguished visitors will include Bob Sorrell, lieut. governor of division four of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district, also of Corpus Christi, who will induct five new members into the club.

Lee Roy Crawford will be master of ceremonies and welcoming address will be given by President C. L. Milner. Mayor Louis S. Witte, first president of the local club, will present awards to five mothers, as is the annual custom—to the one with the most children, the most grandchildren, the most great grandchildren, the oldest mother and the mother who was born furtherest distance away from San Benito.

Music Program

The program will open with group singing. S. V. Neely, past president, and Rev. C. S. McKinney will offer the invocation. Luncheon music will be presented by Miss Ruth Atkinson, pianist and Kiwanian Louis Valle, violinist, and novelty numbers will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden and Tol Boswell Sr.

The decorating committee is composed of Mrs. John Prentiss, chairman; Mrs. Lee Roy Crawford, Mrs. J. K. Frater, Mrs. Jesse Welch and Mrs. W. D. Collins.

Rev. C. S. McKinney, Rev. L. J. Rode and Clay Hall are on the "cupid" committee to make dates for all club members.

Chrysler Turns Out First Tank To Army

DETROIT —(AP)— Fully equipped and ready for combat, the first M-3 medium 28-ton tank was placed aboard a freight car at the Chrysler tank arsenal Saturday and shipped to the United States Army.

Completed in less than four months time, and described by army experts as the best weapon of its type available, the mobile fortress is one of hundreds of Chrysler Corporation has contracted to build.

Manila Constabulary Move To Stamp Out Uprising Of Moros

MANILA— (AP) —Constabulary reinforcements moved Saturday to stamp out an incipient uprising of Moro tribesmen bent on avenging the death of 21 kinsmen killed Thursday in a fanatical attack on the Taglibi military outpost in Sulu province.

Reports from the isolated region said the situation was growing more serious, and observers expressed the opinion that numerous recent disturbances in Sulu and Mindanao provinces were the result of outside agitation aimed at inflaming the Mohammedan Moros against Christians.

'Free French' Deny Preparing For Push

LONDON—(AP)—Headquarters of the "Free French" denied "in the most categorical way" Saturday that any De Gaullist forces had been sent to Zeila, in British Somaliland near the French Somaliland border, or that "Free French" and British forces had gathered at Daouanleh, just inside the French frontier for an attack.

The French government at Vichy recently reported that De Gaullist forces were at these two places and were attempting to induce the French garrison to join the "Free French."

The engagement and June marriage of Miss Anne Marie Smith (shown left), instructor in the McAllen schools, and Hunter Halliday Ewing of Mission is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Smith, Sr., of Houston. Mr. Ewing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ewing.

Miss Phyllis Jones To Wed Don Eubank In McAllen Rites

McALLEN—Close friends of Miss Phyllis Jones were her guests Thursday night when her mother, Mrs. E. Paul Jones, announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Don Harland Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Eubank, all of McAllen.

Wedding rites for the popular young McAllen couple will be solemnized in an evening ceremony June 2 at the First Presbyterian church.

Announcement of the coming rites uniting the two young McAllen residents was disclosed when little Bettye Jo Buescher gave each guest a dainty parchment scroll held in a miniature wedding ring, carrying the announcement, "Phyllis and Don, June 2."

A beautiful doll bride, a childhood keepsake of the young bride-elect's, centered the satin and tulle topped buffet when refreshments were served. Complete even to her miniature bouquet the doll has been a treasured souvenir of the new bride-to-be.

The candlelit refreshment table carrying out a pink and white theme, was centered with a low bouquet of pink roses and Queen Anne's lace. Atop the small cakes served,

Betty Berly Honored With Round Of Parties; Wedding Is Wednesday

HARLINGEN — Miss Betty Berly, whose marriage to Lieut. James Rogers of Fort Benning, Ga., will take place Wednesday, May 7, is being honored with a gay round of parties during the weekend. Miss Berly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berly.

Misses Kelsey and Jean Stuart were hostesses Friday evening at their Stuart Place home for an unusual buffet supper that cleverly dramatized a military theme. Invitations were replicas of the notices sent by draft boards.

Entertainment included a rifle contest, staged with BB guns, bingo in which insignias, medals, seals and other decorations of military and patriotic character were awarded as prizes and other contests noting the national defense theme.

Guests were attierd in playsuits and slacks and the delicious menu stressed regulation army fare such as hash, baked beans and pie. Tin cups and plates added to the training camp atmosphere.

Exquisite orange gladioli were used in the dining room for decoration. Arranged about the living room were yellow gladioli spikes and amaryllis.

The hostess' gift to the honoree was presented in a tow sack as a final touch to the novel party motif.

Guests included the honoree, her mother, and Misses Buena Myers, Rosemary Kunkel, Margie Medley, Jane Davis, and Louise Hill, Mrs. Al Schorre, Mrs. Marie Potts Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stuart, and Leslie Stuart.

Mrs. T. S. Herren honored the popular bride-elect Saturday when she entertained with a luncheon at her nome. Guests included the honoree and her mother and a small group of her intimate girl friends.

Lovely blossoms from the hostess' garden gave added charm to the rooms. Gorgeous white lilies in crystal centered the table.

Each guest wrote her favorite recipe in a book which was the gift of the hostess to the bride-to-be.

Another attractive courtesy honoring Miss Berly was the evening dessert bridge which had Mrs. Al Schorre as hostess at her home Thursday.

White gladioli and white tapers in the dining room emphasized the bridal theme. Centerpiece for the table was an arrangement of the flowers in fan shape. Gladioli graced the buffet and the tallies and other appointments for the games of bridge noted the bridal motif.

Miss Kelsey Stuart made high score and presented her trophy to the honoree, who also received a gold vanity case, engraved with her name, as a gift from her hostess.

In the guest group were Misses Louise Hill, Jane Davis, Mary Anise Bush, Kelsey Stuart, Buena Myers, Jean Stuart, and Margie Medley, Mesdames Marie Potts Hoffman, Menton J. Murray, and Lance Tarrance and the honoree.

Mrs. Thomas Sweeney, Jr., and Miss Josephine Taylor of Brownsville entertained Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Berly and Sunday morning Miss Buena Myers will compliment her with a breakfast.

For her announcement party Miss Jones was chic in a green and white jersey street frock, topped with a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Born in McAllen Miss Jones, who will graduate in May from the McAllen senior high school, has always been a popular member of the young social set here. She is a member of the Sub Deb club and the Nu Phi Mu sorority. The groom-elect, employed by the International Boundary Commission, was also graduated from McAllen schools. The young couple will make their home in McAllen.

City Federation Of Missionary Groups Meets

McALLEN — Sixty were present Thursday when the McAllen Federation of Missionary Organizations held an interdenominational luncheon at the Casa de Palmas Hotel at 12:30 a. m.

To mark each place, tiny May baskets filled with flowers were used and the long tables were centered with roses and larkspur.

Mrs. H. G. Kinney, president of the federation, presided and introduced Mesdames W. W. Holmes, Fred Pierce, R. S. Osborne and E. A. Lindsay who gave short talks. Mrs. H. J. Howard, accompanied by Mrs Fred Hamner, sang a solo and Mrs. William Wilson of Battlecreek, Mich., led in group singing. Mrs. T. K. Barton outlined the work of the Bundles for Britain organization.

Mrs. Cheever Has Meeting Of Club

McALLEN—Mrs. Johnny Snider was a visitor last week when the Orange Blossom club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Cheever.

During the business meeting the president appointed a consultation commitee composed of Mrs. J. B. Whistler, Mrs. Harry Cheever and Miss Margaret Crook, and introduced Mrs. Cheever who gave a demonstration on nut bread.

Refreshments were served at the close of the session.

Guests From Boston

ALAMO — Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hart and niece Marion Davis., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis, arrived in Alamo on Saturday from Boston. The Harts expect to spend a short vacation here before their return east.

Brownsville Bride

Mrs. James Collins Reed of Brownsville was before her recent marriage Miss Katherine Louise Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brown of Brownsville. Mr. Reed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Reed of Harlingen. (A. Rogers Photo.)

Pretty Church Ceremony Unites Well-Known Pair; To Reside In Harlingen

HARLINGEN—Marriage of Miss Mahalah Hamner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hamner of Hempstead, and Lloyd E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen of Harlingen, was solemnized in a simple ceremony read Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. Rev. James W. Albritten, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mercedes, read the marriage lines.

A huge bouquet of white gladioli, on a pedestal basket, dominated the floral arrangements that gave an altar-like setting for the service. On either side were baskets of white blossoms, in which pink flowers were intermingled, and tiers of white candelabra holding white lighted tapers. Kentia palms outlined the altar and formed a background for the flowers while fern was banked on the chancel rail.

Mrs. Darold Jackson was at the organ, playing the traditional wedding marches and playing softly during the ceremony. James Johnson, Edcouch, was soloist. He sang "Because" D'Hardelot, and "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The bride entered with her eldest brother, Sam R. Hamner of Hempstead, and was given by him in marriage. Her costume was of triple sheer crepe in a prairie rose shade with lingerie trimming in silk lace. The matching bolero had trapunto embroidery and the dawn blue girdle was matched by gloves in the same shade. Her white off-the-face hat was worn with dawn blue veil and her other accessories were white. An orchid was her corsage.

Only attendant to the bride was her sister, Mrs. George W. Wehrung III of Houston. Her costume was of navy blue alpaca worn with white accessories and her corsage of sweetheart roses.

Both wore gold necklaces fashioned from hand engraved earrings which had belonged to their grandmother.

James K. Brittain, Mercedes, was best man for Mr. Allen and ushers were E. H. (Bob) Moody, McAllen, brother-in-law of the groom, and Harry Raper.

The mother of the bride chose a triple-sheer frock in dusty pink finished with embroidered collar and cuffs. Her corsage was of white gladioli. Mrs. Allen, mother of the groom was attired in a tan alpaca redingote with red accessories and wore Etoil de Holland roses for corsage.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the new home of the couple, 105 E. Buchanan. Pink and white gladioli were arranged about the rooms.

The wedding cake, a three-tiered and decorated in all white, was placed at one end of the table which was laid with cloth of a hand-made linen lace. Mrs. Wehrung served the cake, Mrs. James Brittain presided at the coffee service at the opposite table end, and Mrs. Moody had charge of the guest book.

The couple will be at home about May 15 following a wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Florence M. Allen, Corpus Christi, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Allen, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Corpus Christi; Mrs. R. E. Hamner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Hamner, and Mrs. Joe Ed Hamner, Hempstead.

The bride, a former resident of Harlingen and of Raymondville, has been honoree for prenuptial events in several Valley towns. She is president of the Mercedes chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Coming Rites Of Interest

MISSION—An announcement of an approaching wedding made last week in Ocean Springs, Miss., claims interest in Mission, home city of the groom-elect. Miss Margaret Lewis Lemon of Ocean Springs, will be married June 11 to Ernest Wilder Halstead, Jr., of Mission, according to the announcement made by Miss Lemon's brother, James K. Lemon. The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James K. Lemon, Sr., pioneer residents of Ocean Springs. Mr. Halstead is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Halstead, Sr. of Mission, formerly of Ocean Springs. The two families were old friends and the engaged couple were childhood sweethearts.

Since the announcement of her engagement, Miss Lemon has been complimented with a number of pre-nuptial courtesies.

Lutheran Ladies Aid Has Business Meet

HARLINGEN— Two new members, Mrs. Leo Seibert and Mrs. Benno Saliger, were added to St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid at the business meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kieschnick.

The dining room table was attractive with a bowl of nasturtiums in the center and miniature Maypoles on either side. The same May Day decorations were carried out in the living room.

Highlight of the meeting was a talk by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Wolf, on life in the army camps and the role the church has in serving them. Plans were also made for the coming mission festival.

The hostess served a delicious sandwich course to 20 members and guests.

Spend Day Sewing

ALAMO — Mrs. G. W. Cook was hostess Tuesday when the Missionary Society of the Baptist church met for the day to do Red Cross sewing. A covered dish lunch was served at noon.

Smith-Ewing Marriage Is Set In June

McALLEN—The engagement and approaching marriage of an Upper Valley couple was announced this week by the bride-elect's parents in Houston when Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Smith, Sr., of Houston, announced June nuptials for their daughter, Miss Anne Marie Smith, instructor in the McAllen schools, to Hunter Halliday Ewing of Mission and Corpus Christi.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ewing, prominent pioneer Mission couple.

The wedding will be solemnized in June at the St. Anthony's Episcopal church in Houston.

Miss Smith for the past year has been employed as instructor at the McAllen junior high school. She is a graduate of Rice University at Houston where she was a member of the Rice Writers' club and elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society.

The groom-to-be who was educated in the Mission schools received his degree in petroleum engineering from the Texas A. and M. College. He is a member of the Texas Geologists Asosciation.

Setting For Party Pretty

HARLINGEN — Especially attractive among the series of delightful affairs arranged during the past fortnight to honor Mrs. Leland Parsons and mother, Mrs. Aline Beckham, was the bridge luncheon which had as hostesses Mrs. Joe T. Sellars and Mrs. R. M. Loving at the home of the latter. A profusion of spring blossoms in pastel tints made the party rooms particularly inviting.

A delicious three-course luncheon was served and later games of contract were enjoyed.

The hostesses presented gifts to the honorees.

In the guest personnel were Mesdames N. V. Stewart, C. M. Talk, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Herman Bupp, Bill Newland, San Benito, Vaughan Clarke, E. B. Reeves, Raymondville, J. N. Crawford, R. M. Loving, and Joe T. Sellars, Miss Alma Robb, and the honor guests.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Slated Wednesday Night

BROWNSVILLE — Fourth annual mother-daughter banquet will be sponsored here at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening by the Skinner Memorial class of the church.

The affair will be held at the church at 7 p.m., and the general public is invited to attend. Tickets are forty cents apiece.

Speaker of the evening will be Miss La Verne Walker, an instructor in the high school, and another feature of the event will be songs by a quartet composed of Mrs. George F. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Wilson, and Mrs. Ava Prosser and her daughter, Miss Lila Lee Prosser.

New Evening Circle Will Meet Monthly

HARLINGEN — Organization of a business women's circle was effected at a meeting Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Fifteen members were present.

Mrs. Glenn Miller, president of the auxiliary, gave the devotional, "Teach Us to Pray." Mrs. J. B. Challes, district president, talked on the benefits of evening circles.

A special guest was Mrs. E. B. Witmer, Mercedes, founder of the movement for business women's circles in the Valley.

Mrs. Ben McLean was named chairman, Mrs. Henry Carlisle co-chairman and representative from the Auxiliary, and Miss Joyce Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings will be held at 6:45 p.m. the first Thursday of each month at the church when dinner will be served.

WITH EGGUM'S

HARLINGEN—Mrs. Sally Brittain will assume her new position May 5 with Eggum's in McAllen. For the past three years Mrs. Brittain has been employed in Hertz Style Shop in Harlingen.

Rio Hondo Girl Is Leader

Miss Mary Mize, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mize of Rio Hondo, is expected home from Austin at the week-end. She participated in the state interscholastic league contest in girls' declamation after winning first place in county, district, and regional meets. Miss Mize, a high school senior, was elected as "Who's Who" representative from the school and is active in sports and schoo clubs and activities. Her parents are pioneer residents of Rio Hondo. (Holbrook Studio)

Annual Breakfast Held By 20th Century Club; Pan-American Next Study

LA FERIA — Members of the Twentieth Century Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. T. Anderson for the annual breakfast and closing meeting of the year.

Mrs. Anderson, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by other members of her committee as hostesses. They are Mesdames Wenple Sanders, V. L. Roland and J. G. Cochrane.

The menu was served at quartet tables which were appointed to signify May Day with Maypoles serving as centerpieces. Maybaskets filled with tiny flowers were favors. About the rooms were arrangements of exqunisite Easter lilies.

Annual reports of officers were made at the business meeting in charge of Mrs. W. H. Voiers, president. The sum of $10 was donated toward the memorial book shelf in the high school library. Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. O. O. Butcher were named to aid in selecting the books.

Mrs. A. L. Todd read a resolution expressing regret over the passing of Miss Margaret Oliver, a beloved member.

Mrs. E. C. Walace gave a report of the Valley Federation meeting at Weslaco.

After Mrs. Voiers made her annual report she was presented with a lovely crystal vase from members of the executive board.

Mrs. Wallace, new president, directed a brief session which accepted and reviewed the two-year study on Pan-America as recommended by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It was also decided to dedicate the yearbooks to Mrs. M. E. Mitchell and Miss Margaret Oliver, members which the club lost by death during the year.

Other officers who will serve with Mrs. Wallace during the next year are: Mrs. J. G. Cochrane, second vice president; Mrs. Leon Hargrove, secretary; Mrs. O. C. Trotman, treasurer; and Mrs. H. F. Harren, publicity.

Committee members announced by Mrs. Wallace include: social, Mrs. V. L. Roland, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. O. O. Butcher; music, Mrs. A. L. Todd; art, Mrs. C. H. Ritter; civic, Mrs. Leonard Hargrove; visiting, Mrs. H. W. Voiers.

Mrs. Frank Lucas and Mrs. A. L. Hamilton were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Rothgeb Hostess For Pretty Event

HARLINGEN — The lovely home of Mrs. C. J. Rathgeb at Stuart Place was the setting Thursday for the concluding hospitality arranged to honor Mrs. Aline Beckham and her daughter, Mrs. Leland Parsons, prior to their departure for their new home in Corpus Christi. Guests were received in rooms made festive with arrangements of pink roses.

After the tempting two course luncheon, served buffet style, games of bridge were enjoyed. The travel prize, the wrappings cleverly simulating a traveling bag, went to Mrs. C. W. Letzerich.

Each honoree received a piece of hammered silver, a gift from the hostess.

Forming the guest group were Mrs. Wm. Newlin, San Benito, and Mesdames Vaughan Clark, Herman Bupp, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Joe T. Sellars, R. M. Loving, C. M. Talk, and N. V. Stewart, and the honorees.

Mrs. L. H. Moore Hostess At Coffee

McALLEN— Mrs. L. H. Moore informally entertained with a coffee Thursday morning to compliment a few out-of-town visitors.

They were Mrs. Laura Peacock of Pennsylvania, sister of Mrs. Moore; Mrs. Vina Crawford of Canada; Mrs. Mortimer Lewis of Houston, and Mrs. Sally Tatum of Bishop.

Group Studies China

ALAMO — The study of China was continued at the missionary meeting of the Community Church Ladies Aid on Thursday. Mrs. George Rydl gave the devotional and Mrs. Emma Phillips reviewed the first part of a book "Dangerous Opportunity" followed by a map drill by Mrs. C. U. Reed and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Denzer, Mrs. B. H. Lockett and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Dinner Honors McAllen Resident

McALLEN— Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Peterson entertained a group of friends for dinner this week to honor Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. G. Schmidt.

The personnel included Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Barnes and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. F. Schmidt and son; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Walker and daughter and son, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Schmidt.

Sam Woodsons Visit

BROWNSVILLE — Guests in the Thomas H. Sweeney home are Mrs. Sweeney's brother, Sam Woodson, and Mrs. Woodson of Sherman.

Mrs. Sweeney's niece, Miss Sue Woodson, and her friend, Miss Betty Ann Bail have returned to their home in Decatur, Illinois, after a visit here en route home from stays in Mexico and Guatemala.

Miss Lawson, Bride-Elect, Is Honoree

McALLEN—Continuing the round of parties given for Miss Maris Lawson, whose marriage to Francis Linn will be solemnized Friday morning, Mrs. Henry Erdmann and her mother, Mrs. H. J. Ramsey entertained with a crystal shower Thursday night at the home of the latter.

Carrying out the color scheme chosen by Miss Lawson, yellow and white were used throughout. For the table decorations a huge bowl of yellow nasturtiums formed a pretty centerpiece. On the buffet where the gifts of crystal were displayed was a tall vase filled with Easter lilies.

Those attending were Mesdames Aleta Clark, Don Simpson, L. B. Weed, N. L. Bormann, Jr., Howard Faulkner, F. L. Gilbert, J. F. Linn, E. D. Matnis, E. A. Polzin, Victor Lawson, N. L. Bormann, Sr., S. J. Purl, Jr., George Edwards, A. L. Hart, Jr., and A. L. Hart Sr., with Misses Maybelle Smitham, Willa Mae Meek and Lucille Smitham.

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

HARLINGEN — Miss Burr Dee Whitley, who is leaving Sunday, May 4, to go to Oklahoma where she is to wed W. A. "Bill" Wallace, was honor guest Tuesday evening for a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Fred Purvis. Cohostesses were Mrs. John Quaintance and Miss Aileen Armstrong.

Pink and white blossoms decorated the guest rooms.

The honoree wore a corsage of white blooms and her mother, Mrs. B. D. Whitley, wore a pink one.

Pink roses and honeysuckle encircled the large white cake which served as a centerpiece for the lace laid table which was set with silver and crystal. A dainty service of heart-shaped sandwiches and cake, served with punch, emphasized the bridal theme.

Games of bingo were enjoyed during the evening and when the honoree won a number of attractive gifts were presented to her.

About 30 of her friends were guests.

FATHER IS ILL

EDINBURG — Mrs. Frank Waters left Tuesday night for Huntingdon, Tennessee, where she was called by the serious illness of her father.

This'n That

By MINNIE GILBERT

WATER hyacinths, the bulbous variety that are now blossoming in resacas and barrow pits, made their first commercialized appearance in the Valley this month when they were offered customers in a five and ten.

Despite the fact that water districts have literally spent thousands of dollars having the thick-growing plants yanked from drainage ditches and lakes to assist drainage, a few tubs full were included in stocks sent to Valley stores.

Pioneers assert that the water hyacinths now growing wild over the Valley were brought originally from Louisiana.

Like the cactus transplanted in Australia, they have thrived even more than in their native habitat and it is only in recent years that irrigation districts have made much headway in getting them under control.

Persons admiring fragile stalks of lavender blooms and glossy leaves should limit their transplanting to lily ponds and private lakes and refrain from putting the bulbs in drainage ditches or canals to harass drainage officials.

About the prettiest pond of the hyacinths this spring is at the home of Mrs. W. H. Avery about a mile and a half from Harlingen on the Wilson Road (near Fairpark).

THANKS TO THE readers who called our attention to the misspelling of anacahuita in this column last Sunday.

It was the anacahuita, commonly known as wild olive, to which we referred and not the less well known anaqua.

Mrs. J. M. Saner who lives east of Rio Hondo sends a note pointing out that a cough sirup is made from the fruits of the anacahuita which resemble olives.

She reminds us that the anaqua, which abounds in the Las Yescas community where she has made her home for many years, is known as the knockaway tree and bears clusters of small white fragrant blossoms and later berries which are much liked by birds and poultry.

ANOTHER BIT of information which we'd like from Mrs. Saner is the true meaning of the name Las Yescas.

It's been our belief that the name indicates will-o'-the-wisp or reappearing lights and results from the fact that the area once was a vast marsh where marsh lights occasionally were seen.

ONE OF THE compensations for excessive rains this spring has been luxuriant growth made by shrubs and annuals and next autumn ought to bring additional dividends with poinsettias and other tropical plants showing results of exceptional moisture.

Planting of rooted bougainvillea plants in the cans in which they were rooted has been reported unsatisfactory by an amateur gardener who has rooted hundreds of the shrubs.

Although planting in the cans prevents the disturbance of transplanting, it also prevents moisture reaching the roots except that which is received in the top of the can.

Because rusting is induced by oxidizing caused by the air, cans remain in good condition underground and consequently the plants become root bound in addition to becoming limited in ability to collect moisture.

SAN BENITO has already made considerable strides in its beautification program, particularly the resaca area.

And now a movement is on to assist shopkeepers along the highway in Mexiquito section to improve the appearance of their stores.

Insofar as is practical, there would be good cause to make the exteriors resemble stores in Mexico with prominent displays of Mexican handicraft, stands selling refrescos and fruits, and the signs indicating the nature of the business within, such as a huge shoe or hat after the manner followed by Mexican store owners, probably for customers unable to read.

WONDER HOW practical it would be to grow huge flowering poinsettias in the concrete urns that hold evergreens each Christmastime at street intersections in San Benito?

With careful pruning and feeding it would seem comparatively easy to produce sturdy plants loaded with blossoms that would furnish Christmas decoration of a sort not seen anywhere else in the world.

It probably would be necessary to replace the flowering poinsettias two or three times, depending on the weather, since they would be exposed to wind if they were placed at the intersections.

MRS. HUGH Ramsey, Harlingen, district committeewoman for the 15th district, American Legion Auxiliary, is anxious that parents of young girls think seriously about the entertainment of youths training in nearby camps.

A host of citizens throughout the Valley are sharing Mrs. Ramsey's concern and tackling the problem from different angles, but there are far too few who have given the matter any thought at all.

Chaperonage of the girls invited to attend dances to which trainees are welcome is being arranged by patriotic-minded women.

Something should be done to change the growing conviction of many youths that wearing a uniform makes them tabu socially.

Featured Speaker

Miss Willimette Andrus, Weslaco, has been featured as guest speaker on several occasions. She spoke before the vocational group of Texas State Teachers Association in San Antonio in Austin, taking part in a panel discussion on business as it contributes to national defense. Recently she was guest speaker for a banquet held by the 20-30 Club in Weslaco, talking "Personality." She has been elected as one of the state delegates to the Texas State Teachers Association in Houston in the fall. (Kerr Studio.)

Annual Charity Ball Planned Friday Night At Patio In McAllen

McALLEN—Dancers from over the Valley will gather in McAllen Friday night when the Junior Service league stages its semi-annual charity ball in the patio of the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Always a "must" on anybody's date book, this spring dance will keep up the league's record for fun at all their frolics for charity.

To assure a top-notch orchestra for this major on the Valley social events league, the group has engaged Mack Rogers and his 10-piece band to swing into his music at 9 p.m. for four hours of dancing.

With only 150 couple tickets printed for the affair, sale will be a "first come, first served" proposition, members said. Tickets went on sale Thursday at $2.50 a couple. Early reservations indicated a rapid asle of tickets, members said.

All proceeds from the charity ball go to the McAllen Child's clinic. Construction has already started on a new clinic building where the league's foremost charity project for the last three years will be housed by the end of summer.

The dance will be the forerunner of a series of events to close the league's season and to honor newly elected officers.

New president of the popular civic-social organization is Mrs. W. J. Carter, elected this week to succeed Mrs. J. K. Boettger.

Other officers include Mrs. O. Terry, vice president; Mrs. Jack Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. LeBow, recording secretary; and Mrs. Bob Elmore, treasurer. The new leaders will be officially installed May 15 at the annual league luncheon at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Helen Millwee's Marriage To Be Celebrated May

BROWNSVILLE—Of interest here is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen Millwee, daughter of Mr. R. H. Millwee of Dallas, to Dr. James Navarro White of Galveston.

The rites will be celebrated May 26.

The bride-elect resided in Brownsville with her cousin, Mrs. Lula George, and attended Brownsville schools. She is a graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton. Mr. White is with the United States Marine hospital in Galveston.

Hospital Women To Stage Benefit

EDINBURG—Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the County-City hospital are sponsoring a benefit bridge party Monday at the community house.

Mrs. B. H. Hooks is chairman of the ticket sales committee and Mrs. A. C. Statham her assistant. The public is invited to attend.

Visitors will be shown through the hospital all day May 12 in recognition of "National Hospital Day." Refreshments will be served from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

May Season Opens With Pretty Event

McALLEN—The May time as a social season was opened effectively Thursday when two young McAllen hostesses entertained at a "May day" dessert bridge at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Hostesses for the pretty affair, whose May day theme fitted the opening of the month, were Mrs. Maco Stewart and Mrs. J. Lyle Hill.

To give accent to the motif for the day a large, gay, pastel-toned May pole was the center of attraction in the decorative scheme. From the pole wide, pastel streamers of eight different colors stretched to as many tables where the dessert guests were seated.

Place for each guest was marked with a dainty corsage of spring flowers whose colors repeated the tones of the May pole trim.

Centering the main table was a huge silver basket, filled with quantities of Easter lilies. The arrangement was effective on a large oval mirror. Spring flowers were used elsewhere.

The group was divided into two to play bridge. First prize winner in one group was Mrs. F. O. Swan with Mrs. R. L. Marston second; in the other group Mrs. W. W. Hall took first with Mrs. Bert Faulkner second. Mrs. R. F. Miller won the traveling prize.

Guests included Mesdames L. A. Green, Paul Sherwood, Larry Fritz, J. C. Monk, Warren Davis, A. A. Bonneau, W. J. Carter, Charles Ferguson, Jack Nelson, Brad Smith, Joe LeBow, N. E. Buescher, John H. Gregory, Lowell Deer;

Pair Honored By Faculty

HARLINGEN—Miss Loreet Anderson and Edward H. R. Green, whose marriage will take place in June, were honored by other members of the high school faculty Saturday with a tea given from five to seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Martin Hamilton. Quantities of pink roses were attractively arranged about the reception rooms.

In the dining room an all-white color theme was noted in floral arrangements and tapers for the tea table.

Mrs. D. M. Denton presided for the first period and Mrs. E. C. Deering poured during the second hour.

A handsome gift was presented by the hosts to the affianced couple who are members of the high school teaching staff.

Mrs. Jensen Hostess

ALAMO — Mrs. Albert Jensen was hostess on Wednesday when she entertained the members of the Wednesday bridge club. She served a salad course to Mesdames Ira Sharp, Carl Drennan, Dales Knapp, Darnell de Roulac, A. F. Taylor, Tut Caddel and C. B. Vinsant.

Mrs. Caddel held high score, Mrs. Jensen second high and Mrs. Knapp low.

Special Week Planned To Aid Hospitals

HARLINGEN—Members of the Harlingen branch have completed plans for sharing in the nation-wide program of Bundles for Britain Inc., which will assist England's traditional Hospital Day May 6. The local chapter, which has Mrs. Robt. W. Pollock as chairman, will give all contributions placed in the milk bottles over town during the week to the hospital fund.

In other parts of the country various plans are being carried out to raise money gravely needed to assist over-crowded hospitals in the war-racked country. In New York, famous stars of stage and screen will be on the streets to collect funds.

In England, instead of pretty debutantes in spring frocks collecting on street corners as in more fortunate years, there will be brave English women in tin hats and gas masks who know that the hospitals must continue their humane work. In spite of war, threatened invasion, and nightly air raids, England will hold annual Hospital Day May 6, but help is needed from the United States in raising needed funds.

Hospital Aid Is Suggested

HARLINGEN—A gift to the hospital as a suitable observance of Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11, has been suggested by a pioneer Valley woman who has been in close touch with the operation of Valley Baptist Hospital since its opening in 1925.

How many times that original service has been expanded and improved is revealed by the merest glance at early records. In the first year there was no elevator. An elevator was installed in 1926 when several of the board members borrowed $5000 on their personal note.

Last year the hospital was approved by the American College of Surgeons as a standard hospital.

For two consecutive years the hospital has received international recognition in connection with educational programs carried out in connection with National Hospital Day which is to be observed May 12.

Weekend Guest

HARLINGEN — Almeda Louise Hornaday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Polk Hornaday, left Friday for Kingsville to be the guest for the weekend of Mrs. Annie B. Littlejohn and daughter, Daphne.

VISIT IN MISSION

MISSION—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klapperich and daughter, Carol Ann, and the former's sister, Miss May Oma Klapperich, arrived at the week-end for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Klapperich, coming from their home in San Antonio.

Talented

Miss Evelyn Baumgartner of Beaver, Okla., who is visiting in Edinburg, is becoming increasingly popular as an entertainer as she appears before various Valley organizations. She is a talented vocalist and is the daughter of Mrs. O. W. Curry.

To El Paso

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. D. P. Gay, Jr., departed Saturday for El Paso where she will be the guest for about a month of her brother-in-law, Lee W. Jones.

Supper Set By Classes

HARLINGEN — A covered dish supper and program will be held in connection with the joint meeting of the Daughters of Wesley Class and the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church Thursday evening, May 8. The event will be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clift, Sr., at 7:15 p.m.

Each member of the Wesley Class will take a covered dish for the supper and the men will furnish the beverages.

A program will be given during the evening.

HARLINGEN — Newly elected officers will have charge of the installation Monday night which will feature the annual meeting of the Harlingen Business and Professional Women's Club. Members will meet in the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel patio.

Canal Zone Is Setting For Wedding

Rites Solemnized In Cristobal Church

BROWNSVILLE — Of much interest in Brownsville and in other parts of the Valley is the following account, taken from The Star and Herald, Panama, R. P., Sunday, April 27:

"The marriage of Miss Florence Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wilson of Brownsville, Texas, to Mr. Howard K. Cummins of Cristobal, was solemnized at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Cristobal Union church with the pastor, the Rev. Cecil L. Morgan, officiating. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Cummins of Brownsville, were present with members of the Pan American Airways staff at France Field, where Mr. Cummins is employed as assistant airport manager, and a group of friends.

"The bride was lovely in a floor-length frock of shell pink marquisette. She wore a picture hat of lacy straw in a matching shade of pink and carried a bouquet of orchids. Miss Anne Shirley, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a lace tea dress in pastel blue and a wide white straw hat. Her flowers were a bouquet of orchids.

"Mr. Louis Kowalski was best man. Preceding the entrance of the wedding party, Miss Ruth Egolf of Gatun sang 'Because.' Mr Lee Moyer, organist, was her accompanist and played the wedding marches. Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, and Mr. Wayne Kirchner were ushers.

"Following the wedding ceremony, Miss Anne Shirley entertained with a dinner party at the Hotel Washington, honoring Mr. Cummins and his lovely young bride. Other guests included Mr. Cummins' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil L. Morgan, the Misses Sue and Sadie Kyle, Miss Leslie Stevens, Mr. Louis Kowalski, Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, Mr. Wayne Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt.

"The young couple left last evening for the Pacific Side and will go by plane today to Medellin for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Colon.

"Mr. Cummins came to the Isthmus a year ago from Brownsville. His bride arrived Friday by Pan American Airways plane from that city. Mr. Cummins' parents accompanied the bride to the Isthmus and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt in Old Cristobal."

Book Review Given For Junior Club

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. Randall Mathers reviewed the book, "On the Long Tide," by the Texas writer, Laura Krey, at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Junior Self-Culture club at the home of Mrs. Martin Price.

The book, a story of early Texas history, tells of the hardships, great courage and bravery of the Texas pioneers.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Jack Wiech, president, Mrs. H. N. Pitner gave a report of the City Federation meeting, and Mrs. Fred Pilgrim told of the Valley Federation meeting.

Miss Betty Rockwell was elected corresponding secretary for the remainder of the year, taking the place of Mrs. G. W. Putegnat who has joined Mr. Putegnat at Camp Wolters in Mineral Wells; and corresponding secretary for 1941-42 to fill the place left by the resignation from the club of Miss Elizabeth Graham.

Most of the members planned to assist in the drive for funds for the Women's Field Army of the America Society for the Control of Cancer, slated Saturday.

Two guests at the meeting were Mrs. John F. Barron and Mrs. Carol Tanner.

The next meeting will be the annual May breakfast of the club at 9:30 a.m. at Landrum's May 17.

Club Entertained By Mrs. Gilliland

RAYMONDVILLE—Mrs. Earl Gilliland served breakfast to her Thursday Morning club.

Guests playing for absent members were Mrs. E. H. Jamison and Mrs. J. K. Smith. Mrs. G. E. Bennack made high score and received the trophy.

Lovely roses and snapdragons made the party rooms springlike.

Council To Meet

RAYMONDVILLE—The Valley Council of Garden Clubs will meet in Raymondville on Friday, May 9, at 11 o'clock.

Time and place will be announced at an early date.

In May or June this year the Columbia River, backed up by Grand Coulee Dam, is expected to reach full flood stage. It will form a like 151 miles long.

Engagement Announced

Engagement of Miss Gertrude Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett of Pharr and San Juan, and Dale Terry of Corpus Christi, son of Mrs. Frances Meyers of Corpus Christi, was recently announced at a tea given by the parents of the bride-to-be. Miss Bennett, whose wedding will take place during the spring season, was honored with a beautifully appointed bridal shower recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Chancellor in Pharr. (Kerr Studio.)

Seal Eskimos Of Canada Described For Table In Review By Mrs. Faxon

BROWNSVILLE — Members of the Pan American Round Table, meeting Friday at El Jardin hotel, for the regular monthly program and luncheon were given a fascinating picture of the Seal Eskimos of King William Land, by Mrs. Kenneth Faxon, in a program on Canada.

The program was in the for mof a book review of "Kabloona," by Viconte Gontran de Montaigne de Poncins in collaboration with Lewis Galantiere.

Mrs. Ben M. Freudenstein, director, presided at the session, when the members answered roll call with current events on their respective countries.

Mrs. Fred J. Wheeler of Glendale, California, a guest here in the home of her mother, Mrs. G. W. Johnson, was welcomed. Mrs. Wheeler, a former Table member, told of her activities in national defense work in aviation.

Decorations for the table was especially effective. In miniature were igloos, fashioned cleverly of lump sugar, barren wastes of snow, Eskimos in fur garments, sleds drawn by dogs, Eskimos fishing in the ice, harpoons, and caribou arranged by Mrs. Kellis G. Buckley and Mrs. W. W. Fly. Mrs. Ely explained the decorations, and the Canadian flag. Place cards were block prints of an Eskimo scene, printed in blue on white, the work of Harrison Whitney.

The book is the story of a white man's experiences from spring of 1938 to spring of 1939 among the 25 Eskimos of King William Land, located south and east of Victoria LIsland. Mrs. Faxon began her review by telling a little of the author, descendant of one of France's greatest sages, who earned material success by starting at the bottom, only to relinquish a position as head of a British subsidiary of an Italian silk firm to wander over the world. Poncins was last heard from when he sailed for France in April 1940.

She detailed the Kabloona's (white man) first encounter with North Canada in Coppermine, where he learned the two rules of life were "eat" and "keep warm," where he became friends with the Oblate priest, Father Delelande, and where arctic clothing was made for him. Traveling by 'boat 1900 miles to reach Perry, 500 miles away, Kabloona went by motor boat to Gjoa Haven, where Eskimos came to trade with Paddy Gibson, Hudson's Bay Post manager, his first encounter with the Eskimo mentality.

The speaker read passages from the book, describing the store, and the processes of trading, saying "Exchange in Eskimo life is normal, understandable; a free gift is something he cannot comprehend. He will despise the man who makes it; yet he would lend his wife for a package of needles." Mrs. Faxon told of the practice of wife-lending, and of the great influence the Eskimo wife exerts over the husband, even to kill.

Mrs. Faxon told of the ease with which the Eskimo murders, as contrasted with his inability in most cases, to tell a harmful lie, and his suicide for honor. She said that he was unable to make generalizations, to explain his actions or attitudes. While unable to understand the gift with no idea of exchange, the Eskimo shares food and shelter with one who has nothing. Behind this, the speaker said, are two ideas: giving gives a lien on something in the future; and the natural kindness of the Eskimos who practice a kind of communal living.

The speaker contrasted the life and character of the Pelley Bay Eskimos, where food was not a constant problem and life was dignified and orderly, and clean, with the Seal Eskimos, whose life is a struggle for food, and whose personal habits are nasty and dirty. She listed as a salient trait of the Seal Eskimos his feeling of superiority to the Kabloona, who cannot take care of himself, follow a trail, load a sled, build an igloo, and is foolish enough to trade fox skins (worthless except as rags to them) for tobacco and tea.

Mrs. Faxon detailed the philosophy the author brought away with him from the Arctic tundra, a moral serenity earned with the perils and poverty of the tundra, a loss of the world, but the gain of knowledge of himself.

In closing, Mrs. Faxon said, "I leave the book wondering what part, if any, these people will play in the international situation. I cannot imagine them in the role of either ally or enemy. Unless great foresight in arranging for bases and supplies is exhibited by the governments, I cannot see the land alone as an ally. When a cotton rag can free so hard that it will go through inches of ice if dropped straight down on it, it does not encourage one to believe that average equipment and average men can whip the land. One is forced to recall that the members of the famous expeditionary forces have been hand-picked."

The speaker made no criticism of the author's style, leaving her listeners to judge from the passages she read from the book from time to time.

Girl Graduate Honor Guest At Breakfast

HARLINGEN — An especially pretty event of the pre-commencement season was the breakfast Saturday at the Macy Tea House honoring Miss Frances Ruth King. Hostess for the attractive affair was Miss Joyce Wilson. Miss King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. King, is one of the popular members of the 1941 graduating class.

Guests were seated at a table prettily decorated to reflect the Mayday theme with varicolored spring flowers forming the centerpiece. Favors, beautifully wrapped in white and tied with pastel ribbons, served as placecards. A gift marked the cover for the honoree.

Others present were Misses Bettylou Williams, Ernestine Lane, Betty Jean Thompson, Jean Sykes, and Marie Harpin, Mrs. T. D. King, and the hostess.

Ma Kochas Will Honor Mothers

McALLEN—Observance of Mother's day is providing the reason for several interesting parties this week in McAllen.

Following a delightful sentimental custom members of the Ma Kocha club will entertain their mothers or mothers of friends at a coffee Tuesday morning. The coffee will be held from 9:30 a.m. on at the home of Mrs. Jack Denton, 1001 North Main street.

On Friday members of the Ithica Sew and So club will entertain for mothers only at Mrs. Dwight Yoder's home. The occasion will be a tea when mothers will be honored.

Mothers and their daughters will be honored at the annual Mother-Daughters banquet the Women's Society for Christian Service of the First Methodist church will stage at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. Held annually for the past few years these events always attract a large crowd. Members of the Naomi circle will be in charge of the program. Tickets went on sale Friday with Mrs. W. H. Covalt in charge of their sale.

Mother's day itself will be noted next Sunday when members of the Junior Book club entertain their mothers at breakfast at the Casa de Palmas hotel. An interesting program is being arranged, putting emphasis on the meaning of the day.

Economics Forms Topic For Club

BROWNSVILLE—Economics was the topic of study for members of the Brownsville Study club when the members gathered Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. McKee with Mrs. J. Harrison Diltz as co-hostess.

Mrs. Sam D. Hughston was leader, and gave many aspects of social economy. Mrs. R. E. Green talked on home economics.

Mrs. Joe Wheeler presided at the business meeting when Mrs. W. T. Hunt was elected treasurer. Mrs. Herman B. Jeffery incoming president, appointed Mrs. L. A. Bauer, Jr., as reporter, Mrs. Leo Nolan as critic and Mrs. Roy Flager as auditor.

Mrs. Sam Lockwood gave the report of the City Federation meeting.

The next meeting will be the installation luncheon at Landrum's May 15.

Attending were Mesdames W. M. Coleman, H. L. Faulk, Robert E. Green, Sam Hughston, Herman B. Jeffery, Sam L. Lockwood, Leo Nolan, C. L. Parnell, W. M. Stovall, Joe Wheeler, L. A. Bauer, Jr., W. T. Hunt, and Roy Flager.

Social Meet Held By Combes Group

COMBES — Mrs. H. M. Brazil and Mrs. Gus Elliott were hostesses on Tuesday at the home of the former when the Women's Division of Christian Service met for the fifth Tuesday social.

Interesting games were played and refreshments served. The meeting next week will be at the Methodist church.

Those enjoying the hospitality were Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Bell, Mesdames Kathryn Synon, H. H. Mays, I. E. Enavely, Carrie French, Elza Kilbourn, A. S. Doss, E. B. Ely, A. R. Davis, Reuben Richards, T. J. Leyson, W. T. Station and the hostesses.

Jersey Visitors

McALLEN—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilson of Montclair, N. J., are vacationing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Swope in McAllen. This is the New Jersey couple's first trip to the Valley. He is a brother of Mrs. Swope's.

IN SAN ANTONIO

RAYMONDVILLE — Mrs. F. B. Wilson and son, Bake, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Le Lachuer, and sister, Mrs. Mary Ashey, in San Antonio. Mrs. Wilson will attend the National Tubercular Association convention in session during the week.

Garden Party In Alamo Is Unusual In Setting Depicting Fiesta Theme

ALAMO — The lovely Spanish type home of Mrs. Constance Stensbo was the scene of a colorful garden party given by the Alamo Garden club Tuesday from three to six.

Eucalyptus trees, palms and evergreens lined the approach to the house shaded by avacado trees. In this shady setting guests were greeted by members of the house party dressed in gowns in lovely shades.

Mrs. Stensbo, as hostess, was in authentic china poblano costume from Mexico City. The skirt of which was worn over hip hoops to show the design of the gay nineties, Mrs. Buddemeyer wore printed linen, Mrs. Frank Rompf, secretary, was in a full skirted blue dotted swiss with red and white accents, Mrs. F. E. Mitchell, historian in pastel pink and blue.

Mrs. Carrol Brown and two small daughters, Betty and Beverly were in charro costumes, adding color to the picturesque scene.

Mrs. George Chorpening and Mrs. Emma Philips, in garden gowns, directed guests to the shaded nook where Mrs. Addie Clover, Mrs. Ada Wilson and Mrs. Bob Savage presided over the guest log.

Affording genuine delight to visitors were Mexican airs played on the accordion and guitar by two Latin-American musicians. Guests were invited to the rear patio where under a thatched roof, Mrs. Gladys Cowley and Mrs. Ester Miller presided over a huge punch bowl of blue glass at a table covered with a Mexican cloth and centered with flowers. Mrs. Ada Barritt, Mrs. Irene Kastler and Mrs. W. A. Tanner assisted in serving.

After wandering through the garden, guests were invited through the house, gay with flowers for the occasion and always interesting with the lovely things collected from the eleven countries in which Mrs. Stensbo has lived.

Guests registered from Harlingen, McAllen, Mission, Pharr, San Juan and Houston, in addition to about sixty local guests.

Guest Day Observed By Group

LOS RESNOS — Mrs. N. G. Chatelle and Mrs. E. Swann were hostesses to members of the Womans Service club at the home of Mrs. Chatelle on Thursday afternoon. Easter lilies and other spring flowers furnished a lovely setting for the Mother's Day program, the occasion being annual guest day.

Mrs. W. B. Palmer was program leader and roll call was answered by "Noted Women of Today." The Reverend Bradford Ramsey of the First Baptist church was the speaker for the afternoon. Musical numbers included piano solos by Marjorie Hinkley who played "Melody in F," Leon Hinkley who played "Guard Mount," and Shirley Ann Oliver who rendered "Country Gardens."

As each member and guest arrived she was presented with a corsage made by members of the Sunshine and Garden committees. Present for the meeting were Mrs. J. A. May of Rio Grande City, Mrs. D. Zimwalt and Mrs. Baker of San Benito, Mrs. J. H. Downs of Brownsville, and Mesdames Nolan Taylor, C. C. Critchett, William Andresen, S. E. Barr, T. R. Barr, U. J. Breedlove, Carl Buchan, E. W. Chase, N. G. Chatelle, Ralph Coon, G. C. Greer, J. I. Brunwald.

Leon Hinkley, E. D. Kraner, H. H. Whipple, F. C. Williams, E. E. Hollon, Frank Kretz, H. J. Leach, Harry Lupton, Joe Nesetril, E. A. Oliver, W. C. Oliver, E. A. Olson, W. B. Palmer, Harold Pugh, Jr., Noel Ryall, J. E. Shankle, E. Swann, Peter Watkins, and Miss Geneva Palmer.

Mrs. Peter Watkins will be hostess to the club on Thursday afternoon, May 15.

Anniversary Noted

ALAMO — The third anniversary of the assembly was celebrated at the regular meeting of the San Juan Assembly of Rainbow for Girls on Monday night. Also, the custom of observing the birthdays of the members once each quarter was carried out with a program in charge of Alta Marie Smith. A quiz on Rainbow work, piano solos by Shirley Roberts concluded the program.

Cake was served by Mrs. Gladys Cowley.

Combes Child Is Honoree

COMBES — Tommy Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gilbert, was guest of honor at a party on Monday celebrating his fifth birthday at the home of his parents. The birthday cake with its five candles was the centerpiece for a lovely decorated table. The honoree was the recipient of many little gifts.

Small guests were: Marion and Melvin Station, Alan Doss, Ann Snavely, Lois Jean Haynes, Evelyn McCormick, Kathryn Ann and Bill Brackmeyer, Frances Swann, Maris Ann Waters, Blanca Rodriguez, Dell Sibley, Dorothy Roller and Billy Joe Gilbert and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Gilbert's guests were Mrs. W. T. Staton Sr., grandmother of Tommy, Mrs. B. Q. Roller, and Mrs. Annice Bouldin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Staton Jr., and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCormick and children motored to Bruni early Sunday and were the guests for the day of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Weiss, pastor of the Methodist church there. Rev. Weiss pastored the church here two years, leaving last fall for Bruni.

Dinner And Dance Honors Trio Of Boy Graduates

SAN BENITO — One of the most delightful of the festive events that are lending gaiety to the pre-commencement season was the dinner dance given at Landrum's in Brownsville by Mrs. Angie Taylor and Miss Iantha Demaree. Named as honor guests were Roswell Bohner, Jimmy Shafer, and Buddy Treon, members of the graduating class.

The guests were seated at quartet tables centered with miniature white carts which held Mexican candles. The Mexican theme was noted in the place cards. Favors for the girls were miniature umbrellas and for the boys hats.

Prizes awarded in a clever contest repeated the Mexican motif, a straw man in Mexican handcraft going to the winning boy and a Spanish dancing girl to the successful girl guest.

Assisting the hostesses was their mother, Mrs. J. W. Demaree.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Jack Rainey was before her recent marriage Miss Mary Ellen Nordman of Weslaco. Mr. and Mrs. Rainey are residing in La Feria.

McAllen's Debs Fete Pledges

McALLEN— Social comings and goings for the McAllen young set center this week on entertainment for seven pledges to the Sub-Deb Club.

Pledges are Betty Bob Kyler, Jane King, Frances West, Marjorie Vannoy, Alice Smith, Anna Louise Mahone and Billy Brooks.

Fun for the group and the club will start off Monday when the club entertains with a tea at Aileen Carter's home. Hostesses are Louise Fristoe, Mary Gene Catlett and Mrs. Don Sherer, sponsor.

Thursday evening the girls will be initiated formally into the club at the annual dinner at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. Initiation rites will be conducted by candlelight by old members.

To wind up activity for the newcomers into the club, a picnic supper and dance will be held Friday night at Virginia Barthel's home with Jo Ann Bonneau, Patricia Bonnycastle, Mary Phillips and Barbara Baltis as hostesses.

Plans for the pledge fun were made this week at a meeting at Aileen Carter's home.

Handcraft Parade Planned By Club

HARLINGEN—Friday meeting of the Palmetal club at the home of Mrs. R. G. Elmore opened with the singing of the club song and God Bless America.

Mrs. S. B. Izard was named chairman of the stunt committee for encampment June 5.

Miss Lu Elsie Nagel gave a review of the book, "I Dare You."

A round table was held on the training and management of children.

Plans were announced by the ways and means committee for a handcraft parade Thursday, May 8, from 2 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. D. Healers on the Rio Hondo Road. The public is invited.

Sunday Vespers By Junior Clubs To Open Music Week In Valley

Concert In Weslaco Is Sponsored By 8th Music District

WESLACO — The vesper service presenting junior music clubs of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, a traditional feature of National Music Week, will be given at 4:30 p.m. Sunday in the First Methodist church in Weslaco. Arrangements for the program have been made by Mrs. Paul F. Shotwell, Mercedes, district counsellor for junior clubs.

A carefully prepared program including vocal and instrumental music, both in solos and groups, will be presented.

The hymn, "Day is Dying in the West," Miss Margaret Mallat, Mercedes, directing; Miss Martha Louise Swensen, Edinburg, accompanying, will open the program.

Invocation will be given by Rev. F. P. Bishop; welcome by Mrs. Paul F. Shotwell, district counsellor; and the junior pledge in unison led by Lettie Lou Cannon, Weslaco. The musical program will be as follows:

Medley of Favorite Hymns, Alamo Rhythm Band, Eilene Thompson, director; Miss Ruth E. Johnson, director.

French horn solo, "Song to Evening Star," Robert Kimmell; piano solo, "Ave Maria," Bach-Gounod, Maria Harpin; vocal solo, "Just for Today," Bettylou Williams, all members of the Harlingen Treble Clef Club with Miss Mary Elizabeth Challes as sponsor.

"Song of Darkness," Miller, and "My Task," Ashford, Edinburg Juvenile Chorus with Miss Martha Louise Swensen, sponsor.

Clarinet quartet, "Minuet," Schubert, Letty Lou Cannon, Margaret Ezekiel, Margery Sidener, and Dorothy Lee Drawe; piano solo, "Variations on theme in E Major," Handel, Irene Yoder; both members of Weslaco B Natural Club with Miss Lois Mallon as sponsor.

"The Lord's Prayer," Forsyth-Dews, and "Ave Maria," Schubert, by sextette; violin solo, Sarah Eddy, Mercedes Junior Music Club, Mrs. H. T. Stotler, sponsor.

"Virgin's Slumber Song," Reger; "Lift Thine Eyes" from Elijah, Mendelssohn, Edinburg High School Glee Club, with Miss Marjorie Clark, sponsor.

Hymn, "Now the Day is Over."
Benediction, Rev. Wendell Carr.

Calendar For Music Week Is Crowded

McALLEN—Eight major musical events will feature McAllen observance of national music week opening Sunday.

McAllen program for the week's celebration are being sponsored by the McAllen Music club with Faye Jones heading the arrangements committee composed of Mrs. Effie Roe and Mrs. G. Aubrey Thomas.

A vesper service at 4 p.m. Sunday at the First Methodist church will initiate the week's programs. Members of the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo high school A Capella choir will sing the vesper service. Miss Angela Lappart, who has recently returned from a years study in New York, will be a featured soloist. Phelan Dorn will play several organ numbers.

Mrs. George Fox, soloist from the music club, will be presented at the G-Women's Literary club breakfast Monday at the Casa. Faye Jones will be the piano accompanist.

At the Music club's annual guest day at 4 p.m. Monday at the Casa a program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Aubrey Thomas.

The Music club will also stage the program at the City Federation breakfast at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Casa when the topic will be "Loose Leaves from the Opera." Mrs. I. B. Sigler will be the narrator; Mrs. George Fox, soloist; and Faye Jones, accompanist.

Tuesday the club will provide the music for the Kiwanis dinner at 7:30 p.m. to honor a visiting Kiwanis district official; Wednesday there will be a musical program at the Rotary club; Thursday for the Pharr Kiwanis club, arranged by Mrs. Roe; Friday at the McAllen Lions club luncheon; and Saturday observance of the week will be concluded with a student recital at 4 p.m. at the McAllen Junior High school auditorium.

Lutheran Ladies Plan May Benefit

McALLEN—The Lutheran Ladies Society was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Bente when plans were discussed for a benefit party to be given May 11.

Those attending were Mesdames C. W. Smith, Waterman, Ill.; G. C. Smith, Pharr; H. E. Witte, Mission; H. Bente, Pharr; I. C. Koehler and Oscar Shultz, R. L. Walker, Jim Parks and Leslie Baines.

Red Cross Knits

McALLEN—Members of the Junior Service League who are knitting for the Red Cross will meet this week with Mrs. Leonard Green.

The knitting session will be held from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. Monday at Mrs. Green's home.

Gay Affair Is Breakfast For Graduate

SAN BENITO—One of the most delightful courtesies of the season was the breakfast Saturday morning at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel honoring Betty Ann Higgins with Mrs. Jesse A. Welch as hostess. Miss Higgins is a member of the graduating class of the San Benito high school.

Guests were seated at one table centered by a bowl of flowers in the senior colors of orchid and pink. Place cards were miniature girl graduates in dresses of pink and blue with handkerchiefs. The honoree was remembered with a pretty gift.

Guests were Nona Foster, Rosemary Atkins, Tad Brown, Betty Brown, Joan Hagar, Miriam Monger, Bonnie Lou Bryant, Doris Gilbert, Ann Stanley, Katherine Ballenger, Virginia Alewine, Sarita Glenn, Marilyn Smith, Helen Hagedorn, Charline Jones, Mary Lou Sweeney, Patty Lou Ogden and Mrs. M. B Higgins, mother of the honoree.

HARLINGEN—Mrs. George Holland presented her collection of antique dolls in connection with a lecture she gave at the Sam Houston school Wednesday. The lovely old dolls were dressed in costumes of Civil War days. Some of the dolls date back 50 years or more ago.

In conjunction with the lecture, sponsored by the Sam Houston Parents and Educators, boys and girls of the schools brought their favorite dolls to be judged. A very large collection of interesting dolls resulted.

Winners were announced as follows: grand prize, Rosemary Smith; boys' division, David Joe Weaver, first; Jimmy Hollingsworth, second; Duane Beals, third. Girls', Helen Neary, first; Phillip Crane, second; Jimmy Lou Bradd, third. Rag doll, Gilmer Jean Keller, first; Sally Jean Gross, second; Clarice Rouse, third; Betty Elrod, fourth.

Members of the organization have extended thanks to Mrs. Holland; to the judges, Mesdames Ira Eells, G. W. Crofoot, and Mabel Peebles; and to Mrs. Jack King who presented third place prize winners with theatre tickets. Cash prizes were awarded for first and second.

Mission Club Is Sponsoring Music Week

MISSION — Observance of National Music Week in Mission will be sponsored by the Mission Music club, it was announced this week by Mrs. T. R. Card, chairman of the event. Churches, service clubs and women's groups are invited to participate in the observance, May 4-11, by planning their programs to include musical numbers to stress the idea.

Mission organizations were urged this week by Mrs. Card to incorporate the Pan-American theme in the special musical numbers to be given during the music week programs.

Of special interest will be the presentation of two public concerts during the week. Tuesday, May 6, the band and choruses of the Mission high school music department will present their annual spring concert in the Morgan Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public. Clayborne Norris, vocal director, and Phil Shader, band director, will be in charge of the concert.

Outstanding students will receive awards to be presented by the Mission Music Club as one feature of the concert. Keys will be presented to the outstanding senior member of the girls' and boys' choruses and to the outstanding boy and girl members of the band.

Thursday night, May 8, pupils of Wilson School will be presented in a program sponsored by the Wilson Parent Teacher Association.

Pretty Tea Honors Guest

RAYMONDVILLE—A pretty tea was given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles T. Hardt honoring Mrs. J. C. Burrow of Columbia, Mississippi, director of children's work in the Methodist Conference.

Guests were Mesdames C. C. Conley, H. L. Townsend, R. E. Harding, Fred Koerlin, Harry Douthit, M. J. Glarner, C. D. Ritter, Charles Pierce and Clifford Crowell and the Reverend and Mrs. Carroway of Harlingen.

Mrs. Burrow spoke informally on "The Use of Music in Teaching Children Religion."

Following the discussion the hostess served dainty tea.

Annual May Fete West Brownsville School Set Tuesday

BROWNSVILLE — Annual May fete of the West Brownsville school has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the school.

This year the event will be in the nature of a patriotic pageant, "Our United States." This will tell the story of the United States, beginning with the Pilgrims, down to the present time.

All friends and patrons of the school, and all parents of children who are students are cordially invited to attend. This is the outstanding event of the school year in West Brownsville school.

Bingleys Honored

LOS FRESNOS — Mrs. George Laakso and Mrs. G. B. Waller were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Laakso on Wednesday evening with a steak dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Bingley and daughter Billie who will move to their new home in San Benito this week.

Guests for the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spangler, Edd Bingley, Mrs. N. G. Chatelle, Gerry and Jimmy Chatelle, Mr. and Mrs. Bingley and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, and Mrs. Laakso and three sons.

Youthful Musician

Miss Marjorie Trott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Trott of Weslaco, is an outstanding music student at Texas State College for Women. She has recently been on a tour playing in Galveston and Temple. She was the only pianist on the artist's course presented in March when T. S. C. W. presented the Symphony Orchestra, College Choir, and Chorus. An honor student, Miss Trott is soloist for the Symphony Orchestra, is a member of the Odean Music Club, the Delian Club, and is vice president of Alpha Chi.

Lovely Garden Setting Adds Pleasure To Party Honoring Girl Graduates

HARLINGEN — In a beautiful garden bordered with beds of snowy lilies, senior girls of the Harlingen high school were entertained with a garden party Thursday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Lola Paine and Mrs. Lee Murphy. Honorees were Polly Breedlove and Gerry Chastain, girl graduates, and co-hostesses were their mothers, Mrs. E. C. Breedlove and Mrs. J. F. Chastain.

Adding to the natural beauty of the garden were baskets of lilies, mingled with dainty pink blossoms, and the pastel formal frocks worn by the young girls. Flowerbeds abloom with pansies, phlox, petunias, and other old-fashioned posies bordered the pathway to the "wishing well' where each girl received a fortune.

Purple and white was noted in appointments for the tea table, bougainvilleas being the chosen flowers.

Miss Breedlove wore a peach dotted swiss formal made with extremely full skirt and Miss Chastain's costume was of blue net. Martha Lois Schuepbach, who presided at the punch bowl, wore a cotton print made along quaint, old-fashioned lines, and her sister, Billie Dee, who served the cakes, wore a white skirt with blouse in red and white stripes. Janice Snowden in charge of the wishing well, was in white marquisette with red dotts and Martha Dean Ramsey, who presided over the guest register, wore white bengaline with pale blue jerkin.

Violin music by Robin Burdette, who was accompanied at the piano by his father, Grafton Burdette, was played throughout the receiving hours of five to seven.

Feminine members of the faculty and the senior class mothers were special guests. Senior mothers are Mesdames E. L. Lee, L. B. Sherman, Archie Harwood, Edgar Johnston, R. H. Weed, J. L. Boggus, L. T. Smith, and J. F. Chastain.

Assisting the hostesses were Misses Marjorie and Thora Lou Breedlove and Mrs. C. D. Wallace.

About 75 guests were received.

The typewriter was invented by a Dane, Malling Hansen.

Music Club Plans Series Of Programs

SAN BENITO — Series of programs planned in observance of National Music Week under sponsorship of the San Benito Music Club has been announced by Dr. Mamie Pester, president.

Singing of the hymn, 'Holy, Holy, Holy," has been requested in the local churches Sunday morning. In the afternoon the San Benito high school band will give a concert in the municipal auditorium at Harlingen. They will be assisted by the high school choral groups, by Robert Reed, pianist, and Miss Margaret McCandless, soloist.

Monday evening, May 5, will be observed as Senior Music Club Night. At this program, the Senior Club will present Mrs. Lucie Hager of Mercedes, as guest soloist. Mrs. Hager is president of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The Music Club Chorus, directed by Mrs. G. C. Schurman, will present two groups of songs. Making its first public appearance on this occasion, will be the San Benito concert ensemble, under the direction of Louis Vallee.

Tuesday evening will be recognized as Junior Music Club Night. On this program will be featured, solo and ensemble groups of junior club members, assisted by the junior high school choral groups.

Wednesday evening will be observed as sacred music night when music club members will give special numbers at the various prayer services.

Thursday evening will be High School Night. This program will be presented entirely by the high school band under the direction of Mr. Hall, and the high school choruses, directed by Mr. Hatchett.

All of the programs will be held in the high school auditorium at 6 p. m.

The San Benito Music Club extends a cordial invitation to all the people of the community to attend these special musical events.

Senior Play Scheduled For Tuesday

HARLINGEN — Did Karen Andre murder Bjorn Faulkner is the burning question that is repeated continuously in the minds of persons viewing the performance by the cast for "Night of January 16." The production, the annual high school senior play, will be given in the municipal auditorium Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p. m.

Polly Breedlove has the role of Karen Andre. Travers Hough portrays District Attorney Flint and Woodward Walker has the role of Defense Attorney Stevens.

Other members of the cast afford a group of unusual and interesting witnesses whose lines add fact upon fact in the gripping scenes representing a murder trial. Playing the various roles are Frances Ruth King, prison matron, Howard Smith, bailiff-clerk; Harold Wendt, judge; R. J. Twiss, physician; and Jo Carolyn Lewis, Duke Rose, Bill Wright, Gerry Chastain, Billie Jean Jenkins, Earl Pomerenk, Betty Jean Smith, Jimmy Hutson, Ned Davis, and Betty Deane Johnson.

W. Lee Byrd is director, Russel Rose, assistant director and Mark Hertz is stage manager.

McAllen Clubs Close Spring Season With Round Of Programs

McALLEN—With McAllen women's clubs preparing to wind up the current season, club women will be kept busy this week attending several outstanding events to mark the close of activity.

Members of the G-Women's Literary Club will hold their annual May breakfast at 9 a. m. Monday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel when special stress will be laid on the observance of National Music Week during the program.

Representatives from all McAllen federated clubs will attend the closing meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs scheduled for a 9:30 a. m. breakfast Tuesday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. At this meeting new officers will be installed and the annual reports given. Mrs. W. E. Crawford is the new president to succeed Mrs. W. H. Moon.

Three major social affairs spotlight club activity Wednesday.

Marking an annual custom, Chapter F, P. E. O., will entertain at their guest day tea at Mrs. F. E. Osborn's home. A meeting Friday will be the chapter's last meeting this season with the annual family picnic later in the month, recessing chapter activities until fall.

The expansive lawn at the S. L. Miller home will be the scene of the McAllen Garden Club's annual lawn party at guest day. Mrs. Miller, formerly president of the club, was succeeded this week by Mrs. H. E. Whigham when installation ceremonies were held.

The McAllen Music Club will hold the first of their May time closing sessions with an open meeting Wednesday at 4 p. m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. The program will feature observance of national music week.

Music Lovers Sponsoring Series Events

HARLINGEN—Observing a custom of many years standing, the Music Lovers Club will sponsor special musical programs and musical features during the coming year in recognition of National Music Week. Request has been made from the club, through the president, Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, that special music be presented in each church and that in each school attention be directed to music and that some special music be dedicated to music.

The Music Lovers Club will present a full program at the meeting of the Rotary Club, in accordance with an annual custom, and the club is also furnishing a special number for meetings of the other two service clubs during the week.

"Hear Music, Make Music, Enjoy Music," is the suggestion made by members of the committee in charge of the celebration of National Music Week May 4-10.

Farewell Party Held At Luncheon

McALLEN—As a farewell courtesy for Mrs. H. W. Kreidler, who left Thursday night for a visit in the north, a group of her friends entertained with a luncheon Thursday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

Present were Mrs. Jim Ragland, Mrs. L. E. Leech, Mrs. Frank Gilbert, Mrs. Bertha Van Over, Mrs. I. N. Wynans, Mrs. L. B. Weed, Miss Ruth Clark and Mrs. Kreidler.

EXPANSION OF BUSINESS DUE

Babson Sees General U. S. Prosperity

By ROGER W. BABSON

BABSON PARK, Mass.—You can't judge the nation by statistics only. Feelings are as potent as figures. Hence, I spend a great deal of time traveling throughout the country, talking with people in all walks of life. I travel in day coaches as well as in Pullmans and airplanes. I talk with small-town officials and bankers as well as those of large cities. Here is what I now learn from them:

Defense And Cost Of Living

Without question, aside from the effects of certain strikes in manufacturing centers, the program of production for defense purposes is reaching present capacity limits. The construction of new production facilities, however, will enable the volume of business to expand enormously in months to come. Business activity as a whole already exceeds that of 1929 by some 8 per cent and the rise is by no means reaching a limit. Mayors and other municipal officials in many cities outside the normal defense area are renewing their efforts to attract labor-supplying industries in an attempt to reduce relief loads. This is a commendable effort and should receive encouragement and help from Washington.

The greatly increased business activity in most sections of the country has raised commercial loans 25 per cent, carloading 30 per cent, and pushed up weekly payrolls. In spite of this, and some jacking up of rentals, food, and clothing prices, the cost of living is up a bare 2 per cent over last year. My readers need not yet be concerned over rising prices. The administration is watching the picture closely and will do everything possible to keep living costs down. Labor leaders as yet cannot give "increased living costs" as an honest excuse for wage raises.

Individual Spending

The winter resort business in Florida was off some 15 per cent this year, while California suffered as a result of consistent rains. Many men accustomed to a month or two off during the winter were this year chained to their desks in defense work. The Southwest resort areas—notably in Arizona—had the best winter for many years. The same rains which hurt California brought out the desert flowers, tempered the climate, and kept down the dust. What is "one man's poison is another man's meat!" The resort areas of the Northwest, Colorado, New England, and New York may benefit greatly from an active tourist season this coming summer. This should also be true of Canadian resorts.

Thus far, people are spending freely. This is especially true of workers. Many have a steady job for the first time in years. The rich are spending because they believe their wealth may be confiscated; while the poorer always spend all they get. We of the middle class think we need so many necessities, plus the luxuries of a new car, radio, etc., that we are putting out cash faster than we are taking it in. This is witnessed by mounting instalment sales. Little thought is being given by anyone, anywhere, to the coming "rainy day."

General Impressions

The unemployment situation has markedly improved throughout the Middlewest, but relief loads there are still relatively high. This is in contrast to most other sections of the country. Emotionally, the population of our East and West coasts seems geared to a notch or two higher than that of the great middle agricultural areas. Farmers are still more concerned about the weather, crop possibilities, and farm aid than they are about Aid to Britain or World War II. Pig-headedness and poor marketing conditions, with which I sympathize, still prevent them from making a decent living.

Bankers and businessmen feel much the same the country over. They are heartily in favor of our preparedness program. Though they know that it will penalize their business, bankers are in favor of raising the excess reserve requirements of the Federal Reserve Banks. They fear inflation more than anything else. This is in spite of the fact that they contract to only take in and pay out "dollars," regardless of what the dollar is worth.

Retail sales are well ahead of last year in the larger cities and defense spending is filtering into the rural areas where the outlook for sales is bright. Cotton and woolen mills in the South and in New England are booked to capacity for months ahead. Shipyard construction, shipbuilding, and, of course, aircraft production, particularly in the West Coast area, are booming. Automobile output is again being handicapped with labor troubles. Federal housing and cantonment construction continue, particularly in the South.

In the industrial areas, steel production has passed its theoretical capacity, while the opening of the Great Lakes to Spring traffic is stimulating activity in the inland ports. Petroleum and its products are entering a better period of prices and consumption. Livestock, including cattle and sheep, are enjoying high prices and owners are optimistic over the outlook. In fact, most Westerners and many Easterners seem more anxious to own a ranch than to own securities. Crop conditions are generally excellent. Mines are operating at capacity. The motion picture industry, while bewailing the loss of European markets, is enjoying gains in audience receipts and rentals.

The picture I see from my own studies and trips and from the reports of my associates is one of very general prosperity. True, many cases of hardship remain with us and many individuals are not alive to changing economic and social conditions.

NEWS OF LATEST MOTION PICTURES

Current Films

BETTE DAVIS in her latest starring picture "The Great Lie," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville. George Brent and Mary Astor are cast in supporting roles.

BOB HOPE, Dorothy Lamour and Bing Crosby in "The Road to Zanzibar," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

BURGESS MEREDITH, Merle Oberon and Melvyn Douglas in the screen's hilarious comedy, "That Uncertain Feeling," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen.

Marlene Dietrich Seen In Spectacular Comedy

Marlene Dietrich is starred in the spectacular romantic comedy, "The Flame of New Orleans," which is booked for showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

In "The Flame of New Orleans" Miss Dietrich walks down the wedding aisle for the first time in her dramatic screen career. It is also the first time she has done light comedy and likewise it's the first time she has been given a high-style wardrobe and the first time she has ever impersonated a naive and sheltered gentlewoman.

Miss Dietrich is surrounded by a cast of distinguished screen favorites, the list including Bruce Cabot, Roland Young, Mischa Auer, Andy Devine, Melville Cooper, Eddie Quillan and others.

The story concerns Miss Dietrich's marriage to a wealthy banker and a romantic interlude with a handsome roughneck river skipper after which her life becomes a struggle between the wealth and security offered by her husband and the hazardous romance offered by her lover.

THRILLER BOOKED

The screen brings new thrills and chills with the presentation of "Man Made Monster" at the Queen Theatre in Brownsville today only, at the Queen Theatre in McAllen Monday and Tuesday, at the Rex Theatre in Mercedes Wednesday and Thursday and at the Palace Theatre in San Benito Friday and Saturday.

MARLENE DIETRICH in "The Flame of New Orleans," booked for showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

ADVENTURE FILM

Jack London's famed story of adventure, "The Sea Wolf," starring Edward G. Robinson, Ida Lupino and John Garfield, is showing today and Monday at the State Theatre in Mercedes and at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Current Films

FOR THE FIRST TIME in more than two years Bette Davi plays the role of a modern American girl in "The Great Lie," with George Brent and Mary Astor in featured supporting roles. In returning to a modern role, her first since "Dark Victory," Miss Davis has shed years along with her period gowns and character make-up.

"The Great Lie" presents perfect blending of stars and story and proves once and for all that Miss Davis doesn't have to play "a bad" role in order to be good. She is superbly natural and likeable in the role of a normal and modern girl who tells one lie to protect those she loves and nearly loses them.

Brent who was co-starred so successfully with Miss Davis in many films including "Dark Victory" is extremely well cast in the leading male role of a dare-devil flier and explorer caught in the eternal triangle, of good woman, bad woman and man. Miss Astor makes a triumphant return to the screen as the other member of the triangle. In the difficult role she gives a finely shaded performance which should win her recognition as one of the year's finest supporting actresses.

"The Great Lie" is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

"THAT UNCERTAIN FEELING" AT PALACE THEATRE

THE SCREEN'S hilarious comedy-romance "That Uncertain Feeling" co-stars Melvyn Douglas, Merle Oberon and Burgess Meredith.

The story plots its hilarious course around the rival-meets-husband-meets-wife theme. Douglas and Miss Oberon are cast as a happy young married couple. Miss Oberon being afflicted with hiccoughs skeptically pays a visit to a fashionable psychologist who probes into her marital relations and implants the thought that it is her married life that is causing her nervousness and hiccoughs.

To effect a cure the psychologist suggests that she become interested in music and while in his office she meets Meredith who is also seeking a cure for inhibitions. He is a concert pianist who is a wonderful musician when he has only himself for an audience but can not play a note before a crowd.

"That Uncertain Feeling" is booked for current showing today and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen.

POPULAR STAR TRIO IN COMEDY HIT

A SAFARI which goes nowhere fast takes Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour on a new and hilarious series of adventures in "The Road to Zanzibar" providing laughs and tom-tom rhythms.

Hope and Crosby are seen as carnival men in Africa who have done everything from shooting Hope out of a cannon to displaying a live octopus. When Hope sells a phony diamond mine the two come into money but have to run for it to get out of town. They meet Miss Lamour and her friend Una Merkel, American chorus girls, who are working a racket to get Miss Lamour to a wealthy man who wants to marry her. Hope thinks Miss Lamour is in love with him and Crosby thinks she is in love with him and Miss Merkel is determined that Miss Lamour is going to marry a rich tea planter. The whole thing turns out all right but not until after a lot of hilarious incidents and thrilling adventures in the African jungle.

"The Road to Zanzibar" is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

IRAQ FORCES ROUTED IN 2ND WAR AREA

British Take Axis Forces By Surprise In Africa

BOLD DESERT MOVE UPSETS NAZI PLANS

Nazis Still Stab At Tobruk

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt—A British mechanized force cutting behind the German and Italian positions on the Egyptian frontier has raced across the desert plateau and taken by surprise a considerable body of Axis troops, middle eastern headquarters announced Saturday night.

This bold sortie, reminiscent of the tactics used in routing the Italians last winter, was carried out in the Salum sector while the Axis forces stabbed repeatedly at British-held Tobruk, 80 miles to the west, only to wind up still in the southwestern corner of that port's outer ring of defenses.

Axis Losses Heavy

The thwarted Tobruk assaults were declared to have cost the Axis forces heavy losses. These attacks were carried out for the most part by Germans using tanks with considerable air support. The Middle East command said two Stukas were bagged.

Military sources said the persistence of the Axis attacks indicated fully the British hold on Tobruk was stalling the Axis drive across northern Africa. They added that continuation of these attacks was to be expected.

The troops which swept behind the Axis line at Salum were said to have cut the Bardia-Tobruk road for a time while they were rounding up the surprised Germans and Italians. In additon to the prisoners they brought back a big field gun.

This daring maneuver also gained useful information concerning disposition of the Axis troops. Military quarters said the foray showed the British still retain their old cunning at desert warfare and are not losing the initiative.

Suez Drive Balked

Thus the Army of the Nile, outnumbered and awaiting reinforcement from the East, pursued the harassment of the German and Italian forces which rolled the British back from Libya to the Egyptian border but, so far, have been unable to continue their Suez-bound drive from that point.

Simultaneously with these land operations, RAF bombers pounded Axis shipping and an official announcement said a destroyer and a merchant ship were sunk in the Mediterranean.

Additional RAF units raided Axis communications in the western desert and were declared to have set afire a number of vehicles in a convoy near El Aden. The RAF command announced that a German bomber and two fighters were downed in the Tobruk area and the South African air force was credited with downing one Italian craft and destroying another on the ground in Ethiopia.

RIVER FLOOD DUE TUESDAY

Rains Up Rio Grande To 26-Foot Level

SAN BENITO—Flood stage in the Rio Grande at Brownsville can be expected by Tuesday with a rise to about 26 feet, J. L. Lytel, I. B. C. flood control project engineer, said Saturday night.

The river will continue to rise throughout the Lower Valley Sunday with Hidalgo expected to record about 30,000 second feet Sunday night. Laredo reported 19,000 second feet and falling on Saturday and 32,000 second feet was recorded at Rio Grande City Saturday night.

The Rio Grande's rise is a result of general rains all along the watershed with heavy rains recorded from as far up the river as Presidio.

Mascot Disconcerts

6-INCH RAINS FLOOD RIVERS

Cloudbursts Threat To Roads, Stock

By The Associated Press

A six-inch rain sent rivers in Texas and Oklahoma roaring out of their banks Saturday threatening highway bridges and livestock.

Oklahoma highway workers were placed in guard at the Red River bridge on U.S. Highway 277 near Burkburnett as the stream was three feet below flood level and still rising.

At Victoria in South Texas the Guadalupe was slowly rising at 30 feet. Record stage there is 31.4 feet reached in 1936.

Lowlands south and west of Victoria were under water. The river was two to three miles wide.

Arterial highways were closed in the Austin area.

WHIRLAWAY TAKES HOME DERBY CASH

Staretor, Outsider, Comes In 2nd

By SID FEDER

CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—"Whacky" Whirlaway, the little chestnut horse with the big full tail and the blinding stretch speed, ran away with the greatest Kentucky Derby of them all Saturday.

Fairly flying down the last long quarter mile, the stretch-running-est son the blue grass has boasted of in a long time galloped home by eight lengths, laughing off all the "ifs" they had tagged onto his chances and bringing screams of admiration from the biggest crowd ever to see a horse race in America —an officially estimated 100,000.

Comes From Behind

He did it by coming up from eighth place in the field of 11 under masterful handling by wise Eddie Arcaro, and he put the crusher on his critics so convincingly that his smashing speed broke the Downs and Derby record for the mile and a quarter. He hit the wire in the red-hot time of 2 minutes, 1 2/5 seconds, two-fifth of a second faster than it took Twenty Grand in posting the fastest previous time in the 66 years of Derby history.

Far down the track and out of the money as he came bouncing home all by himself were the "big horses" of this race — Charley (Lucky) Howard's California-owned Porter's Cap and Royce Martin's Our Boots, the colts which they said would leave Whirlaway in the dust when he committed his usual racing "sin" of running wide at the last turn. But the little standard-bearer of Warren Wright just pointed his tail out in back like a rudder and ran as true as an arrow to give Chicago its second straight Derby victory and win by as wide a margin as any horse ever has taken this run for the roses.

Only Johnston in 1939 and Old Rosebud in 1914 ever made such a show of their field. It was as if the Derby was run in two sections, and the only contest in the race found the rank outsider in the field, Hugh Nesbitt's Staretor, driving to a neck decision over another

Mobile Power Unit Due In Valley

MERCEDES—Managers of District 7 of the Texas Power Reserve Electric Cooperative in a meeting at Mercedes Saturday authorized the purchase of a mobile electric generating unit to be available to any section of this district in case of emergency.

This power plant on wheels, purchased mainly in line with the national defense movement, is sufficient to take care of any substation area in case the sub-station should be out of commission.

Most of Saturday's meeting was devoted to the discussion of operating problems. The meeting ended with an entertainment at Reynosa, Mexico, Saturday night with J. E. Wilder, manager of the Magic Valley Electric Cooperative Inc., of Mercedes, as host.

Other electric cooperative managers of this area who attended this meeting were Charles Beck of Cuero, Charles C. Fagg of Victoria, R. H. Hoffman of Karnes City, L. B. Walker of El Campo, M. S. Vichy Says 26 U. S. Ships, Packed With Arms, Convoyed To Suez Canal

By The Associated Press

VICHY, France — Diplomatic informants who usually are reliable said Saturday night they had circumstantial reports that 26 American merchant ships, stacked to the funnels with war materiel for the British middle-eastern armies and accompanied by American warships, had reached the Suez Canal.

The word used by the informants to describe the reported presence of United States naval vessels was that they were "convoying" the merchant ships.

In Washington, the Navy Department stated immediately upon receipt of the report: "No United States Navy ships are employed in convoy duty."

Maritime sources however said it was quite possible that the merchant ships reported at Suez had left United tSates shores with 75 mm. cannon and other materiel intended for Greece and Yugoslavia, and while it had been understood that these vessels were mainly Yugoslav and Greek freighters, some informed sources suggested that American vessels also might have headed for Suez via the Cape of Good Hope.

The report that the ships had arrived created a great stir in Vichy, where United States willingness as well as ability to convoy aid to Britain has been considered doubtful.

However, the fact that President Roosevelt recently suspended the neutrality ban on American ships entering the Red Sea and proceeding to Suez had been considered the forerunner of just such a move as reported Saturday.

In Cairo Friday British sources said that new equipment arriving in the Middle East, much of it American-made, is offsetting the British materiel losses in Greece.

LINDY AGAIN WARNS U.S. TO AVOID EUROPE

America Not Ready Says Flier

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh declared Saturday night America was not prepared to wage war abroad successfully but pleaded that we must and can defend our own nation.

He stressed particularly, in a speech prepared for an America First Committee rally, what he said was our inadequacy in the air.

He said that no matter how many planes we built and sent to England, we could not make the British Isles stronger than Germany in military aviation.

"Performance Inadequate"

"Not only is the performance of some of our vital types of service aircraft inadequate, but our total air force in the United States today, including both army and navy, both modern and obsolescent types, is not more than Germany can produce in a few weeks," he said. "It is a small fraction of her present airforce To enter a European war today with our air force would be almost as great a folly as that committed by France when she declared war on Germany n 1939"

It was Lindbergh's first speech since he resigned hi colonel's commission in the air corps reserve last Monday. The resignation followed President Roosevelt's press conference statement grouping Lindbergh with appeasers of the Revolutionary War and the copperheads of the Civil War.

Explains Resignation

Lindbergh referred to this early in his talk. He said:

"I resigned because I felt that the statements of the president left me no honorble alternative. This situation arose because I, together with millions of Americans, believe that our country should not enter the war in Europe while the president, and many with him, believe we should take part in that war."

"This is the third great nation that I have watched being led into war without adequate preparation and without the true facts and issues of the war being placed before the people," he continued.

"In England, in France and now in my own country, I have listened to politicians and idealists calling upon the people for war with hardly a thought of how that war is to be fought or won.

"I have seen France fall; I see England falling, and now I see America being led into the same morass.

The group was met at the Brownsville airport by Sam Miller and Vannie Cook of McAllen, who brought 10 of the group here. Mr and Mrs. Kelley went on to Mifflin switch in Kenedy county to attend the annual meeting of the Aggie club of Texas A. and I. College.

Serbs Block Danube To Halt Nazi Oil Shipping

Rumanian Shipments May Be Delayed For At Least Three Months, Yugoslav Premier Claims

SOMEWHERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST—(AP)—General Dusan Simovic, premier of the refugee Yugoslav government, declared Saturday his troops had so effectively blocked the Danube River that it would be at least three months before the Germans could move any Rumanian oil into the Reich by barge.

Simovic said barges full of concrete had been scuttled in the Iron Gate, the gorge-like passage on the Yugoslav-Rumanian border and that by the most conservative estimates it would take three months to clear a channel.

The German radio reported only Friday that the Danube had been cleared for traffic despite the Yugoslav sinking of barges and dynamiting of bridges wherever possible.

Simovic and members of his government said that once Yugoslavia was occupied, the Germans began forcing mass migrations of Serbs in an effort to change the racial character of the region.

Telling of Serbs being forced to march many miles from home without food or water, one cabinet minister declared:

"This is the fate of a people which stood for its rights and fought valiantly for its freedom."

The government leaders said they had no authentic word from Croatia and Slovenia but were convinced the whole population would not accept the Nazi-fostered Croatian regime.

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

Nazis Concentrate In Middle East

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF

BERLIN —(AP)— An important turning point in the war appeared almost at hand Saturday as Berlin concentrated its attention on the swiftly moving events in the Middle East.

The possibility of some declaration of policy was discussed in informed quarters, and the words, "new phase" was being heard as events speeded up in the Eastern Mediterranean and Asia Minor.

War's Phases

To date Germans have divided the war into sharply distinct phases: Poland, Norway, France, the Balkans.

Germans asked one another: Will a similarly distinct campaign be the Reich's next move?

Authorized spokesmen were noncommunicative save for such observations as "the war doesn't stand still" of "coming events cast their shadows before them."

But Germany's intense interest in the Near East was obvious and the cheering for Iraq, now fighting the British Imperial forces, swelled as new reports told of expanding operations there.

'British Encroachment'

The first semi-official comment, in the commentary service Deutsche Diplomatisch Politische Korrespondenz, said:

"Wherever a sense of honor still exists the greatest attention and recognition must be paid to the courageous stand of Iraq toward the

FCC APPROVES RADIO CHANGE

NBC Must Dispose Of One Network Now

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Federal Communications Commission approved Saturday, by a 5 to 2 vote, regulations which it said were intended to increase the number of radio networks and give individual stations "wider latitude" in their dealings with the networks.

The new regulations, among other things, will:

Make it necessary for the National Broadcasting Company to dispose of one of its two networks, known as the Red and Blue; prohibit, unless it can be shown that public interest requires otherwise, the licensing of two stations in the same area to one network; sharply regulate the affiliation contracts between networks and stations.

No Challenge Seen

There was an immediate indication that the industry might challenge the regulations in the courts.

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, said in a statement that the order "constitutes usurpation of power which has no justification in law and menaces the freedom of the American system of broadcasting." He called a meeting of the executive committee of the association at New York on Wednesday and quoted from a recent resolution of the association's directorate which said:

"The philosophy of American broadcasting as expressed in decisions of the supreme court of the United States and the applicable statutes envisages control of programs, of business management and of policy in the broadcaster and not subject to the supervisory control of the government."

Four commissioners joined with Chairman James L. Fly in voting to promulgate the regulations, making the vote 5 to 2. Those voting with Fly were Paul A. Walker, George Henry Payne, Frederick I. Thompson and Ray C. Wakefield.

Regulations regarding existing contracts will not become effective for 90 days. Other regulations are effective immediately.

REP. JOHNSON RAPS STRIKES IN 1ST TALK

Senatorial Campaign In Full Swing

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

SAN MARCOS, Tex.—(AP)—Opening his campaign for U. S. Senator, New Deal Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson in a grim speech Saturday night questioned the right of labor or capital to strike in "this danger time" when the job of all is to save America.

The 32-year-old Congressman from central Texas who announced for Senator after a conference with President Roosevelt declared the government itself must prevent both capital and labor from taking advantage of the national need."

Roosevelt's Friend

Johnson has been a close friend of Mr. Roosevelt since his election to the House of Representatives in 1937 to succeed the Late Congressman James P. Buchanan of Brenham. In 1938 and 1940 he was returned to Congress without opposition.

"The time has come to say: strikes must cease!" Johnson asserted, "and saying it, to mean also shut-downs of coal mines, manufacturers who will not make bombers for Britain, and every form of monkey-wrenching defense.

'Anything less spells France. Anything less spells death for England.

"The issue is: no strikes in this danger time! There can be but one answer. Roosevelt, your leader in peace and war, or Henry Ford and the hundreds of little Fords who want to tell their government what to make, for whom, at how much

Man Missing

McAllen Man Last Seen Week Ago

EDINBURG — A McAllen truck driver who has been missing since last Sunday still has not been located, the sheriff's office disclosed Saturday.

The man is Ralph Erwin, employed by Bob Finch of McAllen as a coffee truck driver. About 25 years of age, he was last seen at about 3 a. m. April 27 at the McAllen residence at which he stayed. He is about five feet, eight inches in height, has curly black hair, and has an affection in one eye. He was wearing striped overalls and cowboy boots when last seen.

So far as is known Erwin has no relatives. Finch told officers he was at a loss to explain why Erwin should be absent for such a time.

OIL FIELDS PROTECTED BY RAF BOMBERS

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

BERLIN— (Sunday) —(AP)—The Reichstag is to meet at 6 p.m. today (10 a.m. CST) to "receive a declaration of the Reichs government."

An official announcement said: "The German Reichstag will assemble at 6 p.m. tonight. On the day's agenda: a declaration of the Reichs government. The session will be broadcast over all German stations."

By The Associated Press

LONDON (Sunday) — British troops battling to preserve the empire's vast oil fields in the Middle East drove off Iraq forces attacking in the Basra area at the head of the Persian Gulf, it was learned in London early today.

RAF bombers and artillery were thrown into action against the Iraqi troops in this, the second battle area to develop in the suddenly flaring war in Iraq.

The British acknowledged last night that planes and men had been lost in a two-day battle at Habbaniyah airdrome.

Reinforcements Landed

Two contingents of reinforcements have been landed in recent days at Basra to help meet the threat to the precious flow of oil to the British Mediterrancan fleet.

British quarters here branded as untrue German reports that Indian Colonials had surrendered to the Iraqi forces.

The official statement, admitting that "a number of our aircraft have been destroyed on the ground and some casualties have been sustained," said, however, that the RAF had paid the Iraqis back by blasting some of their guns into silence.

The battle continued Saturday night—but, authoritative sources asserted, the oil which alone makes Iraq a prize worth fighting for still flows by pipeline to the Mediterranean. Britain blames agents of oil-hungry Germany for provoking the two-day-old conflict.

The Iraq government, anti-British since a coup d'etat placed Raschid Ali Al Gailani in power as premier April 4, claimed destruction of 26 British planes at Habbaniyah, the RAF base 60 miles west of Baghdad; and said the British had lost mechanized units in a vain attack on Rutbah (Rusba) fort and airdrome, 250 miles west of Baghdad. The ministry of information said the Rutbah story was untrue, but acknowledged destruction of Habbaniyah planes, mostly trainers

A formal British communique said Habbaniyah was entirely surrounded by Iraq troops entrenched in the high ground overlooking the field and that since early Friday the un-

HOLDER QUITS WILLACY POST

Rikard Gets Tax Job In Water District

RAYMONDVILLE — John F. Holder, for nine years tax assessor-collector for the Willacy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, resigned his post Friday at request of the board of directors, he announced here Saturday. The resignation and request were confirmed Saturday night by Albert Hughes, board president.

Reid Rikard, former president of the district board, and long a power in district politics, was appointed in Holder's place, Hughes said Saturday night. Holder's resignation was effective as of close of business Saturday night; and Rikard will take over Monday.

The request and resignation came Friday afternoon, Holder said, when he was called into a special meeting of the board. No explanation nor reason for the request was given, although he requested one, Holder said. Hughes Saturday night said reason for the request for Holder's resignation was no particular secret, but that he did not want to discuss the matter over the telephone. He added that he hoped the matter would not be given continuous publicity, feeling that affairs of the district had had enough publicity in the past.

The resignation of Holder came as no surprise; since persistent rumors last summer and early last fall indicated likelihood of an eventual attempt to replace him and perhaps other employes of the district. Holder indicated Saturday that he might make a statement later.

IRAQ FORCES ROUTED IN 2ND WAR AREA

British Take Axis Forces By Surprise In Africa

BOLD DESERT MOVE UPSETS NAZI PLANS

Nazis Still Stab At Tobruk

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt—A British mechanized force cutting behind the German and Italian positions on the Egyptian frontier has raced across the desert plateau and taken by surprise a considerable body of Axis troops, middle eastern headquarters announced Saturday night.

This bold sortie, reminiscent of the tactics used in routing the Italians last winter, was carried out in the Salum sector while the Axis forces stabbed repeatedly at British-held Tobruk, 80 miles to the west, only to wind up still in the southwestern corner of that port's outer ring of defenses.

Axis Losses Heavy

The thwarted Tobruk assaults were declared to have cost the Axis forces heavy losses. These attacks were carried out for the most part by Germans using tanks with considerable air support. The Middle East command said two Stukas were destroyed.

[redacted] said the persistent attacks indicated British hold on [redacted] the Axis drive [redacted] Africa. They added [redacted] station of these attacks was to be expected.

The troops which swept behind the Axis line at Salum were said to have cut the Bardia-Tobruk road for a time while they were rounding up the surprised Germans and Italians. In additon to the prisoncrs they brought back a big field gun.

This daring maneuver also gained useful information concerning disposition of the Axis troops. Military quarters said the foray showed the British still retain their old cunning at desert warfare and are not losing the initiative.

Suez Drive Balked

Thus the Army of the Nile, outnumbered and awaiting reinforcement from the East, pursued the harassment of the German and Italian forces which rolled the British back from Libya to the Egyptian border but, so far, have been unable to continue their Suez-bound drive from that point.

Simultaneously with these land operations, RAF bombers pounded Axis shipping and an official announcement said a destroyer and a merchant ship were sunk in the Mediterranean.

Additional RAF units raided Axis communications in the western desert and were declared to have set afire a number of vehicles in a convoy near El Aden. The RAF command announced that a German bomber and two fighters were downed in the Tobruk area and the South African air force was credited with downing one Italian craft and destroying another on the ground in Ethiopia.

Explains Resignation

Lindbergh referred to this early in his talk. He said:

"I resigned because I felt that the statements of the president left me no honorble alternative. This situation arose because I, together with millions of Americans, believe that our country should not enter the war in Europe while the president, and many with him, believe we should take part in that war."

"This is the third great nation that I have watched being led into war without adequate preparation and without the true facts and issues of the war being placed before the people," he continued.

"In England, in France and now in my own country, I have listened to politicians and idealists calling upon the people for war with hardly a thought of how that war is to be fought or won.

"I have seen France fall; I see England falling, and now I see America being led into the same morass.

"America Not Prepared"

I knew, in 1939, that England and France were not prepared to wage war successfully and I know that America is not prepared today

Legislators Here

12 To Attend Event In Valley Sunday

McALLEN—A party of 12 members of the Texas legislature and their guests arrived by plane in the Valley Saturday to attend the Sunday afternoon dedication of the new U. S. federal office building at Hidalgo.

The delegation included Speaker and Mrs. Homer L. Leonard of McAllen, Senator and Mrs. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg, Representative and Mrs. Hop Halsey of Lubbock, Representative and Mrs. Clinton Kersey of Bridgeport, Representative Obel McAlister of Fort Worth, Representative Emmett Morse of Houston and Bess Dunlavy and Martha Bradford of Austin, Speaker Leonard's secretaries

The group was met at the Brownsville airport by Sam Miller and Vannie Cook of McAllen, who brought 10 of the group here. Mr and Mrs. Kelley went on to Mifflin switch in Kenedy county to attend the annual meeting of the Aggie club of Texas A. and I. College.

Serbs Block Danube To Halt Nazi Oil Shipping

Rumanian Shipments May Be Delayed For At Least Three Months, Yugoslav Premier Claims

SOMEWHERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST—(AP)—General Dusan Simovic, premier of the refugee Yugoslav government, declared Saturday his troops had so effectively blocked the Danube River that it would be at least three months before the Germans could move any Rumanian oil into the Reich by barge.

Simovic said barges full of concrete had been scuttled in the Iron Gate, the gorge-like passage on the Yugoslav-Rumanian border and that by the most conservative estimates it would take three months to clear a channel.

The German radio reported only Friday that the Danube had been cleared for traffic despite the Yugoslav sinking of barges and dynamiting of bridges wherever possible.

Simovic and members of his government said that once Yugoslavia was occupied, the Germans began forcing mass migrations of Serbs in an effort to change the racial character of the region.

Telling of Serbs being forced to march many miles from home without food or water, one cabinet minister declared:

"This is the fate of a people which stood for its rights and fought valiantly for its freedom."

The government leaders said they had no authentic word from Croatia and Slovenia but were convinced the whole population would not accept the Nazi-fostered Croatian regime.

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

Nazis Concentrate In Middle East

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF

BERLIN —(AP)— An important turning point in the war appeared almost at hand Saturday as Berlin concentrated its attention on the swiftly moving events in the Middle East.

The possibility of some declaration of policy was discussed in informed quarters, and the words, "new phase" was being heard as events speeded up in the Eastern Mediterranean and Asia Minor.

War's Phases

To date Germans have divided the war into sharply distinct phases: Poland, Norway, France, the Balkans.

Germans asked one another: Will a similarly distinct campaign be the Reich's next move?

Authorized spokesmen were noncommunicative save for such observations as "the war doesn't stand still" of "coming events cast their shadows before them."

But Germany's intense interest in the Near East was obvious and the cheering for Iraq, now fighting the British Imperial forces, swelled as new reports told of expanding operations there.

'British Encroachment'

The first semi-official comment, in the commentary service Deutsche Diplomatisch Politische Korrespondenz, said:

"Wherever a sense of honor still exists the greatest attention and recognition must be paid to the courageous stand of Iraq toward the

FCC APPROVES RADIO CHANGE

NBC Must Dispose Of One Network Now

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Federal Communications Commission approved Saturday, by a 5 to 2 vote, regulations which it said were intended to increase the number of radio networks and give individual stations "wider latitude" in their dealings with the networks.

The new regulations, among other things, will:

Make it necessary for the National Broadcasting Company to dispose of one of its two networks, known as the Red and Blue; prohibit, unless it can be shown that public interest requires otherwise, the licensing of two stations in the same area to one network; sharply regulate the affiliation contracts between networks and stations.

No Challenge Seen

There was an immediate indication that the industry might challenge the regulations in the courts.

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, said in a statement that the order "constitutes usurpation of power which has no justification in law and menaces the freedom of the American system of broadcasting." He called a meeting of the executive committee of the association at New York on Wednesday and quoted from a recent resolution of the association's directorate which said:

"The philosophy of American broadcasting as expressed in decisions of the supreme court of the United States and the applicable statutes envisages control of programs, of business management and of policy in the broadcaster and not subject to the supervisory control of the government."

Four commissioners joined with Chairman James L. Fly in voting to promulgate the regulations, making the vote 5 to 2. Those voting with Fly were Paul A. Walker, George Henry Payne, Frederick I. Thompson and Ray C. Wakefield.

Regulations regarding existing contracts will not become effective for 90 days. Other regulations are effective immediately.

Tiny Red Ant Stops Fast Freight Train

REP. JOHNSON RAPS STRIKES IN 1ST TALK

Senatorial Campaign In Full Swing

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

SAN MARCOS, Tex.—(AP)—Opening his campaign for U. S. Senator, New Deal Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson in a grim speech Saturday night questioned the right of labor or capital to strike in "this danger time" when the job of all is to save America.

The 32-year-old Congressman from central Texas who announced for Senator after a conference with President Roosevelt declared 'the government itself must prevent both capital and labor from taking advantage of the national need."

Roosevelt's Friend

Johnson has been a close friend of Mr. Roosevelt since his election to the House of Representatives in 1937 to succeed the Late Congressman James P. Buchanan of Brenham. In 1938 and 1940 he was returned to Congress without opposition.

"The time has come to say: strikes must cease!" Johnson asserted, "and saying it, to mean also shut-downs of coal mines, manufacturers who will not make bombers for Britain, and every form of monkey-wrenching defense.

'Anything less spells death for England.

"The issue is: no strikes in this danger time! There can be but one answer. Roosevelt, your leader in peace and war, or Henry Ford and the hundreds of little Fords who want to tell their government what to make, for whom, at how much

Man Missing

McAllen Man Last Seen Week Ago

EDINBURG — A McAllen truck driver who has been missing since last Sunday still has not been located, the sheriff's office disclosed Saturday.

The man s Ralph Erwin, employed by Bob Finch of McAllen as a coffee truck driver. About 25 years of age, he was last seen at about 3 a. m. April 27 at the McAllen residence at which he stayed. He is about five feet, eight inches in height, has curly black hair, and has an affection in one eye. He was wearing striped overalls and cowboy boots when last seen.

So far as is known Erwin has no relatives. Finch told officers he was at a loss to explain why Erwin should be absent for such a time.

OIL FIELDS PROTECTED BY RAF BOMBERS

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

BERLIN— (Sunday) —(AP)—The Reichstag is to meet at 6 p.m. today (10 a.m. CST) to "receive a declaration of the Reichs government."

An official announcement said: "The German Reichstag will assemble at 6 p.m. tonight. On the day's agenda: a declaration of the Reichs government. The session will be broadcast over all German stations."

By The Associated Press

LONDON (Sunday) — British troops battling to preserve the empire's vast oil fields in the Middle East drove off Iraq forces attacking in the Basra area at the head of the Persian Gulf, it was learned in London early today.

RAF bombers and artillery were thrown into action against the Iraqi troops in this, the second battle area to develop in the suddenly flaring war in Iraq.

The British acknowledged last night that planes and men had been lost in a two-day battle at Habmaniyah airdrome.

Reinforcements Landed

Two contingents of reinforcements have been landed in recent days at Basra to help meet the threat to the precious flow of oil to the British Mediterranean fleet.

British quarters here branded as untrue German reports that Indian Colonials had surrendered to the Iraqi forces.

The official statement, admitting that "a number of our aircraft have been destroyed on the ground and some casualties have been sustained," said, however, that the RAF had paid the Iraqis back by blasting some of their guns into silence.

The battle continued Saturday night—but, authoritative sources asserted, the oil which alone makes Iraq a prize worth fighting for still flows by pipeline to the Mediterranean. Britain blames agents of oil-hungry Germany for provoking the two-day-old conflict.

The Iraq government, anti-British since a coup d'etat placed Raschid Ali Al Gailani in power as premier April 4, claimed destruction of 26 British planes at Habbaniyah, the RAF base 60 miles west of Baghdad; and said the British had lost mechanized units in a vain attack on Rutbah (Rusba) fort and airdrome, 250 miles west of Baghdad. The ministry of information said the Rutbah story was untrue, but acknowledged destruction of Habbaniyah planes, mostly trainers

A formal British communique said Habbaniyah was entirely surrounded by Iraq troops entrenched in the high ground overlooking the field and that since early Friday the un-

HOLDER QUITS WILLACY POST

Rikard Gets Tax Job In Water District

RAYMONDVILLE — John F. Holder, for nine years tax assessor-collector for the Willacy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, resigned his post Friday at request of the board of directors, he announced here Saturday. The resignation and request were confirmed Saturday night by Albert Hughes, board president.

Reid Rikard, former president of the district board, and long a power in district politics, was appointed in Holder's place, Hughes said Saturday night. Holder's resignation was effective as of close of business Saturday night; and Rikard will take over Monday.

The request and resignation came Friday afternoon, Holder said, when he was called into a special meeting of the board. No explanation nor reason for the request was given, although he requested one, Holder said. Hughes Saturday night said reason for the request for Holder's resignation was no particular secret, but that he did not want to discuss the matter over the telephone. He added that he hoped the matter would not be given continuous publicity, feeling that affairs of the district had had enough publicity in the past.

The resignation of Holder came as no surprise; since persistent rumors last summer and early last fall indicated likelihood of an eventual attempt to replace him and perhaps other employes of the district. Holder indicated Saturday that he might make a statement later.

VALLEY CAMP EVENT DRAWS 500 SCOUTS

Rain Hampers Annual McAllen Outing

McALLEN—More than 500 Boy Scouts and their leaders were back at home Sunday after cutting their two-day McAllen camporee in half because of rain.

Represented at the Cascade camping ground were 65 patrols from all of the Valley council's eight districts. Boys from almost every town in the section registered before stormy weather caused cancellation of the Kiwanis-sponsored camporee.

Rain Friday night dampened most of the campers who had gathered at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon to begin the meeting, but Camp Doctor Alfred Osborn pronounced the boys fit Saturday morning except for a few minor colds and noted the fact that spirits of the boys were the only things not dampened.

Adverse weather caused calling off of all contests scheduled Saturday morning, and boys hauled down their tents to prepare for the homeward journey after cooking breakfast. Leaders graded them only on the quality of their camp and the food they prepared.

Judging the boys on camping and cooking, 38 patrols from 23 troops were given the highest rating, standard. ther ratings with the highest listed first are Starr, Triangle and Participating. More than 30 other patrols won one of the three lower ratings.

Patrols rated Standard are: Weslaco Troop 41, Eagle; Troop 35, Bear, B. P. and Beaver; McAllen Troop 75, Wolf and Eagle, Troop 13, Flying Eagle and Indian, Troop 63 Tiger, Troop 12, Eagle; Raymondville Troop 27, Flaming Arrow; San Benito Troop 26, Beaver; Brownsville Troop 3 Fox, Troop 31 Lion, Troop 29 Rattle Snake, Flying Eagle and Black Beaver.

Donna Troop 4 Mohican, Troop 2 Rattlesnake and Hawk; Elsa-Edcouch Troop 8 Eagle, Bob White and Whippowill; Mission Troop 18 Mohawk, Troop 22 Coon, Lone Star and Longhorn, Troop 20 Eagle and Bob White; Sharyland Troop 55 Blazing Arrow, Flying Eagle, Black Cat and Covered Wagon; Edinburg Troop 1 Beaver, Troop 45 Eagle, Troop 7 Lion; Harlingen Troop 21 Flying Eagle; Pharr Troop 24 Wolf.

To Stress Skills

In the Friday night campfire ceremony the boys rededged themselves to the Scout motto, "Be Prepared." They followed that ceremony by expressing their desire to cooperate in strengthening America through practicing their scouting skills.

Scout Leader A. H. Dreyer, Mercedes resident and Valley Scout executive, outlined the part scouting will be called to play in the defense program. He presented a resume of the part Scouts played in the World War and discussed the emergency service organization which will be perfected during May.

Scouts, he said, will begin Monday to distribute posters throughout the Valley on the defense bond campaign after a request for cooperation from President Roosevelt. Scouts will list places where posters are placed and reports on their activity will be sent to Washington May 10. Leaders were given the posters Friday night for distribution to Scouts.

John Boeye, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee on the camporee, was loud in his praise for the cooperation and leadership of the boys. His committee was assisted by the army, Lions Club, Rotary Club, border patrol, highway patrol and Sea Scouts. Thanks for the use of the Cascade camping grounds were expressed to M. R. Nelson, owner.

Ratings were announced late Saturday by Moody after the camps had been inspected and graded by heads of the camporee. The ratings were made against the standard rating plan and officials said results proved that even under the adverse weather conditions, "The Boy Scouts can take it."

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

newest encroachment of the British Empire." It charged Britain with "flagrant disregard of treaty and apparent provocative intention" in sending new contingents of troops into Iraq while units originally landed still were present in the country.

Irak, said Korrespondenz, now "knows the value of the British promise to Arab peoples. Britain . . . now is obtaining a receipt from a small but brave people for its presumptuous attempts to force its mastery on the whole world."

For the moment, however, Germany was doing, apparently, no more than expressing deep sympathy for Iraq. Officials would not discuss reports that the Iraq government had asked Berlin for help, nor would they indicate whether there was any prospect of such aid.

Attention again was engaged by the war on English commerce.

The high command's report that submarines, planes and surface craft sank ships totalling 1,211,000 tons in April gave some conception of the intensity of this campaign.

Informed German sources estimated British shipping losses since the beginning of the war at close to 11,000,000 tons and added: "With the exception of the United States, there is no country which can relieve Britain's need for shipping space."

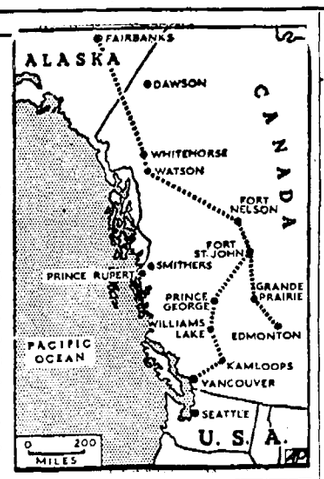
Canada Hastens Airport Chain



Construction work on Pacific coast air bases is being advanced swiftly by Canada as it faces the uncertainties of war. The Canadian government has announced that it would spend $9,000,000 on the project, beginnisg with a base at Edmonton, Alberta, and extending to White Horse in the Yukon. Dots show how bases projected and already completed would form a chain from border to border. Presumably the bases would be available to U. S. planes.

Move To Oust Reynolds As Commitee Head Abandoned

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Administration supporters were reported Saturday to have abandoned—largely because of Republican opposition—an attempt to keep the chairmanship of the important Senate military affairs committee from Senator Reynolds (D-NC.)

Reynolds, senior Democratic member of the committee in point of service, has been in line for the chairmanship since the recent death of Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.)

By Senate tradition, a committee chairmanship goes to the senior member of the majority party. In the case of Reynolds, there were many protests against his advancement in view of his criticism of the administration's program of aiding Britain.

SEN. REYNOLDS

Some administration men attempted to lay the groundwork for a move within the Democratic steering committee, which recommends committee assignments, to pass over Reynolds and place Senator Thomas (D-Utah) in the chairmanship.

While some believed the steering committee might be persuaded to go against precedent and side-track Reynolds, the North Carolina Senator made it known that he would appeal any such decision to the Senate.

A quiet check of the Senate was said to show that practically all of the 28 Republicans would vote to uphold the traditional custom.

Reynolds Supported

In addition, the canvass indicated Reynolds would have the support of several Democrats who entertain views similar to his about the British aid program, and of some Democrats of opposite views who still were firmly against depriving any member of a chairmanship when he was entitled to it by seniority.

For this reason, Reynolds' opponents were said to have concluded that the wisest thing to do was to let matters take their course in the steering committee.

Red Rampages

The Red River washed across U.S. Highway 283 in Oklahoma disrupting interstate traffic and cutting deep holes in the roadbed.

The north fork of the Red in Oklahoma was rising one foot per hour. The river was a mile wide west of Terrel bridge.

At Union, Okla., the Canadian River was falling.

A bridge between Crowell and Benjamin was washed out.

At Camp Hulen on the Texas coast a heavy wind lashed the camp theater into a welter of muddy canvas and smashed equipment. Torrential rains accompanied the twister.

The rain belt extended roughly over all west Texas from the Panhandle to the gulf and western Oklahoma. Some showers fell in East Texas, and heavy rains fell in some central and north central points. Showers were forecast for East Texas Sunday.

Wichita Falls reported clearing skies in that area after the torrential rains sent the Pease River on a 12-foot rise.

Benefit And Damage

There were both benefits and damages from the precipitation. It was regarded as helpful for pasturage and cotton, but prospect of wheat rust was regarded at Wichita Falls as a serious threat to a bumper grain crop. Bright sunshine and dry night would alleviate this situation, crop authorities said.

Farm damage, if any, was regarded as negligible in the Lubbock area, regarded as typical of the south plains.

Typical reports were: Alice 2.34, Carrizo Springs 1.30, Falfurrias 2. Hondo 1.17, Uvalde 1.28, Corpus Christi 2.48.

In west Texas: Ballinger 1.90, Big Spring 1.86, Brownwood 1.60, Dublin 1.12, Eastland 2.40, Haskell 3.25, Kerrville 1.31, Lampasas 1.12, San Angelo 1.63, Abilene 2.14, Brady 1.37, Clarendon 2.38, Crosbyton 2.12, Graham 1.50, Haskell 3.25, Memphis 2.74, Miami 1.85, Muleshoe 1.78, Plainview .96, Quanah 5.36, Snyder 1.84, Spur 2.25, Amarillo 1.49, Lubbock 1.05.

SP Engine Explodes; Four Train Men Die

SALINAS, Calif.—(AP)—A huge mountain locomotive pulling a 94-car Southern Pacific freight train exploded with a deafening blast Saturday, killing four trainsmen and hurling jagged smoking steel in all directions.

Million Less Cars Due For Next Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Automobile manufacturers were advised by the office of Production Management Saturday that they could make 4,224,152 vehicles in the model year beginning August 1.

Individual allotments were assigned to each company, but officials said that the figures would not be disclosed by firms.

It was learned, however, that General Motors Corporation, Chrysler and the Ford Motor Company were reduced 21 1-2 per cent below their production this year.

Total output of the automobile industry this year was estimated at 5,289,974 cars and the overall reduction will amount to 1,057,904 or 10.15 per cent.

Finns Seem To Like The Idea Of Taxes

HELSINKI — (AP) — The Finnish government, in need of immediate cash and seeking to speed payment of property taxes, hit upon the idea of interest-bearing certificates.

The scheme was so successful that certificates are being sold now as desirable investments.

fortified cantonment had been blasted by tons of artillery shells.

Some of the guns were smashed by British bombers, but the shelling at point-blank range continues, and the Iraqi air force has tried to raid the airdrome, the British officials stated.

"As regards Iraqui claims to have occupied oil wells and all airdromes of the country," said the ministry of information, "it should be pointed out that these have always been in Iraqi hands with the single exception of Shaiba airdrome near Basra, where so far as is known no hostile action has been attempted."

Authoritative British sources said they were unable to reconcile this declaration with the fact that before the war the RAF was known to have operated several airdromes in Iraq and that this number presumably had been increased rather than decreased.

Nazi Stories Sensational

The German radio kept up a running command of sensational declarations concerning the Iraq struggle even while German officialdom professed relative disinterest.

Overheard in London, these broadcasts included assertions that British planes tried to raid the Baghdad residence of the premier;

That one British plane was shot down in two RAF raids on Iraq troop concentrations at Baghdad's Camp Rashid;

That the Iraq army had taken over all oil wells, pipelines, pump stations and fisheries;

That there was an artillery duel in "the southern area; and that Iraq artillery had set off big oil fires and ammunition explosions at "Cineldebane" airport. (This apparently was a garbled version of Dhibban, the settlement on Lake Habbaniyah near the British air base.)

Britain Worried

While Britain eyed the situation with undisguised concern, a British authority said the oil pipeline still was operating and that in any event the fleet had stored up "numerous and adequate" fuel reserves in the Mediterranean.

On the heels of a German broadcast that Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, British ambassador to Baghdad, had been chased into the embassy by a mob which objected to his distributing propaganda leaflets, Sir Kinahan informed london:

"All is quiet in Baghdad."

A similar report came from Basra, the Persian Gulf seaport which the German radio said that the British had "attacked"

Premier In Charge

(German radio reports heard in New York by CBS said the Iraq premier had personally taken charge of his troops and that the Iraq disturbance "may well grow into a major test between British Imperialism and the entire Arab world"

(This was followed by German broadcasts that Egyptian students in Cairo demonstrated against the British and clashed with British soldiers, and that British Indian troops were going over to the Iraq side)

Informed Britons blamed the Germans entirely for the Middle East explosion and speculated that the Nazis were trying to cause discord in neighboring Syria, Palestine, Transjordan, Saudi Arabi and Iran.

The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, long a thorn in the British side, has received help "handsomely and heavily" from Berlin, British sources said, so a new anti-Jewish outbreak by the Palestine Arabs would be no surprise. (Dispatches from Beirut to Vichy, France, said some blood already had been spilled in Palestine and some Jewish leaders kidnapped by Arabs.)

Moslem War Expected

German agents long have been striving to shatter British and French influence by fomenting nationaist movements and encouraging a vague "Pan-Moslem" idea in the Middle East, the British said.

The future of troublous French Syria was designated a major question.

A Saturday meeting of the French cabinet in Vichy was cancelled suddenly when Vice Premier Jean Darlan left for Paris. The Middle East situation caused his trip, Vichy diplomatic circles said.

From French circles expressed belief thta in response to the Iraq premier's plea for German aid, the Nazis might send troops by transport plane or go through Turkey. They hoped Hitler would not decide to go through Syria, though that posisbility obviously was uppermost in their minds.

Laval Sees Abetz

Pierre Laval, chief French advocate of full co-operation with Germany, conferred lengthily in Paris with Hitler's representative, Otto Abetz.

The French expressed belief that the Germans had made a deal promising the anti-British Iraqi leadership in a new all-Arab state.

At the same time, the French were nervously on the lookout for movement of German troops toward Spain for a possible attack on Gibraltar.

She Looks Sweet, She Sings Sweet, But Is She Another Deanna Durbin?

By ROBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Even with a sweet voice, it takes time for a youngster to become an over-night sensation, and Kathryn Grayson, latest entry in the movie singing lists, is no exception to the rule that has held for her quartet of rivals.

Miss Grayson, recently turned 19, joined a field of 'teen-age coloraturas that includes Deanna Durbin, Gloria Jean, Susanna Foster and Edith Fellows. The new singing actress, after a year and a half under contract and "under wraps," makes a pleasant debut in the new Hardy film, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary."

Her Ambition—Opera

She's a shy miss, still a little terified by pictures, and still clinging to her early ambition for grand opera. She hasn't seen her first picture yet—only parts of it—and is trying, she says, to work up courage to see it all.

It takes no audience courage to see and hear Kathryn, however. She has a pert freshness and youthful prettiness further enhanced by the effortless ease with which she sails through arias or popular songs.

KATHRYN GRAYSON

Kathryn (real name Zelma Hedrick, of Winston-Salem, N. C.) came to Los Angeles from St. Louis when her father, a real estate man and building contractor, came here to set up business with a former partner. She was continuing her voice lessons, with no thought of movies, when her talents were brought to studio attention and she was persuaded to sign a contract.

"I had thought pictures would mean stopping my studies," she says, "but they assured me I could go on. And I've found I study harder at the studio than I did before."

For a year and a half, Kathryn has had a regular schedule of study under chosen tutors—a full eight-hour day which keeps her watching the minutes between classes.

Mickey Is "A Darling"

She was cast for her first film only when studio bosses deemed her ready. Kathryn herself wasn't so sure.

"I had flu all during the picture," she says, "and I didn't want to start off in such fast company. I'd heard that Mickey Rooney was a scene-stealer, and then there were all the others, such grand actors with so much experience. But Mickey was a darling—he helped me so much."

profit, or John L. Lewis and the hundreds of little Lewises seeking things now at the price of production.

"Depend On Leader"

"The President will not let you down . . . depend on the great heart of your leader, not on the hearts of men who say they lead you rightly, when they order you to lay down the very tools liberty must use to save itself."

Johnson, a member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, said "Britain is mighty wobbly" because it started late, "dawdled, appeased, waited for something to turn up."

"We have adopted the policy England must not fall," he declared. "But it can't continue without arms and planes or resist forever the great dictator who will start after us the day he shakes that island lose."

Energetic, forceful, the young congressman said he was seeking election to the Senate "knowing there is a chance I may be your war Senator."

But he made this promise:

"If the day ever comes when my vote must be cast to send your boy to the trenches, that day Lyndon Johnson will leave his Senate seat to go with him."

Touching on his experience in national affairs, he declared no other man in the Senate race "has that training and no other man can have it now. The time to train the firemen is before the fire breaks out."

Johnson said it was ridiculous to discount warnings that Germany may use bases in Africa and the Azores as springboards for an attack on the United States and South America.

"Modern bombers can hop from the Azores to New York, from Africa to Brazil, in a few hours," he said. 'Don't forget they ferry bombers to England over night).

Representative Lyndon Johnson's opening speech in his campaign for U. S. Senator, in which he urged unity behind President Roosevelt and questioned the right of labor to strike in time of danger, highlighted the race this week.

With Attorney General Gerald C. Mann mixing hand shakes with platform appearances, and Representative Martin Dies bearing down on defense and Fifth Column activities, the campaign was gradually picking up speed.

O'Daniel Is Question

Still a question mark was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's decision on whether to run. This was somewhat complicated by a series of north Texas appearances by his friend, Hal Collins of Mineral Wells, publicly asking for a 'go-ahead" sign from the voters. Collins, with an entourage of entertainers smacking of O'Daniel campaign tactics, drew good crowds in several cities last week.

Also undecided was Representative Wright Patman of Texarkana who has been considering a jump into the crowded arena.

In addition to the well-known figures there are numerous lesser known political aspirants including bearded Cyclone Davis, Jr., of Dallas as "the voice of temperance," air-minded John C. Williams of Rockport, a former naval flyer, and others.

Pierce Brooks May Run

Pierce Brooks of Dallas announced Saturday he had received 'hundreds of letters" urging him to announce. Brooks, in past campaigns candidate for railroad commissioner and lieutenant governor, said he had not made up his mind.

Dies spoke Saturday at Paris and next week was moving to Bonham, Monday; Sherman, Tuesday; Gainesville, Wednesday; Wichita Falls, Thursday; Vernon, Friday; Plainview, Saturday. Hometown and county campaign forces were organized and plans made for a speakers bureau to aid in the campaign.

Mann pledged his support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy at a Waco rally Friday and spoke at Weatherford, Waxahachie and Glen Rose Saturday. He planned further appearances and handshaking tours next week, but his headquarters had no definite announcement.

Johnson's forces were also hard at work organizing a statewide campaign. His opening speech indicated he would make political capital of the Roosevelt friendship, expressed soon after his announcement in Washington that he would make the race to succeed the Late Morris Sheppard in the June 28 special election.

to wage a successful war in Europe."

Lindbergh, who started to national fame as an air mail flyer in St. Louis 15 years ago, told of his pre-war visits to England and the continent and the lack of air preparedness he found in the British Isles, France and Russia He told of the air strength of Germany and how he had informed the then Prime Minister Baldwin of England of that strength.

"The prime minister was very courteous but he changed the subject immediately," said Lindbergh. "Time and again, whenever the opportunity arose, I talked to members of the British government about military aviation in Europe. They were always courteous, but seldom impressed."

"Why must our people be divided over this question of European war?" he asked.

"Defend Civilization"

"Here in America we are prepared to win a victory. Here, we can defend a civilization as great or greater than any the world has ever known. We have every geographical advantage for defense. We have unlimited natural resources. We have the most highly organized industry in the world.

"And we have another advantage in defending our country—the most important of all. It is unity of purpose. Every true American is ready to fight to preserve our nation. Everyone of us is ready to lay down his life if necessary for the defense of America On questions of American defense, our strength is multiplied by the unity among us It is only when we are told that our destiny lies in Europe, in Asia, in the Suez, in Singapore or in Dakar, that we divide"

ALL DRAFTEES TO GET FORMS

Call Order Will Not Be Altered, Said

AUSTIN — (AP) — Questionnaires will be sent immediately to all selective service registrants although the procedure will not alter previously announced draft calls, State Selective Service Director J. Watt Page announced Saturday.

The order which was dispatched to all local draft boards was to expedite classification and cut down time between calls for new selectees and their actual induction, Page said.

With classification complete, draft boards can more readily select the men to be called for physical examinations as quotas are announced, it was explained.

Page also said an amendment to selective servite regulations now permits a 10-day lapse between a call for induction and actual induction. Previously the time period was five days. Under the new regulations it can be delayed as much as 60 days within the judgment of a draft board.

Meat Packing Plant Destroyed By Blast

TECUMSEH, Okla. — (AP) — Fire which followed an explosion Saturday night destroyed the Crocker Packing Plant, together with about 75 head of cattle and 75 head of hogs.

J. W. Crocker, manager of the plant, estimated damage at $50,000 and said that only an ice plant in the basement was saved. Cause of the explosion was not determined.

Carol, Lupescu Put Europe Behind Them

ABOARD THE S.S. EXCAMBION, At Sea—(AP)—Cuba-bound and happy about it, former King Carol of Rumania and Mme. Magda Lupescu put distance behind themselves and Europe's war-flaming atmosphere Saturday.

They were exuberant at the prospects of sanctuary in Cuba and the island's "first class climate."

Airplane factories in America are scheduled to turn out 1,800 planes a month by the end of 1941, 4,000 a month by the summer of 1942.

ARMY DEFERS PRE-MEDICS

Move May Avert U. S Doctor Shortage

WASHINGTON—(AP)—To avert a possible national shortage of doctors, the selective service system Saturday ordered deferment of military training for medical students who "give reasonable promise of becoming acceptable medical doctors."

A memorandum from Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service deputy director, instructed state and local boards to continue such deferments as long as the students progressed satisfactorily.

Local boards were urged to make sure that requirements of the armed forces for physicians and surgeons were filled, without summoning to military duty practicing doctors whose services were necessary to the community.

Hershey cited a recent survey by the Office of Production Management estimating a present need of 9,000 medical officers for the army, navy, public health service and veterans administration. To fill that need would remove about 5 per cent of the doctors now engaged in civilian practice.

Doctors Say Flying May Have Cured Old Cough Of Invalid's

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — (AP) — The story is told here of a 12-year-old girl for whom doctors gave up hope because of a persistent, apparently incurable cough.

She could not sleep. Eating was difficult.

As a last resort, the story goes, an aviator loaded her into a plane, flew for an hour at 4,000 feet and brought her back cured.

Doctors are debating whether the cure was due to psychological reaction or to actual benefits from a higher elevation.

Japanese Entering The 'Sufu' Period

TOKYO—(AP)—Planned economy has created a new word for the Japanese—sufu. They use it for anything they don't like.

Originally it was applied to the staple fiber mixed with cotton, wool or silk in order to conserve supplies of these goods.

But now they speak of sufu rice, or a sufu mattress, or sufu sake, the native rice wine.

Sufu sake is double sufu to any good Japanese, but sake brewers are experimenting nevertheless with potatoes, berries and other plants.

This brings an almost universal shout of "Inchiki!" Or in American slang: "We wuz robbed!"

VALLEY CAMP EVENT DRAWS 500 SCOUTS

Rain Hampers Annual McAllen Outing

McALLEN—More than 500 Boy Scouts and their leaders were back at home Sunday after cutting their two-day McAllen camporee in half because of rain.

Represented at the Cascade camping ground were 65 patrols from all of the Valley council's eight districts. Boys from almost every town in the section registered before stormy weather caused cancellation of the Kiwanis-sponsored camporee.

Rain Friday night dampened most of the campers who had gathered at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon to begin the meeting, but Camp Doctor Alfred Osborn pronounced the boys fit Saturday morning except for a few minor colds and noted the fact that spirits of the boys were the only things not dampened.

Adverse weather caused calling off of all contests scheduled Saturday morning, and boys hauled down their tents to prepare for the homeward journey after cooking breakfast. Leaders graded them only on the quality of their camp and the food they prepared.

Judging the boys on camping and cooking, 38 patrols from 23 troops were given the highest rating, standard. ther ratings with the highest listed first are Starr, Triangle and Participating. More than 30 other patrols won one of the three lower ratings.

Patrols rated Standard are: Weslaco Troop 41, Eagle; Troop 35, Bear, B. P. and Beaver; McAllen Troop 75, Wolf and Eagle, Troop 13, Flying Eagle and Indian, Troop 63 Tiger, Troop 12, Eagle; Raymondville Troop 27, Flaming Arrow; San Benito Troop 26, Beaver; Brownsville Troop 3 Fox, Troop 31 Lion, Troop 29 Rattle Snake, Flying Eagle and Black Beaver.

Donna Troop 4 Mohican, Troop 2 Rattlesnake and Hawk; Elsa-Edcouch Troop 8 Eagle, Bob White and Whiporwill; Mission Troop 18 Mohawk, Troop 22 Coon, Lone Star and Longhorn, Troop 20 Eagle and Bob White; Sharyland Troop 55 Blazing Arrow, Flying Eagle, Black Cat and Covered Wagon; Edinburg Troop 1 Beaver, Troop 45 Eagle, Troop 7 Lion; Harlingen Troop 21 Flying Eagle; Pharr Troop 24 Wolf.

To Stress Skills

In the Friday night campfire ceremony the boys repledged themselves to the Scout motto, "Be Prepared." They followed that ceremony by expressing their desire to cooperate in strengthening America through practicing their scouting skills.

Scout Leader A. H. Dreyer, Mercedes resident and Valley Scout executive, outlined the part scouting will be called to play in the defense program. He presented a resume of the part Scouts played in the World War and discussed the emergency service organization which will be perfected during May.

Scouts, he said, will begin Monday to distribute posters throughout the Valley on the defense bond campaign after a request for cooperation from President Roosevelt. Scouts will list places where posters are placed and reports on their activity will be sent to Washington May 10. Leaders were given the posters Friday night for distribution to Scouts.

John Boeye, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee on the camporee, was loud in his praise for the cooperation and leadership of the boys. His committee was assisted by the army, Lions Club, Rotary Club, border patrol, highway patrol and Sea Scouts. Thanks for the use of the Cascade camping grounds were expressed to M. R. Nelson, owner.

Ratings were announced late Saturday by Moody after the camps had been inspected and graded by heads of the camporee. The ratings were made against the standard rating plan and officials said results proved that even under the adverse weather conditions, "The Boy Scouts can take it."

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

newest encroachment of the British Empire." It charged Britain with "flagrant disregard of treaty and apparent provocative intention" in sending new contingents of troops into Iraq while units originally landed still were present in the country.

Irak, said Korrespondenz, now "knows the value of the British promise to Arab peoples. Britain . . . now is obtaining a receipt from a small but brave people for its presumptuous attempts to force its mastery on the whole world."

For the moment, however, Germany was doing, apparently, no more than expressing deep sympathy for Iraq. Officials would not discuss reports that the Iraq government had asked Berlin for help, nor would they indicate whether there was any prospect of such aid.

Attention again was engaged by the war on English commerce.

The high command's report that submarines, planes and surface craft sank ships totalling 1,211,000 tons in April gave some conception of the intensity of this campaign.

Informed German sources estimated British shipping losses since the beginning of the war at close to 11,000,000 tons and added: "With the exception of the United States, there is no country which can relieve Britain's need for shipping space."

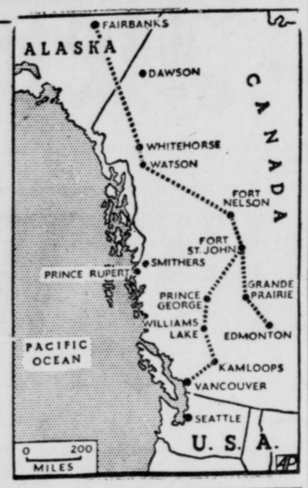
Canada Hastens Airport Chain

Construction work on Pacific coast air bases is being advanced swiftly by Canada as it faces the uncertainties of war. The Canadian government has announced that it would spend $9,000,000 on the project, beginnisg with a base at Edmonton, Alberta, and extending to White Horse in the Yukon. Dots show how bases projected and already completed would form a chain from border to border. Presumably the bases would be available to U. S. planes.



Move To Oust Reynolds As Commitee Head Abandoned

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Administration supporters were reported Saturday to have abandoned—largely because of Republican opposition—an attempt to keep the chairmanship of the important Senate military affairs committee from Senator Reynolds (D-NC.)

Reynolds, senior Democratic member of the committee in point of service, has been in line for the chairmanship since the recent death of Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.)

By Senate tradition, a committee chairmanship goes to the senior member of the majority party. In the case of Reynolds, there were many protests against his advancement in view of his criticism of the administration's program of aiding Britain.

Some administration men attempted to lay the groundwork for a move within the Democratic steering committee, which recommends committee assignments, to pass over Reynolds and place Senator Thomas (D-Utah) in the chairmanship.

While some believed the steering committee might be persuaded to go against precedent and side-track Reynolds, the North Carolina Senator made it known that he would appeal any such decision to the Senate.

A quiet check of the Senate was said to show that practically all of the 28 Republicans would vote to uphold the traditional custom.

Reynolds Supported

In addition, the canvass indicated Reynolds would have the support of several Democrats who entertain views similar to his about the British aid program, and of some Democrats of opposite views who still were firmly against depriving any member of a chairmanship when he was entitled to it by seniority.

For this reason, Reynolds' opponents were said to have concluded that the wisest thing to do was to let matters take their course in the steering committee.

Red Rampages

The Red River washed across U.S. Highway 283 in Oklahoma disrupting interstate traffic and cutting deep holes in the roadbed.

The north fork of the Red in Oklahoma was rising one foot per hour. The river was a mile wide west of Terrel bridge.

At Union, Okla., the Canadian River was falling.

A bridge between Crowell and Benjamin was washed out.

At Camp Hulen on the Texas coast a heavy wind lashed the camp theater into a welter of muddy canvas and smashed equipment. Torrential rains accompanied the twister.

The rain belt extended roughly over all west Texas from the Panhandle to the gulf and western Oklahoma. Some showers fell in East Texas, and heavy rains fell in some central and north central points. Showers were forecast for East Texas Sunday.

Wichita Falls reported clearing skies in that area after the torrential rains sent the Pease River on a 12-foot rise.

Benefit And Damage

There were both benefits and damages from the precipitation. It was regarded as helpful for pasturage and cotton, but prospect of wheat rust was regarded at Wichita Falls as a serious threat to a bumper grain crop. Bright sunshine and dry night would alleviate this situation, crop authorities said.

Farm damage, if any, was regarded as negligible in the Lubbock area, regarded as typical of the south plains.

Typical reports were: Alice 2.34, Carrizo Springs 1.30, Falfurrias 2, Hondo 1.17, Uvalde 1.28, Corpus Christi 2.48.

In west Texas: Ballinger 1.90, Big Spring 1.86, Brownwood 1.80, Dublin 1.12, Eastland 2.40, Haskell 3.25, Kerrville 1.31, Lampasas 1.12, San Angelo 1.63, Abilene 2.14, Brady 1.37.

SP Engine Explodes; Four Train Men Die

SALINAS, Calif.—(AP)—A huge mountain locomotive pulling a 94-car Southern Pacific freight train exploded with a deafening blast Saturday ,killing four trainsmen and hurling jagged smoking steel in all directions.

Twenty boxcars and oil tank cars piled up like toys along the right-of-way. Wreckage of the powerful engine rolled 250 feet down the track after the blast and remained right side up. The explosion occurred six miles north of Salinas.

AUTO MAKERS ARE RATIONED

Million Less Cars Due For Next Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Automobile manufacturers were advised by the office of Production Management Saturday that they could make 4,224,152 vehicles in the model year beginning August 1.

Individual allotments were assigned to each company, but officials said that the figures would not be disclosed by firms.

It was learned, however, that General Motors Corporation, Chrysler and the Ford Motor Company were reduced 21 1-2 per cent below their production this year.

Total output of the automobile industry this year was estimated at 5,289,974 cars and the overall reduction will amount to 1,057,994 or 10.15 per cent.

Finns Seem To Like The Idea Of Taxes

HELSINKI — (AP) — The Finnish government, in need of immediate cash and seeking to speed payment of property taxes, hit upon the idea of interest-bearing certificates.

The citizen could buy a certificate to the amount of his taxes, in advance, and receive six per cent interest on the money for the period between the purchase and the date the taxes were due.

The scheme was so successful that certificates are being sold now as desirable investments.

British Duel Nazi Raiders; 8 Downed

LONDON (Sunday) —(AP)— Britain's night fighters shot down six German bombers Saturday night and early today in the first hours of a terrific duel with strong forces of Nazi raiders.

IRAQ FORCES ARE ROUTED

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

fortified cantonment had been blasted by tons of artillery shells.

Some of the guns were smashed by British bombers, but the shelling at point-blank range continues, and the Iraqi air force has tried to raid the airdrome, the British officials stated.

"As regards Iraqui claims to have occupied oil wells and all airdromes of the country," said the ministry of information, "it should be pointed out that these have always been in Iraqi hands with the single exception of Shaiba airdrome near Basra, where so far as is known no hostile action has been attempted."

Authoritative British sources said they were unable to reconcile this declaration with the fact that before the war the RAF was known to have operated several airdromes in Iraq and that this number presumably had been increased rather than decreased.

Nazi Stories Sensational

The German radio kept up a running command of sensational declarations concerning the Iraq struggle even while German officialdom professed relative disinterest.

Overheard in London, these broadcasts included assertions that British planes tried to raid the Baghdad residence of the premier;

That one British plane was shot down in two RAF raids on Iraq troop concentrations at Baghdad's Camp Rashid;

That the Iraq army had taken over all oil wells, pipelines, pump stations and fisheries;

That there was an artillery duel in "the southern area; and that Iraq artillery had set off big oil fires and ammunition explosions at "Cineldebane" airport. (This apparently was a garbled version of Dhibban, the settlement on Lake Habbaniyah near the British air base.)

Britain Worried

While Britain eyed the situation with undisguised concern, a British authority said the oil pipeline still was operating and that in any event the fleet had stored up "numerous and adequate" fuel reserves in the Mediterranean.

On the heels of a German broadcast that Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, British ambassador to Baghdad, had been chased into the embassy by a mob which objected to his distributing propaganda leaflets, Sir Kinahan informed london:

"All is quiet in Baghdad."

A similar report came from Basra, the Persian Gulf seaport which the German radio said that the British had "attacked"

Premier In Charge

(German radio reports heard in New York by CBS said the Iraq premier had personally taken charge of his troops and that the Iraq disturbance "may well grow into a major test between British imperialism and the entire Arab world"

(This was followed by German broadcasts that Egyptian students in Cairo demonstrated against the British and clashed with British soldiers, and that British Indian troops were going over to the Iraq side)

Informed Britons blamed the Germans entirely for the Middle East explosion and speculated that the Nazis were trying to cause discord in neighboring Syria, Palestine, Transjordan, Saudi Arabi and Iran.

The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, long a thorn in the British side, has received help "handsomely and heavily" from Berlin, British sources said, so a new anti-Jewish outbreak by the Palestine Arabs would be no surprise. (Dispatches from Beirut to Vichy, France, said some blood already had been spilled in Palestine and some Jewish leaders kidnapped by Arabs.)

Moslem War Expected

German agents long have been striving to shatter British and French influence by fomenting nationaist movements and encouraging a vague "Pan-Moslem" idea in the Middle East, the British said.

The future of troublous French Syria was designated a major question.

A Saturday meeting of the French cabinet in Vichy was cancelled suddenly when Vice Premier Jean Darlan left for Paris. The Middle East situation caused his trip, Vichy diplomatic circles said.

From French circles expressed belief thta in response to the Iraq premier's plea for German aid, the Nazis might send troops by transport plane or go through Turkey. They hoped Hitler would not decide to go through Syria, though that posisbility obviously was uppermost in their minds.

Laval Sees Abetz

Pierre Laval, chief French advocate of full co-operation with Germany, conferred lengthily in Paris with Hitler's representative, Otto Abetz.

The French expressed belief that the Germans had made a deal promising the anti-British Iraqi leadership in a new all-Arab state.

At the same time, the French were nervously on the lookout for movement of German troops toward Spain for a possible attack on Gibraltar.

She Looks Sweet, She Sings Sweet, But Is She Another Deanna Durbin?

By ROBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Even with a sweet voice, it takes time for a youngster to become an over-night sensation, and Kathryn Grayson, latest entry in the movie singing lists, is no exception to the rule that has held for her quartet of rivals.

Miss Grayson, recently turned 19, joined a field of 'teen-age coloraturas that includes Deanna Durbin, Gloria Jean, Susanna Foster and Edith Fellows. The new singing actress, after a year and a half under contract and "under wraps," makes a pleasant debut in the new Hardy film, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary."

Her Ambition—Opera

She's a shy miss, still a little terified by pictures, and still clinging to her early ambition for grand opera. She hasn't seen her first picture yet—only parts of it—and is trying, she says, to work up courage to see it all.

It takes no audience courage to see and hear Kathryn, however. She has a pert freshness and youthful prettiness further enhanced by the effortless ease with which she sails through arias or popular songs.

Kathryn (real name Zelma Hedrick, of Winston-Salem, N. C.) came to Los Angeles from St. Louis when her father, a real estate man and building contractor, came here to set up business with a former partner. She was continuing her voice lessons, with no thought of movies, when her talents were brought to studio attention and she was persuaded to sign a contract.

KATHRYN GRAYSON

"I had thought pictures would mean stopping my studies," she says, "but they assured me I could go on. And I've found I study harder at the studio than I did before."

For a year and a half, Kathryn has had a regular schedule of study under chosen tutors—a full eight-hour day which keeps her watching the minutes between classes.

Mickey Is "A Darling"

She was cast for her first film only when studio bosses deemed her ready. Kathryn herself wasn't so sure.

"I had flu all during the picture," she says, "and I didn't want to start off in such fast company. I'd heard that Mickey Rooney was a scene-stealer, and then there were all the others, such grand actors with so much experience. But Mickey was a darling—he helped me so much."

profit, or John L. Lewis and the hundreds of little Lewises seeking things now at the price of production.

"Depend On Leader"

"The President will not let you down . . . depend on the great heart of your leader, not on the hearts of men who say they lead you rightly, when they order you to lay down the very tools liberty must use to save itself."

Johnson, a member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, said "Britain is mighty wobbly" because it started late, "dawdled, appeased, waited for something to turn up."

"We have adopted the policy England must not fall," he declared. "But it can't continue without arms and planes or resist forever the great dictator who will start after us the day he shakes that island lose."

Energetic, forceful, the young congressman said he was seeking election to the Senate "knowing there is a chance I may be your war Senator."

But he made this promise:

"If the day ever comes when my vote must be cast to send your boy to the trenches, that day Lyndon Johnson will leave his Senate seat to go with him."

Touching on his experience in national affairs, he declared no other man in the Senate race "has that training and no other man can have it now. The time to train the firemen is before the fire breaks out."

Johnson said it was ridiculous to discount warnings that Germany may use bases in Africa and the Azores as springboards for an attack on the United States and South America.

"Modern bombers can hop from the Azores to New York, from Africa to Brazil, in a few hours," he said. 'Don't forget they ferry bombers to England over night).

TEXAS SENATE RACE IN FULL SWING NOW

By The Associated Press

Representative Lyndon Johnson's opening speech in his campaign for U. S. Senator, in which he urged unity behind President Roosevelt and questioned the right of labor to strike in time of danger, highlighted the race this week.

With Attorney General Gerald C. Mann mixing hand shakes with platform appearances, and Representative Martin Dies bearing down on defense and Fifth Column activities, the campaign was gradually picking up speed.

O'Daniel Is Question

Still a question mark was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's decision on whether to run. This was somewhat complicated by a series of north Texas appearances by his friend, Hal Collins of Mineral Wells, publicly asking for a 'go-ahead" sign from the voters. Collins, with an entourage of entertainers smacking of O'Daniel campaign tactics, drew good crowds in several cities last week.

Also undecided was Representative Wright Patman of Texarkana who has been considering a jump into the crowded arena.

In addition to the well-known figures there are numerous lesser known political aspirants including bearded Cyclone Davis, Jr., of Dallas as "the voice of temperance," air-minded John C. Williams of Rockport, a former naval flyer, and others.

Pierce Brooks May Run

Pierce Brooks of Dallas announced Saturday he had received 'hundreds of letters" urging him to announce. Brooks, in past campaigns candidate for railroad commissioner and lieutenant governor, said he had not made up his mind.

Dies spoke Saturday at Paris and next week was moving to Bomham, Monday; Sherman, Tuesday; Gainesville, Wednesday; Wichita Falls, Thursday; Vernon, Friday; Plainview, Saturday. Hometown and county campaign forces were organized and plans made for a speakers bureau to aid in the campaign.

Mann pledged his support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy at a Waco rally Friday and spoke at Weatherford, Waxahachie and Glen Rose Saturday. He planned further appearances and handshaking tours next week, but his headquarters had no definite announcement.

Johnson's forces were also hard at work organizing a statewide campaign. His opening speech indicated he would make political capital of the Roosevelt friendship, expressed soon after his announcement in Washington that he would make the race to succeed the Late Morris Sheppard in the June 28 special election.

"The prime minister was very courteous but he changed the subject immediately," said Lindbergh. "Time and again, whenever the opportunity arose, I talked to members of the British government about military aviation in Europe. They were aways courteous, but seldom impressed."

ALL DRAFTEES TO GET FORMS

Call Order Will Not Be Altered, Said

AUSTIN — (AP) — Questionnaires will be sent immediately to all selective service registrants although the procedure will not alter previously announced draft calls, State Selective Service Director J. Watt Page announced Saturday.

The order which was dispatched to all local draft boards was to expedite classification and cut down time between calls for new selectees and their actual induction, Page said.

With classification complete, draft boards can more readily select the men to be called for physical examinations as quotas are announced, it was explained.

Page also said an amendment to selective service regulations now permits a 10-day lapse between a call for induction and actual induction. Previously the time period was five days. Under the new regulations it can be delayed as much as 60 days within the judgment of a draft board .

Meat Packing Plant Destroyed By Blast

TECUMSEH, Okla. — (AP) — Fire which followed an explosion Saturday night destroyed the Crocker Packing Plant, together with about 75 head of cattle and 75 head of hogs.

J. W. Crocker, manager of the plant, estimated damage at $50,000 and said that only an ice plant in the basement was saved. Cause of the explosion was not determined.

Doctors Say Flying May Have Cured Old Cough Of Invalid's

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — (AP) — The story is told here of a 12-year-old girl for whom doctors gave up hope because of a persistent, apparently incurable cough.

She could not sleep. Eating was difficult.

As a last resort, the story goes, an aviator loaded her into a plane, flew for an hour at 4,000 feet and brought her back cured.

Doctors are debating whether the cure was due to psychological reaction or to actual benefits from a higher elevation.

Major Port Of Entry Foreseen For Valley

American Automobile Association To Open McAllen Office For Mexican Travel

McALLEN—Expansion of McAllen as a major international port of entry to Mexico, and an enormous increase in tourist traffic, was predicted by civic leaders here after E. S. C. Coppock, manager of the American Automobile Association activities in South Texas, announced to Chamber of Commerce officials that an official AAA office will be opened in McAllen about two weeks before the paving is completed on the Reynosa-Monterrey highway.

Coppock said AAA officials estimated that 5,500 cars of AAA members would be directed through McAllen the first 12 months after the new road is opened. These cars, he said, would carry an average of three persons each. Coppock said travelers to Mexico spent an estimated $350,000 in Laredo in the past year.

The travel official said McAllen was selected because of its advantages and their analysis presented by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

This AAA office will be in addition to the three-man Mexican consulate maintained in McAllen; one of the four largest free Mexican travel information bureaus in the U. S., operated by the McAllen chamber; and regular travel trips operated from McAllen to Monterrey and special trips to Mexico City.

Coppock pointed out that travel expenditures in the U. S. in 1940 amounted to over five billion dollars, the third biggest industry in America. He said the fact that Reynosa was actually west of McAllen as well as south, plus the accommodations at McAllen and the aggressiveness of the Chamber of Commerce would likely perpetually insure McAllen's leadership as a port of entry.

Consul Lauro Izaguirre said records of the Mexican Department of Immigration revealed that during 1940 McAllen ranked next to Laredo on the U. S.-Mexican border in importance as a port of entry to interior Mexico.

To supplement all of these facts, it was pointed out, is the Southern U. S.' finest customs station, to be opened Sunday at the north end of the Reynosa bridge; the new $100,000 suspension bridge, and the soon-to-be completed Reynosa-Monterrey Highway, now lacking only about 32 miles of being paved.

Interpreting the War News

Despite Nazi Diversions In Other Areas, English Invasion May Be Due

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

ASSUMING THAT Hitler will waste no time in seeking to exploit his Balkan victories, conjecture as to where he will strike next against Britain runs a wide gamut.

There is little yet of a definite nature yet there is growing belief both in London and in Washington that England itself will bear the brunt of new Nazi blows—this despite Nazi-Fascist diversions in the Mediterranean and Middle East.

Such a conclusion is suggested by American moves to extend sea patrol protection far into the Atlantic and to supplement quickly tonnage available for British war uses. Both London and Washington are increasingly apprehensive that a decisive shipping crisis in the Atlantic might come soon, months earlier than heretofore anticipated.

Crisis Due In 1941

Prime Minister Churchill recently indicated to Parliament that he did not expect Britain's shipping problems to become critical before 1942.

There has been no official statements from London on shipping losses since mid-April. None is due before mid-May. However Berlin claims its air force, submarines and surface craft sank 1,211,000 tons of British merchant shipping space or space used by the British during April. Other sources tend to confirm some if not all German claims.

Rising uneasiness in London parliamentary circles over recent developments in the Atlantic is reported. It has induced a promise by Churchill lieutenants of an accounting, probably in connection with the government-demanded confidence vote test next week.

Churchill Safe?

Escape from Greece of a far larger part of the Imperial forces trapped there than could reasonably have been expected virtually assures an emphatic approval of Churchill's leadership. Cummulative bad news which may be coming on the shipping situation probably can be partially off-set, also, by reference to the American sea patrol and shipping pool measures.

Those American moves must have been dictated by Washington knowledge of actual or anticipated events not available to the public. It may be that this information led to the conclusion, that Nazi gestures eastward to the contrary, Hitler has signaled his forces to turn now on England for a death stroke.

There is a rising tempo to the Nazi attack on England by air and sea and a change in their pattern.

Of greater significance, however, is the British and American official view that it is only by smashing England that Hitler can win the war this year as he has promised, or any year.

Behind it lies the further indiciated conclusion in both capitals that if England can survive until winter, her ultimate victory with American resources to back her is assured.

Refugees Chased In Bay By Big Fire

MANILA—(AP)—Driving thousands of refugees before it into Manila Bay, a raging fire swept through three square miles of tenements in the thickly populated Tondo district of Manila Saturday. At least three persons were killed and 25,000 left homeless.

Authorities reported property damage exceeded $250,000. Three thousand homes were destroyed by flames which burned themselves out on the edge of the bay.

Firemen and troops fought the blaze for nine hours while other soldiers and police controlled an estimated 100,000 onlookers and relatives. The blaze was visible over the entire city.

NEW HIDALGO BUILDING TO GO ON VIEW

Dedication Program Scheduled Sunday

McALLEN—What will probably be the most gala celebration since the opening of the new international bridge between Hidalgo and Reynosa will take place Sunday at 12:30 p. m. on the American side of the river near the same new bridge.

Formal dedication of the new U. S. customs building at the north end of the span is the occasion for the fete. Speeches by prominent U. S., Mexico and Texas officials, military band music, a gesture of international goodwill from the Pan American Round Table of McAllen and a barbecue for invited visitors summarizes the program.

Broadcast Arranged

The ceremonies will be broadcast over KRGV between 12:30 and 1 p. m. All Valley and Reynosa people are invited to attend the dedication and inspect the new structure. Harry Hornby, U. S. collector of customs, said, adding that it is the finest customs house on the United States-Mexican border.

The barbecue at 1 p. m. in honor of distinguished guests will be attended by those wearing badges mailed out recently by those in charge of the program.

The McAllen Pan American Round Table added a new angle to the program which will be in charge of McAllen Chamber of Commerce Manager Paul T. Vickers, when they obtained Bishop William Capers to pronounce a Pan American invocation to open the ceremonies. Mrs. W. W. Dees of McAllen, immediate past director general of the Texas Pan American Round Table, will offer the invocation, and in behalf of the local group, will present the governors of Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon with small gift packages containing products manufactured in McAllen.

Brief Talks Planned

This feature, together with the display of the Pan American flag, was arranged by Mrs. Dees, Mrs. W. H. Moon and Allen F. Vannoy.

The remainder of the program will be taken up by talks of two minutes each by Speaker of the House Homer L. Leonard, Senator Rogers Kelley, Silvino Guzman, customs chief at Reynosa; Harry Hornby, William Whalen, U. S. immigration chief of San Antonio; Immigration Chief Enrique Ochoa Urtiz of Reynosa, General Pedro Lopez Tafoy, Reynosa garrison; Sam L. Miller, president of the Valley Bridge Company which owns the customs house, and Manager Joe E. Pate of the Valley Bridge Company. Music will be furnished by a Mexican orchestra from the Reynosa garrison as a break between the speeches.

LULACS GO TO DALLAS MEET

2 McAllen Members Leave June 12

McALLEN—Two members of the McAllen council of the League of Latin American Citizens will attend the national convention to be held at Dallas June 12 to 14 as official delegates.

Named by the council meeting in special session Friday night were Dr. E. G. Garza and J. R. Alamia with Joe V. Alamia and Dan Ceballos as alternates.

It was reported that a caravan of McAllen cars would make the trip to Dallas. Among those planning to go are F. M. Guerra, Raul Guerra, Ben Hernandez, J. M. Chapa and Romeo Vela.

J. R. Alamia reported that the special committee sent to the state legislature by the district convention here last Sunday met success with its efforts to push the bill now pending in the legislature providing a penalty for discrimination against members of the Caucasian race.

Reports on committee working on the district convention were made.

War May Mean Top Prices For Apples

LORIENT, France— (AP) —An excellent harvest and the British blockade may enable Brittany apple growers to win back domestic markets usurped in normal times by California, Florida and Canada. The refrigeration imports, known as Canadian apples, are usually sold as dessert fruit in the winter months in France. Despite lack of transport, Breton growers hope to preserve their present abundant crop for sale the year round.

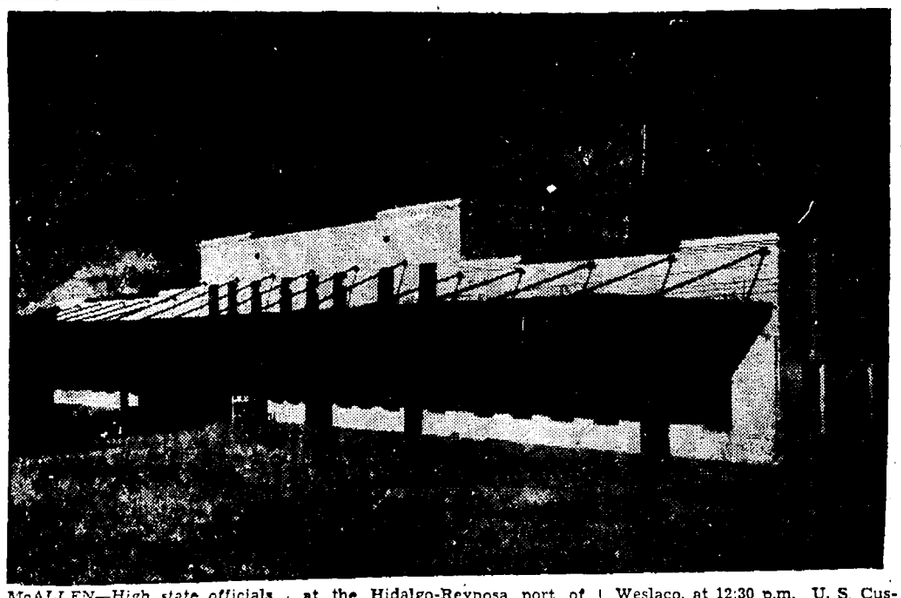
Border's Newest Customs House Dedicated Sunday



McALLEN—High state officials of Texas, Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon will attend the formal dedication Sunday noon of the newest and most modern United States customs house on the U. S.-Mexican border, according to Paul T. Vickers, manager of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce and master of ceremonies at the dedication exercises.

The $20,000 Spanish-type structure, just completed for use of United States inspection services at the Hidalgo-Reynosa port of entry by the Valley Bridge Co., operators of the new international suspension bridge there, is 125 feet long and 50 feet wide. Of stucco and brick construction, it replaced old frame buildings which had been in use since 1927.

Speaker Homer Leonard of the Texas House of Representatives and State Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg will represent Texas at the ceremonies, which will be broadcast over Station KRGV, Weslaco, at 12:30 p.m. U. S. Customs Collector Harry Hornby and U. S. Immigration Chief William Whalen, both of San Antonio, will represent their respective services.

It was not certain whether Gov. Bonifacio Salinas of Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, and Gov. Magdaleno Aguilar of Victoria, Tamps., would attend in person or whether they would send their representatives. Other federal officials of both the United States and Mexico were expected to be in attendance.—Photo by Brad Smith, McAllen.

ELSA LEADING VALLEY RACE

2720-Car Total Far Ahead Of Others

HARLINGEN—Elsa had almost a thousand car lead over its nearest competitor in the Valley fruit and vegetable shipping race as of April 30, it is shown by combining the monthly shipping reports of the Southern Pacific and Missouri Pacific railroads.

Elsa, on the S. P., had a total of 2,720 cars as of April 30 as compared to 1,844 cars moved by Mercedes, leading shipping point on the Missouri Pacific.

Pharr was third with 1,748, San Benito fourth with 1,682, and Edinburg fifth with 1,680.

Other shipping points with over a thousand cars out by rail this season include Brownsville 1,475, Weslaco 1,380, and McAllen 1,045.

Other shipping points had the following totals: Mission 990, Alamo 988, Engleman 866, Harlingen 780, Santa Rosa 662, Donna 648, La Feria 426, Barredia 379, Laureles 355, Bayview 320, Edcouch 312, Sharyland 272, Raymondville 247, Lozano 164, Houser 146, Los Fresnos 115, Val Verde 114, San Carlos 84, Lantana 75, Adams Gardens 69, Esoes 65, Rio Hondo 58, San Juan 58, Stuart Place 51, San Perlita 51, Combes 44, Lindsay Gardens 36, McColl 25, Primera 21, Acacia 9, La Paloma 7, Slinkerts 7, Lyford 3 Southmost 3, Gays Switch 1.

Altogether, the railroads had moved only 22,071 cars of fruits and vegetables, a decrease of 4,239 cars over the same date last season.

Wood-Burning Finns Lack Coal Deposits

HELSINKI— (AP) —Finns, lacking native coal and short of money with which to buy large quantities abroad, conducted a wood-chopping campaign whereby 100,000 men cut 17,000,000 cubic meters or enough, if laid end to end as cordwood, to stretch from Finland to New York City and back again.

Vacant lots, yards outside apartment houses, and storage space behind office buildings are piled high with the wood, which will be the chief fuel this winter.

FARM BUREAU MEET SLATED

Membership Drive To Be Lined Up

EDINBURG—Hidalgo county's 19 local chairmen in the drive to enroll 1,684 Hidalgo county members in a projected new county chapter of the Texas and American Farm Bureau federations will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the 93rd district courtroom here, County Judge J. C. Looney announced, Saturday Looney is county membership chairman.

He said no reports on the progress of the membership work had been received, but that these would be compiled at the Friday session.

All of the 19 chairmen in various county communities have accepted their appointments, Looney said. The work was started about three weeks ago following a meeting at McAllen.

Similar campaigns are under way in Cameron county, where Cleve Tandy is chairman, and in Willacy county.

Red Cross, Utility Company Make Mobile First Aid Units Available

EDINBURG—Three mobile first aid units are due to go into service in Hidalgo county early next week as a result of the cooperation of the Edinburg office of the Central Power and Light Company and the Red Cross, Miss Adele Speed, Red Cross executive secretary for Hidalgo county, said Saturday.

The trucks will be owned and operated by the company, equipped with first aid kits and driven by employes of the C. P. and L. who have been instructed in first aid work.

Employes who will operate the trucks are W. C. Jones, Edinburg, manager; Howard Langston, construction chief; and Jimmy Smith, assistant. Jones and Langston have qualified as first aid instructors under the Red Cross set-up and Smith is an advanced student.

According to Miss Speed the three trucks will be the first mobile first aid units in this section of the state. Up to this time such designations have been limited to companies furnishing at least six trucks for the purpose. Robert F. Eaton, director of first aid, water safety and accident prevention for the Midwestern area of the Red Cross, was so appreciative of the interest of the C. P. and L., Miss Speed said, that the mobile unit program was modified and companies with as few as three operating units may now be included in the program.

All trucks will be equipped with Red Cross markers and the wording "Emergency First Aid, American Red Cross." Drivers in charge will be supplied with arm insignia in cloth with a like wording.

Under Red Cross requirements a mobile emergency unit consists of one or more men attached to the truck in connection with their regular employment. The men attached must have been trained in first aid by the Red Cross and given permission by their employer to give aid to victims of highway accidents as they come upon them in the course of their regular driving.

The service is not a substitute for medical attention, Miss Speed said, but is merely volunteer work in giving intelligent assistance until medical attention can be secured.

MEXICO ARMY TO MANEUVER

Compulsory Training To Follow Soon?

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Mexico's army staged its greatest maneuvers in history Saturday to intensify military preparations.

Two divisions of 6,000 men converged on Puebla state, preparatory to large scale mock battles to be fought Sunday and early Monday.

Military officials said the maneuvers were necessary to lay the foundations for compulsory military training, already approved by Congress but not yet put into operation.

The Mexican army has 52,000 officers and men. In 1940 it had a budget of 96,000,000 pesos (about $19,000,000) and in 1941 it was increased to 210,000,000 pesos (about $22,000,000).

FARM BUREAU MEET SLATED

Membership Drive To Be Lined Up

EDINBURG—Hidalgo county's 19 local chairmen in the drive to enroll 1,684 Hidalgo county members in a projected new county chapter of the Texas and American Farm Bureau federations will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the 93rd district courtroom here, County Judge J. C. Looney announced. Saturday Looney is county membership chairman.

He said no reports on the progress of the membership work had been received, but that these would be compiled at the Friday session.

All of the 19 chairmen in various county communities have accepted their appointments, Looney said. The work was started about three weeks ago following a meeting at McAllen.

Similar campaigns are under way in Cameron county, where Cleve Tandy is chairman, and in Willacy county.

CHAMPION LISTENERS

GOLDSBORO, N. C.—(AP)—Delegates who attended Black Creek Union meeting at Primitive Baptist church here heard 18 sermons in two days—eight the first day and ten the second.

Red Cross, Utility Company Make Mobile First Aid Units Available

EDINBURG—Three mobile first aid units are due to go into service in Hidalgo county early next week as a result of the cooperation of the Edinburg office of the Central Power and Light Company and the Red Cross, Miss Adele Speed, Red Cross executive secretary for Hidalgo county, said Saturday.

The trucks will be owned and operated by the company, equipped with first aid kits and driven by employes of the C. P. and L. who have been instructed in first aid work.

Employes who will operate the trucks are W. C. Jones, Edinburg, manager; Howard Langston, construction chief; and Jimmy Smith, assistant. Jones and Langston have qualified as first aid instructors under the Red Cross set-up and Smith is an advanced student.

According to Miss Speed the three trucks will be the first mobile first aid units in this section of the state. Up to this time such designations have been limited to companies furnishing at least six trucks for the purpose. Robert F. Eaton, director of first aid, water safety and accident prevention for the Midwestern area of the Red Cross, was so appreciative of the interest of the C. P. and L., Miss Speed said, that the mobile unit program was modified and companies with as few as three operating units may now be included in the program.

All trucks will be equipped with Red Cross markers and the wording "Emergency First Aid, American Red Cross." Drivers in charge will be supplied with arm insignia in cloth with a like wording.

Under Red Cross requirements a mobile emergency unit consists of one or more men attached to the truck in connection with their regular employment. The men attached must have been trained in first aid by the Red Cross and given permission by their employer to give aid to victims of highway accidents as they come upon them in the course of their regular driving.

The service is not a substitute for medical attention, Miss Speed said, but is merely volunteer work in giving intelligent assistance until medical attention can be secured.

MEXICO ARMY TO MANEUVER

Compulsory Training To Follow Soon?

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Mexico's army staged its greatest maneuvers in history Saturday to intensify military preparations.

Two divisions of 6,000 men converged on Puebla state, preparatory to large scale mock battles to be fought Sunday and early Monday.

Military officials said the maneuvers were necessary to lay the foundations for compulsory military training, already approved by Congress but not yet put into operation.

The Mexican army has 52,000 officers and men. In 1940 it had a budget of 96,000,000 pesos (about $19,000,000) and in 1941 it was increased to 210,000,000 pesos (about $22,000,000).

U. S. CAVALRY SET TO HOLD MAY 5 RITES

Fort Brown To Honor Mexico Holiday

BROWNSVILLE — Cinco de Mayo, anniversary of the Mexican victory over French forces at Puebla on May 5, 1862, will be celebrated on both sides of the Rio Grande this week-end with civilian and military populations of Matamoros and Brownsville taking part.

The 124th Cavalry Regiment stationed at Fort Brown will hold its first full-strength mounted review in history on Monday in honor of the occasion, according to Col. Calvin B. Garwood, commanding officer.

Guests Of Honor

Guests of honor will be General Arturo Alatorre y Blanco, commander of the Mexican garrison at Matamoros, Mexican Consul Carlos A. Calderon of Brownsville, Mexican Consul Lauro Izaguirre of McAllen and other Latin-American notables, post officials said.

The review will begin at 10 a.m. Monday. All units of the 124th Regiment will take part. Troopers will ride with full packs and all field equipment.

Hidalgo and Juarez societies of Brownsville are set to open a three-day kermesse on the vacant square to the west of the Cameron county jail at 6 p.m. Saturday here. Mexican foods will be featured, and a representative of the Mexican consulate will probably speak at the opening.

Flag Raising Monday

Flag raising ceremonies at 6 a.m. Monday will feature the start of the celebration in Matamoros.

At 10 o'clock the grand parade will be held. Civil and military authorities will participate. Also students, teachers and labor unions.

At noon salvos will be fired, honoring the Cinco de Mayo heroes.

Special Program

A special program will start at 4:30 p.m. in front of the Matamoros City Hall. The official report will be read by the city secretary. Featured speakers will be Dr. Roberto Munoz Mireles. Musical numbers and declamations are also included in the program.

Special flag ceremonies will be held at 6 p.m.

Athletic Tests Slated

Music by the Matamoros municipal band will be featured at the Main Plaza from 8 to 10 p.m.

Athletic contests pitting civilians against soldiers will be held all day Monday at Mexican control station C1-K9 near Matamoros, beginning with a double-header softball game at 9:30 a.m.

Almacen SCOP will oppose Solleeno in the first game, and the second game will pit control station C1-K9 players against Aduana.

At 4 p.m., soldiers of the Matamoros garrison will oppose workers of the government control projects in tug-of-war, foot races, and other contests. Mexican cavalry troops of the 24th Regiment will also give exhibitions.

BORDER GETS CONSUL SOON

Reynosa Post Will Be Filled By U. S.

REYNOSA—A temporary United States consulate will be established in Reynosa for the second time within recent months, according to a notice issued by Nathaniel P. Davis, chief of the division of foreign service administration.

Davis' notification said, in part, "The department has continued to follow the situation on the Mexcaan border with close interest, and to avoid any possible inconvenience to those residing in and near Reynosa has decided to detail a consular officer temporarily to that place from the consulate at Matamoros for 60 days, commencing June 1, 1941."

A vice consul was placed at Reynosa last year on solicitation of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce. Congressman Milton West and others when a new regulation requiring passport visaes was enacted. The McAllen chamber recently reopened the matter by suggesting transfer of a U. S. officer from Matamoros to Reynosa in anticipation of necessity of renewing passports. More than 5,000 visaes were issued during 1940.

New U.S. Citizens

4 Mission Groups To Observe May 18

MISSION—Four civic and patriotic organizations have accepted invitations to participate in the Mission observance of "I Am an American" day, Sunday, May 18, honoring new citizens, it was announced this week by D. L. Rankin, president of the Mission Lions Club. The latter club is sponsoring the observance which will center on a program to be presented at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Strahle Park, downtown Mission.

Organizations which have announced plans for joining the Lions in conducting the program include the Mission Rotary Club, the Fred H. Morgan American Legion Post, and the Mission unit of the Border Patrol.

Persons who have become 21 years of age or become full-fledged citizens through completing naturalization during the past year will be honored during the program.

Although there are more than 950 varieties of flowers and plants on the Island of New Providence in the Bahamas, the resort's most famous gardens are under ten feet of water.

Getting Ready For 'Charley's Aunt'

BRWNSVILLE—Shown getting ready for a visit to the Valley by "Charley's Aunt" is Mrs. George McGonigle, Jr., wife of the president of the Brownsville Kiwanis Club, who is doing art work on sets for the popular Broadway play which the Kiwis will present at the high school here on May 13 and 14 and in the Harlingen city auditorium on May 15.

The play will star Burt Hinkly, Jr., John Barron, Leo Albritten, Charles Strong, Volney Taylor, Jr., Earl Brown, La Verne Walker, Josephine Taylor, Marjorie Wilson and Ermalee Dodson.

Tickets may be obtained from any Brownsville Kiwanian, from Otto Manske, ticket chairman, or from Mrs. R. N. Currie at the Old Opera House, where reserved seats may be chosen any afternoon. The Harlingen Lions Club will sponsor the showing in that city.

Prices: Reserved, 75 cents; general admission, 50 cents, and children, 35 cents.

Baby Party For All Born At Mercy Hospital In Last 10 Years Slated On May 12, National Hospital Day

BROWNSVILLE — Mercy Hospital will observe National Hospital Day, May 12, with a "Baby Party" in honor of all children born there during the last 10 years.

About 500 honor guests are expected for the occasion, according to Mrs. Joe C. Jordan, president of the Mercy Hospital ladies auxiliary, who, with the Sisters of Mercy, are sponsoring the event.

Invitations are being mailed to all the children whose births are on record at the hospital during the last 10 years. Those children born there during that period, but whose birth may not be recorded, are also invited to attend, Mrs. Jordan declared.

The children will be guests at an ice cream party on the hospital lawn. There will be special entertainment inside the building for adults.

The 124th Cavalry band, Fort Brown, will play on the lawn during the party.

This is the first time a party of the kind has been staged in Brownsville and may be made an annual event.

The party will start at 4 p. m. and continue until 7 p. m.

Invitations being mailed to the children whose births are on record at the hospital state:

"Your very first visit with us
you don't recall,
We know.
Let's see: a winsome baby you
were and quite small.
And so:
A home-coming party we're having just for you.
Please, please,
Won't you come?" And invite your mother, too.

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE STARTS

Cook, Dees To Head McAllen Campaign

McALLEN—A promotion drive to encourage the sale of national defense bonds and stamps in McAllen will get under way next week under the direction of Van E. Cook and W. W. Dees, chairman and vice chairman respectively of the McAllen unit.

Plans for the build-up campaign to promote interest in purchase of the bonds were laid Friday afternoon when the committee met to effect permanent organization. Cook and Dees were named to their positions.

The promotion activities include speeches before the McAllen civic clubs and school children with a special request to local merchants that they urge purchase of the bonds in their newspaper advertising and window display as frequently as possible.

Dees was named in charge of arrangements for the civic club speakers who will explain the purpose of the bond drive and the purchase plan.

Mrs. W. H. Moon was put in charge of arranging programs for the McAllen schools to encourage children to begin a savings stamp plan at the McAllen postoffice.

The committee emphasized the point that there would be no active subscription fund raised, placing purchase of the bonds as a purely voluntary effort on the part of all residents.

Seeking to increase sale here the committee will ask merchants to put a defense bond plug in their newspaper advertising copy and whenever feasible to include a bond display in their show windows.

Births Outnumber Deaths For April

BROWNSVILLE — The city of Brownsville recorded 44 births and 19 deaths for the month of April, according to a report submitted to the city commission by Kermit Cromack, city secretary.

Engineers Busy

Tamm, Fitzgerald Win Two Projects

HARLINGEN—The local firm of Tamm and Fitzgerald has been engaged on two large projects in the Corpus Christi area, according to A. Tamm, member of the firm.

One of the projects is the $250,000 Aransas Pass seawall and the other is a $200,000 flood control project at Sinton.

The local firm has engineering supervision over the construction of the seawall at Aransas Pass intended to protect the city and some of its new national defense industries from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Sinton is seeking to protect itself from the flood waters of Chiltipin creek and also is engaging in a $100,000 paving project.

Tamm and Fitzgerald also are the engineers on the expansion of the Harlingen sewage disposal plant.

Sun Oil Employes On Annual Picnic

McALLEN—Forty-one employes of the Sun Oil company and their families spent the day Saturday at Padre Island on their annual outing. The company plays host to the group each year with such an event. Swimming, picnicking and fishing were on the schedule at Padre. Those in the party were employes connected with the McAllen office of the firm.

The new Customs building is of brick and stucco construction and will house the U. S. Health Department, the U. S. Agriculture Department, the U. S. Customs and U. S. Immigration Service. Officials tell us it is the finest in all Texas and to be the most modern in convenience of any Customs Building on the Southern United States Border. A splendid program has been prepared for your entertainment which will include many noted people from the Valley, Texas and Mexico.

ENLISTMENTS IN AIR CORPS TO INCREASE

Requirements For Service Cut

BROWNSVILLE — A considerable stepup in Army air corps enlistments from Brownsville was expected next week, following the announcement Saturday by Sgt. E. J. Volkman, local army recruiting officer, that educational requirements for the air corps had been reduced.

An eighth grade education is now considered sufficient for enlistment. Previously four years of high school work was one of the basic qualifications. Physical requirements are unchanged.

The army has formulated a general intelligence quiz to substitute for the high school requirement.

"There is no limit to the number of enlistments that can be taken now," Sgt. Volkman said. "The air corps needs healthy intelligent young men in large numbers to keep pace with the rapidly expanding service."

Corporal Charles S. Moore has been assigned to the army recruiting office in the federal building and will be stationed here permanently as Sgt. Volkman's assistant.

Executive Lost?

Empty Boat Launches Utility Man Hunt

GAY HEAD, Mass. — (AP) — The finding of an unoccupied 27-foot power boat aground on Martha's Vineyard Island with her motor running precipitated a search Saturday for the boat's owner—Isaac T. Haddock, New England utilities executive.

Coast guards found the craft late Friday after island residents reported seeing her travelling aimlessly in choppy seas and a brisk wind.

Haddock, about 60 years old, was believed by coast guards to have spent Thursday night at Vineyard Haven and to have set out Friday in the craft, the Bingo, to fish a few miles south in the No Man's Land area.

FD's Tax Bill May Mean Incomes Levy

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some members of the House Ways and Means Committee said Saturday they viewed President Roosevelt's request for a $3,500,000,000 tax bill that would not "make the rich richer and the poor poorer" as a mandate for higher income taxes rather than new sales taxes.

Legislators charged with the task of drafting the revenue measure said they interpreted the chief executive's letter to the committee's chairman, Rep. Doughton (D-NC), broadly as a plea for enactment of the treasury's tax program which based on stiff increases in the surtaxes on middle bracket incomes.

Ambassador Mobbed

NEW YORK —(AP)— A German broadcast said that British Ambassador Sir Kinahan Cornwallis in Irak was "chased back into the embassy" by a crowd of Iraquis Saturday when he attempted to distribute leaflets in the streets of Baghdad. The broadcast said the leaflets asked the Iraquis to overthrow the Iraq government.

Nazi Freighter Sunk

NEW YORK—(AP)—The 3,290-ton German freighter Lech which left Rio de Janeiro five days ago in an attempt to run the British blockade was intercepted Friday by a British auxiliary cruiser and was reported sinking off Bahia, Brazil, maritime sources said Saturday.

Bundles For Britain Chapter Plans Hospital Relief Drive

McALLEN — Concurrently with the observance of "national hospital day" in England, members of the McAllen Bundles for Britain will stage a one-day hospital relief drive here Tuesday.

Members will solicit funds from McAllen residents in a downtown tag sale the proceeds of which will be turned into the English relief fund. The Sub Deb club will assist.

Meanwhile the group continued its plea for used medical instruments from Valley doctors. Dr. J. C. Harrison of McAllen was the first local doctor to donate old used instruments to the organization.

Bundles officials said no instrument was too old or outmoded to be used in English hospitals where the need for them is acute.

Observance of the tag day will mark the second large benefit the McAllen unit has staged within a week. Proceeds from the bridge tournament last week netted $160.

Rev. W. W. Stewart, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church at Pharr, will turn over the collections from the night service Sunday, May 11, to the fund, officials announced at a special meeting held Friday morning.

Efforts to complete the knitting quota by Wednesday were pushed by Mrs. E. A. Polzin who asked that knitting be completed and turned in to her at her home.

Obituary

Z. E. DAUGHDRILL

EDINBURG—Funeral services for Zeno E. Daughdrill, who died at the County-City hospital here after a brief illness, will not be announced until word has been received from a son in Oklahoma, the Kreidler Funeral home announced Saturday. Daughdrill had been living in Edinburg for the past four years.

MRS. HERMAN STREHLOW

SHARYLAND — Mrs. Herman Strehlow, 63, a resident of the Sharyland community for the past 23 years, died Friday night at her home six miles north of Shary boulevard.

She is survived by her husband; two sons, C. H. of Kansas City and E. H. of San Benito; a brother, Willie Wissling of Burnett Junction, Wisconsin; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Lampher and Mrs. Ella Gretzmeecher of Wisconsin; her father, William Wissling of Wisconsin; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services probably will be held Monday at the Kreidler chapel in Mission. The hour will be announced upon the arrival of a son from Kansas City. Interment will take place in Mission.

J. C (JIM) ROBISON

McALLEN — Funeral services for J. C. (Jim) Robison, 55, popular McAllen resident for the past 17 years who died here Friday morning, will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the First Methodist church.

Rev. F. H. Hamner, pastor, will officiate assisted by Rev. M. D. Council of Brownsville. Interment will be in Rose Lawn cemetery under the direction of the Martin-Nelson funeral home.

Besides his wide, Mr. Robison is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lucille Robinson of McAllen, three daughters, Mrs. Frances Hendricks and Miss Ila Jean Robison, both of McAllen, and Mrs. Helen Sinmers of West Columbia; a son, J. T. of McAllen; a brother and two sisters.

Pallbearers include Dr. W. E. Whigham, John Robinson, Glenn Reynolds, W. W. Dees, J. F. Parks and C. J. Thompson.

C. D. PENDLETON

HARLINGEN—Charles D. Pendleton, about 70, Valley pioneer, died Saturday in Oklahoma City after an illness of several months. Funeral services will be held at Muskogee Monday. Surviving are a sister in Virginia, and several nieces and nephews at Oklahoma City.

Deceased came to the Valley about 1912, and at one time was owner of the Point Isabel Hotel. For some years recently he has been a traveling salesman for a drug firm. Mrs. Pendleton died at Austin a few years ago while motoring.

Seek Pay Increase

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Richard Frankensteen, director of the CIO United Automobile Workers' drive to organize aircraft plants, announced Saturday that a 75-cents-per-hour minimum wage will be sought in discussions with officials of North American Aviation, Inc.

Four out of every ten persons in leading Texas cities depend upon the petroleum industry's payrolls for a living.

Model Plane Notes

By GARVER MURRAY

"ON THE threshold of manhood American boys in their teens stand inspired and impelled to seek self-expression, ready to try their wings. From this urge saints or sinners are born; led into one channel or the other by the instrument of expression put into their hands at this vital moment. It is this instrument that exercises body, mind and spirit for creation or destruction. What will build them into strong, virile manhood? That is the question. What will inspire them, prompt initiative, cultivate patience and tenacity, build their minds and bodies? Here lies no great mystery. Model planes have sired these virtues in the past and bless the future with promise of greater continued service. They give life to the dreams of our young men, in simple form and with little cost guiding them along the road to unbounded scientific study and research. Lillienthal, Langley, Wright, Douglas and a host of others have used them as stepping stones to success and greater aeronautical knowledge.

"In miniature, models present the problems of the large airplane designer and builder and the challenge of solution to those who would become great. Their delicate structures materialize the secret of the craftsman's deft fingers; the magic touch, which also gives form and life to modern air giants in the service of our country. All of these virtues, together with the blessings of vital physical activity in effort to follow fleeting planes, are the heritage of the Aeromodeler. Yes, if Youth makes Models, Models will make Men."

(The above was written by Charles Hampson Grant, editor of Model Airplane News, but I found it so interesting, that I wanted to be sure all you modelers would read it.) The government has recognized the modeler as a very useful person at the experimental laboratory at Langley Field in Virginia.

I had planned on having a meet here this afternoon, but it seems the weather is going to postpone it for me until next Sunday, although the regular gang is going to go out and do a little test flying, if the wind calms down enough. John Maltby is going to try out something he dug out of the heap—putting parts of several together to make one. Wayne Cole thinks he has his Mercury all ready, but he had had those same thoughts before. M. A. Tennison, Jr., is getting ready for some night flying—lights and everything. Scotty is still trying to get his Gladiator together, but he has his old reliable Buzzard ready to go. Harris Lou Bodie has just finished a Thermal Thumber, but his motor is taking a trip back to the factory. It should know the way alone by now.

Have a report that Jim Thomas is getting to see lots of country, and going to lots of places, but his model building is nil. Howell Tom has moved to Brownsville, so I guess Phl Atteberry is happy to have someone to fly with. Didn't get my report from up the Valley this week, but I have learned not to look for it anymore, so I'm not disappointed. I hear some strange reports about Bill Younkin, but I don't believe them. Jimmy Jolly has been making the paper regular since the DeMolay have taken over the swimming pool at San Benito. Wonder if he has been making anything that will fly like a model arplane? Well, if you guys can stand a little wind come on out this afternoon around 2 p. m. and let's see what happens.

From this urge saints or sinners are born; led into one channel or the other by the instrument of expression put into their hands at this vital moment. It is this instrument that exercises body, mind and spirit for creation or destruction. What will build them into strong, virile manhood? That is the question. What will inspire them, prompt initiative, cultivate patience and tenacity, build their minds and bodies? Here lies no great mystery. Model planes have sired these virtues in the past and bless the future with promise of greater continued service. They give life to the dreams of our young men, in simple form and with little cost guiding them along the road to unbounded scientific study and research. Lillienthal, Langley, Wright, Douglas and a host of others have used them as stepping stones to success and greater aeronautical knowledge.

"In miniature, models present the problems of the large airplane designer and builder and the challenge of solution to those who would become great. Their delicate structures materialize the secret of the craftsman's deft fingers; the magic touch, which also gives form and life to modern air giants in the service of our country. All of these virtues, together with the blessings of vital physical activity in effort to follow fleeting planes, are the heritage of the Aeromodeler. Yes, if Youth makes Models, Models will make Men."

(The above was written by Charles Hampson Grant, editor of Model Airplane News, but I found it so interesting, that I wanted to be sure all you modelers would read it.) The government has recognized the modeler as a very useful person at the experimental laboratory at Langley Field in Virginia.

I had planned on having a meet here this afternoon, but it seems the weather is going to postpone it for me until next Sunday, although the regular gang is going to go out and do a little test flying, if the wind calms down enough. John Maltby is going to try out something he dug out of the heap—putting parts of several together to make one. Wayne Cole thinks he has his Mercury all ready, but he had had those same thoughts before. M. A. Tennison, Jr., is getting ready for some night flying—lights and everything. Scotty is still trying to get his Gladiator together, but he has his old reliable Buzzard ready to go. Harris Lou Bodie has just finished a Thermal Thumber, but his motor is taking a trip back to the factory. It should know the way alone by now.

Have a report that Jim Thomas is getting to see lots of country, and going to lots of places, but his model building is nil. Howell Tom has moved to Brownsville, so I guess Phl Atteberry is happy to have someone to fly with. Didn't get my report from up the Valley this week, but I have learned not to look for it anymore, so I'm not disappointed. I hear some strange reports about Bill Younkin, but I don't believe them. Jimmy Jolly has been making the paper regular since the DeMolay have taken over the swimming pool at San Benito. Wonder if he has been making anything that will fly like a model arplane? Well, if you guys can stand a little wind come on out this afternoon around 2 p. m. and let's see what happens.

Ados.

MAJOR LEAVES CAVALRY UNIT

Naylor Leaves For New Post

BROWNSVILLE—Major John W. Naylor, former commanding officer of the first squadron of the 124th Cavalry regiment, ended 12 years of association with the regiment this week, when he left to take up new duties at Eighth Corps area headquarters.

New squadron commander will be Major Jule R. Smith. Capt. Edward A. Compton has been named acting operations officer of the regiment to take the place of Major Smith. Captain Compton was with Troop B for five years. Before induction he was first squadron adjutant. He was promoted to the rank of captain while the regiment was at Fort Bliss.

McAllen Man Jailed On Traffic Charges

McALLEN—Ignacio Trevino of McAllen was remanded to county jail Saturday when he was unable to pay fines totaling $32.80 on two traffic charges heard before Justice of the Peace Kent Manning. Trevino pleaded guilty to charges of driving without brakes and making a U-turn on the highway.

AUSTIN —(AP)— Charging illegal expenditure of funds in the last gubernatorial race, Senator Joe Hill of Henderson Saturday was on record favoring additional legislation to prevent corrupt practices in political campaigns.

CAVALRY WILL LEAVE VALLEY

BROWNSVILLE—The 124th Cavalry Regiment, U. S. National Guard, is due to pull out of Fort Brown here and Fort Ringgold in Rio Grande City on the morning of Monday, May 26, regimental officers announced Saturday.

Troopers will travel overland in 72 motor transports to be provided by the Third Army, and horses will be shipped by rail.

The regiment will move back to Fort Bliss in El Paso, which it left several months ago to come here.

After 122 days of maneuvers and war games, the boys are scheduled to come trotting back to their Fort Brown stomping grounds.

ARMY THEME FOR REYNOSA MAY 5 FETE

Valley Residents Get Invitations

REYNOSA — Reynosa's observance of 'Cinco de Mayo" Monday will be centered at the military garrison under the command of Brigadier General Pedro Lopez Tafoya and Colonel Salvador Viramontes.

Gen. Tafoya, chief of the garrison, extended an invitation to Valley residents to attend the celebration at the garrison, when expert horsemen in the 24th cavalry regiment will perform to celebrate the 129th anniversary of the Battle of Puebla in a national Independence day program.

The entire city will join in the observance of the holiday by closing business places and offices.

Formal observance of the day will begin at 6 a.m. with a flag raising at the fort attended by garrison officials.

At 10 a.m. a downtown parade will get under way. In the line of march will be reserve officers in the 48th regiment, civil, military and federal officials with students in the public schools.

At 4 p.m. at El Campo Militar, the Reynosa garrison, a horse race will be the first feature in a military show. Six horses will run in the 00 meter race. The first and second place winners will be awarded metals by the commanders of the garrison.

In addition to the horse race the show will include riding and jumping contests, stunt riding and exhibitions of military formation. Prizes will be given winners of all divisions.

The day's program will close with a flag ceremony at 6 p.m.

Skeeter Control

Will Be Considered At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — Mosquito control and the food stamp plan were on the slate for discussion at a meeting of the Cameron county commissioners' court called for Monday morning by County Judge Oscar C. Dancy.

L. A. Bauer, county auditor, has requested Gerald Mann, Texas attorney general, to rule on the legality of the plan. The attorney general has previously ruled thta county commisisoners' courts cannot legally participate in the plan by using money from the general fund.

Society Initiates 17 Honor Students

EDINBURG — Seventeen new members of the National Honor society of the Edinburg high school will be initiated into the chapter at a banquet on May 13 at the Edinburg hotel.

Church Of God Sets Dedication Sunday

McALLEN — Formal dedication ceremonies for the new Church of God, South Broadway and Houston streets, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Inviting all members of the church and McAllen visitors to be present, Pastor Leslie L. Gaylord announced that Rev. M. B. Boucher would speak at the first services. He expressed thanks to church members and others who co-operated in the remodeling and construction of the new building.

Hidalgo Grand Jury Called For Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's May term grand jury will be empaneled in 92nd District Court Monday and a new schedule of trial settings will be made during the week by District Judge Bryce Ferguson.

District Attorney Tom Hartley said Saturday only a comparatively small number of criminal cases are scheduled for presentation to the jury, since the March jury which only recently completed its deliberations had about "cleaned up" the criminal docket.

Escaped Nazi Flier In Germany Again?

BERLIN —(AP)—To questions about German Fighter Pilot Baron Franz Von Werra, who escaped British internment in Canada and then jumped bail in the United States, a German spokesman replied Saturday he had gone to Peru "and probably isn't there any more." He would not discuss reports that the flier already is in Germany.

By BERNARD S. O'HARA

NEW YORK—(AP)—Behind a vanguard of strong rails which established numerous 1941 highs, the stock market moved ahead sufficiently Saturday to neutralize losses incurred earlier in the week.

The best gains among the most active issues ran a little over a point, but steels generally failed to follow the upward lead and no great volume of buying developed.

The Associated Press ave rage of 60 selected stocks gained .1 of a point at 39.4. Turnover was 197,750 shares compared with 156,000 last Saturday, the smallest short-session day since March 8.

The rails, and with them, the shares representing railroad equipment manufacturers, got their big lift from a prediction by the Association of American Railroads that carirer traffic would reach a maximum in 1943 and that roads would need 270,000 additional cars to carry prospective loads.

Even outshining the rails in brilliant performance was cotton, which climbed actively on United States senatorial action favoring an increased loan scale to close $1.10 to $1.35 a bale higher than Friday.

Other commodities also advanced sharply.

New highs were established for the year by Nickel Plate Preferred, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, American Car & Foundry Preferred, Skelly Oil, Pure Oil and Socony. Other gainers included Savage Arms, Air Reduction, Douglas, Yellow Truck and Dunt.

The oils were aided by reports of increasing sales of gasoline at higher prices. Rails dominated the bond market.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Canadian dollar lost 1-16 of a cent in terms of the United States dollar in free foreign exchange trading Saturday. The Swiss franc and the Shanghai dollar were up slightly, and the Argentine "free" peso declined 1-20 of a cent.

Trading for the week was narrow with British pound showing a¼-of-a-cent gain and the Canadian dollar closing with a decline of ⅜ cent.

On Thursday the Shanghai dollar hit a new 1941 low but closed the week somewhat better.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Buoyed up by reports from Washington that efforts would be made to obtain 65 per cent of parity loans on five basic commodities, grain prices here soared to the best levels in weeks Saturday.

Wheat prices ranged up to 3¾ cents a bushel on the July delivery with all deliveries selling up 3 cents a bushel or more to the highest levels of the year. Some profit taking was encountered on the upswings, but was not sufficiently heavy to drag values down.

Wheat closed strong 2½-3¾ cents higher than Friday's finish, May 94¾-94, July 93¾-¼, corn ¾-1¼ up, May 69, July 69, oats ¾-1 cent higher, soybeans 4-4½ cents advanced, rye 2¼-3a up, and lard 28-30 cents higher.

ARMY THEME FOR REYNOSA MAY 5 FETE

Valley Residents Get Invitations

REYNOSA — Reynosa's observance of 'Cinco de Mayo" Monday will be centered at the military garrison under the command of Brigadier General Pedro Lopez Tafoya and Colonel Salvador Viramontes.

Gen. Tafoya, chief of the garrison, extended an invitation to Valley residents to attend the celebration at the garrison, when expert horsemen in the 24th cavalry regiment will perform to celebrate the 129th anniversary of the Battle of Puebla in a national Independence day program.

The entire city will join in the observance of the holiday by closing business places and offices.

Formal observance of the day will begin at 6 a.m. with a flag raising at the fort attended by garrison officials.

At 10 a.m. a downtown parade will get under way. In the line of march will be reserve officers in the 48th regiment, civil, military and federal officials with students in the public schools.

At 4 p.m. at El Campo Militar, the Reynosa garrison, a horse race will be the first feature in a military show. Six horses will run in the 00 meter race. The first and second place winners will be awarded metals by the commanders of the garrison.

In addition to the horse race the show will include riding and jumping contests, stunt riding and exhibitions of military formation. Prizes will be given winners of all divisions.

The day's program will close with a flag ceremony at 6 p.m.

Skeeter Control

Will Be Considered At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — Mosquito control and the food stamp plan were on the slate for discussion at a meeting of the Cameron county commissioners' court called for Monday morning by County Judge Oscar C. Dancy.

L. A. Bauer, county auditor, has requested Gerald Mann, Texas attorney general, to rule on the legality of the plan. The attorney general has previously ruled thta county commisioners' courts cannot legally participate in the plan by using money from the general fund.

Society Initiates 17 Honor Students

EDINBURG — Seventeen new members of the National Honor society of the Edinburg high school will be initiated into the chapter at a banquet on May 13 at the Edinburg hotel.

Church Of God Sets Dedication Sunday

McALLEN — Formal dedication ceremonies for the new Church of God, South Broadway and Houston streets, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Inviting all members of the church and McAllen visitors to be present, Pastor Leslie L. Gaylord announced that Rev. M. B. Boucher would speak at the first services. He expressed thanks to church members and others who co-operated in the remodeling and construction of the new building.

Hidalgo Grand Jury Called For Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's May term grand jury will be empaneled in 92nd District Court Monday and a new schedule of trial settings will be made during the week by District Judge Bryce Ferguson.

District Attorney Tom Hartley said Saturday only a comparatively small number of criminal cases are scheduled for presentation to the jury, since the March jury which only recently completed its deliberations had about "cleaned up" the criminal docket.

Escaped Nazi Flier In Germany Again?

BERLIN—(AP)—To questions about German Fighter Pilot Baron Franz Von Werra, who escaped British internment in Canada and then jumped bail in the United States, a German spokesman replied Saturday he had gone to Peru "and probably isn't there any more." He would not discuss reports that the flier already is in Germany.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Behind a vanguard of strong rails which established numerous 1941 highs, the stock market moved ahead sufficiently, Saturday to neutralize losses incurred earlier in the week.

The best gains among the most active issues ran a little over a point, but steels generally failed to follow the upward lead and no great volume of buying developed.

The Associated Press ave rage of 60 selected stocks gained .1 of a point at 39.4. Turnover was 197,750 shares compared with 156,000 last Saturday, the smallest short-session day since March 8.

The rails, and, with them, the shares representing railroad equipment manufacturers, got their big lift from a prediction by the Association of American Railroads that carirer traffic would reach a maximum in 1943 and that roads would need 270,000 additional cars to carry prospective loads.

Even outshining the rails in brilliant performance was cotton, which climbed actively on United States senatorial action favoring an increased loan scale to close $1.10 to $1.35 a bale higher than Friday.

Other commodities also advanced sharply.

New highs were established for the year by Nickel Plate Preferred, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, American Car & Foundry Preferred, Skelly Oil, Pure Oil and Socony. Other gainers included Savage Arms, Air Reduction, Douglas, Yellow Truck and Du Pont.

The oils were aided by reports of increasing sales of gasoline at higher prices. Rails dominated the bond market.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Canadian dollar lost 1-16 of a cent in terms of the United States dollar in free foreign exchange trading Saturday. The Swiss franc and the Shanghai dollar were up slightly, and the Argentine "free" peso declined 1-20 of a cent.

Trading for the week was narrow with British pound showing a¼-of-a-cent gain and the Canadian dollar closing with a decline of ⅜ cent.

On Thursday the Shanghai dollar hit a new 1941 low but closed the week somewhat better.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Buoyed up by reports from Washington that efforts would be made to obtain 85 per cent of parity loans on five basic commodities, grain prices here soared to the best levels in weeks Saturday.

Wheat prices ranged up to 3¾ cents a bushel on the July delivery with all deliveries selling up 3 cents a bushel or more to the highest levels of the year. Some profit taking was encountered on the upswings, but was not sufficiently heavy to drag values down.

Wheat closed strong 2½-3⅝ cents higher than Friday's finish, May 94¼-94, July 93⅜-¾, corn ⅝-1⅛ up, May 69, July 69, oats ⅜-1 cent higher, soybeans 4-4½ cents advanced, rye 2⅛-⅜ up, and lard 28-30 cents higher.

Will Try Again

The Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will make another stab Sunday at getting the season under way. Rain halted festivities in all of the parks except Brownsville last Sunday.

The McAllen Merchants will play the Southern Selects at Harlingen; the Brownsville Merchants go to Mission to battle the 30-30 Rifles; and the Brownsville Edelsteins will visit Comales and play a double-header.

The only thing that will stop the games Sunday will be rain and at the present writing prospects are bright for the sun to shine.

With games scheduled at opposite ends of the Valley, record crowds are predicted for Harlingen and Mission.

Tough Luck

Along with every Valley sports fan, we feel badly over Wade Spilman of Missions losing out in the state tennis meet and Chulo McNair in the golf tourney.

They were the Valley's last chances to grab an athletic title in the Interscholastic League get-together at Austin the past week-end.

Bass Fishing

From what we can learn, bass fishing in the Valley this season is not so hot.

To date we have had no good explanation why the fighters are not striking. Some say it is the weather, others the water, and still others that it is just lack of bass.

We would like to know who has caught the largest bass since the season opened. If you know, send us the dope.

We Pick One

While it is a bit difficult to believe, we named the winner of the Kentucky Derby.

On April 1st we sent in our selections and entered Frank Menke's Derby Ham and Hat contest for sports writers. It turned out that we were one of 75 who picked Whirlaway to win. And there were 469 entered.

In looking over our selections for the other four places, we find we fell down completely and there is little chance that we will win either a hat or a ham.

Open Tickets In Demand

Golf fans from almost every state in the union and many foreign countries will see the U. S. G. A. Open Championship at Fort Worth in June.

This is indicated by the sale of season tickets, which continues heavy. Requests came last week from such far-away places as Appleton, Wis.; Chicago, Addleborough, Mass.; New York City; Nashville, Tenn.; Independence, Kan.; Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio and many others.

Season tickets orders from these places are being filled as rapidly as possible. However, the committee in charge is anxious that all Southwestern fans who wish them obtain the over-all tickets as soon as possible.

Again, fans were warned by Chairman Max Highfill of the committee on tickets and badges that no more season tickets will be available after May 24. After that, only the $2.20 and $3.30 daily tickets will be available.

The season books are good for four days of practice rounds that will be $1.10 otherwise, for the first two days of the meet which will be $2.20 daily, and the big last day which will be $3.30. They are also good for any playoff, which will be $2.20 otherwise. The season tickets are $6.60. Orders are being taken at the Open Headquarters, Seventh and Houston Streets, Fort Worth.

Columbia Wins Blackwell Cup

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Putting on a driving finish, Columbia's eight-oared crew won the Blackwell Cup Regatta on the Schuylkill Saturday, nosing out the University of Pennsylvania by a half-length over the mile and five-sixteenth course. Yale, winner for four successive years, was third.

The Light Blues swept to victory in six minutes and 24 seconds, three seconds off the cup series record of 6:21 for the Henley course, which was set in 1935 by Penn.

Penn, which led until the last half-mile, was one second behind the winners. Yale was three-quarters of a length back in the three-crew event.

It was Columbia's first Blackwell Cup triumph since 1931.

Staretor In Second Spot At Finish

long-shot, the New York owned Market Wise, from the barn of Lou Tufano, for second place. Porter's Cap, leading money winner among the three year olds up to now and the colt the Far West was writing songs about, finished fourth.

Dispose Runs Sixth

Ten lengths away from "Whirly's" waving tail, was Rocky Palladino's Little Beans, the invader from Boston, fifth; the Texas speed horse, Robert Kleberg, Jr.'s Dispose, sixth; Tom Bragg's Blue Pair, seventh; Our Boots, eighth; J. Fred Byers' Robert Morris, ninth; Emerson F. Woodward's Valdina Paul, tenth, and trailing all the way, Cleveland Putnam's mud-running Swain, the Californian, who just couldn't get started on the lightning fast track.

Everything, crowd, betting, time, the money in the race, and the roar of the backers of the blue grass boy, made this the biggest Derby of all the 67 run here. By his victory, the flying little son of Blenheim II gave his family a Kentucky Derby triumph to join his Daddy's English "Darby" conquest. He brought $61,275 to owner Wright, the largest purse a winner ever picked up in the chase after this $75,000-added rainbow. He rewarded his backers a favorite's price of $7.80 for each $2 winning mutuel ticket held on him in the record-breaking Derby handle of $654,253. And finally, he rewarded the brilliant-riding Arcaro and the wise trainer Ben Jones, plain Ben from out of Missouri, with their second Derby victory in three years.

That was the real story back of this race. Whirlaway wasn't supposed to have a chance after the way he "ran out" in the Derby trial last Tuesday. Plain Ben just couldn't roll up his sleeves and work the magic this time like he did with limping Lawrin when he trained for Herbert Woolf in 1938.

Follows Instructions

So all Plain Ben did was import the generally-ranked best jockey of them all, and told him to ride "Whirly" just one way—lay back of the pack until they straightened out, then uncork the drive no one doubted he had all the time. He did just that—and it was just as simple as that. For three quarters of a mile he was as much as 17 1 2 lengths back of Dispose who set the pace through the first mile. At the mile mark, he started to move up. Arcaro, who also rode Lawrin for Ben, said later, he just couldn't hold him any more. As they straightened out for home, he took the lead as Arcaro piloted him between horses. And from there on, he was strictly the drum major in the parade.

Staretor, owned by a San Francisco fruit extractor, also closed with a mighty rush. So did Market wise. But Porter's Cap, a factor for a mile, weakened, and Our Boots, who whipped Whirlaway in four out of five meetings during their career, was never in it, despite repeated urging by Jockey Conn McCreary.

GRAPHIC GOLF

WARMING UP AND COOLING DOWN

Like the ballplayer warming up before taking his turn at bat, the golfer can also gradually attune his muscles for play. The pros make it a point to find time in which to drive a few off the practice tee but the average golfer, as a rule, has no such opportunity or time to get ready. The player can, however, swing a couple of clubs as shown above in a leisurely and smooth fashion back and forth to loosen up his muscles. The routine, primarily designed to eradicate the kinks, also comes in handy in adjusting one to calmer thought and action. Rushing to the golf course, the golfer is so often saturated with the sense of hurry and jerky action that his play reflects it. For the sake of better playing and enjoyment, a more tranquil temperament must prevail and a pretty fair cure lies in swinging the two clubs in slow motion tempo.

Another purpose is served in that the golfer feels the lightness of one club later in actual play and it can be swung with a more acute sense of feeling and velocity. Continued practice will strengthen the muscles of the arms and shoulder and give the grip. Gene Sarazen similarly employed an overweight driver for practice sessions for greater swing development.

Coffey To Meet Bob Riegel For TGA Title Today

Both In Rare Form Saturday

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Through a day of shot-making seldom equalled in the tournament's history, Billy Bob Coffey, the champion, and Bobby Riegel, a former titleholder, emerged into the finals of the Texas Golf Association tourney Saturday.

Riegel started the fireworks in his match with Jack Tinnin, Houston insurance agent who won the medal. Riegel won 2 and 1.

Riegel's drive on the first tee found the rough 70-yards to the left of the green. He sent a 10-iron shot soaring toward the carpet. The ball took two hops, settled into a roll a foot from the hole, and jumped in for an eagle two.

Tinnin chipped one in from a lie of 25 feet off the 12th green for a birdie 3.

Iverson Martin of Fort Worth, who fell before Coffey, 2 and 1, was 25 yards past the 9th green, but holed out his third shot for a winning 4. In his morning match, Coffey chipped in from 4 yards off the fifth green.

Riegel, also a Houston Insurance man, was two under par for the day's play. In the morning, he eliminated veteran Horace Young of Houston, 6 and 5, ending the match with three straight birdies and a coasting bogey.

Coffey had a shaky experience in the morning with 15 year old Tyrrell Garth, Jr., home course player competing in his first state tournament.

The slight, black-haired youngster had Coffey one down through No. 16, but Coffey flashed two straight birdies, sinking putts of 10 and 18 feet, to pull out the match, 1 up.

Riegel, who won the championship three years ago, and Coffey will play a 36-hole match Sunday for the title.

Martin entered the semi-finals by defeating Ed Enderson of Houston 5 and 3. Tinnin disposed of Kyle Alford, Beaumont municipal champion in the morning, in 19 holes.

S. W. Conference Baseball

HOUSTON —(AP)— Coach Cecil Grigg's Rice Owls got five hit pitching from Bill Telschow here Saturday to defeat the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, 8-1, and chalk up their fourth straight Southwest Conference triumph.

Telschow walked nine men but tightened up in the clutches to leave 14 Frogs stranded on the bases. The Owls collected nine hits off Brumbaugh, Frank Carswell's triple with the bases filled being the most potent of the day.

Rice plays S. M. U. here Monday afternoon.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—A Texas Leaguer single by Ballow followed by Bill Buchanan's crashing drive over the left field wall gave the Texas Aggies enough runs Saturday to defeat Southern Methodist 2 to 1.

But the Mustangs were bitter-enders. They scored their lone tally in the ninth and had enough additional ducks on the pond to win. A right field foul line circus catch by Marland Jeffrey and a final Roy Peden throttled the Methodists. splurge of pressure by moundsman

Edelsteins Play Comales Today

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville semi-pro teams will be among a field of six squads who will attempt to continue play in the Valley League in three games scheduled Sunday.

The Brownsville Edelstein's, who are leading the loop with one victory and no defeats, will invade Comales for a double-header, be*ginning at 2 p.m.*

At Mission, the Brownsville Merchants will tangle with the Mission 30-30 Rifles on Legion park at 3:30 p.m.

All but Edelstein's will be playing their opening loop contests.

Townsend Plan Put Into New Tax Bill?

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Downey (D-Calif) asserted Saturday that unless President Roosevelt soon recommended larger old age pensions, 10 to 15 senators would try to write the Townsend plan into the new tax bill.

Downey said Mr. Roosevelt told him last year that he would ask congressional approval of a federal pension system under which payments would be made to old people regardless of need or of state old age benefits.

The first industrial school on the North American continent was *started by the Rev. James B. Fin*ley at Upper Sandusky, O., in 1821. Wyandot Indians were the pupils.

Selects Play Merchants In League Opener Today

HARLINGEN—In a baseball game that holds promise of being hard-fought all the way, the Harlingen Southern Selects will meet the McAllen Merchants at Fair Park here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Selects, managed by Santos Bermea, were rained out last Sunday in their scheduled opener of the Valley Semi-Pro League and all the ceremonies scheduled that day will be staged Sunday. Mayor Hugh Ramsey will toss the first ball in the general direction of Joe "Slim" Wright, John Bell, president of the semi-pro circuit, will also be on hand to get the season under way here.

On the roster of the Selects are the following players: Gutierrez, Rios, Montalvo and Rodriquez, infielders; E. Flores, catcher;; Esqueda, Fast Contreras and Flores, outfielders; Guevara, Simpson and Mills, pitchers: Mills, Carpenter, Rojas and Chapa, reserves. All are well-known in Valley baseball circles, having played on teams here and over the Valley. Daily workouts have been taken and it is reported that all players are in top condition for the season opener.

The Merchants are one of the "new" teams in the Valley but they boast some of the best semi-pro and amateur players in this section. Among the players listed are: Billy Walsh, Clyde Chisum, Ted Koen and M. Barrero, pitchers; S. Califa, catcher; McLaughlin, Bush, Camillo, Guerra and J. Califa, infielders; R. Garza, Rolo Garza, Chano and Moya, outfielders. Walsh is the manager of the team.

Interest in this opening ball game is running high all over the Valley and the stands at Fair Park are expected to be filled Sunday afternoon.

Golf Champion Lawson Little Discusses Chance To Repeat

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some say the odds against a National Open golf champion repeating his victory are 25 to 1 but Lawson Little, current king, won't make 'em or take 'em.

"These odds usually are fictitious," he says, "they don't reflect the true situation."

Lawson says there are 30 or 40 players with the shot-making ability to win the title. "The crown is won by the man who happens to be hot during those four rounds and who can avoid one bad round."

Little isn't satisfied with his putting now. He was a red-hot putter as amateur champion but, he says, "Medal play is different, You can't ram that ball at the hole in medal play. You always have to think of the next one. But I wish I had the confidence as a pro that I had as an amateur around the cup."

Little is sure of two things as the time approaches for the Open meet in Fort Worth, Texas, June 5. First, he isn't going into the tournament with fear that he won't win, and, second, he isn't going to wear himself out practicing.

"I want to hit my peak in the championship itself," he says.

Eligibility Of Player Hits Baseball Play-Off

WESLACO—The Weslaco Panthers were scheduled to play the McAllen Bulldogs in the fourth game of the final series to decide the Rio Grande Valley high school baseball championship here Saturday afternoon—and possibly the fifth game—but due to the failure of the McAllen nine to arrive, no game was played.

Quite a crowd of baseball fans was on hand to see the game, scheduled at 2:30 o'clock, but after some thirty minutes of delay, it was announced that no game would be played. There was nothing for Jack York, umpire, to do except forfeit the game to the Panthers.

The question of the eligibility of a Weslaco player had been brought to the attention of Weslaco and McAllen school officials and it was assumed that this was the reason for the failure of the McAllen team to take the field against the Weslaco nine.

In the final play-off, a three-out-of-five-game-series, the Panthers had won two games and the Bulldogs one. With the forfeiture of the game Saturday, the Weslaco nine is now credited with three wins and one loss.

Due to the question of the eligibility of the Weslaco player causing the high school baseball title to be far from a settled fact, it is quite likely that Bobby Cannon of Edinburg, district athletic director, will have to make a ruling before any definite claim to the crown can be made.

Semi-Pro Season Will Open Today

ENID, Okla.—(AP)—A great revival of the national sport was predicted Saturday night by Ray Dumont, semi-pro booster, as a result of the baseball activity in army camps over the country.

Here for the premier Sunday of the 1941 season of National Semi-Pro Congress, of which he is president, Dumont said:

"Many of the boys who would never have played baseball in their home city will get their chance in the army camps. When they return home, they will still want to play baseball, then, watch more teams than ever spring up!"

The semi-pro president brought with him a 20-foot pennant, emblematic of the 1940 National Championship, which will be raised in the ceremonies here Sunday. The pennant was won by the Champion Refiners of Enid last year in the tournament at Wichita. Enid went on to win the world title in a series at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dumont said approximately 40,000 semi-pro games would be played Sunday over the country.

In the local event, where the Bell Clothiers of Oklahoma City, will meet the Champlins, Gov. Leon C. Phillips will hurl the inaugural pitch. At 3 p.m. George Sisler, baseball great and commissioner of semi-pro baseball, will deliver a radio talk.

Dumont does not think the reign of Oklahoma teams in the semi-pro field is destined to last. Sooner nines have won four out of the past five National championships.

Baseball School Set At McAllen

McALLEN — Several ambitious baseball players in the Valley who desire to try out for a berth with the Columbia, Ogden, Tucson or Riverside, Calif., teams owned and operated by the Cincinnati Reds of the National League, had obtained enrollment blanks from the McAllen Chamber of Commerce Saturday.

A training camp will open in McAllen from June 16 to 20 at Legion Park. Tuition at the baseball training camp is free, but players must pay their own expenses. Full details and enrollment blanks may be obtained by any player sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the McAllen Chamber of Commerce or calling for the blanks, officials said Saturday.

The Works Progress Administration holds contracts for improving more than 350 airports at a cost of $150,000,000.

McALLEN — The McAllen High School Bulldog baseball team declined Saturday to finish the Valley championship play-off with the Weslaco Panthers after a question about the eligibility of one of the Weslaco players arose.

Carlos Ramirez, Weslaco shortstop who has played in all of the play-off games except the one Friday afternoon in McAllen is the player in question. Supt. John Gregory and Coach Maco Stewart of McAllen, after checking record, reported that Ramirez was now 19. According to the rules used in the baseball season in the Valley, all players must not have reached their 18th birthday before September 1 of the season in which they participate

The matter of the boy's ineligibility was first brought to the attention of Stewart in an unsigned letter from a Weslaco fan. Stewart showed the letter to Weslaco's Coach Bill Cummins before the Friday game. Cummins said he felt the boy was eligible but did not play him Friday.

The Valley play-offs may be thrown into the cocked hat if authorities declare Ramirez ineligible. Both Santa Rosa and Pharr would then have a right to enter play again because forfeits from Weslaco would give them a higher percentage and would probably change the final standing that saw McAllen take first place and Weslaco second. There is some question also as to whether or not Edinburg's standing might be affected.

A final ruling will probably have to come from Coach Bobby Cannon, who is the Interscholastic League athletic director for this district.

After the McAllen school heads could not get a final ruling on the question, it was decided that they would not play the double-header Saturday, which was to decide the Valley title. McAllen had won one of the three-out-of-five play-off games and Weslaco tw-

McAllen Stars Set To Battle SP Ten Today

Double - Header Set At Palm City

McALLEN — The first softball game on the Sabbath in McAllen in several years will be held Sunday when the Southern Pacific ten from Houston meets the McAllen City League All Stars on the local diamond at 3 p.m. in a double header.

The Houston club is doubtless one of the strongest teams that has ever played in McAllen. They have beaten such strong clubs as York Oilers, Lindale and several other powerful clubs in the Houston League. The team roster includes one of the strongest pitching staffs in the country with Staruska, a left hander noted for his speed, and Collins, noted for curve ball twirling, as the stars.

Jack York and Jim Scoggins have been signed to umpire and will share duties Sunday with T. Modglin, portly Houston league arbiter. An admission price of 15 cents will be charged, for the double-header.

McAllen, choosing completely new teams for both games and using a big batch of Hidalgo county's best players, listed the following to start the first game:

In the second, the line-up will be selected from the following:

The Houston line-up:

R. Pruess, catcher; J. McMichael, catcher; J. J. Collins, pitcher; E. Strauska, pitcher; J. Bonneau, first base; A. Partlow,, second base; J. Roddy, shortstop; W. Kummings, third base; M. Franks, left field; B Rees, center field; W. Grant, right field; C. Edgley, short center, E. Rutan, utility; E. Jones, pitcher; E. La May, utility; A. Chalmbers, utility.

Members of the McAllen squad will meet the train on which the Houston players arrive at 5:45 a.m. Sunday, take them on a tour of the Upper Valley and play a round of golf before noon. After the game all who desire will accompany the Houston team to Reynosa on a sight-seeing tour.

Rifles To Meet Merchants Today

MISSION— Postponed from last Sunday because of rain, the opening game of the Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will be staged Sunday afternoon at Legion Ball Park, Mission, when the Mission 30-30's will meet the Brownsville Merchants. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Eddie Town, speedball artist, will be the starting pitcher for the Rifles. Howard Reichle, hustling little catcher, will complete the Rifles' battery. Reichle led the Rifles in hitting averages during the 1939 season, the last season in which the Mission club participated. George Strohmeyer is man*ager of the Rifles and Le Najo* captain.

The Merchants have promised strong competition in Sunday's game, according to the manager, Adolfo Arguillo. The Merchants will be decked out in new uniforms to open their season.

Mission's starting line-up, announced by George Strohmeyer, will be: Barrera, 1b; Langerhans, 2b; Bloomfield, ss; Stevens, 3b; Rameriz, lf; Najo cf; Lowenstein, rf; Reichle, c; and Town, p.

DRAFTEES TO LEAVE

McALLEN—Union Bus Lines will run a special bus Monday to transport 30 Valley selectees to Fort Sam Houston for induction into the army. Manager L. D. Harris announced Saturday. Twenty-three of the boys will be picked up in Mission and seven in Rio Grande City. They will congregate in McAllen and leave together for the San Antonio fort.

Corpus Christi Net Stars Win At State Meet

Doubles Team Grabs Third Victory

AUSTIN—(AP)—For the third successive year, Corpus Christi Saturday won the Interscholastic League title in boys' tennis doubles.

Frank Whaley and Gordon Best of Corpus Christi downed Browne Baker and Perry Menking of Lamar, Houston, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Corpus Christi also won the title in girls' doubles, Alma Lee Sissom and Rosemary Walker defeating Helene McCarther and Gloria Levy of Ball, Galveston, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

It was the first time since 1914 when the competition started that a high school has taken the third successive title in boys doubles to retain the cup.

Richard Elliott of Trinity defeated Jack Urlrich of Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio, 6-0, 8-6, 6-1, to take the title in the boys' tennis singles.

In the girls' singles, Shelby Frizzell of Austin won the title by defeating Mary Jane Bullington of Paschal, Fort Worth, 8-6, 6-3.

State Cage Play Has New Set-Up

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)— Competition in high school basketball will be split into theree divisions next year, the executive committee of the Texas Interscholastic League decided Saturday.

The 1942 basketball tournament will be modeled closely on the three-league football set-up, with competition in AA, A and B conferences.

League Athletics Director R. J. Kidd said the revision will mean a fairer matching of squads. Instead of eight teams meeting each year for state honors, 24 will come to Austin to seek titles in three divisions.

Conference AA will include 106 schools, divided into 16 districts; Conference A, 291 schools, eight regions with four district each; Conference B, 721 schools, eight regions each with several districts.

The eight regional winners in Conference A and Conference B will be eligible to compete in Austin, March 5-7, for state honors. Conference AA will follow the same elimination route as football, district, bi-district, then state champ*ionship.*

Schools Tie In Class B Meet

DENTON, Tex. — (AP) — Dalton Campbell of Hood county's Lipan High clipped 6.7 seconds off his own mile record of 4:43.6 Saturday at the state high school Class B track and field meet.

It was the only new mark set. Mertzon of Irion county and Orange Grove of Jim Wells county fought to a first-place tie in team honors.

Mertzon caught up with the Rio Grande Valley school by placing second in the final event, the mile relay. Each school registered 14 points.

Individual scoring honors were shared by Biscoe of Bullard High, Smith county, winner of the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Lee Roy Franke of Orange Grove, first in both hurdle races; and Houston Ellison of old glory, victor in the shot and discus. Each of the three tallied 10 points.

The 10 points of Biscoe and Ellison gave their schools a third-place tie with O'Brien high of Haskell county.

Winners in the new events on the state Class B card, whose performances will be written in the books as records, were:

Franke with 15.8 clocking for the lowered high hurdle race and a 23.6 timing for the shortened low hurdle event.

Ellison for his 124-foot, 7-inch heave of the lighter discus.

The Mertzon high 440-yard relay crew of McGregor, Cox, Teague, and Scott for their time of 45.4 seconds.

The word "panzer," referring to the German panzer division, means "armored."

SOUTHERN WILDLIFE

Foxy Farmer

D. W. Kolb, a ranger in McCurtain county, Oklahoma, tells us of one farmer's unique method of safeguarding his quail during the last hunting season. "At the beginning of the season," Kolb informs, "this farmer simply lured all the quail on his farm into a trap, kept them well hidden and well fed during the shooting season, granted entrance to all who desired to hunt on his land, and when the season closed, turned the well fattened birds out upon his broad acres once more!"

Lose A Hook—Save A Life

It is a hard matter to release a fish so skillfully that it will not die later. Once the tender, slimy outer covering is injured, the fish dies. He may look frisky as a colt when you let him go—but an unbelievably high percentage of the fish you handle die later.

Cut your snell or leader and release the fish with hook in him. You only lose a hook which can be bought for a nickel a dozen, and two or three inches of line. The hook will gradually disintegrate inside the fish with no ill effects.

Swallow-Proof Catfish Hook

"Anything that would keep an old cat from swallowing a hook so deep you have to tussle half an hour to get it out would be a boon to civilization!" That's the way most southern fishermen feel. Make a guard wire. Loop a piece of stiff wire through the eye of your hook. Twist the wire around the hook shank and bring both ends out straight to the sides. If a cat is big enough to swallow wire and all, he'd be old and tough and no one would believe he was that big anyhow!

Detour—Quail Nest Ahead

A mother quail and her nest of twenty-one eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Brackettsville in Kinney county and Rock Springs in Edwards county, Texas. The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest. All traffic was detoured around that spot until mama quail hatched nineteen of her twenty-one eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest.

Tough, Eh?

The lady of the house heard a knock at her door. Looking through the screen she saw a Chinese fish peddler. Not wishing to be disturbed, she called to her maid: "You go, Ella."

The Chinaman blinked his little eyes, thrust out his neck and sung out belligerently: "You go'ella yourself!"

Fish Have Lubrication Too

While we don't know whether fish "change oil" every thousand miles, we do know that, in order to enable a fish to glide easily along in the water, its body is covered with a *slimy mucus which is being con*stantly poured out in large quantities by special glands situated in the epidermis. This mucus makes the body of the fish slippery and also minimizes friction with the surrounding water.

Sorter Stretching It

We've firmly resolved to quit being surprised over anything now in the fishing line anymore. The latest thing that has caused us to lift our eyebrows is a complete line of rubber lures put out by Pachner and Koller, Inc., 2307 West 69th Street, Chicago, Illinois. They tell us that those lures are far more natural looking than the wooden variety and are real fish getters. Now sportsmen needn't stop at stretching the catch—they can stretch the lures too!

Will Try Again

The Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will make another stab Sunday at getting the season under way. Rain halted festivities in all of the parks except Brownsville last Sunday.

The McAllen Merchants will play the Southern Selects at Harlingen; the Brownsville Merchants go to Mission to battle the 30-30 Rifles; and the Brownsville Edelsteins will visit Comales and play a double-header.

The only thing that will stop the games Sunday will be rain and at the present writing prospects are bright for the sun to shine.

With games scheduled at opposite ends of the Valley, record crowds are predicted for Harlingen and Mission.

Tough Luck

Along with every Valley sports fan, we feel badly over Wade Spilman of Missions losing out in the state tennis meet and Chulo McNair in the golf tourney.

They were the Valley's last chances to grab an athletic title in the Interscholastic League get-together at Austin the past week-end.

Bass Fishing

From what we can learn, bass fishing in the Valley this season is not so hot.

To date we have had no good explanation why the fighters are not striking. Some say it is the weather, others the water, and still others that it is just lack of bass.

We would like to know who has caught the largest bass since the season opened. If you know, send us the dope.

We Pick One

While it is a bit difficult to believe, we named the winner of the Kentucky Derby.

On April 1st we sent in our selections and entered Frank Menke's Derby Ham and Hat contest for sports writers. It turned out that we were one of 75 who picked Whirlaway to win. And there were 469 entered.

In looking over our selections for the other four places, we find we fell down completely and there is little chance that we will win either a hat or a ham.

Open Tickets In Demand

Golf fans from almost every state in the union and many foreign countries will see the U. S. G. A. Open Championship at Fort Worth in June.

This is indicated by the sale of season tickets, which continues heavy. Requests came last week from such far-away places as Appleton, Wis.; Chicago. Addleborough, Mass.; New York City; Nashville, Tenn.; Independence, Kan.; Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio and many others.

Season tickets orders from these places are being filled as rapidly as possible. However, the committee in charge is anxious that all Southwestern fans who wish them obtain the over-all tickets as soon as possible.

Again, fans were warned by Chairman Max Highfill of the committee on tickets and badges that no more season tickets will be available after May 24. After that, only the $2.20 and $3.30 daily tickets will be available.

The season books are good for four days of practice rounds that will be $1.10 otherwise, for the first two days of the meet which will be $2.20 daily, and the big last day which will be $3.30. They are also good for any playoff, which will be $2.20 otherwise. The season tickets are $6.60. Orders are being taken at the Open Headquarters, Seventh and Houston Streets, Fort Worth.

Columbia Wins Blackwell Cup

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Putting on a driving finish, Columbia's eight-oared crew won the Blackwell Cup Regatta on the Schuylkill Saturday, nosing out the University of Pennsylvania by a half-length over the mile and five-sixteenth course. Yale, winner for four successive years, was third.

The Light Blues swept to victory in six minutes and 24 seconds, three seconds off the cup series record of 6:21 for the Henley course, which was set in 1935 by Penn.

Penn, which led until the last half-mile, was one second behind the winners. Yale was three-quarters of a length back in the three-crew event.

It was Columbia's first Blackwell Cup triumph since 1931.

Nazis Force Letters

BATAVIA, Java —(AP)— Highly-placed sources said there are indications Germans are making efforts to establish contact with residents of the Netherlands East Indies through forged messages or letters written under pressure and signed by relatives in Holland.

Staretor In Second Spot At Finish

long-shot, the New York owned Market Wise, from the barn of Lou Tufano, for second place. Porter's Cap, leading money winner among the three year olds up to now and the colt the Far West was writing songs about, finished fourth.

Dispose Runs Sixth

Ten lengths away from "Whirly's" waving tail, was Rocky Palladino's Little Beans, the invader from Boston, fifth; the Texas speed horse, Robert Kleberg, Jr.'s Dispose, sixth; Tom Bragg's Blue Pair, seventh; Our Boots, eighth; J. Fred Byers' Robert Morris, ninth; Emerson F. Woodward's Valdina Paul, tenth, and trailing all the way, Cleveland Putnam's mud-running Swain, the Californian, who just couldn't get started on the lightning fast track.

Everything, crowd, betting, time, the money in the race, and the roar of the backers of the blue grass boy, made this the biggest Derby of all the 67 run here. By his victory, the flying little son of Blenheim II gave his family a Kentucky Derby triumph to join his Daddy's English "Darby" conquest. He brought $61.275 to owner Wright, the largest purse a winner ever picked up in the chase after this $75,000-added rainbow. He rewarded his backers a favorite's price of $7.80 for each $2 winning mutuel ticket held on him in the record-breaking Derby handle of $654.353. And finally, he rewarded the brilliant-riding Arcaro and the wise trainer Ben Jones, plain Ben from out of Missouri, with their second Derby victory in three years.

That was the real story back of this race. Whirlaway wasn't supposed to have a chance after the way he "ran out" in the Derby trial last Tuesday. Plain Ben just couldn't roll up his sleeves and work the magic this time like he did with limping Lawrin when he trained for Herbert Woolf in 1938.

Follows Instructions

So all Plain Ben did was import the generally-ranked best jockey of them all, and told him to ride "Whirly" just one way—lay back of the pack until they straightened out, then uncork the drive no one doubted he had all the time. He did just that—and it was just as simple as that. For three quarters of a mile he was as much as 17 1/2 lengths back of Dispose who set the pace through the first mile. At the mile mark, he started to move up. Arcaro, who also rode Lawrin for Ben, said later, he just couldn't hold him any more. As they straightened out for home, he took the lead as Arcaro piloted him between horses. And from there on, he was strictly the drum major in the parade.

Staretor, owned by a San Franciso fruit extractor, also closed with a mighty rush. So did Market wise. But Porter's Cap, a factor for a mile, weakened, and Our Boots, who whipped Whirlaway in four out of five meetings during their career, was never in it, despite repeated urging by Jockey Conn McCreary.

GRAPHIC GOLF

WARMING UP AND COOLING DOWN

Like the ballplayer warming up before taking his turn at bat, the golfer can also gradually attune his muscles for play. The pros make it a point to find time in which to drive a few off the practice tee but the average golfer, as a rule, has no such opportunity or time to get ready. The player can, however, swing a couple of clubs as shown above in a leisurely and smooth fashion back and forth to loosen up his muscles. The routine, primarily designed to eradicate the kinks, also comes in handy in adjusting one to calmer thought and action. Rushing to the golf course, the golfer is so often saturated with the sense of hurry and jerky action that his play reflects it. For the sake of better playing and enjoyment, a more tranquil temperament must prevail and a pretty fair cure lies in swinging the two clubs in slow motion tempo.

Another purpose is served in that the golfer feels the lightness of one club later in actual play and it can be swung with a more acute sense of feeling and velocity. Continued practice will strengthen the muscles of the arms and shoulder and give the grip. Gene Sarazen similarly employed an overweight driver for practice sessions for greater swing development.

Coffey To Meet Bob Riegel For TGA Title Today

Both In Rare Form Saturday

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Through a day of shot-making seldom equalled in the tournament's history, Billy Bob Coffey, the champion, and Bobby Riegel, a former titleholder, emerged into the finals of the Texas Golf Association tourney Saturday.

Riegel started the fireworks in his match with Jack Tinnin, Houston insurance agent who won the medal. Riegel won 2 and 1.

Riegel's drive on the first tee found the rough 70-yards to the left of the green. He sent a 10-iron shot soaring toward the carpet. The ball took two hops, settled into a roll a foot from the hole, and jumped in for an eagle two.

Tinnin chipped one in from a lie of 25 feet off the 12th green for a birdie 3.

Iverson Martin of Fort Worth, who fell before Coffey, 2 and 1, was 25 yards past the 9th green, but holed out his third shot for a winning 4. In his morning match, Coffey chipped in from 4 yards off the fifth green.

Riegel, also a Houston insurance man, was two under par for the day's play. In the morning, he eliminated veteran Horace Young of Houston, 6 and 5, ending the match with three straight birdies and a coasting bogey.

Coffey had a shaky experience in the morning with 15 year old Tyrrell Garth, Jr., home course player competing in his first state tournament.

The slight, black-haired youngster had Coffey one down through No. 16, but Coffey flashed two straight birdies, sinking putts of 10 and 18 feet, to pull out the match, 1 up.

Riegel, who won the championship three years ago, and Coffey will play a 36-hole match Sunday for the title.

Martin entered the semi-finals by defeating Ed Enderson of Houston 5 and 3. Tinnin disposed of Kyle Alford. Beaumont municipal champion in the morning, in 19 holes.

S. W. Conference Baseball

HOUSTON —(AP)— Coach Cecil Grigg's Rice Owls got five hit pitching from Bill Telschow here Saturday to defeat the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, 8-1, and chalk up their fourth straight Southwest Conference triumph.

Telschow walked nine men but tightened up in the clutches to leave 14 Frogs stranded on the bases. The Owls collected nine hits off Brumbaugh, Frank Carswell's triple with the bases filled being the most potent of the day.

Rice plays S. M. U. here Monday afternoon.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—A Texas Leaguer single by Ballow followed by Bill Buchanan's crashing drive over the left field wall gave the Texas Aggies enough runs Saturday to defeat Southern Methodist 2 to 1.

But the Mustangs were bitter-enders. They scored their lone tally in the ninth and had enough additional ducks on the pond to win. A right field foul line circus catch by Marland Jeffrey and a final Roy Peden throttled the Methodists, splurge of pressure by moundsman

Edelsteins Play Comales Today

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville semi-pro teams will be among a field of six squads who will attempt to continue play in the Valley League in three games scheduled Sunday.

The Brownsville Edelstein's, who are leading the loop with one victory and no defeats, will invade Comales for a double-header, beginning at 2 p.m.

At Mission, the Brownsville Merchants will tangle with the Mission 30-30 Rifles on Legion park at 3:30 p.m.

All but Edelstein's will be playing their opening loop contests.

Townsend Plan Put Into New Tax Bill?

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Downey (D-Calif) asserted Saturday that unless President Roosevelt soon recommended larger old age pensions, 10 to 15 senators would try to write the Townsend plan into the new tax bill.

Downey said Mr. Roosevelt told him last year that he would ask congressional approval of a federal pension system under which payments would be made to old people regardless of need or of state old age benefits.

The first industrial school on the North American continent was started by the Rev. James B. Finley at Upper Sandusky, O., in 1821. Wyandot Indians were the pupils.

Selects Play Merchants In League Opener Today

HARLINGEN—In a baseball game that holds promise of being hard-fought all the way, the Harlingen Southern Selects will meet the McAllen Merchants at Fair Park here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Selects, managed by Santos Bermea, were rained out last Sunday in their scheduled opener of the Valley Semi-Pro League and all the ceremonies scheduled that day will be staged Sunday. Mayor Hugh Ramsey will toss the first ball in the general direction of Joe "Slim" Wright. John Bell, president of the semi-pro circuit, will also be on hand to get the season under way here.

On the roster of the Selects are the following players: Gutierrez, Rios, Montalvo and Rodriquez, infielders; E. Flores, catcher;; Esqueda, Fast Contreras and Flores, outfielders; Guevara, Simpson and Mills, pitchers; Mills, Carpenter, Rojas and Chapa, reserves. All are well-known in Valley baseball circles, having played on teams here and over the Valley. Daily workouts have been taken and it is reported that all players are in top condition for the season opener.

The Merchants are one of the "new" teams in the Valley but they boast some of the best semi-pro and amateur players in this section. Among the players listed are: Billy Walsh, Clyde Chisum, Ted Koen and M. Barrero, pitchers; S. Califa, catcher; McLaughlin, Bush, Camillo, Guerra and J. Califa, infielders; R. Garza, Rolo Garza, Chano and Moya, outfielders. Walsh is the manager of the team.

Interest in this opening ball game is running high all over the Valley and the stands at Fair Park are expected to be filled Sunday afternoon.

Golf Champion Lawson Little Discusses Chance To Repeat

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some say the odds against a National Open golf champion repeating his victory are 25 to 1 but Lawson Little, current king, won't make 'em or take 'em.

"These odds usually are fictitious," he says, "they don't reflect the true situation."

Lawson says there are 30 or 40 players with the shot-making ability to win the title. "The crown is won by the man who happens to be not during those four rounds and who can avoid one bad round."

Little isn't satisfied with his putting now. He was a red-hot putter as amateur champion but, he says, "Medal play is different. You can't ram that ball at the hole in medal play. You always have to think of the next one. But I wish I had the confidence as a pro that I had as an amateur around the cup."

Little is sure of two things as the time approaches for the Open meet in Fort Worth, Texas, June 5. First, he isn't going into the tournament with fear that he won't win, and, second, he isn't going to wear himself out practicing.

"I want to hit my peak in the championship itself," he says.

Eligibility Of Player Hits Baseball Play-Off

WESLACO—The Weslaco Panthers were scheduled to play the McAllen Bulldogs in the fourth game of the final series to decide the Rio Grande Valley high school baseball championship here Saturday afternoon—and possibly the fifth game—but due to the failure of the McAllen nine to arrive, no game was played.

Quite a crowd of baseball fans was on hand to see the game, scheduled at 2:30 o'clock, but after some thirty minutes of delay, it was announced that no game would be played. There was nothing for Jack York, umpire, to do except forfeit the game to the Panthers.

The question of the eligibility of a Weslaco player had been brought to the attention of Weslaco and McAllen school officials and it was assumed that this was the reason for the failure of the McAllen team to take the field against the Weslaco nine.

In the final play-off, a three-out-of-five-game-series, the Panthers had won two games and the Bulldogs one. With the forfeiture of the game Saturday, the Weslaco nine is now credited with three wins and one loss.

Due to the question of the eligibility of the Weslaco player causing the high school baseball title to be far from a settled fact, it is quite likely that Bobby Cannon of Edinburg, district athletic director, will have to make a ruling before any definite claim to the crown can be made.

McALLEN — The McAllen High School Bulldog baseball team declined Saturday to finish the Valley championship play-off with the Weslaco Panthers after a question about the eligibility of one of the Weslaco players arose.

Carlos Ramirez, Weslaco shortstop who has played in all of the play-off games except the one Friday afternoon in McAllen is the player in question. Supt. John Gregory and Coach Maco Stewart of McAllen, after checking record, reported that Ramirez was now 19. According to the rules used in the baseball season in the Valley, all players must not have reached their 18th birthday before September 1 of the season in which they participate.

The matter of the boy's ineligibility was first brought to the attention of Stewart in an unsigned letter from a Weslaco fan. Stewart showed the letter to Weslaco's Coach Bill Cummins before the Friday game. Cummins said he felt the boy was eligible but did not play him Friday.

The Valley play-offs may be thrown into the cocked hat if authorities declare Ramirez ineligible. Both Santa Rosa and Pharr would then have a right to enter play again because forfeits from Weslaco would give them a higher percentage and would probably change the final standing that saw McAllen take first place and Weslaco second. There is some question also as to whether or not Edinburg's standing might be affected.

A final ruling will probably have to come from Coach Bobby Cannon, who is the Interscholastic League athletic director for this district.

After the McAllen school heads could not get a final ruling on the question, it was decided that they would not play the double-header Saturday, which was to decide the Valley title. McAllen had won one of the three-out-of-five play-off games and Weslaco tw-

Semi-Pro Season Will Open Today

ENID, Okla.—(AP)—A great revival of the national sport was predicted Saturday night by Ray Dumont, semi-pro booster, as a result of the baseball activity in army camps over the country.

Here for the premier Sunday of the 1941 season of National Semi-Pro Congress, of which he is president, Dumont said:

"Many of the boys who would never have played baseball in their home city will get their chance in the army camps. When they return home, they will still want to play baseball, then, watch more teams than ever spring up!"

The semi-pro president brought with him a 20-foot pennant, emblematic of the 1940 National Championship, which will be raised in the ceremonies here Sunday. The pennant was won by the Champion Refiners of Enid last year in the tournament at Wichita. Enid went on to win the world title in a series at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dumont said approximately 40,000 semi-pro games would be played Sunday over the country.

In the local event, where the Bell Clothiers of Oklahoma City, will meet the Champlins, Gov. Leon C. Phillips will hurl the inaugural pitch. At 3 p.m. George Sisler, baseball great and commissioner of semi-pro baseball, will deliver a radio talk.

Dumont does not think the reign of Oklahoma teams in the semi-pro field is destined to last. Sooner nines have won four out of the past five National championships.

Baseball School Set At McAllen

McALLEN — Several ambitious baseball players in the Valley who desire to try out for a berth with the Columbia, Ogden, Tucson or Riverside, Calif., teams owned and operated by the Cincinnati Reds of the National League, had obtained enrollment blanks from the McAllen Chamber of Commerce Saturday.

A training camp will open in McAllen from June 16 to 20 at Legion Park. Tuition at the baseball training camp is free, but players must pay their own expenses. Full details and enrollment blanks may be obtained by any player sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the McAllen Chamber of Commerce or calling for the blanks, officials said Saturday.

The Works Progress Administration holds contracts for improving more than 350 airports at a cost of $150,000,000.

McAllen Stars Set To Battle SP Ten Today

Double - Header Set At Palm City

McALLEN — The first softball game on the Sabbath in McAllen in several years will be held Sunday when the Southern Pacific ten from Houston meets the McAllen City League All Stars on the local diamond at 3 p.m. in a double header.

The Houston club is doubtless one of the strongest teams that has ever played in McAllen. They have beaten such strong clubs as York Oilers, Lindale and several other powerful clubs in the Houston League. The team roster includes one of the strongest pitching staffs in the country with Staruska, a left hander noted for his speed, and Collins, noted for curve ball twirling, as the stars.

Jack York and Jim Scoggins have been signed to umpire and will share duties Sunday with T. Modglin, portly Houston league arbiter. An admission price of 15 cents will be charged, for the double-header.

McAllen, choosing completely new teams for both games and using a big batch of Hidalgo county's best players, listed the following to start the first game:

In the second, the line-up will be selected from the following:

The Houston line-up:

R. Pruess, catcher; J. McMichael, catcher; J. J. Collins, pitcher; E. Strauska, pitcher; J. Bonneau, first base; A. Partlow,, second base; J. Roddy, shortstop; W. Kummings, third base; M. Franks, left field; B Rees, center field; W. Grant, right field; C. Edgley, short center, E. Rutan, utility; E. Jones, pitcher; E. La May, utility; A. Chalmbers, utility.

Members of the McAllen squad will meet the train on which the Houston players arrive at 5:45 a.m. Sunday, take them on a tour of the Upper Valley and play a round of golf before noon. After the game all who desire will accompany the Houston team to Reynosa on a sight-seeing tour.

Rifles To Meet Merchants Today

MISSION— Postponed from last Sunday because of rain, the opening game of the Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will be staged Sunday afternoon at Legion Ball Park, Mission, when the Mission 30-30's will meet the Brownsville Merchants. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Eddie Town, speedball artist, will be the starting pitcher for the Rifles. Howard Reichle, hustling little catcher, will complete the Rifles' battery. Reichle led the Rifles in hitting averages during the 1939 season, the last season in which the Mission club participated. George Strohmeyer is manager of the Rifles and Le Najo captain.

The Merchants have promised strong competition in Sunday's game, according to the manager, Adolfo Arguillo. The Merchants will be decked out in new uniforms to open their season.

Mission's starting line-up, announced by George Strohmeyer, will be: Barrera, 1b; Langerhans, 2b; Bloomfield, ss; Stevens, 3b; Rameriz, lf; Najo cf; Lowenstein, rf; Reichle, c; and Town, p.

DRAFTEES TO LEAVE

McALLEN—Union Bus Lines will run a special bus Monday to transport 30 Valley selectees to Fort Sam Houston for induction into the army. Manager L. D. Harris announced Saturday. Twenty-three of the boys will be picked up in Mission and seven in Rio Grande City. They will congregate in McAllen and leave together for the San Antonio fort.

Corpus Christi Net Stars Win At State Meet

Doubles Team Grabs Third Victory

AUSTIN—(AP)—For the third successive year, Corpus Christi Saturday won the Interscholastic League title in boys' tennis doubles.

Frank Whaley and Gordon Best of Corpus Christi downed Browne Baker and Perry Menking of Lamar, Houston, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Corpus Christi also won the title in girls' doubles, Alma Lee Sissom and Rosemary Walker defeating Helene McCarther and Gloria Levy of Ball, Galveston, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

It was the first time since 1914 when the competition started that a high school has taken the third successive title in boys doubles to retain the cup.

Richard Elliott of Trinity defeated Jack Urlrich of Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio, 6-0, 8-6, 6-1, to take the title in the boys' tennis singles.

In the girls' singles, Shelby Frizzell of Austin won the title by defeating Mary Jane Bullington of Paschal, Fort Worth, 8-6, 6-3.

State Cage Play Has New Set-Up

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)— Competition in high school basketball will be split into theree divisions next year, the executive committee of the Texas Interscholastic League decided Saturday.

The 1942 basketball tournament will be modeled closely on the three-league football set-up, with competition in AA, A and B conferences.

League Athletics Director R. J. Kidd said the revision will mean a fairer matching of squads. Instead of eight teams meeting each year for state honors, 24 will come to Austin to seek titles in three divisions.

Conference AA will include 106 schools, divided into 16 districts; Conference A, 291 schools, eight regions with four district each; Conference B, 721 schools, eight regions each with several districts.

The eight regional winners in Conference A and Conference B will be eligible to compete in Austin, March 5-7, for state honors. Conference AA will follow the same elimination route as football, district, bi-district, then state championship.

Schools Tie In Class B Meet

DENTON, Tex. — (AP) — Dalton Campbell of Hood county's Lipan High clipped 6.7 seconds off his own mile record of 4:43.6 Saturday at the state high school Class B track and field meet.

It was the only new mark set. Mertzon of Irion county and Orange Grove of Jim Wells county fought to a first-place tie in team honors.

Mertzon caught up with the Rio Grande Valley school by placing second in the final event, the mile relay. Each school registered 14 points.

Individual scoring honors were shared by Biscoe of Bullard High, Smith county, winner of the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Lee Roy Franke of Orange Grove, first in both hurdle races; and Houston Ellison of old glory, victor in the shot and discus. Each of the three tallied 10 points.

The 10 points of Biscoe and Ellison gave their schools a third-place tie with O'Brien high of Haskell county.

Winners in the new events on the state Class B card, whose performances will be written in the books as records, were:

Franke with 15.8 clocking for the lowered high hurdle race and a 23.6 timing for the shortened low hurdle event.

Ellison for his 124-foot, 7-inch heave of the lighter discus.

The Mertzon high 440-yard relay crew of McGregor, Cox, Teague, and Scott for their time of 45.4 seconds.

The word "panzer," referring to the German panzer division, means "armored."

SOUTHERN WILDLIFE

Foxy Farmer

D. W. Kolb, a ranger in McCurtain county, Oklahoma, tells us of one farmer's unique method of safeguarding his quail during the last hunting season. "At the beginning of the season," Kolb informs, "this farmer simply lured all the quail on his farm into a trap, kept them well hidden and well fed during the shooting season, granted entrance to all who desired to hunt on his land and when the season closed, turned the well fattened birds out upon his broad acres once more!"

Lose A Hook—Save A Life

It is a hard matter to release a fish so skillfully that it will not die later. Once the tender, slimy outer covering is injured, the fish dies. He may look frisky as a colt when you let him go—but an unbelievably high percentage of the fish you handle die later.

Cut your snell or leader and release the fish with hook in him. You only lose a hook which can be bought for a nickel a dozen, and two or three inches of line. The hook will gradually disintegrate inside the fish with no ill effects.

Swallow-Proof Catfish Hook

"Anything that would keep an old cat from swallowing a hook so deep you have to tussle half an hour to get it out would be a boon to civilization!" That's the way most southern fishermen feel. Make a guard wire. Loop a piece of stiff wire through the eye of your hook. Twist the wire around the hook shank and bring both ends out straight to the sides. If a cat is big enough to swallow wire and all, he'd be old and tough and no one would believe he was that big anyhow!

Detour—Quail Nest Ahead

A mother quail and her nest of twenty-one eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Brackettsville in Kinney county and Rock Springs in Edwards county, Texas. The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest. All traffic was detoured around that spot until mama quail hatched nineteen of her twenty-one eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest.

Tough, Eh?

The lady of the house heard a knock at her door. Looking through the screen she saw a Chinese fish peddler. Not wishing to be disturbed, she called to her maid: "You go, Ella."

The Chinaman blinked his lithe eyes, thrust out his neck and sung out belligerently: "You go 'ella yourself!"

Fish Have Lubrication Too

While we don't know whether fish "change oil" every thousand miles, we do know that, in order to enable a fish to glide easily along in the water, its body is covered with a slimy mucus which is being constantly poured out in large quantities by special glands situated in the epidermis. This mucus makes the body of the fish slippery and also minimizes friction with the surrounding water.

Sorter Stretching It

We've firmly resolved to quit being surprised over anything new in the fishing line anymore. The latest thing that has caused us to lift our eyebrows is a complete line of rubber lures put out by Pachner and Koller, Inc., 2307 West 69th Street, Chicago, Illinois. They tell us that those lures are far more natural looking than the wooden variety and are real fish getters. Now sportsmen needn't stop at stretching the catch—they can stretch the lures too!

Jeff Davis Of Houston Wins State Track And Field Meet

Kingsville's Adame Takes Both Dashes

Paces Coast Team To Second Place

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN —(AP)— Iron-muscled Steve Lobue, mighty man of the Jeff Davis (Houston) Panthers, won the Texas schoolboy track and field championship here Saturday —with a little help from three other fellows in the closing event of a thrill-filled meet.

Lobue, 160-pound football star, scored 10 3-4 points as Jeff Davis staged a startling upset to bag the title over a highly-favored Sunset (Dallas) team that finished in a tie for fifth place.

Adame Paces Brahmas

Another one-man team, Henry Adame of Kingsville, had his school in the running until the last event —the mile relay. Adame had won both dashes and might have won again if he could have had three others to run with him.

Lobue was more fortunate. Anchor on the Davis baton crew, he was leading until the stretch when out of the turn shot driving Larry Wolf of Highland Park (Dallas). Running a 48.4 seconds quarter, Wolf passed Lobue and led him to the tape by four yards. But second place in the relay was good for three points to give Davis a total of 13 and the title.

Adame's Kingsville finished second with 10 points and Highland Park was third with nine.

Highland Park—had Wolf lived up to expectations in the quarter-mile—would have won the meet because Bill Hannum, the pole vaulter, tied for first.

Highland Park Fizzles

A victory in the quarter would have given Highland Park 14 points and the championship.

But Wolf, fading badly at the finish, was jammed between two runners as they raced neck-and-neck in second place, and Carlos Salinas of Laredo fouled the Highland Park star, jostling against Wolf and knocking him flat on the track but seven yards from the finish. However, even if Wolf had not been fouled he would have finished no higher than third. Salinas finished second but was ruled out because of the foul.

Conroe, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), Adamson (Dallas) and Carrizo Springs tied for fourth, each with seven points, while Goose Creek and Woodsboro tied Sunset for fifth; each making six points.

Shot Record Broken

One state record was bettered and one national mark equalled. H. B. Pendleton, Jr., of Woodsboro hurled the shot 54 feet 3-8 inch to better the record of 53 feet 1-2 inches, set in 1936, by Monte Earwood of Rock Springs.

Sunset failed to come through but did produce the outstanding mark of the day when Bill Hamman, blond hurdler, ran the 200-yard low hurdles in 22.1 to equal the national scholastic record set by Pollum of Topeka, Kans., in 1938.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Longview and Brackenridge (San Antonio), tied for sixth place with 5 points each. Other schools scored as follows:

Seminole 4, Reagan (Houston) 4, Smiley, 4, Laredo 3 1-2, Port Arthur 3 1-2, Port Neches 3, Iraan 3, Freer 3, Wharton 3, McKinney 3, Amarillo 2, White Oak 2, Baird 2, Dodie 2, Uvalde 2, Palestine 2, Farwell 2, Robert Lee 2, Austin 1, El Campo 1, Gaston 1, Livingston 1, Tomball 1, Weatherford 1, Pittsburg 1, Brady 1-2, Marfa 1-2.

Lobue Back In 1942

Lobue, in track for his third season, still has another year to compete but it's the last for Adame.

Upsets were numerous. For instance Doncal Hill of Sunset who led the qualifiers in the 200-yard low hurdles Friday, was shut out in the finals Saturday. Marvin Harry, White Oak's 880-yard star who came to the meet heavily favored to win, finished third with Guy Dewald of Conroe galloping in first in 1:59.3.

Jim Hoff, who had been figured to score Sunset points in the half-mile, was shut out, finishing fifth.

Ralph Nelson of Adamson (Dallas) staged a surprise by winning the discus throw with 149 feet 10 1-4 inches after having been second to Pendleton all season. Pendleton was fourth Saturday.

Aubrey Vaughn, Laredo's highly-rated broad jumper, finished second to Lobue whose 22 feet 8 1-4 inches was three inches back of Vaughn's best jump for the season.

Mile Record Intact

The boy who was expected to break a record failed. Little Jerry Thompson, Woodrow Wilson's picture runner who had previously bettered the state mile mark, was first here Saturday but his time was 4:35.8, more than four seconds over the record.

Archie Jones of Longview beat the touted Raymond Jones of Austin and Alfonso Valls of Laredo in the 120-yard high hurdles in another upset. But the Longview runners' time was 14.1, considered excellent compared to national marks. This is a new event in Texas so there is no comparison with past state marks.

Bill Roark of Seminole and J. B. Patteson of Smiley tied for first place in the high jump at 6 feet, 3 inches, only one-fourth of an inch below the state record.

The Highland Park relay team came within seven-tenths a second of the record with a time of 3:25.9.

Adame ran the 100-yard dash in 9.9 and the 220 in 21.2, the former three-tenths of a second over the record and the latter four-tenths slower than the state standard.

Times in the 12th-yard high hurdles, 200-yard low hurdles and 440-yard relay automatically became state records as these events are new, the high hurdles because they are 3 inches lower than in the past.

Lobue was highpoint man by winning first place in the broad jump, second in the high hurdles, third in the high jump, and ran on the second place relay team.

Among those placing in the finals were:

Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 100-yard dash; Perkins of Port Arthur, fourth in 440-yard dash; Vaughn of Laredo, fourth in 220-yard low hurdles; Vaughn of Laredo and Andrus of Port Arthur tied for second at 22 feet 4 inches in broad jump; Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 220-yard dash.

Bobo's The Most Widely Traveled Of Baseball's Travelin'est Trio

AP Feature Service

NEW YORK—Eventually, if you listen long enough as Buck Newsom rattles off his accomplishments and records, you will learn that he is the most-traveled player in the major leagues.

Technically, he is tied with a couple of Polish boys for that record but Buck can shrug that off now for one of these co-holders is virtually an inactive performer and the other is hardly a star as is Newsom. So this practically gives him the No. 1 spot.

Each of the trio has played in both major leagues. Aloysius Szymanski, whose box score moniker is Al Simmons, was first to enter the majors, back in 1924 with the Philadelphia A's. Then came the other youngster of Polish extraction, Pete Appleton, born Peter Jablonowski. He was with Cincinnati in 1927.

Newsom, born Louis Norman, followed, breaking in briefly with Brooklyn in 1929. Comparatively few major leaguers remain with the same club during their entire careers but none has traveled about from team to team as have Al, Pete and Buck.

After a nine-year stretch with the A's, Simmons was sold to Chicago (with Jimmy Dykes and Mule Haas) for $150,000. Then Detroit bought him for $75,000 and a year later Washington paid $15,000 for his services. The Senators sold him to the Boston Bees and Cincinnati took him late last year when Boston released him. The Reds cut him loose after the season and the A's took him on again.

Appleton's itinerary reads like this: Cincinnati - Cleveland - Boston Red Sox-Washington-Chicago White Sox. And the great Bo-Bo who admits the Dodgers of old were daffy because they let him go, began with Brooklyn. After a stretch in the minors, the Chicago Cubs looked him over. Briefly, Buck says. And 'twas the minors again.

Newsom won 30 games in the Coast League in 1933 and the Browns acquired him. Washington paid $40,000 for Buck in 1935 and swapped him two years later to the Red Sox (with Ben Chapman) for Rick and Wes Ferrell and Melo Almada.

Boston exchanged him to the Browns (with Ralph Kress and Colonel Mills) for Joe Vosmik. And the Tigers obtained him two years ago in a swap with St. Louis that involved 10 players.

Strange that Washington, at one time or other, had each of the three.

While these players have spent their time rambling around, others like Ted Lyons, Mel Ott and Charles Gehringer have spent their complete playing years with one club. Lyons has been with the White Sox 18 years while Gehringer of Detroit and Ott of the New York Giants have been around 16 seasons.

Dick Bartell, Rollie Hemsley, Bump Hadley and Danny MacFayden have played with five different league clubs. Bruce Campbell, Ben Chapman, Virgil Davis, Leo Durocher, Gus Mancuso, Eric McNair, Julius Solters, Al Todd, Joe Vosmik, Fred Walker, Bill Werber, Gee Walker, Curt Davis, Whitlow Wyatt and Vito Tamulis have worn the uniforms of four clubs.

CARDS 6; PHILS 0

PHILADELPHNA—(AP)—A single in the sixth inning ruined Rookie Henry Gornicki's chances of pitching the major league season's first no-hit game Saturday as the tall right-hander hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6 to 0 one-hit victory over the Phillies.

It was the eighth consecutive triumph for the National League leaders and the second sparkling mound performance turned in by Cardinal rookies in the two-game series. Friday, Howard Krist set the Phils down 4 to 2 on five hits.

DODGERS 4; CUBS 3

BROOKLYN—(AP)—A double by Pete Reiser and Ducky Medwick's single to left in the eighth inning gave the Dodgers their winning margin for a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

Kirby Higbe was credited with the triumph which he helped along with a two-run single in the fifth. But the former Philly pitcher wasn't around at the finish. Southpaw Kemp Wicker worked the ninth and, although a pinch-hit double by Lou Novikoff and a walk put two men on, got out of the jam without allowing a run.

Texas Sport Chatter

By TONY SLAUGHTER

And it wasn't on April Fool's Day. It happened last Thursday morning in the Tyler Telegraph.

And Sports Editor Cauley Munson had to get married to make the page one spread.

It seems Munson scooped his fellow workers with his wedding story. He was married a week ago in broad open daylight with no efforts to conceal it. All of the preparations, including the purchase of the ring and license took place right under the nose of Telegraph reporters. Open congratulations reached him at his office. Still he scooped the boys laboring around him.

My, my, what some folks do to make page one.

It looks like that trip to Hawaii erstwhile Coach Mose Simms at St. Mary's promised football players in 1941 is all off.

Simms has departed. He's looking around for a ranch in Coke county while San Antonio interests are having difficulties raising $25,000 to keep the grid program going.

Simms' silvery tongue could arrange for enough boats to transport four squads of D. X. Bible's University of Texas gridiron squad to Ankara and back.

INDIANS 4; RED SOX 2

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The amazing Cleveland Indians ran their winning streak to nine games Saturday by the simple expedient of jumping on Mike Ryba for four runs in the first inning. The resultant 4 to 2 triumph over the Boston Red Sox was Southpaw Al Milnar's third in four decisions.

Mr. Ryba, so versatile that he's frequently called a "one-man team," and all eight of his mates, couldn't prevent the quartet of extra-base blows which gave the league leaders the two-game series.

Roy Weatherly opened the Indians' first with a double and scored on Ken Keltner's triple. Lou Boudreau walked and Keltner tallied on Hal Trosky's fly. With the count three and two, Jeff Heath then lined his fourth home run of the season over the exit gate in League Park's right-center field. Ray Mack's triple later in the inning was wasted.

Ryba settled down and pitched four hitless innings and his two successors permitted no runs but the damage was done.

The Yanks had looked like winners three innings before, when Rolfe and DiMaggio got on base and Flash Gordon promptly brought them in with his fifth circuit blow of the season. But in their half the Sox got those three back.

TIGERS 4; ATHLETICS 3

DETROIT—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers' star rescue man, big Al Benton, did his job again Saturday to safeguard a victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3, and give the home club a sweep of the two-game series.

Taking over with young Hal Newhouser in a jam in the eighth, Benton befuddled the A's with his sinker ball to hold the Philadelphia rally to two runs. It was Detroit's fourth victory in five games.

Jeff Davis Of Houston Wins State Track And Field Meet

Kingsville's Adame Takes Both Dashes

Paces Coast Team To Second Place

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN —(AP)— Iron-muscled Steve Lobue, mighty man of the Jeff Davis (Houston) Panthers, won the Texas schoolboy track and field championship here Saturday —with a little help from three other fellows in the closing event of a thrill-filled meet.

Lobue, 160-pound football star, scored 10 3-4 points as Jeff Davis staged a startling upset to bag the title over a highly-favored Sunset (Dallas) team that finished in a tie for fifth place.

Adame Paces Brahmas

Another one-man team, Henry Adame of Kingsville, had his school in the running until the last event —the mile relay. Adame had won both dashes and might have won again if he could have had three others to run with him.

Lobue was more fortunate. Anchor on the Davis baton crew, he was leading until the stretch when out of the turn shot driving Larry Wolf of Highland Park (Dallas). Running a 48.4 seconds quarter, Wolf passed Lobue and led him to the tape by four yards. But second place in the relay was good for three points to give Davis a total of 13 and the title.

Adame's Kingsville finished second with 10 points and Highland Park was third with nine.

Highland Park—had Wolf lived up to expectations in the quarter-mile—would have won the meet because Bill Hannum, the pole vaulter, tied for first.

Highland Park Fizzles

A victory in the quarter would have given Highland Park 14 points and the championship.

But Wolf, fading badly at the finish, was jammed between two runners as they raced neck-and-neck in second place, and Carlos Salinas of Laredo fouled the Highland Park star, jostling against Wolf and knocking him flat on the track but seven yards from the finish. However, even if Wolf had not been fouled he would have finished no higher than third. Salinas finished second but was ruled out because of the foul.

Conroe, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), Adamson (Dallas) and Carrizo Springs tied for fourth, each with seven points, while Goose Creek and Woodsboro tied Sunset for fifth; each making six points.

Shot Record Broken

One state record was bettered and one national mark equalled. H. B. Pendleton, Jr., of Woodsboro hurled the shot 54 feet 3-8 inch to better the record of 53 feet 1-2 inches, set in 1936, by Monte Earwood of Rock Springs.

Sunset falied to come through but did produce the outstanding mark of the day when Bill Hamman, blond hurdler, ran the 200-yard low hurdles in 22.1 to equal the national scholastic record set by Pollum of Topeka, Kans., in 1938.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Longview and Brackenridge (San Antonio), tied for sixth place with 5 points each. Other schools scored as follows:

Seminole 4, Reagan (Houston) 4, Smiley, 4, Laredo 3 1-2, Port Arthur 3 1-2, Port Neches 3, Iraan 3, Freer 3, Wharton 3, McKinney 3, Amarillo 2, White Oak 2, Baird 2, Doole 2, Uvalde 2, Palestine 2, Farwell 2, Robert Lee 2, Austin 1, El Campo 1, Gaston 1, Livingston 1, Tomball 1, Weatherford 1, Pittsburg 1, Brady 1-2, Marfa 1-2.

Lobue Back In 1942

Lobue, in track for his third season, still has another year to compete but it's the last for Adame.

Upsets were numerous. For instance Doneal Hill of Sunset who led the qualifiers in the 200-yard low hurdles Friday, was shut out in the finals Saturday. Marvin Harry, White Oak's 880-yard star who came to the meet heavily favored to win, finished third with Guy Dewald of Conroe galloping in first in 1:59.3.

Jim Hoff, who had been figured to score Sunset points in the half-mile, was shut out, finishing fifth.

Ralph Nelson of Adamson (Dallas) staged a surprise by winning the discus throw with 149 feet 10 1-4 inches after having been second to Pendleton all season. Pendleton was fourth Saturday.

Aubrey Vaughn, Laredo's highly-rated broad jumper, finished second to Lobue whose 22 feet 8 1-4 inches was three inches back of Vaughn's best jump for the season.

Mile Record Intact

The boy who was expected to break a record failed. Little Jerry Thompson, Woodrow Wilson's picture runner who had previously bettered the state mile mark, was first here Saturday but his time was 4:35.3, more than four seconds over the record.

Archie Jones of Longview beat the touted Raymond Jones of Austin and Alfonso Valls of Laredo in the 120-yard high hurdles in another upset. But the Longview runners' time was 14.1, considered excellent compared to national marks. This is a new event in Texas so there is no comparison with past state marks.

Bill Roark of Seminole and J. B. Patteson of Smiley tied for first place in the high jump at 6 feet, 3 inches, only one-fourth of an inch below the state record.

The Highland Park relay team came within seven-tenths a second of the record with a time of 3:25.9.

Adame ran the 100-yard dash in 9.9 and the 220 in 21.2, the former three-tenths of a second over the record and the latter four-tenths slower than the state standard.

Times in the 12th-yard high hurdles, 200-yard low hurdles and 440-yard relay automatically became state records as these events are new, the high hurdles because they are 3 inches lower than in the past.

Lobue was highpoint man by winning first place in the broad jump, second in the high hurdles, third in the high jump, and ran on the second place relay team.

Among those placing in the finals were:

Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 100-yard dash; Perkins of Port Arthur, fourth in 440-yard dash; Vaughn of Laredo, fourth in 220-yard low hurdles; Vaughn of Laredo and Andrus of Port Arthur tied for second at 22 feet 4 inches in broad jump; Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 220-yard dash.

Bobo's The Most Widely Traveled Of Baseball's Travelin'est Trio

AP Feature Service

NEW YORK—Eventually, if you listen long enough as Buck Newsom rattles off his accomplishments and records, you will learn that he is the most-traveled player in the major leagues.

Technically, he is tied with a couple of Polish boys for that record but Buck can shrug that off now for one of these co-holders is virtually an inactive performer and the other is hardly a star as is Newsom. So this practically gives him the No. 1 spot.

Each of the trio has played in both major leagues. Aloysius Szymanski, whose box score moniker is Al Simmons, was first to enter the majors, back in 1924 with the Philadelphia A's. Then came the other youngster of Polish extraction, Pete Appleton, born Peter Jablonowski. He was with Cincinnati in 1927.

Newsom, born Louis Norman, followed, breaking in briefly with Brooklyn in 1929. Comparatively few major leaguers remain with the same club during their entire careers but none has traveled about from team to team as have Al, Pete and Buck.

After a nine-year stretch with the A's, Simmons was sold to Chicago (with Jimmy Dykes and Mule Haas) for $150,000. Then Detroit bought him for $75,000 and a year later Washington paid $15,000 for his services. The Senators sold him to the Boston Bees and Cincinnati took him late last year when Boston released him. The Reds cut him loose after the season and the A's took him on again.

Appleton's itinerary reads like this: Cincinnati - Cleveland - Boston Red Sox-Washington-Chicago White Sox. And the great Bo-Bo who admits the Dodgers of old were daffy because they let him go, began with Brooklyn. After a stretch in the minors, the Chicago Cubs looked him over. Briefly, Buck says. And 'twas the minors again.

Newsom won 30 games in the Coast League in 1933 and the Browns acquired him. Washington paid $40,000 for Buck in 1935 and swapped him two years later to the Red Sox (with Ben Chapman) for Rick and Wes Ferrell and Melo Almada.

Boston exchanged him to the Browns (with Ralph Kress and Colonel Mills) for Joe Vosmik. And the Tigers obtained him two years ago in a swap with St. Louis that involved 10 players.

Strange that Washington, at one time or other, had each of the three.

While these players have spent their time rambling around, others like Ted Lyons, Mel Ott and Charles Gehringer have spent their complete playing years with one club. Lyons has been with the White Sox 18 years while Gehringer of Detroit and Ott of the New York Giants have been around 16 seasons.

Dick Bartell, Rollie Hemsley, Bump Hadley and Danny MacFayden have played with five different league clubs. Bruce Campbell, Ben Chapman, Virgil Davis, Leo Durocher, Gus Mancuso, Eric McNair, Julius Solters, Al Todd, Joe Vosmik, Fred Walker, Bill Werber, Gee Walker, Curt Davis, Whitlow Wyatt and Vito Tamulis have worn the uniforms of four clubs.

PHILADELPHNA—(AP)—A single in the six'h inning ruined Rookie Henry Gornicki's chances of pitching the major league season's first no-hit game Saturday as the tall right-hander hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6 to 0 one-hit victory over the Phillies.

It was the eighth consecutive triumph for the National League leaders and the second sparkling mound performance turned in by Cardinal rookies in the two-game series. Friday, Howard Krist set the Phils down 4 to 2 on five hits.

DODGERS 4; CUBS 3

BROOKLYN—(AP)—A double by Pete Reiser and Ducky Medwick's single to left in the eighth inning gave the Dodgers their winning margin for a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

Kirby Higbe was credited with the triumph which he helped along with a two-run single in the fifth. But the former Philly pitcher wasn't around at the finish. Southpaw Kemp Wicker worked the ninth and, although a pinch-hit double by Lou Novikoff and a walk put two men on, got out of the jam without allowing a run.

Texas Sport Chatter

By TONY SLAUGHTER

And it wasn't on April Fool's Day. It happened last Thursday morning in the Tyler Telegraph.

And Sports Editor Cauley Munson had to get married to make the page one spread.

It seems Munson scooped his fellow workers with his wedding story. He was married a week ago in broad open daylight with no efforts to conceal it. All of the preparations, including the purchase of the ring and license took place right under the nose of Telegraph reporters. Open congratulations reached him at his office. Still he scooped the boys laboring around him.

My, my, what some folks do to make page one.

It looks like that trip to Hawaii erstwhile Coach Mose Simms at St. Mary's promised football players in 1941 is all off.

Simms has departed. He's looking around for a ranch in Coke county while San Antonio interests are having difficulties raising $25,000 to keep the grid program going.

Simms' silvery tongue could arrange for enough boats to transport four squads of D. X. Bible's University of Texas gridiron squad to Ankara and back.

INDIANS 4; RED SOX 2

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The amazing Cleveland Indians ran their winning streak to nine games Saturday by the simple expedient of jumping on Mike Ryba for four runs in the first inning. The resultant 4 to 2 triumph over the Boston Red Sox was Southpaw Al Milnar's third in four decisions.

Mr. Ryba, so versatile that he's frequently called a "one-man team," and all eight of his mates, couldn't prevent the quartet of extra-base blows which gave the league leaders the two-game series.

Roy Weatherly opened the Indians' first with a double and scored on Ken Keltner's triple. Lou Boudreau walked and Keltner tallied on Hal Trosky's fly. With the count three and two, Jeff Heath then lined his fourth home run of the season over the exit gate in League Park's right-center field. Ray Mack's triple later in the inning was wasted.

Ryba settled down and pitched four hitless innings and his two successors permitted no runs but the damage was done.

YANKS 6; WHITE SOX 5

CHICAGO—(AP)—The New York Yankees had to hit two extra-inning home runs to down the White Sox, 6 to 5, Saturday, Buddy Rosar's four-bagger to lead off the 13th finally settling the issue.

The Yanks had looked like winners three innings before, when Rolfe and DiMaggio got on base and Flash Gordon promptly brought them in with his fifth circuit blow of the season. But in their half the Sox got those three back.

DETROIT—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers' star rescue man, big Al Benton, did his job again Saturday to safeguard a victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3, and give the home club a sweep of the two-game series.

Taking over with young Hal Newhouser in a jam in the eighth, Benton befuddled the A's with his sinker ball to hold the Philadelphia rally to two runs. It was Detroit's fourth victory in five games.

Favors 'Delivering Goods To British'

By WILLIAM B. ARDERY

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Wendell L. Willkie, saying that the administration's existing sea patrol "is not adequate," declared Saturday that "we have got to get the goods delivered to Great Britain."

"The rate of sinkings is so serious that we should protect our cargoes of arms and food to England," the 1940 Republican presidential nominee asserted in an interview.

It was reported authoritatively that Willkie had sent word to President Roosevelt that he would support him in any move the chief executive might make to assure the delivery of American goods to Britain. Willkie himself told reporters:

Patrol Not Adequate

"If my information is correct, the present patrol method is not adequate to prevent our products from going to the bottom of the ocean."

Replying to reporters' questions, Willkie asserted that if he were president he would have military, naval and air experts advise him regarding the best method of protecting shipments to Britain and then would proceed on their advice.

"I am absolutely in favor of delivering the goods," he said, "whether it be by convoy, airplane accompaniment or any other method deemed best."

At the capitol, meantime, there were indications that Congress would hear increasing demands from some of its members for American convoys.

Sen. Guffey First

Senator Guffey (D-Pa) voiced the first such plea on Thursday, and it was disclosed Saturday that Senator Pepper (D-Fla) would express similar views in a Senate speech on Monday. Several other legislators were said to be withholding public statements of that nature because of uncertainty as to whether they might prove embarrassing to President Roosevelt.

Senator Tobey (R-NH), author of an anti-convoy resolution, contended Guffey's statement and Pepper's projected speech were part of an administration program to pave the way for convoys.

Willkie, questioned about public reaction to his recent article in Collier's magazine, advocating further help for Britain, asserted:

"I find that the people are confused and are searching earnestly, hoping that the administration will give them information and leadership."

Referring to the recent resignation of Charles A. Lindbergh from the air corps and President Roosevelt's decision not to renew the army reserve commission of General Hugh S. Johnson, Willkie said:

Says Lindy Wrong

"I don't think it contributes to leading the people to get into personal controversies with those of a different viewpoint. I wholly disagree with Col. Lindbergh, but in the words of Voltaire, 'I do not agree with a word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it.'

"The best way to dissipate any influence that Lindbergh might have is not to attack him personally, but to show the fallacy of his position.

"Likewise, no one has criticized me more of late than has General Hugh Johnson, but I think it exceedingly unfortunate that the failure to reappoint him came at a time when he was critical of the administration's foreign policy and those of us who disagree with his viewpoint."

Hitler Wants Discord

Willkie asserted that "nothing would delight Hitler more" than to see the American people "fall into the use of violent language about each other." He added:

"I am so firmly convinced that our foreign policy, enunciated by the administration and approved by an overwhelming majority of Congress in the enactment of the Lease-Lend Bill, is so right that we can finally convince all Americans of its wisdom. Certainly we can if we keep the channels of public discussion free and unclogged with the bitterness of personal recrimination.

Liquor Board Plans To Collect New Tax

AUSTIN—(AP)—The liquor board Saturday geared machinery to collection of added liquor taxes imposed in the recently enacted omnibus tax bill.

Administrator Bert Ford said the increased liquor impost was not collectable until 30 days after May 1 and full instructions for dealers and drug store permittees were being forwarded immediately.

Confessed Dynamite Slaying Held Hoax

LUISA, Ky.—(AP)—District Attorney M. J. Eagen of Scranton, Pa., said Saturday that Dwight O. Thorne admitted to him that he concocted a "confession" of being responsible for the dynamite slaying of William and Lois Rebhorn in Scranton last November.

Asked why he did it, Thorne replied:

"Even if I have to spend the rest of my life in the penitentiary, I can't tell you why I did it."

CAMP ROBINSON, Ark.—(AP)—A tongue-tied whippoorwill has the officers of the 137th (Kansas) Infantry tearing their hair.

The night bird haunts the officers' quarters. It starts out on the "whip-poor—" call in great shape but can't get out the "will."

"The damned thing is driving us mad," said Capt. Guy E. Vining of Horton, Kas., adjutant of the regiment. "It's like hearing an orchestra play everything in a song but the last note."

Convict Sentenced In Prison Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Henri Young, convict-killer from Alcatraz, was labeled a cold-blooded murderer Saturday by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche who sentenced him for the knife-slaying of a fellow-convict.

A jury this week returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, although the government had asked death for 29-year-old Young, who knifed Rufus McCain to death in the prison last year. The jury thought "terrible conditions" at the prison for incorrigibles had temporarily deranged Young.

FD Okays Extending Insurance On Crops

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Roosevelt has approved the principle of extending federal crop insurance to commodities other than wheat, Chairman Fulmer (S-SC) of the House agricultural committee disclosed Saturday.

Fulmer made public a letter the President wrote Secretary Wickard saying that in view of "proven benefits" of crop insurance "consideration might now be given to the extension of federal insurance to other crops" as "reliable acturial bases are developed."

MOTHER'S DAY LUNCHEON SET

San Benito Kiwanis Expect 60 Guests

SAN BENITO—San Benito Kiwanians have made their "dates" and an excellent program has been completed for the annual Mother's Day luncheon at noon Wednesday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel.

This Kiwanis party, begun by the local organization, has received national recognition and originated with Mrs. C. L. Milner, wife of the current president of the club.

About 60 mothers will attend the party for which the program has been planned by Grady St. Clair, vice president assisted by a committee of J. P. Ellis, Lee Roy Crawford and Elmer Morris.

Minister Speaker

Rev. R. O. Cawker, past president of the Corpus Christi club and pastor of that city's First Baptist church, will be the principal speaker. Other distinguished visitors will include Bob Sorrell, lieut. governor of division four of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district, also of Corpus Christi, who will induct five new members into the club.

Lee Roy Crawford will be master of ceremonies and welcoming address will be given by President C. L. Milner. Mayor Louis S. Witte, first president of the local club, will present awards to five mothers, as is the annual custom—to the one with the most children, the most grandchildren, the most great grandchildren, the oldest mother and the mother who was born furtherest distance away from San Benito.

Music Program

The program will open with group singing, S. V. Neely, past president, and Rev. C. S. McKinney will offer the invocation. Luncheon music will be presented by Miss Ruth Atkinson, pianist and Kiwanian Louis Valle, violinist, and novelty numbers will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden and Tol Boswell Sr.

The decorating committee is composed of Mrs. John Prentiss, chairman; Mrs. Lee Roy Crawford, Mrs. J. K. Frater, Mrs. Jesse Welch and Mrs. W. D. Collins.

Rev. C. S. McKinney, Rev. L. J. Rode and Clay Hall are on the "cupid" committee to make dates for all club members.

CAR LICENSE SALES CLIMB

$160,194 In Income For First Quarter

EDINBURG — Income from the sale of auto license plates in Hidalgo county in February, March and April reached a total of $160,194.56, County Treasurer K. W. Bonham announced Saturday.

The figure, one of the largest in recent years for this department of county and state revenue, includes virtually final reports on sales of truck licenses. The auto department of the tax collector's office turned in $5,364.32 in funds from such licenses for the week of April 26-May 3, Bonham announced.

The county and state share in the funds, the county receiving a majority of the early payments and the state receiving all above a total of $175,000 in county money.

Former Valley Girl Lecturer On Music

MISSION—Miss Martha McCurdy, graduate music student at Texas State College for Women, formerly of Mission and Pharr, presented a lecture recital of Texas folk songs at the college last week. Lecturing between numbers, Miss McCurdy was assisted by 21 senior music major students. She discussed the songs, using material from her master's thesis, "Choral Arrangements of Texas Folk Songs for Boys' Changing Voices."

Miss McCurdy was director of vocal music for three years at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School until she resigned to re-enter T.S.C.W. to secure her master's degree. She received her B.S. degree from that college in 1936. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCurdy of Kingsville, formerly of Mission.

Manila Constabulary Move To Stamp Out Uprising Of Moros

MANILA—(AP)—Constabulary reinforcements moved Saturday to stamp out an incipient uprising of Moro tribesmen bent on avenging the death of 21 kinsmen killed Thursday in a fanatical attack on the Taglibi military outpost in Sulu province.

Reports from the isolated region said the situation was growing more serious, and observers expressed the opinion that numerous recent disturbances in Sulu and Mindanao provinces were the result of outside agitation aimed at inflaming the Mohammedan Moros against Christians.

LUISA, Ky.—(AP)—District Attorney M. J. Eagen of Scranton, Pa., said Saturday that Dwight O. Thorne admitted to him that he concocted a "confession" of being responsible for the dynamite slaying of William and Lois Rebhorn in Scranton last November.

Asked why he did it, Thorne replied:

"Even if I have to spend the rest of my life in the penitentiary, I can't tell you why I did it."

Tongue-Tied Singer Slowly Driving Mad U. S. Army Post

CAMP ROBINSON, Ark.—(AP)—A tongue-tied whipporwill has the officers of the 137th (Kansas) Infantry tearing their hair.

The night bird haunts the officers' quarters. It starts out on the "whip-poor—" call in great shape but can't get out the "will."

"The damned thing is driving us mad," said Capt. Guy E. Vining of Horton, Kas., adjutant of the regiment. "It's like hearing an orchestra play everything in a song but the last note."

Convict Sentenced In Prison Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Henri Young, convict-killer from Alcatraz, was labeled a cold-blooded murderer Saturday by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche who sentenced him for the knife-slaying of a fellow-convict.

A jury this week returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, although the government had asked death for 29-year-old Young, who knifed Rufus McCain to death in the prison last year. The jury thought "terrible conditions" at the prison for incorrigibles had temporarily deranged Young.

FD Okays Extending Insurance On Crops

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Roosevelt has approed the principle of extending federal crop insurance to commodities other than wheat, Chairman Fulmer (S-SC) of the House agricultural committee disclosed Saturday.

Fulmer made public a letter the President wrote Secretary Wickard saying that in view of "proven benefits" of crop insurance "consideration might now be given to the extension of federal insurance to other crops" as "reliable acturial bases are developed."

Missouri Students Win Their Strike

FORNFELT, Mo.—(AP)—The 130 Fornfelt high school students returned to class rooms—winners of a strike for reinstatement of Principal L. L. Schuette.

The pupils called their own recess and paraded around town for two days until the board of education called a special session Friday and offered a new contract to the popular teacher.

CAR LICENSE SALES CLIMB

$160,194 In Income For First Quarter

EDINBURG — Income from the sale of auto license plates in Hidalgo county in February, March and April reached a total of $160,194.56, County Treasurer K. W. Bonham announced Saturday.

The figure, one of the largest in recent years for this department of county and state revenue, includes virtually final reports on sales of truck licenses. The auto department of the tax collector's office turned in $5,364.32 in funds from such licenses for the week of April 26-May 3, Bonham announced.

The county and state share in the funds, the county receiving a majority of the early payments and the state receiving all above a total of $175,000 in county money.

Former Valley Girl Lecturer On Music

MISSION—Miss Martha McCurdy, graduate music student at Texas State College for Women, formerly of Mission and Pharr, presented a lecture recital of Texas folk songs at the college last week. Lecturing between numbers, Miss McCurdy was assisted by 21 senior music major students. She discussed the songs, using material from her master's thesis, "Choral Arrangements of Texas Folk Songs for Boys' Changing Voices."

Miss McCurdy was director of vocal music for three years at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School until she resigned to re-enter T.S.C.W. to secure her master's degree. She received her B.S. degree from that college in 1936. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCurdy of Kingsville, formerly of Mission.

Benson Ford Awaits Draft Service Call

MT. CLEMENS, Mich.—(AP)—Benson Ford, 21-year-old scion of the automobile family, Saturday awaited a call to a year's military training.

The Macomb county draft board No. 2 placed the grandson of Henry Ford in Class 1-A—available for immediate service—by a two to one vote.

"ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS"

MOTHER'S DAY LUNCHEON SET

San Benito Kiwanis Expect 60 Guests

SAN BENITO—San Benito Kiwanians have made their "dates" and an excellent program has been completed for the annual Mother's Day luncheon at noon Wednesday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel.

This Kiwanis party, begun by the local organization, has received national recognition and originated with Mrs. C. L. Milner, wife of the current president of the club.

About 60 mothers will attend the party for which the program has been planned by Grady St. Clair, vice president assisted by a committee of J. P. Ellis, Lee Roy Crawford and Elmer Morris.

Minister Speaker

Rev. R. O. Cawker, past president of the Corpus Christi club and pastor of that city's First Baptist church, will be the principal speaker. Other distinguished visitors will include Bob Sorrell, lieut. governor of division four of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district, also of Corpus Christi, who will induct five new members into the club.

Lee Roy Crawford will be master of ceremonies and welcoming address will be given by President C. L. Milner. Mayor Louis S. Witte, first president of the local club, will present awards to five mothers, as is the annual custom—to the one with the most children, the most grandchildren, the most great grandchildren, the oldest mother and the mother who was born furtherest distance away from San Benito.

Music Program

The program will open with group singing. S. V. Neely, past president, and Rev. C. S. McKinney will offer the invocation. Luncheon music will be presented by Miss Ruth Atkinson, pianist and Kiwanian Louis Valle, violinist, and novelty numbers will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden and Tol Boswell Sr.

The decorating committee is composed of Mrs. John Prentiss, chairman; Mrs. Lee Roy Crawford, Mrs. J. K. Frater, Mrs. Jesse Welch and Mrs. W. D. Collins.

Rev. C. S. McKinney, Rev. L. J. Rode and Clay Hall are on the "cupid" committee to make dates for all club members.

Chrysler Turns Out First Tank To Army

DETROIT —(AP)— Fully equipped and ready for combat, the first M-3 medium 28-ton tank was placed aboard a freight car at the Chrysler tank arsenal Saturday and shipped to the United States Army.

Completed in less than four months time, and described by army experts as the best weapon of its type available, the mobile fortress is one of hundreds of Chrysler Corporation has contracted to build.

Manila Constabulary Move To Stamp Out Uprising Of Moros

MANILA— (AP) —Constabulary reinforcements moved Saturday to stamp out an incipient uprising of Moro tribesmen bent on avenging the death of 21 kinsmen killed Thursday in a fanatical attack on the Taglibi military outpost in Sulu province.

Reports from the isolated region said the situation was growing more serious, and observers expressed the opinion that numerous recent disturbances in Sulu and Mindanao provinces were the result of outside agitation aimed at inflaming the Mohammedan Moros against Christians.

'Free French' Deny Preparing For Push

LONDON—(AP)—Headquarters of the "Free French" denied "in the most categorical way" Saturday that any De Gaullist forces had been sent to Zeila, in British Somaliland near the French Somaliland border, or that "Free French" and British forces had gathered at Daouanleh, just inside the French frontier for an attack.

The French government at Vichy recently reported that De Gaullist forces were at these two places and were attempting to induce the French garrison to join the "Free French."

At an informal tea Thursday at McAllen, Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Jones announced the engagement and coming June marriage of their attractive younger daughter, Phyllis (pictured at the upper right), to Don Harland Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Eubank of McAllen. The wedding of the young couple will be read at 7:30 p. m. June 2 at the First Presbyterian Church. (Monitor Photo.)

The engagement and June marriage of Miss Anne Marie Smith (shown left), instructor in the McAllen schools, and Hunter Halliday Ewing of Mission is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Smith, Sr., of Houston. Mr. Ewing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ewing.

Miss Phyllis Jones To Wed Don Eubank In McAllen Rites

McALLEN—Close friends of Miss Phyllis Jones were her guests Thursday night when her mother, Mrs. E. Paul Jones, announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Don Harland Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Eubank, all of McAllen.

Wedding rites for the popular young McAllen couple will be solemnized in an evening ceremony June 2 at the First Presbyterian church.

Announcement of the coming rites uniting the two young McAllen residents was disclosed when little Bettye Jo Buescher gave each guest a dainty parchment scroll held in a miniature wedding ring, carrying the announcement, "Phyllis and Don, June 2."

A beautiful doll bride, a childhood keepsake of the young bride-elect's, centered the satin and tulle topped buffet when refreshments were served. Complete even to her miniature bouquet the doll has been a treasured souvenir of the new bride-to-be.

The candlelit refreshment table carrying out a pink and white theme, was centered with a low bouquet of pink roses and Queen Anne's lace. Atop the small cakes served,

Betty Berly Honored With Round Of Parties; Wedding Is Wednesday

HARLINGEN — Miss Betty Berly, whose marriage to Lieut. James Rogers of Fort Benning, Ga., will take place Wednesday, May 7, is being honored with a gay round of parties during the weekend. Miss Berly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berly.

Misses Kelsey and Jean Stuart were hostesses Friday evening at their Stuart Place home for an unusual buffet supper that cleverly dramatized a military theme. Invitations were replicas of the notices sent by draft boards.

Entertainment included a rifle contest, staged with BB guns, bingo in which insignias, medals, seals and other decorations of military and patriotic character were awarded as prizes and other contests noting the national defense theme.

Guests were attierd in playsuits and slacks and the delicious menu stressed regulation army fare such as hash, baked beans and pie. Tin cups and plates added to the training camp atmosphere.

Exquisite orange gladioli were used in the dining room for decoration. Arranged about the living room were yellow gladioli spikes and amaryllis.

The hostess' gift to the honoree was presented in a tow sack as a final touch to the novel party motif.

Guests included the honoree, her mother, and Misses Buena Myers, Rosemary Kunkel, Margie Medley, Jane Davis, and Louise Hill, Mrs. Al Schorre, Mrs. Marie Potts Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stuart, and Leslie Stuart.

Mrs. T. S. Herren honored the popular bride-elect Saturday when she entertained with a luncheon at her home. Guests included the honoree and her mother and a small group of her intimate girl friends.

Lovely blossoms from the hostess' garden gave added charm to the rooms. Gorgeous white lilies in crystal centered the table.

Each guest wrote her favorite recipe in a book which was the gift of the hostess to the bride-to-be.

Another attractive courtesy honoring Miss Berly was the evening dessert bridge which had Mrs. Al Schorre as hostess at her home Thursday.

White gladioli and white tapers in the dining room emphasized the bridal theme. Centerpiece for the table was an arrangement of the flowers in fan shape. Gladioli graced the buffet and the tallies and other appointments for the games of bridge noted the bridal motif.

Miss Kelsey Stuart made high score and presented her trophy to the honoree, who also received a gold vanity case, engraved with her name, as a gift from her hostess.

In the guest group were Misses Louise Hill, Jane Davis, Mary Anise Bush, Kelsey Stuart, Buena Myers, Jean Stuart, and Margie Medley, Mesdames Marie Potts Hoffman, Menton J. Murray, and Lance Tarrance and the honoree.

Mrs. Thomas Sweeney, Jr., and Miss Josephine Taylor of Brownsville entertained Saturday afternoon honoring Miss Berly and Sunday morning Miss Buena Myers will compliment her with a breakfast.

Pretty Church Ceremony Unites Well-Known Pair; To Reside In Harlingen

HARLINGEN—Marriage of Miss Mahalah Hamner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hamner of Hempstead, and Lloyd E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen of Harlingen, was solemnized in a simple ceremony read Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. Rev. James W. Albritten, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mercedes, read the marriage lines.

A huge bouquet of white gladioli, on a pedestal basket, dominated the floral arrangements that gave an altar-like setting for the service. On either side were baskets of white blossoms, in which pink flowers were intermingled, and tiers of white candelabra holding white lighted tapers. Kentia palms outlined the altar and formed a background for the flowers while fern was banked on the chancel rail.

Mrs. Darold Jackson was at the organ, playing the traditional wedding marches and playing softly during the ceremony. James Johnson, Edcouch, was soloist. He sang "Because" D'Hardelot, and "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The bride entered with her eldest brother, Sam R. Hamner of Hempstead, and was given by him in marriage. Her costume was of triple sheer crepe in a prairie rose shade with lingerie trimming in silk lace. The matching bolero had trapunto embroidery and the dawn blue girdle was matched by gloves in the same shade. Her white off-the-face hat was worn with dawn blue veil and her other accessories were white An orchid was her corsage.

Only attendant to the bride was her sister, Mrs. George W. Wehrung III of Houston. Her costume was of navy blue alpaca worn with white accessories and her corsage of sweetheart roses.

Both wore gold necklaces fashioned from hand engraved earrings which had belonged to their grandmother.

James K. Brittain, Mercedes, was best man for Mr. Allen and ushers were E. H. (Bob) Moody, McAllen, brother-in-law of the groom, and Harry Raper.

The mother of the bride chose a triple-sheer frock in dusty pink finished with embroidered collar and cuffs. Her corsagé was of white gladioli. Mrs. Allen, mother of the groom was attired in a tan alpaca redingote with red accessories and wore Etoil de Holland roses for corsage.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the new home of the couple, 105 E. Buchanan. Pink and white gladioli were arranged about the rooms.

The wedding cake, a three-tiered and decorated in all white, was placed at one end of the table which was laid with cloth of a hand-made linen lace. Mrs. Wehrung served the cake, Mrs. James Brittain presided at the coffee service at the opposite table end, and Mrs. Moody had charge of the guest book.

The couple will be at home about May 15 following a wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Florence M. Allen, Corpus Christi, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Allen, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Corpus Christi; Mrs. R. E. Hamner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Hamner, and Mrs. Joe Ed Hamner, Hempstead.

The bride, a former resident of Harlingen and of Raymondville, has been honoree for prenuptial events in several Valley towns. She is president of the Mercedes chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Coming Rites Of Interest

MISSION—An announcement of an approaching wedding made last week in Ocean Springs, Miss., claims interest in Mission, home city of the groom-elect. Miss Margaret Lewis Lemon of Ocean Springs, will be married June 11 to Ernest Wilder Halstead, Jr., of Mission, according to the announcement made by Miss Lemon's brother, James K. Lemon. The bride-to-be is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James K. Lemon, Sr., pioneer residents of Ocean Springs. Mr. Halstead is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Halstead, Sr. of Mission, formerly of Ocean Springs. The two families were old friends and the engaged couple were childhood sweethearts.

Since the announcement of her engagement, Miss Lemon has been complimented with a number of pre-nuptial courtesies.

Lutheran Ladies Aid Has Business Meet

HARLINGEN— Two new members, Mrs. Leo Seibert and Mrs. Benno Saliger, were added to St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid at the business meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Kieschnick.

The dining room table was attractive with a bowl of nasturtiums in the center and miniature Maypoles on either side. The same May Day decorations were carried out in the living room.

Highlight of the meeting was a talk by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Wolf, on life in the army camps and the role the church has in serving them. Plans were also made for the coming mission festival.

The hostess served a delicious sandwich course to 20 members and guests.

Setting For Party Pretty

HARLINGEN — Especially attractive among the series of delightful affairs arranged during the past fortnight to honor Mrs. Leland Parsons and mother, Mrs. Aline Beckham, was the bridge luncheon which had as hostesses Mrs. Joe T. Sellars and Mrs. R. M. Loving at the home of the latter. A profusion of spring blossoms in pastel tints made the party rooms particularly inviting.

A delicious three-course luncheon was served and later games of contract were enjoyed.

The hostesses presented gifts to the honorees.

In the guest personnel were Mesdames N. V. Stewart, C. M. Talk, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Herman Bupp, Bill Newland, San Benito, Vaughan Clarke, E. B. Reeves, Raymondville, J. N. Crawford, R. M. Loving, and Joe T. Sellars, Miss Alma Robb, and Miss Alberta Allen, and the honor guests.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Slated Wednesday Night

BROWNSVILLE — Fourth annual mother-daughter banquet will be sponsored here at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening by the Skinner Memorial class of the church.

The affair will be held at the church at 7 p.m., and the general public is invited to attend. Tickets are forty cents apiece.

Speaker of the evening will be Miss La Verne Walker, an instructor in the high school, and another feature of the event will be songs by a quartet composed of Mrs. George F. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Wilson, and Mrs. Ava Prosser and her daughter, Miss Lila Lee Prosser.

New Evening Circle Will Meet Monthly

HARLINGEN — Organization of a business women's circle was effected at a meeting Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Fifteen members were present.

Mrs. Glenn Miller, president of the auxiliary, gave the devotional, "Teach Us to Pray." Mrs. J. B. Chalks, district president, talked on the benefits of evening circles.

A special guest was Mrs. E. B. Witmer, Mercedes, founder of the movement for business women's circles in the Valley.

Mrs. Ben McLean was named chairman, Mrs. Henry Carlisle co-chairman and representative from the Auxiliary, and Miss Joyce Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings will be held at 6:45 p.m. the first Thursday of each month at the church when dinner will be served.

She participated in the state interscholastic league contest in girls' declamation after winning first place in county, district, and regional meets. Miss Mize, a high school senior, was elected as "Who's Who" representative from the school and is active in sports and schoo clubs and activities. Her parents are pioneer residents of Rio Hondo. (Holbrook Studio)

Annual Breakfast Held By 20th Century Club; Pan-American Next Study

LA FERIA — Members of the Twentieth Century Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. T. Anderson for the annual breakfast and closing meeting of the year.

Mrs. Anderson, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by other members of her committee as hostesses. They are Mesdames Wenple Sanders, V. L. Roland and J. G. Cochrane.

The menu was served at quartet tables which were appointed to signify May Day with Maypoles serving as centerpieces. Maybaskets filled with tiny flowers were favors. About the rooms were arrangements of exquisite Easter lilies.

Annual reports of officers were made at the business meeting in charge of Mrs. W. H. Voiers, president. The sum of $10 was donated toward the memorial book shelf in the high school library. Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. O. O. Butcher were named to aid in selecting the books.

Mrs. A. L. Todd read a resolution expressing regret over the passing of Miss Margaret Oliver, a beloved member.

Mrs. E. C. Walace gave a report of the Valley Federation meeting at Weslaco.

After Mrs. Voiers made her annual report she was presented with a lovely crystal vase from members of the executive board.

Mrs. Wallace, new president, directed a brief session which accepted and reviewed the two-year study on Pan-America as recommended by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It was also decided to dedicate the yearbooks to Mrs. M. E. Mitchell and Miss Margaret Oliver, members which the club lost by death during the year.

Other officers who will serve with Mrs. Wallace during the next year are: Mrs. J. G. Cochrane, second vice president; Mrs. Leon Hargrove, secretary; Mrs. O. C. Trotman, treasurer; and Mrs. H. F. Harren, publicity.

Committee members announced by Mrs. Wallace include: social, Mrs. V. L. Roland, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. O. O. Butcher; music, Mrs. A. L. Todd; art, Mrs. C. H. Ritter; civic, Mrs. Leonard Hargrove; visiting, Mrs. H. W. Voiers.

Mrs. Frank Lucas and Mrs. A. L. Hamilton were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Rothgeb Hostess For Pretty Event

HARLINGEN — The lovely home of Mrs. C. J. Rathgeb at Stuart Place was the setting Thursday for the concluding hospitality arranged to honor Mrs. Aline Beckham and her daughter, Mrs. Leland Parsons, prior to their departure for their new home in Corpus Christi. Guests were received in rooms made festive with arrangements of pink roses.

After the tempting two course luncheon, served buffet style, games of bridge were enjoyed. The travel prize, the wrappings cleverly simulating a traveling bag, went to Mrs. C. W. Letzerich.

Each honoree received a piece of hammered silver, a gift from the hostess.

Forming the guest group were Mrs. Wm. Newlin, San Benito, and Mesdames Vaughan Clark, Herman Bupp, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Joe T. Sellars, R. M. Loving, C. M. Talk, and N. V. Stewart, and the honorees.

They were Mrs. Laura Peacock of Pennsylvania, sister of Mrs. Moore; Mrs. Vina Crawford of Canada; Mrs. Mortimer Lewis of Houston, and Mrs. Sally Tatum of Bishop.

Group Studies China

ALAMO — The study of China was continued at the missionary meeting of the Community Church Ladies Aid on Thursday. Mrs. George Rydl gave the devotional and Mrs. Emma Phillips reviewed the first part of a book "Dangerous Opportunity" followed by a map drill by Mrs. C. U. Reed and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Denzer, Mrs. B. H. Lockett and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Miss Lawson, Bride-Elect, Is Honoree

McALLEN—Continuing the round of parties given for Miss Maria Lawson, whose marriage to Francis Linn will be solemnized Friday morning, Mrs. Henry Erdmann and her mother, Mrs. H. J. Ramsey entertained with a crystal shower Thursday night at the home of the latter.

Carrying out the color scheme chosen by Miss Lawson, yellow and white were used throughout. For the table decorations a huge bowl of yellow nasturtiums formed a pretty centerpiece. On the buffet where the gifts of crystal were displayed was a tall vase filled with Easter lilies.

Those attending were Mesdames Aleta Clark, Don Simpson, L. B. Weed, N. L. Bormann, Jr., Howard Faulkner, F. L. Gilbert, J. F. Linn, E. D. Mathis, E. A. Polzin, Victor Lawson, N. L. Bormann, Sr., S. J. Purl, Jr., George Edwards, A. L. Hart, Jr., and A. L. Hart Sr., with Misses Maybelle Smitham, Willa Mae Meek and Lucille Smitham.

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

HARLINGEN — Miss Burr Dee Whitley, who is leaving Sunday, May 4, to go to Oklahoma where she is to wed W. A. "Bill" Wallace, was honor guest Tuesday evening for a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Fred Purvis. Cohostesses were Mrs. John Quaintance and Miss Aileen Armstrong.

Pink and white blossoms decorated the guest rooms.

The honoree wore a corsage of white blooms and her mother, Mrs. B. D. Whitley, wore a pink one.

Pink roses and honeysuckle encircled the large white cake which served as a centerpiece for the lace laid table which was set with silver and crystal. A dainty service of heart-shaped sandwiches and cake, served with punch, emphasized the bridal theme.

Games of bingo were enjoyed during the evening and when the honoree won a number of attractive gifts were presented to her.

About 30 of her friends were guests.

Pretty Church Ceremony Unites Well-Known Pair; To Reside In Harlingen

HARLINGEN—Marriage of Miss Mahalah Hamner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hamner of Hempstead, and Lloyd E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Allen of Harlingen, was solemnized in a simple ceremony read Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. Rev. James W. Albritten, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mercedes, read the marriage lines.

A huge bouquet of white gladioli, on a pedestal basket, dominated the floral arrangements that gave an altar-like setting for the service. On either side were baskets of white blossoms, in which pink flowers were intermingled, and tiers of white candelabra holding white lighted tapers. Kentia palms outlined the altar and formed a background for the flowers while fern was banked on the chancel rail.

Mrs. Darold Jackson was at the organ, playing the traditional wedding marches and playing softly during the ceremony. James Johnson, Edcouch, was soloist. He sang "Because" D'Hardelot, and "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The bride entered with her eldest brother, Sam R. Hamner of Hempstead, and was given by him in marriage. Her costume was of triple sheer crepe in a prairie rose shade with lingerie trimming in silk lace. The matching bolero had trapunto embroidery and the dawn blue girdle was matched by gloves in the same shade. Her white off-the-face hat was worn with dawn blue veil and her other accessories were white. An orchid was her corsage.

Only attendant to the bride was her sister, Mrs. George W. Wehrung III of Houston. Her costume was of navy blue alpaca worn with white accessories and her corsage of sweetheart roses.

Both wore gold necklaces fashioned from hand engraved earrings which had belonged to their grandmother.

James K. Brittain, Mercedes, was best man for Mr. Allen and ushers were E. H. (Bob) Moody, McAllen, brother-in-law of the groom, and Harry Raper.

The mother of the bride chose a triple-sheer frock in dusty pink finished with embroidered collar and cuffs. Her corsage was of white gladioli. Mrs. Allen, mother of the groom was attired in a tan alpaca redingote with red accessories and wore Etoil de Holland roses for corsage.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the new home of the couple, 105 E. Buchanan. Pink and white gladioli were arranged about the rooms.

The wedding cake, a three-tiered and decorated in all white, was placed at one end of the table which was laid with cloth of a hand-made linen lace. Mrs. Wehrung served the cake, Mrs. James Brittain presided at the coffee service at the opposite table end, and Mrs. Moody had charge of the guest book.

The couple will be at home about May 15 following a wedding trip.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Florence M. Allen, Corpus Christi, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Allen, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Corpus Christi; Mrs. R. E. Hamner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Hamner, and Mrs. Joe Ed Hamner, Hempstead.

The bride, a former resident of Harlingen and of Raymondville, has been honoree for prenuptial events in several Valley towns. She is president of the Mercedes chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Setting For Party Pretty

HARLINGEN — Especially attractive among the series of delightful affairs arranged during the past fortnight to honor Mrs. Leland Parsons and mother, Mrs. Aline Beckham, was the bridge luncheon which had as hostesses Mrs. Joe T. Sellars and Mrs. R. M. Loving at the home of the latter. A profusion of spring blossoms in pastel tints made the party rooms particularly inviting.

A delicious three-course luncheon was served and later games of contract were enjoyed.

The hostesses presented gifts to the honorees.

In the guest personnel were Mesdames N. V. Stewart, C. M. Talk, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Herman Bupp, Bill Newland, San Benito, Vaughan Clarke, E. B. Reeves, Raymondville, J. N. Crawford, R. M. Loving, and Joe T. Sellars, Miss Alma Robb, and Miss Alberta Allen, and the honor guests.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Slated Wednesday Night

BROWNSVILLE — Fourth annual mother-daughter banquet will be sponsored here at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening by the Skinner Memorial class of the church.

The affair will be held at the church at 7 p.m., and the general public is invited to attend. Tickets are forty cents apiece.

Speaker of the evening will be Miss La Verne Walker, an instructor in the high school, and another feature of the event will be songs by a quartet composed of Mrs. George F. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Wilson, and Mrs. Ava Prosser and her daughter, Miss Lila Lee Prosser.

New Evening Circle Will Meet Monthly

HARLINGEN — Organization of a business women's circle was effected at a meeting Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church. Fifteen members were present.

Mrs. Glenn Miller, president of the auxiliary, gave the devotional, "Teach Us to Pray." Mrs. J. B. Challes, district president, talked on the benefits of evening circles.

A special guest was Mrs. E. B. Witmer, Mercedes, founder of the movement for business women's circles in the Valley.

Mrs. Ben McLean was named chairman, Mrs. Henry Carlisle co-chairman and representative from the Auxiliary, and Miss Joyce Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings will be held at 6:45 p.m. the first Thursday of each month at the church when dinner will be served.

WITH EGGUM'S

HARLINGEN—Mrs. Sally Brittain will assume her new position May 5 with Eggum's in McAllen. For the past three years Mrs. Brittain has been employed in Hertz Style Shop in Harlingen.

Rio Hondo Girl Is Leader

Miss Mary Mize, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mize of Rio Hondo, is expected home from Austin at the week-end. She participated in the state interscholastic league contest in girls' declamation after winning first place in county, district, and regional meets. Miss Mize, a high school senior, was elected as "Who's Who" representative from the school and is active in sports and schoo clubs and activities. Her parents are pioneer residents of Rio Hondo. (Holbrook Studio)

Annual Breakfast Held By 20th Century Club; Pan-American Next Study

LA FERIA — Members of the Twentieth Century Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. T. Anderson for the annual breakfast and closing meeting of the year.

Mrs. Anderson, chairman of the social committee, was assisted by other members of her committee as hostesses. They are Mesdames Wenple Sanders, V. L. Roland and J. G. Cochrane.

The menu was served at quartet tables which were appointed to signify May Day with Maypoles serving as centerpieces. Maybaskets filled with tiny flowers were favors. About the rooms were arrangements of exqunisite Easter lilies.

Annual reports of officers were made at the business meeting in charge of Mrs. W. H. Voiers, president. The sum of $10 was donated toward the memorial book shelf in the high school library. Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. O. O. Butcher were named to aid in selecting the books.

Mrs. A. L. Todd read a resolution expressing regret over the passing of Miss Margaret Oliver, a beloved member.

Mrs. E. C. Walace gave a report of the Valley Federation meeting at Weslaco.

After Mrs. Voiers made her annual report she was presented with a lovely crystal vase from members of the executive board.

Mrs. Wallace, new president, directed a brief session which accepted and reviewed the two-year study on Pan-America as recommended by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. It was also decided to dedicate the yearbooks to Mrs. M. E. Mitchell and Miss Margaret Oliver, members which the club lost by death during the year.

Other officers who will serve with Mrs. Wallace during the next year are: Mrs. J. G. Cochrane, second vice president; Mrs. Leon Hargrove, secretary; Mrs. O. C. Trotman, treasurer; and Mrs. H. F. Harren, publicity.

Committee members announced by Mrs. Wallace include: social, Mrs. V. L. Roland, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. O. O. Butcher; music, Mrs. A. L. Todd; art, Mrs. C. H. Ritter; civic, Mrs. Leonard Hargrove; visiting, Mrs. H. W. Voiers.

Mrs. Frank Lucas and Mrs. A. L. Hamilton were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Rothgeb Hostess For Pretty Event

HARLINGEN — The lovely home of Mrs. C. J. Rathgeb at Stuart Place was the setting Thursday for the concluding hospitality arranged to honor Mrs. Aline Beckham and her daughter, Mrs. Leland Parsons, prior to their departure for their new home in Corpus Christi. Guests were received in rooms made festive with arrangements of pink roses.

After the tempting two course luncheon, served buffet style, games of bridge were enjoyed. The travel prize, the wrappings cleverly simulating a traveling bag, went to Mrs. C. W. Letzerich.

Each honoree received a piece of hammered silver, a gift from the hostess.

Forming the guest group were Mrs. Wm. Newlin, San Benito, and Mesdames Vaughan Clark, Herman Bupp, A. M. Letzerich, C. W. Letzerich, L. R. Baker, Joe T. Sellars, R. M. Loving, C. M. Talk, and N. V. Stewart, and the honorees.

Mrs. L. H. Moore Hostess At Coffee

McALLEN— Mrs. L. H. Moore informally entertained with a coffee Thursday morning to compliment a few out-of-town visitors.

They were Mrs. Laura Peacock of Pennsylvania, sister of Mrs. Moore; Mrs. Vina Crawford of Canada; Mrs. Mortimer Lewis of Houston, and Mrs. Sally Tatum of Bishop.

Group Studies China

ALAMO — The study of China was continued at the missionary meeting of the Community Church Ladies Aid on Thursday. Mrs. George Rydl gave the devotional and Mrs. Emma Phillips reviewed the first part of a book "Dangerous Opportunity" followed by a map drill by Mrs. C. U. Reed and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Denzer, Mrs. B. H. Lockett and Mrs. Helen Wilkin.

Dinner Honors McAllen Resident

McALLEN— Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Peterson entertained a group of friends for dinner this week to honor Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. G. Schmidt.

The personnel included Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Barnes and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. F. Schmidt and son; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Walker and daughter and son, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Schmidt.

Sam Woodsons Visit

BROWNSVILLE — Guests in the Thomas H. Sweeney home are Mrs. Sweeney's brother, Sam Woodson, and Mrs. Woodson of Sherman.

Mrs. Sweeney's niece, Miss Sue Woodson, and her friend, Miss Betty Ann Bail have returned to their home in Decatur, Illinois, after a visit here en route home from stays in Mexico and Guatemala.

Miss Lawson, Bride-Elect, Is Honoree

McALLEN—Continuing the round of parties given for Miss Maris Lawson, whose marriage to Francis Linn will be solemnized Friday morning, Mrs. Henry Erdmann and her mother, Mrs. H. J. Ramsey entertained with a crystal shower Thursday night at the home of the latter.

Carrying out the color scheme chosen by Miss Lawson, yellow and white were used throughout. For the table decorations a huge bowl of yellow nasturtiums formed a pretty centerpiece. On the buffet where the gifts of crystal were displayed was a tall vase filled with Easter lilies.

Those attending were Mesdames Aleta Clark, Don Simpson, L. B. Weed, N. L. Bormann, Jr., Howard Faulkner, F. L. Gilbert, J. F. Linn, E. D. Mathis, E. A. Polzin, Victor Lawson, N. L. Bormann, Sr., S. J. Purl, Jr., George Edwards, A. L. Hart, Jr., and A. L. Hart Sr., with Misses Maybelle Smitham, Willa Mae Meek and Lucille Smitham.

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

HARLINGEN — Miss Burr Dee Whitley, who is leaving Sunday, May 4, to go to Oklahoma where she is to wed W. A. "Bill" Wallace, was honor guest Tuesday evening for a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Fred Purvis. Cohostesses were Mrs. John Quaintance and Miss Aileen Armstrong.

Pink and white blossoms decorated the guest rooms.

The honoree wore a corsage of white blooms and her mother, Mrs. B. D. Whitley, wore a pink one.

Pink roses and honeysuckle encircled the large white cake which served as a centerpiece for the lace laid table which was set with silver and crystal. A dainty service of heart-shaped sandwiches and cake, served with punch, emphasized the bridal theme.

Games of bingo were enjoyed during the evening and when the honoree won a number of attractive gifts were presented to her.

About 30 of her friends were guests.

FATHER IS ILL

EDINBURG — Mrs. Frank Waters left Tuesday night for Huntingdon, Tennessee, where she was called by the serious illness of her father.

This'n That

By MINNIE GILBERT

WATER hyacinths, the bulbous variety that are now blossoming in resacas and barrow pits, made their first commercialized appearance in the Valley this month when they were offered customers in a five and ten.

Despite the fact that water districts have literally spent thousands of dollars having the thick-growing plants yanked from drainage ditches and lakes to assist drainage, a few tubs full were included in stocks sent to Valley stores.

Pioneers assert that the water hyacinths now growing wild over the Valley were brought originally from Louisiana.

Like the cactus transplanted in Australia, they have thrived even more than in their native habitat and it is only in recent years that irrigation districts have made much headway in getting them under control.

Persons admiring fragile stalks of lavender blooms and glossy leaves should limit their transplanting to lily ponds and private lakes and refrain from putting the bulbs in drainage ditches or canals to harass drainage officials.

About the prettiest pond of the hyacinths this spring is at the home of Mrs. W. H. Avery about a mile and a half from Harlingen on the Wilson Road (near Fairpark).

THANKS TO THE readers who called our attention to the misspelling of anacahuita in this column last Sunday.

It was the anacahuita, commonly known as wild olive, to which we referred and not the less well known anaqua.

Mrs. J. M. Saner who lives east of Rio Hondo sends a note pointing out that a cough sirup is made from the fruits of the anacahuita which resemble olives.

She reminds us that the anaqua, which abounds in the Las Yescas community where she has made her home for many years, is known as the knockaway tree and bears clusters of small white fragrant blossoms and later berries which are much liked by birds and poultry.

ANOTHER BIT of information which we'd like from Mrs. Saner is the true meaning of the name Las Yescas.

It's been our belief that the name indicates will-o'-the-wisp or reappearing lights and results from the fact that the area once was a vast marsh where marsh lights occasionally were seen.

ONE OF THE compensations for excessive rains this spring has been luxuriant growth made by shrubs and annuals and next autumn ought to bring additional dividends with poinsettias and other tropical plants showing results of exceptional moisture.

Planting of rooted bougainvillea plants in the cans in which they were rooted has been reported unsatisfactory by an amateur gardener who has rooted hundreds of the shrubs.

Although planting in the cans prevents the disturbance of transplanting, it also prevents moisture reaching the roots except that which is received in the top of the can.

Because rusting is induced by oxidizing caused by the air, cans remain in good condition underground and consequently the plants become root bound in addition to becoming limited in ability to collect moisture.

SAN BENITO has already made considerable strides in its beautification program, particularly the resaca area.

And now a movement is on to assist shopkeepers along the highway in Mexiquito section to improve the appearance of their stores.

Insofar as is practical, there would be good cause to make the exteriors resemble stores in Mexico with prominent displays of Mexican handicraft, stands selling refrescos and fruits, and the signs indicating the nature of the business within, such as a huge shoe or hat after the manner followed by Mexican store owners, probably for customers unable to read.

WONDER HOW practical it would be to grow huge flowering poinsettias in the concrete urns that hold evergreens each Christmastime at street intersections in San Benito?

With careful pruning and feeding it would seem comparatively easy to produce sturdy plants loaded with blossoms that would furnish Christmas decoration of a sort not seen anywhere else in the world.

It probably would be necessary to replace the flowering poinsettias two or three times, depending on the weather, since they would be exposed to wind if they were placed at the intersections.

MRS. HUGH Ramsey, Harlingen, district committeewoman for the 15th district, American Legion Auxiliary, is anxious that parents of young girls think seriously about the entertainment of youths training in nearby camps.

A host of citizens throughout the Valley are sharing Mrs. Ramsey's concern and tackling the problem from different angles, but there are far too few who have given the matter any thought at all.

Chaperonage of the girls invited to attend dances to which trainees are welcome is being arranged by patriotic-minded women.

Something should be done to change the growing conviction of many youths that wearing a uniform makes them tabu socially.

Featured Speaker

Miss Willimette Andrus, Weslaco, has been featured as guest speaker on several occasions. She spoke before the vocational group of Texas State Teachers Association in San Antonio in Austin, taking part in a panel discussion on business as it contributes to national defense. Recently she was guest speaker for a banquet held by the 20-30 Club in Weslaco, talking "Personality." She has been elected as one of the state delegates to the Texas State Teachers Association in Houston in the fall. (Kerr Studio.)

Annual Charity Ball Planned Friday Night At Patio In McAllen

McALLEN—Dancers from over the Valley will gather in McAllen Friday night when the Junior Service league stages its semi-annual charity ball in the patio of the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Always a "must" on anybody's date book, this spring dance will keep up the league's record for fun at all their frolics for charity.

To assure a top-notch orchestra for this major on the Valley social events league, the group has engaged Mack Rogers and his 10-piece band to swing into his music at 9 p.m. for four hours of dancing.

With only 150 couple tickets printed for the affair, sale will be a "first come, first served" proposition, members said. Tickets went on sale Thursday at $2.50 a couple. Early reservations indicated a rapid asle of tickets, members said.

All proceeds from the charity ball go to the McAllen Child's clinic. Construction has already started on a new clinic building where the league's foremost charity project for the last three years will be housed by the end of summer.

The dance will be the forerunner of a series of events to close the league's season and to honor newly elected officers.

New president of the popular civic-social organization is Mrs. W. J. Carter, elected this week to succeed Mrs. J. K. Boettger.

Other officers include Mrs. O. Terry, vice president; Mrs. Jack Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. LeBow, recording secretary; and Mrs. Bob Elmore, treasurer. The new leaders will be officially installed May 15 at the annual league luncheon at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Helen Millwee's Marriage To Be Celebrated May

BROWNSVILLE—Of interest here is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen Millwee, daughter of Mr. R. H. Millwee of Dallas, to Dr. James Navarro White of Galveston.

The rites will be celebrated May 26.

The bride-elect resided in Brownsville with her cousin, Mrs. Lula George, and attended Brownsville schools. She is a graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton. Mr. White is with the United States Marine hospital in Galveston.

Hospital Women To Stage Benefit

EDINBURG—Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the County-City hospital are sponsoring a benefit bridge party Monday at the community house.

Mrs. B. H. Hooks is chairman of the ticket sales committee and Mrs. A. C. Statham her assistant. The public is invited to attend.

Visitors will be shown through the hospital all day May 12 in recognition of "National Hospital Day." Refreshments will be served from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

May Season Opens With Pretty Event

McALLEN—The May time as a social season was opened effectively Thursday when two young McAllen hostesses entertained at a "May day" dessert bridge at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Hostesses for the pretty affair, whose May day theme fitted the opening of the month, were Mrs. Maco Stewart and Mrs. J. Lyle Hill.

To give accent to the motif for the day a large, gay, pastel-toned May pole was the center of attraction in the decorative scheme. From the pole wide, pastel streamers of eight different colors stretched to as many tables where the dessert guests were seated.

Place for each guest was marked with a dainty corsage of spring flowers whose colors repeated the tones of the May pole trim.

Centering the main table was a huge silver basket, filled with quantities of Easter lilies. The arrangement was effective on a large oval mirror. Spring flowers were used elsewhere.

The group was divided into two to play bridge. First prize winner in one group was Mrs. F. O. Swan with Mrs. R. L. Marston second; in the other group Mrs. W. W. Hall took first with Mrs. Bert Faulkner second. Mrs. R. F. Miller won the traveling prize.

Guests included Mesdames L. A. Green, Paul Sherwood, Larry Fritz, J. C. Monk, Warren Davis, A. A. Bonneau, W. J. Carter, Charles Ferguson, Jack Nelson, Brad Smith, Joe LeBow, N. E. Buescher, John H. Gregory, Lowell Deer;

Pair Honored By Faculty

HARLINGEN—Miss Loreet Anderson and Edward H. R. Green, whose marriage will take place in June, were honored by other members of the high school faculty Saturday with a tea given from five to seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Martin Hamilton. Quantities of pink roses were attractively arranged about the reception rooms.

In the dining room an all-white color theme was noted in floral arrangements and tapers for the tea table.

Mrs. D. M. Denton presided for the first period and Mrs. E. C. Deering poured during the second hour.

A handsome gift was presented by the hosts to the affianced couple who are members of the high school teaching staff.

Mrs. Jensen Hostess

ALAMO — Mrs. Albert Jensen was hostess on Wednesday when she entertained the members of the Wednesday bridge club. She served a salad course to Mesdames Ira Sharp, Carl Drennan, Dales Knapp, Darnell de Roulac, A. F. Taylor, Tut Caddel and C. B. Vinsant.

Mrs. Caddel held high score, Mrs. Jensen second high and Mrs. Knapp low.

IN HOUSTON

LOS FRESNOS—Mrs. Joe Frankie and Mrs. Bill Billue are visiting in Houston.

Special Week Planned To Aid Hospitals

HARLINGEN—Members of the Harlingen branch have completed plans for sharing in the nation-wide program of Bundles for Britain Inc., which will assist England's traditional Hospital Day May 6. The local chapter, which has Mrs. Robt. W. Pollock as chairman, will give all contributions placed in the milk bottles over town during the week to the hospital fund.

In other parts of the country various plans are being carried out to raise money gravely needed to assist over-crowded hospitals in the war-racked country. In New York, famous stars of stage and screen will be on the streets to collect funds.

In England, instead of pretty debutantes in spring frocks collecting on street corners as in more fortunate years, there will be brave English women in tin hats and gas masks who know that the hospitals must continue their humane work. In spite of war, threatened invasion, and nightly air raids, England will hold annual Hospital Day May 6, but help is needed from the United States in raising needed funds.

Hospital Aid Is Suggested

HARLINGEN—A gift to the hospital as a suitable observance of Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11, has been suggested by a pioneer Valley woman who has been in close touch with the operation of Valley Baptist Hospital since its opening in 1925.

How many times that original service has been expanded and improved is revealed by the merest glance at early records. In the first year there was no elevator. An elevator was installed in 1926 when several of the board members borrowed $5000 on their personal note.

Last year the hospital was approved by the American College of Surgeons as a standard hospital.

For two consecutive years the hospital has received international recognition in connection with educational programs carried out in connection with National Hospital Day which is to be observed May 12.

Weekend Guest

HARLINGEN — Almeda Louise Hornaday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Polk Hornaday, left Friday for Kingsville to be the guest for the weekend of Mrs. Annie B. Littlejohn and daughter, Daphne.

VISIT IN MISSION

MISSION—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klapperich and daughter, Carol Ann, and the former's sister, Miss May Oma Klapperich, arrived at the week-end for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Klapperich, coming from their home in San Antonio.

Talented

Miss Evelyn Baumgartner of Beaver, Okla., who is visiting in Edinburg, is becoming increasingly popular as an entertainer as she appears before various Valley organizations. She is a talented vocalist and is the daughter of Mrs. O. W. Curry.

To El Paso

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. D. P. Gay, Jr., departed Saturday for El Paso where she will be the guest for about a month of her brother-in-law, Lee W. Jones.

Supper Set By Classes

HARLINGEN — A covered dish supper and program will be held in connection with the joint meeting of the Daughters of Wesley Class and the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church Thursday evening, May 8. The event will be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clift, Sr., at 7:15 p.m.

Each member of the Wesley Class will take a covered dish for the supper and the men will furnish the beverages.

A program will be given during the evening.

HARLINGEN — Newly elected officers will have charge of the installation Monday night which will feature the annual meeting of the Harlingen Business and Professional Women's Club. Members will meet in the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel patio.

This'n That

By MINNIE GILBERT

WATER hyacinths, the bulbous variety that are now blossoming in resacas and barrow pits, made their first commercialized appearance in the Valley this month when they were offered customers in a five and ten.

Despite the fact that water districts have literally spent thousands of dollars having the thick-growing plants yanked from drainage ditches and lakes to assist drainage, a few tubs full were included in stocks sent to Valley stores.

Pioneers assert that the water hyacinths now growing wild over the Valley were brought originally from Louisiana.

Like the cactus transplanted in Australia, they have thrived even more than in their native habitat and it is only in recent years that irrigation districts have made much headway in getting them under control.

Persons admiring fragile stalks of lavender blooms and glossy leaves should limit their transplanting to lily ponds and private lakes and refrain from putting the bulbs in drainage ditches or canals to harass drainage officials.

About the prettiest pond of the hyacinths this spring is at the home of Mrs. W. H. Avery about a mile and a half from Harlingen on the Wilson Road (near Fairpark).

THANKS TO THE readers who called our attention to the misspelling of anacahuita in this column last Sunday.

It was the anacahuita, commonly known as wild olive, to which we referred and not the less well known anaqua.

Mrs. J. M. Saner who lives east of Rio Hondo sends a note pointing out that a cough sirup is made from the fruits of the anacahuita which resemble olives.

She reminds us that the anaqua, which abounds in the Las Yescas community where she has made her home for many years, is known as the knockaway tree and bears clusters of small white fragrant blossoms and later berries which are much liked by birds and poultry.

ANOTHER BIT of information which we'd like from Mrs. Saner is the true meaning of the name Las Yescas.

It's been our belief that the name indicates will-o'-the-wisp or reappearing lights and results from the fact that the area once was a vast marsh where marsh lights occasionally were seen.

ONE OF THE compensations for excessive rains this spring has been luxuriant growth made by shrubs and annuals and next autumn ought to bring additional dividends with poinsettias and other tropical plants showing results of exceptional moisture.

Planting of rooted bougainvillea plants in the cans in which they were rooted has been reported unsatisfactory by an amateur gardener who has rooted hundreds of the shrubs.

Although planting in the cans prevents the disturbance of transplanting, it also prevents moisture reaching the roots except that which is received in the top of the can.

Because rusting is induced by oxidizing caused by the air, cans remain in good condition underground and consequently the plants become root bound in addition to becoming limited in ability to collect moisture.

SAN BENITO has already made considerable strides in its beautification program, particularly the resaca area.

And now a movement is on to assist shopkeepers along the highway in Mexiquito section to improve the appearance of their stores.

Insofar as is practical, there would be good cause to make the exteriors resemble stores in Mexico with prominent displays of Mexican handicraft, stands selling refrescos and fruits, and the signs indicating the nature of the business within, such as a huge shoe or hat after the manner followed by Mexican store owners, probably for customers unable to read.

I WONDER HOW practical it would be to grow huge flowering poinsettias in the concrete urns that hold evergreens each Christmastime at street intersections in San Benito?

With careful pruning and feeding it would seem comparatively easy to produce sturdy plants loaded with blossoms that would furnish Christmas decoration of a sort not seen anywhere else in the world.

It probably would be necessary to replace the flowering poinsettias two or three times, depending on the weather, since they would be exposed to wind if they were placed at the intersections.

MRS. HUGH Ramsey, Harlingen, district committeewoman for the 15th district, American Legion Auxiliary, is anxious that parents of young girls think seriously about the entertainment of youths training in nearby camps.

A host of citizens throughout the Valley are sharing Mrs. Ramsey's concern and tackling the problem from different angles, but there are far too few who have given the matter any thought at all.

Chaperonage of the girls invited to attend dances to which trainees are welcome is being arranged by patriotic-minded women.

Something should be done to change the growing conviction of many youths that wearing a uniform makes them tabu socially.

Featured Speaker

Miss Willimette Andrus, Weslaco, has been featured as guest speaker on several occasions. She spoke before the vocational group of Texas State Teachers Association in San Antonio in Austin, taking part in a panel discussion on business as it contributes to national defense. Recently she was guest speaker for a banquet held by the 20-30 Club in Weslaco, talking "Personality." She has been elected as one of the state delegates to the Texas State Teachers Association in Houston in the fall. (Kerr Studio.)

Annual Charity Ball Planned Friday Night At Patio In McAllen

McALLEN—Dancers from over the Valley will gather in McAllen Friday night when the Junior Service league stages its semi-annual charity ball in the patio of the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Always a "must" on anybody's date book, this spring dance will keep up the league's record for fun at all their frolics for charity.

To assure a top-notch orchestra for this major on the Valley social events league, the group has engaged Mack Rogers and his 10-piece band to swing into his music at 9 p.m. for four hours of dancing.

With only 150 couple tickets printed for the affair, sale will be a "first come, first served" proposition, members said. Tickets went on sale Thursday at $2.50 a couple. Early reservations indicated a rapid asle of tickets, members said.

All proceeds from the charity ball go to the McAllen Child's clinic. Construction has already started on a new clinic building where the league's foremost charity project for the last three years will be housed by the end of summer.

The dance will be the forerunner of a series of events to close the league's season and to honor newly elected officers.

New president of the popular civic-social organization is Mrs. W. J. Carter, elected this week to succeed Mrs. J. K. Boettger.

Other officers include Mrs. O. Terry, vice president; Mrs. Jack Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. LeBow, recording secretary; and Mrs. Bob Elmore, treasurer. The new leaders will be officially installed May 15 at the annual league luncheon at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Helen Millwee's Marriage To Be Celebrated May

BROWNSVILLE—Of interest here is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Helen Millwee, daughter of Mr. R. H. Millwee of Dallas, to Dr. James Navarro White of Galveston.

The rites will be celebrated May 26.

The bride-elect resided in Brownsville with her cousin, Mrs. Lula George, and attended Brownsville schools. She is a graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton. Mr. White is with the United States Marine hospital in Galveston.

Hospital Women To Stage Benefit

EDINBURG—Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the County-City hospital are sponsoring a benefit bridge party Monday at the community house.

Mrs. B. H. Hooks is chairman of the ticket sales committee and Mrs. A. C. Statham her assistant. The public is invited to attend.

Visitors will be shown through the hospital all day May 12 in recognition of "National Hospital Day." Refreshments will be served from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

May Season Opens With Pretty Event

McALLEN—The May time as a social season was opened effectively Thursday when two young McAllen hostesses entertained at a "May day" dessert bridge at the Casa de Palmas hotel.

Hostesses for the pretty affair, whose May day theme fitted the opening of the month, were Mrs. Maco Stewart and Mrs. J. Lyle Hill.

To give accent to the motif for the day a large, gay, pastel-toned May pole was the center of attraction in the decorative scheme. From the pole wide, pastel streamers of eight different colors stretched to as many tables where the dessert guests were seated.

Place for each guest was marked with a dainty corsage of spring flowers whose colors repeated the tones of the May pole trim.

Centering the main table was a huge silver basket, filled with quantities of Easter lilies. The arrangement was effective on a large oval mirror. Spring flowers were used elsewhere.

The group was divided into two to play bridge. First prize winner in one group was Mrs. F. O. Swan with Mrs. R. L. Marston second; in the other group Mrs. W. W. Hall took first with Mrs. Bert Faulkner second. Mrs. R. F. Miller won the traveling prize.

Guests included Mesdames L. A. Green, Paul Sherwood, Larry Fritz, J. C. Monk, Warren Davis, A. A. Bonneau, W. J. Carter, Charles Ferguson, Jack Nelson, Brad Smith, Joe LeBow, N. E. Buescher, John H. Gregory, Lowell Deer;

Pair Honored By Faculty

HARLINGEN—Miss Loreet Anderson and Edward H. R. Green, whose marriage will take place in June, were honored by other members of the high school faculty Saturday with a tea given from five to seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Martin Hamilton. Quantities of pink roses were attractively arranged about the reception rooms.

In the dining room an all-white color theme was noted in floral arrangements and tapers for the tea table.

Mrs. D. M. Denton presided for the first period and Mrs. E. C. Deering poured during the second hour.

A handsome gift was presented by the hosts to the affianced couple who are members of the high school teaching staff.

Mrs. Jensen Hostess

ALAMO — Mrs. Albert Jensen was hostess on Wednesday when she entertained the members of the Wednesday bridge club. She served a salad course to Mesdames Ira Sharp, Carl Drennan, Dales Knapp, Darnell de Roulac, A. F. Taylor, Tut Caddel and C. B. Vinsant.

Mrs. Caddel held high score, Mrs. Jensen second high and Mrs. Knapp low.

IN HOUSTON

LOS FRESNOS—Mrs. Joe Frankie and Mrs. Bill Billue are visiting in Houston.

Special Week Planned To Aid Hospitals

HARLINGEN—Members of the Harlingen branch have completed plans for sharing in the nation-wide program of Bundles for Britain Inc., which will assist England's traditional Hospital Day May 6. The local chapter, which has Mrs. Robt. W. Pollock as chairman, will give all contributions placed in the milk bottles over town during the week to the hospital fund.

In other parts of the country various plans are being carried out to raise money gravely needed to assist over-crowded hospitals in the war-racked country. In New York, famous stars of stage and screen will be on the streets to collect funds.

In England, instead of pretty debutantes in spring frocks collecting on street corners as in more fortunate years, there will be brave English women in tin hats and gas masks who know that the hospitals must continue their humane work. In spite of war, threatened invasion, and nightly air raids, England will hold annual Hospital Day May 6, but help is needed from the United States in raising needed funds.

Hospital Aid Is Suggested

HARLINGEN—A gift to the hospital as a suitable observance of Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11, has been suggested by a pioneer Valley woman who has been in close touch with the operation of Valley Baptist Hospital since its opening in 1925.

How many times that original service has been expanded and improved is revealed by the merest glance at early records. In the first year there was no elevator. An elevator was installed in 1926 when several of the board members borrowed $5000 on their personal note.

Last year the hospital was approved by the American College of Surgeons as a standard hospital.

For two consecutive years the hospital has received international recognition in connection with educational programs carried out in connection with National Hospital Day which is to be observed May 12.

Weekend Guest

HARLINGEN — Almeda Louise Hornaday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Polk Hornaday, left Friday for Kingsville to be the guest for the weekend of Mrs. Annie B. Littlejohn and daughter, Daphne.

VISIT IN MISSION

MISSION—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klapperich and daughter, Carol Ann, and the former's sister, Miss May Oma Klapperich, arrived at the week-end for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Klapperich, coming from their home in San Antonio.

Talented

Miss Evelyn Baumgartner of Beaver, Okla., who is visiting in Edinburg, is becoming increasingly popular as an entertainer as she appears before various Valley organizations. She is a talented vocalist and is the daughter of Mrs. O. W. Curry.

To El Paso

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. D. P. Gay, Jr., departed Saturday for El Paso where she will be the guest for about a month of her brother-in-law, Lee W. Jones.

Supper Set By Classes

HARLINGEN — A covered dish supper and program will be held in connection with the joint meeting of the Daughters of Wesley Class and the Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church Thursday evening, May 8. The event will be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clift, Sr., at 7:15 p.m.

Each member of the Wesley Class will take a covered dish for the supper and the men will furnish the beverages.

A program will be given during the evening.

HARLINGEN — Newly elected officers will have charge of the installation Monday night which will feature the annual meeting of the Harlingen Business and Professional Women's Club. Members will meet in the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel patio.

Canal Zone Is Setting For Wedding

Rites Solemnized In Cristobal Church

BROWNSVILLE — Of much interest in Brownsville and in other parts of the Valley is the following account, taken from The Star and Herald, Panama, R. P., Sunday, April 27:

"The marriage of Miss Florence Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wilson of Brownsville, Texas, to Mr. Howard K. Cummins of Cristobal, was solemnized at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Cristobal Union church with the pastor, the Rev. Cecil L. Morgan, officiating. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Cummins of Brownsville, were present with members of the Pan American Airways staff at France Field, where Mr. Cummins is employed as assistant airport manager, and a group of friends.

"The bride was lovely in a floor-length frock of shell pink marquisette. She wore a picture hat of lacy straw in a matching shade of pink and carried a bouquet of orchids. Miss Anne Shirley, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a lace tea dress in pastel blue and a wide white straw hat. Her flowers were a bouquet of orchids.

"Mr. Louis Kowalski was best man. Preceding the entrance of the wedding party, Miss Ruth Egolf of Gatun sang 'Because.' Mr Lee Moyer, organist, was her accompanist and played the wedding marches. Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, and Mr. Wayne Kircher were ushers.

"Following the wedding ceremony, Miss Anne Shirley entertained with a dinner party at the Hotel Washington, honoring Mr. Cummins and his lovely young bride. Other guests included Mr. Cummins' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil L. Morgan, the Misses Sue and Sadie Kyle, Miss Leslie Stevens, Mr. Louis Kowalski, Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, Mr. Wayne Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt.

"The young couple left last evening for the Pacific Side and will go by plane today to Medellin for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Colon.

"Mr. Cummins came to the Isthmus a year ago from Brownsville. His bride arrived Friday by Pan American Airways plane from that city. Mr. Cummins' parents accompanied the bride to the Isthmus and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt in Old Cristobal."

Book Review Given For Junior Club

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. Randall Mathers reviewed the book, "On the Long Tide," by the Texas writer, Laura Krey, at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Junior Self-Culture club at the home of Mrs. Martin Price.

The book, a story of early Texas history, tells of the hardships, great courage and bravery of the Texas pioneers.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Jack Wiech, president, Mrs. H. N. Pitner gave a report of the City Federation meeting, and Mrs. Fred Pilgrim told of the Valley Federation meeting.

Miss Betty Rockwell was elected corresponding secretary for the remainder of the year, taking the place of Mrs. G. W. Putegnat who has joined Mr. Putegnat at Camp Wolters in Mineral Wells; and corresponding secretary for 1941-42 to fill the place left by the resignation from the club of Miss Elizabeth Graham.

Most of the members planned to assist in the drive for funds for the Women's Field Army of the America Society for the Control of Cancer, slated Saturday.

Two guests at the meeting were Mrs. John F. Barron and Mrs. Carol Tanner.

The next meeting will be the annual May breakfast of the club at 9:30 a.m. at Landrum's May 17.

Club Entertained By Mrs. Gilliland

RAYMONDVILLE—Mrs. Earl Gilliland served breakfast to her Thursday Morning club.

Guests playing for absent members were Mrs. E. H. Jamison and Mrs. J. K. Smith. Mrs. G. E. Bennack made high score and received the trophy.

Lovely roses and snapdragons made the party rooms springlike.

Council To Meet

RAYMONDVILLE—The Valley Council of Garden Clubs will meet in Raymondville on Friday, May 9, at 11 o'clock.

Time and place will be announced at an early date.

In May or June this year the Columbia River, backed up by Grand Coulee Dam, is expected to reach full flood stage. It will form a like 151 miles long.

Engagement Announced

Engagement of Miss Gertrude Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett of Pharr and San Juan, and Dale Terry of Corpus Christi, son of Mrs. Frances Meyers of Corpus Christi, was recently announced at a tea given by the parents of the bride-to-be. Miss Bennett, whose wedding will take place during the spring season, was honored with a beautifully appointed bridal shower recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Chancellor in Pharr. (Kerr Studio.)

Seal Eskimos Of Canada Described For Table In Review By Mrs. Faxon

BROWNSVILLE — Members of the Pan American Round Table, meeting Friday at El Jardin hotel, for the regular monthly program and luncheon were given a fascinating picture of the Seal Eskimos of King William Land, by Mrs. Kenneth Faxon, in a program on Canada.

The program was in the for mof a book review of "Kabloona," by Viconte Gontran de Montaigne de Poncins in collaboration with Lewis Galantiere.

Mrs. Ben M. Freudenstein, director, presided at the session, when the members answered roll call with current events on their respective countries.

Mrs. Fred J. Wheeler of Glendale, California, a guest here in the home of her mother, Mrs. G. W. Johnson, was welcomed. Mrs. Wheeler, a former Table member, told of her activities in national defense work in aviation.

Decorations for the table was especially effective. In miniature were igloos, fashioned cleverly of lump sugar, barren wastes of snow, Eskimos in fur garments, sleds drawn by dogs, Eskimos fishing in the ice, harpoons, and caribou arranged by Mrs. Kellis G. Buckley and Mrs. W. W. Fly. Mrs. Ely explained the decorations, and the Canadian flag. Place cards were block prints of an Eskimo scene, printed in blue on white, the work of Harrison Whitney.

The book is the story of a white man's experiences from spring of 1938 to spring of 1939 among the 25 Eskimos of King William Land, located south and east of Victoria LIsland. Mrs. Faxon began her review by telling a little of the author, descendant of one of France's greatest sages, who earned material success by starting at the bottom, only to relinquish a position as head of a British subsidiary of an Italian silk firm to wander over the world. Poncins was last heard from when he sailed for France in April 1940.

She detailed the Kabloona's (white man) first encounter with North Canada in Coppermine, where he learned the two rules of life were "eat" and "keep warm," where he became friends with the Oblate priest, Father Delelande, and where arctic clothing was made for him. Traveling by boat 1900 miles to reach Perry, 500 miles away, Kabloona went by motor boat to Gjoa Haven, where Eskimos came to trade with Paddy Gibson, Hudson's Bay Post manager, his first encounter with the Eskimo mentality.

The speaker read passages from the book, describing the store, and the processes of trading, saying "Exchange in Eskimo life is normal, understandable; a free gift is something he cannot comprehend. He will despise the man who makes it; yet he would lend his wife for a package of needles." Mrs. Faxon told of the practice of wife-lending, and of the great influence the Eskimo wife exerts over the husband, even to kill.

Mrs. Faxon told of the ease with which the Eskimo murders, as contrasted with his inability in most cases, to tell a harmful lie, and his suicide for honor. She said that he was unable to make generalizations, to explain his actions or attitudes. While unable to understand the gift with no idea of exchange, the Eskimo shares food and shelter with one who has nothing. Behind this, the speaker said, are two ideas, giving gives a lien on something in the future; and the natural kindness of the Eskimos who practice a kind of communal living.

The speaker contrasted the life and character of the Pelley Bay Eskimos, where food was not a constant problem and life was dignified and orderly, and clean, with the Seal Eskimos, whose life is a struggle for food, and whose personal habits are nasty and dirty. She listed as a salient trait of the Seal Eskimos his feeling of superiority to the Kabloona, who cannot take care of himself, follow a trail, load a sled, build an igloo, and is foolish enough to trade fox skins (worthless except as rags to them) for tobacco and tea.

Mrs. Faxon detailed the philosophy the author brought away with him from the Arctic tundra, a moral serenity earned with the perils and poverty of the tundra, a loss of the world, but the gain of knowledge of himself.

In closing, Mrs. Faxon said, "I leave the book wondering what part, if any, these people will play in the international situation. I cannot imagine them in the role of either ally or enemy. Unless great foresight in arranging for bases and supplies is exhibited by the governments, I cannot see the land alone as an ally. When a cotton rag can free so hard that it will go through inches of ice if dropped straight down on it, it does not encourage one to believe that average equipment and average men can whip the land. One is forced to recall that the members of the famous expeditionary forces have been hand-picked."

The speaker made no criticism of the author's style, leaving her listeners to judge from the passages she read from the book from time to time.

Girl Graduate Honor Guest At Breakfast

HARLINGEN — An especially pretty event of the pre-commencement season was the breakfast Saturday at the Macy Tea House honoring Miss Frances Ruth King. Hostess for the attractive affair was Miss Joyce Wilson. Miss King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. King, is one of the popular members of the 1941 graduating class.

Guests were seated at a table prettily decorated to reflect the Mayday theme with varicolored spring flowers forming the centerpiece. Favors, beautifully wrapped in white and tied with pastel ribbons, served as placecards. A gift marked the cover for the honoree.

Others present were Misses Bettylou Williams, Ernestine Lane, Betty Jean Thompson, Jean Sykes, and Marie Harpin, Mrs. T. D. King, and the hostess.

Ma Kochas Will Honor Mothers

McALLEN—Observance of Mother's day is providing the reason for several interesting parties this week in McAllen.

Following a delightful sentimental custom members of the Ma Kocha club will entertain their mothers or mothers of friends at a coffee Tuesday morning. The coffee will be held from 9:30 a.m. on at the home of Mrs. Jack Denton, 1001 North Main street.

On Friday members of the Ithica Sew and So club will entertain for mothers only at Mrs. Dwight Yoder's home. The occasion will be a tea when mothers will be honored.

Mothers and their daughters will be honored at the annual Mother-Daughters banquet the Women's Society for Christian Service of the First Methodist church will stage at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. Held annually for the past few years these events always attract a large crowd. Members of the Naomi circle will be in charge of the program. Tickets went on sale Friday with Mrs. W. H. Covalt in charge of their sale.

Mother's day itself will be noted next Sunday when members of the Junior Book club entertain their mothers at breakfast at the Casa de Palmas hotel. An interesting program is being arranged, putting emphasis on the meaning of the day.

Canal Zone Is Setting For Wedding

Rites Solemnized In Cristobal Church

BROWNSVILLE — Of much interest in Brownsville and in other parts of the Valley is the following account, taken from The Star and Herald, Panama, R. P., Sunday, April 27:

"The marriage of Miss Florence Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wilson of Brownsville, Texas, to Mr. Howard K. Cummins of Cristobal, was solemnized at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Cristobal Union church with the pastor, the Rev. Cecil L. Morgan, officiating. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Cummins of Brownsville, were present with members of the Pan American Airways staff at France Field, where Mr. Cummins is employed as assistant airport manager, and a group of friends.

"The bride was lovely in a floor-length frock of shell pink marquisette. She wore a picture hat of lacy straw in a matching shade of pink and carried a bouquet of orchids. Miss Anne Shirley, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a lace tea dress in pastel blue and a wide white straw hat. Her flowers were a bouquet of orchids.

"Mr. Louis Kowalski was best man. Preceding the entrance of the wedding party, Miss Ruth Egolf of Gatun sang 'Because.' Mr Lee Moyer, organist, was her accompanist and played the weddins marches. Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, and Mr. Wayne Kircher were ushers.

"Following the wedding ceremony, Miss Anne Shirley entertained with a dinner party at the Hotel Washington, honoring Mr. Cummins and his lovely young bride. Other guests included Mr. Cummins' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil L. Morgan, the Misses Sue and Sadie Kyle, Miss Leslie Stevens, Mr. Louis Kowalsi, Mr. Robert Evans, Mr. Gilbert Vidaurri, Mr. Wayne Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt.

"The young couple left last evening for the Pacific Side and will go by plane today to Medellin for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Colon.

"Mr. Cummins came to the Isthmus a year ago from Brownsville. His bride arrived Friday by Pan American Airways plane from that city. Mr. Cummins' parents accompanied the bride to the Isthmus and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Witt in Old Cristobal."

Book Review Given For Junior Club

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. Randall Mathers reviewed the book, "On the Long Tide," by the Texas writer, Laura Krey, at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Junior Self-Culture club at the home of Mrs. Martin Price.

The book, a story of early Texas history, tells of the hardships, great courage and bravery of the Texas pioneers.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Jack Wiech, president, Mrs. H. N. Pitner gave a report of the City Federation meeting, and Mrs. Fred Pilgrim told of the Valley Federation meeting.

Miss Betty Rockwell was elected corresponding secretary for the remainder of the year, taking the place of Mrs. G. W. Putegnat who has joined Mr. Putegnat at Camp Wolters in Mineral Wells; and corresponding secretary for 1941-42 to fill the place left by the resignation from the club of Miss Elizabeth Graham.

Most of the members planned to assist in the drive for funds for the Women's Field Army of the America Society for the Control of Cancer, slated Saturday.

Two guests at the meeting were Mrs. John F. Barron and Mrs. Carol Tanner.

The next meeting will be the annual May breakfast of the club at 9:30 a.m. at Landrum's May 17.

Club Entertained By Mrs. Gilliland

RAYMONDVILLE—Mrs. Earl Gilliland served breakfast to her Thursday Morning club.

Guests playing for absent members were Mrs. E. H. Jamison and Mrs. J. K. Smith. Mrs. G. E. Bennack made high score and received the trophy.

Lovely roses and snapdragons made the party rooms springlike.

Council To Meet

RAYMONDVILLE—The Valley Council of Garden Clubs will meet in Raymondville on Friday, May 9, at 11 o'clock.

Time and place will be announced at an early date.

In May or June this year the Columbia River, backed up by Grand Coulee Dam, is expected to reach full flood stage. It will form a like 151 miles long.

Engagement Announced

Engagement of Miss Gertrude Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett of Pharr and San Juan, and Dale Terry of Corpus Christi, son of Mrs. Frances Meyers of Corpus Christi, was recently announced at a tea given by the parents of the bride-to-be. Miss Bennett, whose wedding will take place during the spring season, was honored with a beautifully appointed bridal shower recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Chancellor in Pharr. (Kerr Studio.)

Seal Eskimos Of Canada Described For Table In Review By Mrs. Faxon

BROWNSVILLE — Members of the Pan American Round Table, meeting Friday at El Jardin hotel, for the regular monthly program and luncheon were given a fascinating picture of the Seal Eskimos of King William Land, by Mrs. Kenneth Faxon, in a program on Canada.

The program was in the for mof a book review of "Kabloona," by Viconte Gontran de Montaigne de Poncins in collaboration with Lewis Galantiere.

Mrs. Ben M. Freudenstein, director, presided at the session, when the members answered roll call with current events on their respective countries.

Mrs. Fred J. Wheeler of Glendale, California, a guest here in the home of her mother, Mrs. G. W. Johnson, was welcomed. Mrs. Wheeler, a former Table member, told of her activities in national defense work in aviation.

Decorations for the table was especially effective. In miniature were igloos, fashioned cleverly of lump sugar, barren wastes of snow, Eskimos in fur garments, sleds drawn by dogs, Eskimos fishing in the ice, harpoons, and caribou arranged by Mrs. Kellis G. Buckley and Mrs. W. W. Fly. Mrs. Ely explained the decorations, and the Canadian flag. Place cards were block prints of an Eskimo scene, printed in blue on white, the work of Harrison Whitney.

The book is the story of a white man's experiences from spring of 1938 to spring of 1939 among the 25 Eskimos of King William Land, located south and east of Victoria LIsland. Mrs. Faxon began her review by telling a little of the author, descendant of one of France's greatest sages, who earned material success by starting at the bottom, only to relinquish a position as head of a British subsidiary of an Italian silk firm to wander over the world. Poncins was last heard from when he sailed for France in April 1940.

She detailed the Kabloona's (white man) first encounter with North Canada in Coppermine, where he learned the two rules of life were "eat" and "keep warm," where he became friends with the Oblate priest, Father Delelande, and where arctic clothing was made for him. Traveling by 'boat 1900 miles to reach Perry, 500 miles away, Kabloona went by motor boat to Gjoa Haven, where Eskimos came to trade with Paddy Gibson, Hudson's Bay Post manager, his first encounter with the Eskimo mentality.

The speaker read passages from the book, describing the store, and the processes of trading, saying "Exchange in Eskimo life is normal, understandable; a free gift is something he cannot comprehend. He will despise the man who makes it; yet he would lend his wife for a package of needles." Mrs. Faxon told of the practice of wife-lending, and of the great influence the Eskimo wife exerts over the husband, even to kill.

Mrs. Faxon told of the ease with which the Eskimo murders, as contrasted with his inability in most cases, to tell a harmful lie, and his suicide for honor. She said that he was unable to make generalizations, to explain his actions or attitudes. While unable to understand the gift with no idea of exchange, the Eskimo shares food and shelter with one who has nothing. Behind this, the speaker said, are two ideas, giving gives a lien on something in the future; and the natural kindness of the Eskimos who practice a kind of communal living.

The speaker contrasted the life and character of the Pelley Bay Eskimos, where food was not a constant problem and life was dignified and orderly, and clean, with the Seal Eskimos, whose life is a struggle for food, and whose personal habits are nasty and dirty. She listed as a salient trait of the Seal Eskimos his feeling of superiority to the Kabloona, who cannot take care of himself, follow a trail, load a sled, build an igloo, and is foolish enough to trade fox skins (worthless except as rags to them) for tobacco and tea.

Mrs. Faxon detailed the philosophy the author brought away with him from the Arctic tundra, a moral serenity earned with the perils and poverty of the tundra, a loss of the world, but the gain of knowledge of himself.

In closing, Mrs. Faxon said, "I leave the book wondering what part, if any, these people will play in the international situation. I cannot imagine them in the role of either ally or enemy. Unless great foresight in arranging for bases and supplies is exhibited by the governments, I cannot see the land alone as an ally. When a cotton rag can free so hard that it will go through inches of ice if dropped straight down on it, it does not encourage one to believe that average equipment and average men can whip the land. One is forced to recall that the members of the famous expeditionary forces have been hand-picked."

The speaker made no criticism of the author's style, leaving her listeners to judge from the passages she read from the book from time to time.

Girl Graduate Honor Guest At Breakfast

HARLINGEN — An especially pretty event of the pre-commencement season was the breakfast Saturday at the Macy Tea House honoring Miss Frances Ruth King. Hostess for the attractive affair was Miss Joyce Wilson. Miss King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. King, is one of the popular members of the 1941 graduating class.

Guests were seated at a table prettily decorated to reflect the Mayday theme with varicolored spring flowers forming the centerpiece. Favors, beautifully wrapped in white and tied with pastel ribbons, served as placecards. A gift marked the cover for the honoree.

Others present were Misses Bettylou Williams, Ernestine Lane, Betty Jean Thompson, Jean Sykes, and Marie Harpin, Mrs. T. D. King, and the hostess.

COMBES — Tommy Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gilbert, was guest of honor at a party on Monday celebrating his fifth birthday at the home of his parents. The birthday cake with its five candles was the centerpiece for a lovely decorated table. The honoree was the recipient of many little gifts.

Small guests were: Marion and Melvin Siation, Alan Doss, Ann Snavely, Lois Jean Haynes, Evelyn McCormick, Kathryn Ann and Bill Brackmeyer, Frances Swann, Maris Ann Waters, Blanca Rodriguez, Dell Sibley, Dorothy Roller and Billy Joe Gilbert and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Gilbert's guests were Mrs. W. T. Staton Sr., grandmother of Tommy, Mrs. B. Q. Roller, and Mrs. Annice Bouldin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Staton Jr., and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCormick and children motored to Bruni early Sunday and were the guests for the day of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Weiss, pastor of the Methodist church there. Rev. Weiss pastored the church here two years, leaving last fall for Bruni.

Dinner And Dance Honors Trio Of Boy Graduates

SAN BENITO — One of the most delightful of the festive events that are lending gaiety to the pre-commencement season was the dinner dance given at Landrum's in Brownsville by Mrs. Angie Taylor and Miss Iantha Demaree. Named as honor guests were Roswell Bohner, Jimmy Shafer, and Buddy Treon, members of the graduating class.

The guests were seated at quartet tables centered with miniature white carts which held Mexican candles. The Mexican theme was noted in the place cards. Favors for the girls were miniature umbrellas and for the boys hats.

Prizes awarded in a clever contest repeated the Mexican motif, a straw man in Mexican handcraft going to the winning boy and a Spanish dancing girl to the successful girl guest.

Assisting the hostesses was their mother, Mrs. J. W. Demaree.

Gay Affair Is Breakfast For Graduate

SAN BENITO—One of the most delightful courtesies of the season was the breakfast Saturday morning at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel honoring Betty Ann Higgins with Mrs Jesse A. Welch as hostess. Miss Higgins is a member of the graduating class of the San Benito high school.

Guests were seated at one table centered by a bowl of flowers in the senior colors of orchid and pink. Place cards were miniature girl graduates in dresses of pink and blue with handkerchiefs. The honoree was remembered with a pretty gift.

Guests were Nona Foster, Rosemary Atkins, Tad Brown, Betty Brown, Joan Hagar, Miriam Monger, Bonnie Lou Bryant, Doris Gilbert, Ann Stanley, Katherine Ballenger, Virginia Alewine, Sarita Glenn, Marilyn Smith, Helen Hagedorn, Charline Jones, Mary Lou Sweeney, Patty Lou Ogden and Mrs. M. B Higgins, mother of the honoree.

HARLINGEN—Mrs. George Holland presented her collection of antique dolls in connection with a lecture she gave at the Sam Houston school Wednesday. The lovely old dolls were dressed in costumes of Civil War days. Some of the dolls date back 50 years or more ago.

In conjunction with the lecture, sponsored by the Sam Houston Parents and Educators, boys and girls of the schools brought their favorite dolls to be judged. A very large collection of interesting dolls resulted.

Winners were announced as follows: grand prize, Rosemary Smith; boys' division, David Joe Weaver, first; Jimmy Hollingsworth, second; Duane Beals, third. Girls', Helen Neary, first; Phillip Crane, second; Jimmy Lou Bradd, third. Rag doll, Gilmer Jean Keller, first; Sally Jean Gross, second; Clarice Rouse, third; Betty Elrod, fourth.

Members of the organization have extended thanks to Mrs. Holland; to the judges, Mesdames Ira Eells, G. W. Crofoot, and Mabel Peebles; and to Mrs. Jack King who presented third place prize winners with theatre tickets. Cash prizes were awarded for first and second.

Mission Club Is Sponsoring Music Week

MISSION — Observance of National Music Week in Mission will be sponsored by the Mission Music club, it was announced this week by Mrs. T. R. Card, chairman of the event. Churches, service clubs and women's groups are invited to participate in the observance, May 4-11, by planning their programs to include musical numbers to stress the idea.

Mission organizations were urged this week by Mrs. Card to incorporate the Pan-American theme in the special musical numbers to be given during the music week programs.

Of special interest will be the presentation of two public concerts during the week. Tuesday, May 6, the band and choruses of the Mission high school music department will present their annual spring concert in the Morgan Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public. Clayborne Norris, vocal director, and Phil Shader, band director, will be in charge of the concert.

Outstanding students will receive awards to be presented by the Mission Music Club as one feature of the concert. Keys will be presented to the outstanding senior member of the girls' and boys' choruses and to the outstanding boy and girl members of the band.

Thursday night, May 8, pupils of Wilson School will be presented in a program sponsored by the Wilson Parent Teacher Association.

Pretty Tea Honors Guest

Mrs. Burrow spoke informally on "The Use of Music in Teaching Children Religion."

Following the discussion the hostess served dainty tea.

Annual May Fete West Brownsville School Set Tuesday

BROWNSVILLE — Annual May fete of the West Brownsville school has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the school.

This year the event will be in the nature of a patriotic pageant, "Our United States." This will tell the story of the United States, beginning with the Pilgrims, down to the present time.

All friends and patrons of the school, and all parents of children who are students are cordially invited to attend. This is the outstanding event of the school year in West Brownsville school.

Bingleys Honored

LOS FRESNOS — Mrs. George Laakso and Mrs. G. B. Waller were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Laakso on Wednesday evening with a steak dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Bingley and daughter Billie who will move to their new home in San Benito this week.

Guests for the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spangler, Edd Bingley, Mrs. N. G. Chatelle, Gerry and Jimmy Chatelle, Mr. and Mrs. Bingley and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, and Mrs. Laakso and three sons.

Youthful Musician

Miss Marjorie Trott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Trott of Weslaco, is an outstanding music student at Texas State College for Women. She has recently been on a tour playing in Galveston and Temple. She was the only pianist on the artist's course presented in March when T. S. C. W. presented the Symphony Orchestra, College Choir, and Chorus. An honor student, Miss Trott is soloist for the Symphony Orchestra, is a member of the Odean Music Club, the Delian Club, and is vice president of Alpha Chi.

Lovely Garden Setting Adds Pleasure To Party Honoring Girl Graduates

HARLINGEN — In a beautiful garden bordered with beds of snowy lilies, senior girls of the Harlingen high school were entertained with a garden party Thursday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Lola Paine and Mrs. Lee Murphy. Honorees were Polly Breedlove and Gerry Chastain, girl graduates, and co-hostesses were their mothers, Mrs. E. C. Breedlove and Mrs. J. F. Chastain.

Adding to the natural beauty of the garden were baskets of lilies, mingled with dainty pink blossoms, and the pastel formal frocks worn by the young girls. Flowerbeds abloom with pansies, phlox, petunias, and other old-fashioned posies bordered the pathway to the "wishing well" where each girl received a fortune.

Purple and white was noted in appointments for the tea table, bougainvilleas being the chosen flowers.

Miss Breedlove wore a peach dotted swiss formal made with extremely full skirt and Miss Chastain's costume was of blue net. Martha Lois Schuepbach, who presided at the punch bowl, wore a cotton print made along quaint, old-fashioned lines, and her sister, Billie Dee, who served the cakes, wore a white skirt with blouse in red and white stripes. Janice Snowden in charge of the wishing well, was in white marquisette with red dots and Martha Dean Ramsey, who presided over the guest register, wore white bengaline with pale blue jerkin.

Violin music by Robin Burdette, who was accompanied at the piano by his father, Grafton Burdette, was played throughout the receiving hours of five to seven.

Feminine members of the faculty and the senior class mothers were special guests. Senior mothers are Mesdames E. L. Lee, L. B. Sherman, Archie Harwood, Edgar Johnston, R. H. Weed, J. L. Boggus, L. T. Smith, and J. F. Chastain.

Assisting the hostesses were Misses Marjorie and Thora Lou Breedlove and Mrs. C. D. Wallace.

About 75 guests were received.

The typewriter was invented by a Dane, Malling-Hansen.

Music Club Plans Series Of Programs

SAN BENITO — Series of programs planned in observance of National Music Week under sponsorship of the San Benito Music Club has been announced by Dr. Mamie Pester, president.

Singing of the hymn, 'Holy, Holy, Holy," has been requested in the local churches Sunday morning. In the afternoon the San Benito high school band will give a concert in the municipal auditorium at Harlingen. They will be assisted by the high school choral groups, by Robert Reed, pianist, and Miss Margaret McCandless, soloist.

Monday evening, May 5, will be observed, as Senior Music Club Night. At this program, the Senior Club will present Mrs. Lucie Hager of Mercedes, as guest soloist. Mrs. Hager is president of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The Music Club Chorus, directed by Mrs. G. C. Schurman, will present two groups of songs. Making its first public appearance on this occasion, will be the San Benito concert ensemble, under the direction of Louis Vallee.

Tuesday evening will be recognized as Junior Music Club Night. On this program will be featured, solo and ensemble groups of junior club members, assisted by the junior high school choral groups.

Wednesday evening will be observed as sacred music night when music club members will give special numbers at the various prayer services.

Thursday evening will be High School Night. This program will be presented entirely by the high school band under the direction of Mr. Hall, and the high school choruses, directed by Mr. Hatchett.

All of the programs will be held in the high school auditorium at 6 p. m.

The San Benito Music Club extends a cordial invitation to all the people of the community to attend these special musical events.

Senior Play Scheduled For Tuesday

HARLINGEN — Did Karen Andre murder Bjorn Faulkner is the burning question that is repeated continuously in the minds of persons viewing the performance by the cast for "Night of January 16." The production, the annual high school senior play, will be given in the municipal auditorium Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p. m.

Polly Breedlove has the role of Karen Andre. Travers Hough portrays District Attorney Flint and Woodward Walker has the role of Defense Attorney Stevens.

Other members of the cast afford a group of unusual and interesting witnesses whose lines add fact upon fact in the gripping scenes representing a murder trial. Playing the various roles are Frances Ruth King, prison matron, Howard Smith, bailiff-clerk; Harold Wendt, judge; R. J. Twiss, physician; and Jo Carolyn Lewis, Duke Rose, Bill Wright, Gerry Chastain, Billie Jean Jenkins, Earl Pomerenk, Betty Jean Smith, Jimmy Hutson, Ned Davis, and Betty Deane Johnson.

W. Lee Byrd is director, Russel Rose, assistant director and Mark Hertz is stage manager.

McAllen Clubs Close Spring Season With Round Of Programs

McALLEN—With McAllen women's clubs preparing to wind up the current season, club women will be kept busy this week attending several outstanding events to mark the close of activity.

Members of the G-Women's Literary Club will hold their annual May breakfast at 9 a. m. Monday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel when special stress will be laid on the observance of National Music Week during the program.

Representatives from all McAllen federated clubs will attend the closing meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs scheduled for a 9:30 a. m. breakfast Tuesday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. At this meeting new officers will be installed and the annual reports given. Mrs. W. E. Crawford is the new president to succeed Mrs. W. H. Moon.

Three major social affairs spotlight club activity Wednesday.

Marking an annual custom, Chapter F, P. E. O., will entertain at their guest day tea at Mrs. F. E. Osborn's home. A meeting Friday will be the chapter's last meeting this season with the annual family picnic later in the month, recessing chapter activities until fall.

The expansive lawn at the S. L. Miller home will be the scene of the McAllen Garden Club's annual lawn party at guest day, Mrs. Miller, formerly president of the club, was succeeded this week by Mrs. H. E. Whigham when installation ceremonies were held.

The McAllen Music Club will hold the first of their May time closing sessions with an open meeting Wednesday at 4 p. m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. The program will feature observance of national music week.

Music Lovers Sponsoring Series Events

HARLINGEN—Observing a custom of many years standing, the Music Lovers Club will sponsor special musical programs and musical features during the coming year in recognition of National Music Week. Request has been made from the club, through the president, Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, that special music be presented in each church and that in each school attention be directed to music and that some special music be dedicated to music.

The Music Lovers Club will present a full program at the meeting of the Rotary Club, in accordance with an annual custom, and the club is also furnishing a special number for meetings of the other two service clubs during the week.

"Hear Music, Make Music, Enjoy Music," is the suggestion made by members of the committee in charge of the celebration of National Music Week May 4-10.

Farewell Party Held At Luncheon

McALLEN—As a farewell courtesy for Mrs. H. W. Kreidler, who left Thursday night for a visit in the north, a group of her friends entertained with a luncheon Thursday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

SAN BENITO—One of the most delightful courtesies of the season was the breakfast Saturday morning at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel honoring Betty Ann Higgins with Mrs. Jesse A. Welch as hostess. Miss Higgins is a member of the graduating class of the San Benito high school.

Guests were seated at one table centered by a bowl of flowers in the senior colors of orchid and pink. Place cards were miniature girl graduates in dresses of pink and blue with handkerchiefs. The honoree was remembered with a pretty gift.

Guests were Nona Foster, Rosemary Atkins, Tad Brown, Betty Brown, Joan Hagar, Miriam Monger, Bonnie Lou Bryant, Doris Gilbert, Ann Stanley, Katherine Ballenger, Virginia Alewine, Sarita Glenn, Marilyn Smith, Helen Hagedorn, Charline Jones, Mary Lou Sweeney, Patty Lou Ogden and Mrs. M. B Higgins, mother of the honoree.

HARLINGEN—Mrs. George Holland presented her collection of antique dolls in connection with a lecture she gave at the Sam Houston school Wednesday. The lovely old dolls were dressed in costumes of Civil War days. Some of the dolls date back 50 years or more ago.

In conjunction with the lecture, sponsored by the Sam Houston Parents and Educators, boys and girls of the schools brought their favorite dolls to be judged. A very large collection of interesting dolls resulted.

Winners were announced as follows: grand prize, Rosemary Smith; boys' division, David Joe Weaver, first; Jimmy Hollingsworth, second; Duane Beals, third. Girls', Helen Neary, first; Phillip Crane, second; Jimmy Lou Bradd, third. Rag doll, Gilmer Jean Keller, first; Sally Jean Gross, second; Clarice Rouse, third; Betty Elrod, fourth.

Members of the organization have extended thanks to Mrs. Holland; to the judges, Mesdames Ira Eells, G. W. Crofoot, and Mabel Peebles; and to Mrs. Jack King who presented third place prize winners with theatre tickets. Cash prizes were awarded for first and second.

Mission Club Is Sponsoring Music Week

MISSION — Observance of National Music Week in Mission will be sponsored by the Mission Music club, it was announced this week by Mrs. T. R. Card, chairman of the event. Churches, service clubs and women's groups are invited to participate in the observance, May 4-11, by planning their programs to include musical numbers to stress the idea.

Mission organizations were urged this week by Mrs. Card to incorporate the Pan-American theme in the special musical numbers to be given during the music week programs.

Of special interest will be the presentation of two public concerts during the week. Tuesday, May 6, the band and choruses of the Mission high school music department will present their annual spring concert in the Morgan Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public. Clayborne Norris, vocal director, and Phil Shader, band director, will be in charge of the concert.

Outstanding students will receive awards to be presented by the Mission Music Club as one feature of the concert. Keys will be presented to the outstanding senior member of the girls' and boys' choruses and to the outstanding boy and girl members of the band.

Thursday night, May 8, pupils of Wilson School will be presented in a program sponsored by the Wilson Parent Teacher Association.

Pretty Tea Honors Guest

RAYMONDVILLE—A pretty tea was given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles T. Hardt honoring Mrs. J. C. Burrow of Columbia, Mississippi, director of children's work in the Methodist Conference.

Guests were Mesdames C. C. Conley, H. L. Townsend, R. E. Harding, Fred Koerlin, Harry Douthit, M. J. Glarner, C. D. Ritter, Charles Pierce and Clifford Crowell and the Reverend and Mrs. Carroway of Harlingen.

Mrs. Burrow spoke informally on "The Use of Music in Teaching Children Religion."

Following the discussion the hostess served dainty tea.

Annual May Fete West Brownsville School Set Tuesday

BROWNSVILLE — Annual May fete of the West Brownsville school has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the school.

This year the event will be in the nature of a patriotic pageant, "Our United States." This will tell the story of the United States, beginning with the Pilgrims, down to the present time.

All friends and patrons of the school, and all parents of children who are students are cordially invited to attend. This is the outstanding event of the school year in West Brownsville school.

Bingleys Honored

LOS FRESNOS — Mrs. George Laakso and Mrs. G. B. Waller were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Laakso on Wednesday evening with a steak dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Bingley and daughter Billie who will move to their new home in San Benito this week.

Guests for the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spangler, Edd Bingley, Mrs. N. G. Chatelle, Gerry and Jimmy Chatelle, Mr. and Mrs. Bingley and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, and Mrs. Laakso and three sons.

Youthful Musician

Miss Marjorie Trott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Trott of Weslaco, is an outstanding music student at Texas State College for Women. She has recently been on a tour playing in Galveston and Temple. She was the only pianist on the artist's course presented in March when T. S. C. W. presented the Symphony Orchestra, College Choir, and Chorus. An honor student, Miss Trott is soloist for the Symphony Orchestra, is a member of the Odean Music Club, the Delian Club, and is vice president of Alpha Chi.

Lovely Garden Setting Adds Pleasure To Party Honoring Girl Graduates

HARLINGEN — In a beautiful garden bordered with beds of snowy lilies, senior girls of the Harlingen high school were entertained with a garden party Thursday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Lola Paine and Mrs. Lee Murphy. Honorees were Polly Breedlove and Gerry Chastain, girl graduates, and co-hostesses were their mothers, Mrs. E. C. Breedlove and Mrs. J. F. Chastain.

Adding to the natural beauty of the garden were baskets of lilies, mingled with dainty pink blossoms, and the pastel formal frocks worn by the young girls. Flowerbeds abloom with pansies, phlox, petunias, and other old-fashioned posies bordered the pathway to the "wishing well' where each girl received a fortune.

Purple and white was noted in appointments for the tea table, bougainvilleas being the chosen flowers.

Miss Breedlove wore a peach dotted swiss formal made with extremely full skirt and Miss Chastain's costume was of blue net. Martha Lois Schuepbach, who presided at the punch bowl, wore a cotton print made along quaint, old-fashioned lines, and her sister, Billie Dee, who served the cakes, wore a white skirt with blouse in red and white stripes. Janice Snowden in charge of the wishing well, was in white marquisette with red dotts and Martha Dean Ramsey, who presided over the guest register, wore white bengaline with pale blue jerkin.

Violin music by Robin Burdette, who was accompanied at the piano by his father, Grafton Burdette, was played throughout the receiving hours of five to seven.

Feminine members of the faculty and the senior class mothers were special guests. Senior mothers are Mesdames E. L. Lee, L. B. Sherman, Archie Harwood, Edgar Johnston, R. H. Weed, J. L. Boggus, L. T. Smith, and J. F. Chastain.

Assisting the hostesses were Misses Marjorie and Thora Lou Breedlove and Mrs. C. D. Wallace.

About 75 guests were received.

The typewriter was invented by a Dane, Malling Hansen.

Music Club Plans Series Of Programs

SAN BENITO — Series of programs planned in observance of National Music Week under sponsorship of the San Benito Music Club has been announced by Dr. Mamie Pester, president.

Singing of the hymn, 'Holy, Holy, Holy," has been requested in the local churches Sunday morning. In the afternoon the San Benito high school band will give a concert in the municipal auditorium at Harlingen. They will be assisted by the high school choral groups, by Robert Reed, pianist, and Miss Margaret McCandless, soloist.

Monday evening, May 5, will be observed as Senior Music Club Night. At this program, the Senior Club will present Mrs. Lucie Hager of Mercedes, as guest soloist. Mrs. Hager is president of the Eighth District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The Music Club Chorus, directed by Mrs. G. C. Schurman, will present two groups of songs. Making its first public appearance on this occasion, will be the San Benito concert ensemble, under the direction of Louis Vallee.

Tuesday evening will be recognized as Junior Music Club Night. On this program will be featured, solo and ensemble groups of junior club members, assisted by the junior high school choral groups.

Wednesday evening will be observed as sacred music night when music club members will give special numbers at the various prayer services.

Thursday evening will be High School Night. This program will be presented entirely by the high school band under the direction of Mr. Hall, and the high school choruses, directed by Mr. Hatchett.

All of the programs will be held in the high school auditorium at 6 p. m.

The San Benito Music Club extends a cordial invitation to all the people of the community to attend these special musical events.

Senior Play Scheduled For Tuesday

HARLINGEN — Did Karen Andre murder Bjorn Faulkner is the burning question that is repeated continuously in the minds of persons viewing the performance by the cast for "Night of January 16." The production, the annual high school senior play, will be given in the municipal auditorium Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p. m.

Polly Breedlove has the role of Karen Andre. Travers Hough portrays District Attorney Flint and Woodward Walker has the role of Defense Attorney Stevens.

Other members of the cast afford a group of unusual and interesting witnesses whose lines add fact upon fact in the gripping scenes representing a murder trial. Playing the various roles are Frances Ruth King, prison matron, Howard Smith, bailiff-clerk; Harold Wendt, judge; R. J. Twiss, physician; and Jo Carolyn Lewis, Duke Rose, Bill Wright, Gerry Chastain, Billie Jean Jenkins, Earl Pomerenk, Betty Jean Smith, Jimmy Hutson, Ned Davis, and Betty Deane Johnson.

W. Lee Byrd is director, Russel Rose, assistant director and Mark Hertz is stage manager.

McAllen Clubs Close Spring Season With Round Of Programs

McALLEN—With McAllen women's clubs preparing to wind up the current season, club women will be kept busy this week attending several outstanding events to mark the close of activity.

Members of the G-Women's Literary Club will hold their annual May breakfast at 9 a. m. Monday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel when special stress will be laid on the observance of National Music Week during the program.

Representatives from all McAllen federated clubs will attend the closing meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs scheduled for a 9:30 a. m. breakfast Tuesday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. At this meeting new officers will be installed and the annual reports given. Mrs. W. E. Crawford is the new president to succeed Mrs. W. H. Moon.

Three major social affairs spotlight club activity Wednesday.

Marking an annual custom, Chapter F, P. E. O., will entertain at their guest day tea at Mrs. F. E. Osborn's home. A meeting Friday will be the chapter's last meeting this season with the annual family picnic later in the month, recessing chapter activities until fall.

The expansive lawn at the S. L. Miller home will be the scene of the McAllen Garden Club's annual lawn party at guest day. Mrs. Miller, formerly president of the club, was succeeded this week by Mrs. H. E. Whigham when installation ceremonies were held.

The McAllen Music Club will hold the first of their May time closing sessions with an open meeting Wednesday at 4 p. m. at the Casa de Palmas Hotel. The program will feature observance of national music week.

Music Lovers Sponsoring Series Events

HARLINGEN—Observing a custom of many years standing, the Music Lovers Club will sponsor special musical programs and musical features during the coming year in recognition of National Music Week. Request has been made from the club, through the president, Mrs. Charles A. Washmon, that special music be presented in each church and that in each school attention be directed to music and that some special music be dedicated to music.

The Music Lovers Club will present a full program at the meeting of the Rotary Club, in accordance with an annual custom, and the club is also furnishing a special number for meetings of the other two service clubs during the week.

"Hear Music, Make Music, Enjoy Music," is the suggestion made by members of the committee in charge of the celebration of National Music Week May 4-10.

Farewell Party Held At Luncheon

McALLEN—As a farewell courtesy for Mrs. H. W. Kreidler, who left Thursday night for a visit in the north, a group of her friends entertained with a luncheon Thursday at the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

Present were Mrs. Jim Ragland, Mrs. L. E. Leech, Mrs. Frank Gilbert, Mrs. Bertha Van Over, Mrs. I. N. Wynans, Mrs. L. B. Weed, Miss Ruth Clark and Mrs. Kreidler.

EXPANSION OF BUSINESS DUE

Babson Sees General U. S. Prosperity

By ROGER W. BABSON

BABSON PARK, Mass.—You can't judge the nation by statistics only. Feelings are as potent as figures. Hence, I spend a great deal of time traveling throughout the country, talking with people in all walks of life. I travel in day coaches as well as in Pullmans and airplanes. I talk with small-town officials and bankers as well as those of large cities. Here is what I now learn from them:

Defense And Cost Of Living

Without question, aside from the effects of certain strikes in manufacturing centers, the program of production for defense purposes is reaching present capacity limits. The construction of new production facilities, however, will enable the volume of business to expand enormously in months to come. Business activity as a whole already exceeds that of 1929 by some 8 per cent and the rise is by no means reaching a limit. Mayors and other municipal officials in many cities outside the normal defense area are renewing their efforts to attract labor-supplying industries in an attempt to reduce relief loads. This is a commendable effort and should receive encouragement and help from Washington.

The greatly increased business activity in most sections of the country has raised commercial loans 25 per cent, carloading 30 per cent, and pushed up weekly payrolls. In spite of this, and some jacking up of rentals, food, and clothing prices, the cost of living is up a bare 2 per cent over last year. My readers need not yet be concerned over rising prices. The administration is watching the picture closely and will do everything possible to keep living costs down. Labor leaders as yet cannot give "increased living costs" as an honest excuse for wage raises.

Individual Spending

The winter resort business in Florida was off some 15 per cent this year, while California suffered as a result of consistent rains. Many men accustomed to a month or two off during the winter were this year chained to their desks in defense work. The Southwest resort areas—notably in Arizona—had the best winter for many years. The same rains which hurt California brought out the desert flowers, tempered the climate, and kept down the dust. What is "one man's poison is another man's meat!" The resort areas of the Northwest, Colorado, New England, and New York may benefit greatly from an active tourist season this coming summer. This should also be true of Canadian resorts.

Thus far, people are spending freely. This is especially true of workers. Many have a steady job for the first time in years. The rich are spending because they believe their wealth may be confiscated; while the poorer always spend all they get. We of the middle class think we need so many necessities, plus the luxuries of a new car, radio, etc., that we are putting out cash faster than we are taking it in. This is witnessed by mounting instalment sales. Little thought is being given by anyone, anywhere, to the coming "rainy day."

General Impressions

The unemployment situation has markedly improved throughout the Middlewest, but relief loads there are still relatively high. This is in contrast to most other sections of the country. Emotionally, the population of our East and West coasts seems geared to a notch or two higher than that of the great middle agricultural areas. Farmers are still more concerned about the weather, crop possibilities, and farm aid than they are about Aid to Britain or World War II. Pig-headedness and poor marketing conditions, with which I sympathize, still prevent them from making a decent living.

Bankers and businessmen feel much the same the country over. They are heartily in favor of our preparedness program. Though they know that it will penalize their business, bankers are in favor of raising the excess reserve requirements of the Federal Reserve Banks. They fear inflation more than anything else. This is in spite of the fact that they contract to only take in and pay out "dollars," regardless of what the dollar is worth.

Retail sales are well ahead of last year in the larger cities and defense spending is filtering into the rural areas where the outlook for sales is bright. Cotton and woolen mills in the South and in New England are booked to capacity for months ahead. Shipyard construction, shipbuilding, and, of course, aircraft production, particularly in the West Coast area, are booming. Automobile output is again being handicapped with labor troubles. Federal housing and cantonment construction continue, particularly in the South.

In the industrial areas, steel production has passed its theoretical capacity, while the opening of the Great Lakes to Spring traffic is stimulating activity in the inland ports. Petroleum and its products are entering a better period of prices and consumption. Livestock, including cattle and sheep, are enjoying high prices and owners are optimistic over the outlook. In fact, most Westerners and many Easterners seem more anxious to own a ranch than to own securities. Crop conditions are generally excellent. Mines are operating at capacity. The motion picture industry, while bewailing the loss of European markets, is enjoying gains in audience receipts and rentals.

The picture I see from my own studies and trips and from the reports of my associates is one of very general prosperity. True, many cases of hardship remain with us and many individuals are not alive to changing economic and social conditions.

Bankers and businessmen feel much the same the country over. They are heartily in favor of our preparedness program. Though they know that it will penalize their business, bankers are in favor of raising the excess reserve requirements of the Federal Reserve Banks. They fear inflation more than anything else. This is in spite of the fact that they contract to only take in and pay out "dollars," regardless of what the dollar is worth.

Retail sales are well ahead of last year in the larger cities and defense spending is filtering into the rural areas where the outlook for sales is bright. Cotton and woolen mills in the South and in New England are booked to capacity for months ahead. Shipyard construction, shipbuilding, and, of course, aircraft production, particularly in the West Coast area, are booming. Automobile output is again being handicapped with labor troubles. Federal housing and cantonment construction continue, particularly in the South.

In the industrial areas, steel production has passed its theoretical capacity, while the opening of the Great Lakes to Spring traffic is stimulating activity in the inland ports. Petroleum and its products are entering a better period of prices and consumption. Livestock, including cattle and sheep, are enjoying high prices and owners are optimistic over the outlook. In fact, most Westerners and many Easterners seem more anxious to own a ranch than to own securities. Crop conditions are generally excellent. Mines are operating at capacity. The motion picture industry, while bewailing the loss of European markets, is enjoying gains in audience receipts and rentals.

The picture I see from my own studies and trips and from the reports of my associates is one of very general prosperity. True, many cases of hardship remain with us and many individuals are not alive to changing economic and social conditions.

Screen Calendar NEWS OF LATEST MOTION PICTURES Current Films

BETTE DAVIS in her latest starring picture "The Great Lie," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville. George Brent and Mary Astor are cast in supporting roles.

BOB HOPE, Dorothy Lamour and Bing Crosby in "The Road to Zanzibar," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

BURGESS MEREDITH, Merle Oberon and Melvyn Douglas in the screen's hilarious comedy, "That Uncertain Feeling," which is booked for current showing today and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen.

Marlene Dietrich Seen In Spectacular Comedy

Marlene Dietrich is starred in the spectacular romantic comedy, "The Flame of New Orleans," which is booked for showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

In "The Flame of New Orleans" Miss Dietrich walks down the wedding aisle for the first time in her dramatic screen career. It is also the first time she has done light comedy and likewise it's the first time she has been given a high-style wardrobe and the first time she has ever impersonated a naive and sheltered gentlewoman.

Miss Dietrich is surrounded by a cast of distinguished screen favorites, the list including Bruce Cabot, Roland Young, Mischa Auer, Andy Devine, Melville Cooper, Eddie Quillan and others.

The story concerns Miss Dietrich's marriage to a wealthy banker and a romantic interlude with a handsome roughneck river skipper after which her life becomes a struggle between the wealth and security offered by her husband and the hazardous romance offered by her lover.

THRILLER BOOKED

The screen brings new thrills and chills with the presentation of "Man Made Monster" at the Queen Theatre in Brownsville today only, at the Queen Theatre in McAllen Monday and Tuesday, at the Rex Theatre in Mercedes Wednesday and Thursday and at the Palace Theatre in San Benito Friday and Saturday.

MARLENE DIETRICH in "The Flame of New Orleans," booked for showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

ADVENTURE FILM

Jack London's famed story of adventure, "The Sea Wolf," starring Edward G. Robinson, Ida Lupino and John Garfield, is showing today and Monday at the State Theatre in Mercedes and at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Current Films

FOR THE FIRST TIME in more than two years Bette Davi plays the role of a modern American girl in "The Great Lie," with George Brent and Mary Astor in featured supporting roles. In returning to a modern role, her first since "Dark Victory," Miss Davis has shed years along with her period gowns and character make-up.

"The Great Lie" presents perfect blending of stars and story and proves once and for all that Miss Davis doesn't have to play "a bad" role in order to be good. She is superbly natural and likeable in the role of a normal and modern girl who tells one lie to protect those she loves and nearly loses them.

Brent who was co-starred so successfully with Miss Davis in many films including "Dark Victory" is extremely well cast in the leading male role of a dare-devil flier and explorer caught in the eternal triangle, of good woman, bad woman and man. Miss Astor makes a triumphant return to the screen as the other member of the triangle. In the difficult role she gives a finely shaded performance which should win her recognition as one of the year's finest supporting actresses.

"The Great Lie" is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville.

"THAT UNCERTAIN FEELING" AT PALACE THEATRE

THE SCREEN'S hilarious comedy-romance "That Uncertain Feeling" co-stars Melvyn Douglas, Merle Oberon and Burgess Meredith.

The story plots its hilarious course around the rival-meets-husband-meets-wife theme. Douglas and Miss Oberon are cast as a happy young married couple. Miss Oberon being afflicted with hiccoughs skeptically pays a visit to a fashionable psychologist who probes into her marital relations and implants the thought that it is her married life that is causing her nervousness and hiccoughs.

To effect a cure the psychologist suggests that she become interested in music and while in his office she meets Meredith who is also seeking a cure for inhibitions. He is a concert pianist who is a wonderful musician when he has only himself for an audience but can not play a note before a crowd.

"That Uncertain Feeling" is booked for current showing today and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen.

POPULAR STAR TRIO IN COMEDY HIT

A SAFARI which goes nowhere fast takes Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour on a new and hilarious series of adventures in "The Road to Zanzibar" providing laughs and tom-tom rhythms.

Hope and Crosby are seen as carnival men in Africa who have done everything from shooting Hope out of a cannon to displaying a live octopus. When Hope sells a phony diamond mine the two come into money but have to run for it to get out of town. They meet Miss Lamour and her friend Una Merkel, American chorus girls, who are working a racket to get Miss Lamour to a wealthy man who wants to marry her. Hope thinks Miss Lamour is in love with him and Crosby thinks she is in love with him and Miss Merkel is determined that Miss Lamour is going to marry a rich tea planter. The whole thing turns out all right but not until after a lot of hilarious incidents and thrilling adventures in the African jungle.

"The Road to Zanzibar" is booked for current showing today and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the State Theatre in Mercedes, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

IRAQ FORCES ROUTED IN 2ND WAR AREA

British Take Axis Forces By Surprise In Africa

BOLD DESERT MOVE UPSETS NAZI PLANS

Nazis Still Stab At Tobruk

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Egypt—A British mechanized force cutting behind the German and Italian positions on the Egyptian frontier has raced across the desert plateau and taken by surprise a considerable body of Axis troops, middle eastern headquarters announced Saturday night.

This bold sortie, reminiscent of the tactics used in routing the Italians last winter, was carried out in the Salum sector while the Axis forces stabbed repeatedly at British-held Tobruk, 80 miles to the west, only to wind up still in the southwestern corner of that port's outer ring of defenses.

Axis Losses Heavy

The thwarted Tobruk assaults were declared to have cost the Axis forces heavy losses. These attacks were carried out for the most part by Germans using tanks with considerable air support. The Middle East command said two Stukas were bagged.

Military sources said the persistence of the Axis attacks indicated fully the British hold on Tobruk was stalling the Axis drive across northern Africa. They added that continuation of these attacks was to be expected.

The troops which swept behind the Axis line at Salum were said to have cut the Bardia-Tobruk road for a time while they were rounding up the surprised Germans and Italians. In additon to the prisoners they brought back a big field gun.

This daring maneuver also gained useful information concerning disposition of the Axis troops. Military quarters said the foray showed the British still retain their old cunning at desert warfare and are not losing the initiative.

Suez Drive Balked

Thus the Army of the Nile, outnumbered and awaiting reinforcement from the East, pursued the harassment of the German and Italian forces which rolled the British back from Libya to the Egyptian border but, so far, have been unable to continue their Suez-bound drive from that point.

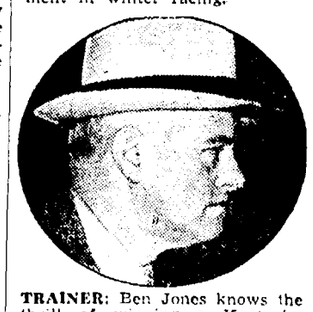
Simultaneously with these land operations, RAF bombers pounded Axis shipping and an official announcement said a destroyer and a merchant ship were sunk in the Mediterranean.

Additional RAF units raided Axis communications in the western desert and were declared to have set afire a number of vehicles in a convoy near El Aden. The RAF command announced that a German bomber and two fighters were downed in the Tobruk area and the South African air force was credited with downing one Italian craft and destroying another on the ground in Ethiopia.

WINNING THREESOME

OWNER: Warren Wright's father bred trotting horses. Warren switched to runners. He's had some good horses before but none as good as Whirlaway, two-year-old champ.

HORSE: Whirlaway was the top two-year-old with $77,275 in winnings. He was in the money in 13 of his 16 starts. The Hopeful Stakes victor was a disappointment in winter racing.



TRAINER: Ben Jones knows the thrill of winning a Kentucky Derby. His Lawrin won in 1938. He was confident Whirlaway would be primed and discounted the horse's poor showing during the winter.

WHIRLAWAY TAKES HOME DERBY CASH

Staretor, Outsider, Comes In 2nd

By SID FEDER

CHURCHILL DOWNS, LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—"Whacky" Whirlaway, the little chestnut horse with the big full tail and the blinding stretch speed, ran away with the greatest Kentucky Derby of them all Saturday.

Fairly flying down the last long quarter mile, the stretch-running-est son the blue grass has boasted of in a long time galloped home by eight lengths, laughing off all the "ifs" they had tagged onto his chances and bringing screams of admiration from the biggest crowd ever to see a horse race in America —an officially estimated 100,000.

Comes From Behind

He did it by coming up from eighth place in the field of 11 under masterful handling by wise Eddie Arcaro, and he put the crusher on his critics so convincingly that his smashing speed broke the Downs and Derby record for the mile and a quarter. He hit the wire in the red-hot time of 2 minutes, 1 2/5 seconds, two-fifth of a second faster than it took Twenty Grand in posting the fastest previous time in the 66 years of Derby history.

Far down the track and out of the money as he came bouncing home all by himself were the "big horses" of this race — Charley (Lucky) Howard's California-owned Porter's Cap and Royce Martin's Our Boots, the colts which they said would leave Whirlaway in the dust when he committed his usual racing "sin" of running wide at the last turn. But the little standard-bearer of Warren Wright just pointed his tail out in back like a rudder and ran as true as an arrow to give Chicago its second straight Derby victory and win by as wide a margin as any horse ever has taken this run for the roses.

Only Johnston in 1939 and Old Rosebud in 1914 ever made such a show of their field. It was as if the Derby was run in two sections, and the only contest in the race found the rank outsider in the field, Hugh Nesbitt's Staretor, driving to a neck decision over another

Villegas said a boy delivering goods to the farmhouse found the body and killed the reptile with a rifle.

6-INCH RAINS FLOOD RIVERS

Cloudbursts Threat To Roads, Stock

By The Associated Press

A six-inch rain sent rivers in Texas and Oklahoma roaring out of their banks Saturday threatening highway bridges and livestock.

Oklahoma highway workers were placed in guard at the Red River bridge on U.S. Highway 277 near Burkburnett as the stream was three feet below flood level and still rising.

At Victoria in South Texas the Guadalupe was slowly rising at 30 feet. Record stage there is 31.4 feet reached in 1936.

Lowlands south and west of Victoria were under water. The river was two to three miles wide.

Arterial highways were closed in the Austin area.

Traffic was expected to be re-

RIVER FLOOD DUE TUESDAY

Rains Up Rio Grande To 26-Foot Level

SAN BENITO—Flood stage in the Rio Grande at Brownsville can be expected by Tuesday with a rise to about 26 feet, J. L. Lytel, I. B. C. flood control project engineer, said Saturday night.

The river will continue to rise throughout the Lower Valley Sunday with Hidalgo expected to record about 30,000 second feet Sunday night. Laredo reported 19,000 second feet and falling on Saturday and 32,000 second feet was recorded at Rio Grande City Saturday night.

The Rio Grande's rise is a result of general rains all along the watershed with heavy rains recorded from as far up the river as Presidio.

Electricity On Wheels

Mobile Power Unit Due In Valley

MERCEDES—Managers of District 7 of the Texas Power Reserve Electric Cooperative in a meeting at Mercedes Saturday authorized the purchase of a mobile electric generating unit to be available to any section of this district in case of emergency.

This power plant on wheels, purchased mainly in line with the national defense movement, is sufficient to take care of any substation area in case the sub-station should be out of commission.

Most of Saturday's meeting was devoted to the discussion of operating problems. The meeting ended with an entertainment at Reynosa, Mexico, Saturday night with J. E. Wilder, manager of the Magic Valley Electric Cooperative Inc., of Mercedes, as host.

Other electric cooperative managers of this area who attended this meeting were Charles Beck of Cuero, Charles C. Fagg of Victoria, R. H. Hoffman of Karnes City, L. B. Walker of El Campo, M. S. Baker of Robstown, Robert L. Priest of Sinton. Leslie Roenigk representing the national REA applications and loan division, Washington, D. C., and Tom Shults of Cuero, an REA director of Dewitt county, also attended the meeting.

Vichy Says 26 U. S. Ships, Packed With Arms, Convoyed To Suez Canal

Vessels 'Packed To Funnels' And Accompanied By American Warships, Is Reported

By The Associated Press

VICHY, France — Diplomatic informants who usually are reliable said Saturday night they had circumstantial reports that 26 American merchant ships, stacked to the funnels with war materiel for the British middle-eastern armies and accompanied by American warships, had reached the Suez Canal.

The word used by the informants to describe the reported presence of United States naval vessels was that they were "convoying" the merchant ships.

In Washington, the Navy Department stated immediately upon receipt of the report: "No United States Navy ships are employed in convoy duty."

Maritime sources however said it was quite possible that the merchant ships reported at Suez had left United tSates shores with 75 mm. cannon and other materiel intended for Greece and Yugoslavia, and while it had been understood that these vessels were mainly Yugoslav and Greek freighters, some informed sources suggested that American vessels also might have headed for Suez via the Cape of Good Hope.

The report that the ships had arrived created a great stir in Vichy, where United States willingness as well as ability to convoy aid to Britain has been considered doubtful.

However, the fact that President Roosevelt recently suspended the neutrality ban on American ships entering the Red Sea and proceeding to Suez had been considered the forerunner of just such a move as reported Saturday.

In Cairo Friday British sources said that new equipment arriving in the Middle East, much of it American-made, is offsetting the British materiel losses in Greece.

LINDY AGAIN WARNS U.S. TO AVOID EUROPE

America Not Ready Says Flier

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh declared Saturday night America was not prepared to wage war abroad successfully but pleaded that we must and can defend our own nation.

He stressed particularly, in a speech prepared for an America First Committee rally, what he said was our inadequacy in the air.

He said that no matter how many planes we built and sent to England, we could not make the British Isles stronger than Germany in military aviation.

"Performance Inadequate"

"Not only is the performance of some of our vital types of service aircraft inadequate, but our total air force in the United States today, including both army and navy, both modern and obsolescent types, is not more than Germany can produce in a few weeks," he said. "It is a small fraction of her present airforce To enter a European war today with our air force would be almost as great a folly as that committed by France when she declared war on Germany n 1939"

It was Lindbergh's first speech since he resigned hi colonel's commission in the air corps reserve last Monday. The resignation followed President Roosevelt's press conference statement grouping Lindbergh with appeasers of the Revolutionary War and the copperheads of the Civil War.

Explains Resignation

Lindbergh referred to this early in his talk. He said:

"I resigned because I felt that the statements of the president left me no honorble alternative. This situation arose because I, together with millions of Americans, believe that our country should not enter the war in Europe while the president, and many with him, believe we should take part in that war."

"This is the third great nation that I have watched being led into war without adequate preparation and without the true facts and issues of the war being placed before the people," he continued.

"In England, in France and now in my own country, I have listened to politicians and idealists calling upon the people for war with hardly a thought of how that war is to be fought or won.

"I have seen France fall; I see England falling, and now I see America being led into the same morass.

"America Not Prepared"

I knew, in 1939, that England and France were not prepared to wage war successfully and I know that America is not prepared today

Legislators Here

12 To Attend Event In Valley Sunday

McALLEN—A party of 12 members of the Texas legislature and their guests arrived by plane in the Valley Saturday to attend the Sunday afternoon dedication of the new U. S. federal office building at Hidalgo.

The delegation included Speaker and Mrs. Homer L. Leonard of McAllen, Senator and Mrs. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg, Representative and Mrs. Hop Halsey of Lubbock, Representative and Mrs. Clinton Kersey of Bridgeport, Representative Obel McAlister of Fort Worth, Representative Emmett Morse of Houston and Bess Dunlavy and Martha Bradford of Austin, Speaker Leonard's secretaries

The group was met at the Brownsville airport by Sam Miller and Vannie Cook of McAllen, who brought 10 of the group here. Mr and Mrs. Kelley went on to Mifflin switch in Kenedy county to attend the annual meeting of the Aggie club of Texas A. and I. College.

Serbs Block Danube To Halt Nazi Oil Shipping

Rumanian Shipments May Be Delayed For At Least Three Months, Yugoslav Premier Claims

SOMEWHERE IN THE MIDDLE EAST—(AP)—General Dusan Simovic, premier of the refugee Yugoslav government, declared Saturday his troops had so effectively blocked the Danube River that it would be at least three months before the Germans could move any Rumanian oil into the Reich by barge.

Simovic said barges full of concrete had been scuttled in the Iron Gate, the gorge-like passage on the Yugoslav-Rumanian border and that by the most conservative estimates it would take three months to clear a channel.

The German radio reported only Friday that the Danube had been cleared for traffic despite the Yugoslav sinking of barges and dynamiting of bridges wherever possible.

Simovic and members of his government said that once Yugoslavia was occupied, the Germans began forcing mass migrations of Serbs in an effort to change the racial character of the region.

Telling of Serbs being forced to march many miles from home without food or water, one cabinet minister declared:

"This is the fate of a people which stood for its rights and fought valiantly for its freedom."

The government leaders said they had no authentic word from Croatia and Slovenia but were convinced the whole population would not accept the Nazi-fostered Croatian regime.

WAR TURNING POINT SEEN

Nazis Concentrate In Middle East

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF

BERLIN —(AP)— An important turning point in the war appeared almost at hand Saturday as Berlin concentrated its attention on the swiftly moving events in the Middle East.

The possibility of some declaration of policy was discussed in informed quarters, and the words, "new phase" was being heard as events speeded up in the Eastern Mediterranean and Asia Minor.

War's Phases

To date Germans have divided the war into sharply distinct phases: Poland, Norway, France, the Balkans.

Germans asked one another: Will a similarly distinct campaign be the Reich's next move?

Authorized spokesmen were noncommunicative save for such observations as "the war doesn't stand still" of "coming events cast their shadows before them."

But Germany's intense interest in the Near East was obvious and the cheering for Iraq, now fighting the British Imperial forces, swelled as new reports told of expanding operations there.

'British Encroachment'

The first semi-official comment, in the commentary service Deutsche Diplomatisch Politische Korrespondenz, said:

"Wherever a sense of honor still exists the greatest attention and recognition must be paid to the courageous stand of Iraq toward the

FCC APPROVES RADIO CHANGE

NBC Must Dispose Of One Network Now

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Federal Communications Commission approved Saturday, by a 5 to 2 vote, regulations which it said were intended to increase the number of radio networks and give individual stations "wider latitude" in their dealings with the networks.

The new regulations, among other things, will:

Make it necessary for the National Broadcasting Company to dispose of one of its two networks, known as the Red and Blue; prohibit, unless it can be shown that public interest requires otherwise, the licensing of two stations in the same area to one network; sharply regulate the affiliation contracts between networks and stations.

No Challenge Seen

There was an immediate indication that the industry might challenge the regulations in the courts.

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, said in a statement that the order "constitutes usurpation of power which has no justification in law and menaces the freedom of the American system of broadcasting." He called a meeting of the executive committee of the association at New York on Wednesday and quoted from a recent resolution of the association's directorate which said:

"The philosophy of American broadcasting as expressed in decisions of the supreme court of the United States and the applicable statutes envisages control of programs, of business management and of policy in the broadcaster and not subject to the supervisory control of the government."

Four commissioners joined with Chairman James L. Fly in voting to promulgate the regulations, making the vote 5 to 2. Those voting with Fly were Paul A. Walker, George Henry Payne, Frederick I. Thompson and Ray C. Wakefield.

Regulations regarding existing contracts will not become effective for 90 days. Other regulations are effective immediately.

Tiny Red Ant Stops Fast Freight Train

Judge William J. McDermott ruled it would cost Newman $5 for exercising that complex.

REP. JOHNSON RAPS STRIKES IN 1ST TALK

Senatorial Campaign In Full Swing

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

SAN MARCOS, Tex.—(AP)—Opening his campaign for U. S. Senator, New Deal Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson in a grim speech Saturday night questioned the right of labor or capital to strike in "this danger time" when the job of all is to save America.

The 32-year-old Congressman from central Texas who announced for Senator after a conference with President Roosevelt declared "the government itself must prevent both capital and labor from taking advantage of the national need."

Roosevelt's Friend

Johnson has been a close friend of Mr. Roosevelt since his election to the House of Representatives in 1937 to succeed the Late Congressman James P. Buchanan of Brenham. In 1938 and 1940 he was returned to Congress without opposition.

"The time has come to say: strikes must cease!" Johnson asserted, "and saying it, to mean also shut-downs of coal mines, manufacturers who will not make bombers for Britain, and every form of monkey-wrenching defense.

'Anything less spells France. Anything less spells death for England.

"The issue is: no strikes in this danger time! There can be but one answer. Roosevelt, your leader in peace and war, or Henry Ford and the hundreds of little Fords who want to tell their government what to make, for whom, at how much

Man Missing

McAllen Man Last Seen Week Ago

EDINBURG — A McAllen truck driver who has been missing since last Sunday still has not been located, the sheriff's office disclosed Saturday.

The man s Ralph Erwin, employed by Bob Finch of McAllen as a coffee truck driver. About 25 years of age, he was last seen at about 8 a. m. April 27 at the McAllen residence at which he stayed. He is about five feet, eight inches in height, has curly black hair, and has an affection in one eye. He was wearing striped overalls and cowboy boots when last seen.

So far as is known Erwin has no relatives. Finch told officers he was at a loss to explain why Erwin should be absent for such a time.

OIL FIELDS PROTECTED BY RAF BOMBERS

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

BERLIN— (Sunday) —(AP)—The Reichstag is to meet at 6 p.m. today (10 a.m. CST) to "receive a declaration of the Reichs government."

An official announcement said: "The German Reichstag will assemble at 6 p.m. tonight. On the day's agenda: a declaration of the Reichs government. The session will be broadcast over all German stations."

By The Associated Press

LONDON (Sunday) — British troops battling to preserve the empire's vast oil fields in the Middle East drove off Iraq forces attacking in the Basra area at the head of the Persian Gulf, it was learned in London early today.

RAF bombers and artillery were thrown into action against the Iraqi troops in this, the second battle area to develop in the suddenly flaring war in Iraq.

The British acknowledged last night that planes and men had been lost in a two-day battle at Habbaniyah airdrome.

Reinforcements Landed

Two contingents of reinforcements have been landed in recent days at Basra to help meet the threat to the precious flow of oil to the British Mediterrancan fleet.

British quarters here branded as untrue German reports that Indian Colonials had surrendered to the Iraqi forces.

The official statement, admitting that "a number of our aircraft have been destroyed on the ground and some casualties have been sustained," said, however, that the RAF had paid the Iraqis back by blasting some of their guns into silence.

The battle continued Saturday night—but, authoritative sources asserted, the oil which alone makes Iraq a prize worth fighting for still flows by pipeline to the Mediterranean. Britain blames agents of oil-hungry Germany for provoking the two-day-old conflict.

The Iraq government, anti-British since a coup d'etat placed Raschid Ali Al Gailani in power as premier April 4, claimed destruction of 26 British planes at Habbaniyah, the RAF base 60 miles west of Baghdad; and said the British had lost mechanized units in a vain attack on Rutbah (Rusba) fort and airdrome, 250 miles west of Baghdad. The ministry of information said the Rutbah story was untrue, but acknowledged destruction of Habbaniyah planes, mostly trainers

A formal British communique said Habbaniyah was entirely surrounded by Iraq troops entrenched in the high ground overlooking the field and that since early Friday the un-

HOLDER QUITS WILLACY POST

Rikard Gets Tax Job In Water District

RAYMONDVILLE — John F. Holder, for nine years tax assessor-collector for the Willacy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, resigned his post Friday at request of the board of directors, he announced here Saturday. The resignation and request were confirmed Saturday night by Albert Hughes, board president.

Reid Rikard, former president of the district board, and long a power in district politics, was appointed in Holder's place, Hughes said Saturday night. Holder's resignation was effective as of close of business Saturday night; and Rikard will take over Monday.

The request and resignation came Friday afternoon, Holder said, when he was called into a special meeting of the board. No explanation nor reason for the request was given, although he requested one, Holder said. Hughes Saturday night said reason for the request for Holder's resignation was no particular secret, but that he did not want to discuss the matter over the telephone. He added that he hoped the matter would not be given continuous publicity, feeling that affairs of the district had had enough publicity in the past.

The resignation of Holder came as no surprise; since persistent rumors last summer and early last fall indicated likelihood of an eventual attempt to replace him and perhaps other employes of the district. Holder indicated Saturday that he might make a statement later.

VALLEY CAMP EVENT DRAWS 500 SCOUTS

Rain Hampers Annual McAllen Outing

McALLEN—More than 500 Boy Scouts and their leaders were back at home Sunday after cutting their two-day McAllen camporee in half because of rain.

Represented at the Cascade camping ground were 65 patrols from all of the Valley council's eight districts. Boys from almost every town in the section registered before stormy weather caused cancellation of the Kiwanis-sponsored camporee.

Rain Friday night dampened most of the campers who had gathered at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon to begin the meeting, but Camp Doctor Alfred Osborn pronounced the boys fit Saturday morning except for a few minor colds and noted the fact that spirits of the boys were the only things not dampened.

Adverse weather caused calling off of all contests scheduled Saturday morning, and boys hauled down their tents to prepare for the homeward journey after cooking breakfast. Leaders graded them only on the quality of their camp and the food they prepared.

Judging the boys on camping and cooking, 38 patrols from 23 troops were given the highest rating, standard, their ratings with the highest listed first are Starr, Triangle and Participating. More than 30 other patrols won one of the three lower ratings.

Patrols rated Standard are: Weslaco Troop 41, Eagle; Troop 35, Bear, B. P. and Beaver; McAllen Troop 75, Wolf and Eagle, Troop 13, Flying Eagle and Indian, Troop 63 Tiger, Troop 12, Eagle; Raymondville Troop 27, Flaming Arrow; San Benito Troop 26, Beaver; Brownsville Troop 3 Fox, Troop 31 Lion, Troop 29 Rattle Snake, Flying Eagle and Black Beaver.

Donna Troop 4 Mohican, Troop 2 Rattlesnake and Hawk; Elsa-Edcouch Troop 8 Eagle, Bob White and Whippawill; Mission Troop 18 Mohawk, Troop 22 Coon, Lone Star and Longhorn, Troop 20 Eagle and Bob White; Sharyland Troop 55 Blazing Arrow, Flying Eagle, Black Cat and Covered Wagon; Edinburg Troop 1 Beaver, Troop 45 Eagle, Troop 7 Lion; Harlingen Troop 21 Flying Eagle; Pharr Troop 24 Wolf.

To Stress Skills

In the Friday night campfire ceremony the boys repledged themselves to the Scout motto, "Be Prepared." They followed that ceremony by expressing their desire to cooperate in strengthening America through practicing their scouting skills.

Scout Leader A. H. Dreyer, Mercedes resident and Valley Scout executive, outlined the part scouting will be called to play in the defense program. He presented a resume of the part Scouts played in the World War and discussed the emergency service organization which will be perfected during May.

Scouts, he said, will begin Monday to distribute posters throughout the Valley on the defense bond campaign after a request for cooperation from President Roosevelt. Scouts will list places where posters are placed and reports on their activity will be sent to Washington May 10. Leaders were given the posters Friday night for distribution to Scouts.

John Boeye, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee on the camporee, was loud in his praise for the cooperation and leadership of the boys. His committee was assisted by the army, Lions Club, Rotary Club, border patrol, highway patrol and Sea Scouts. Thanks for the use of the Cascade camping grounds were expressed to M. R. Nelson, owner.

Ratings were announced late Saturday by Moody after the camps had been inspected and graded by heads of the camporee. The ratings were made against the standard rating plan and officials said results proved that even under the adverse weather conditions, "The Boy Scouts can take it."

newest encroachment of the British Empire." It charged Britain with "flagrant disregard of treaty and apparent provocative intention" in sending new contingents of troops into Iraq while units originally landed still were present in the country.

Irak, said Korrespondenz, now "knows the value of the British promise to Arab peoples. Britain . . . now is obtaining a receipt from a small but brave people for its presumptuous attempts to force its mastery on the whole world."

For the moment, however, Germany was doing, apparently, no more than expressing deep sympathy for Iraq. Officials would not discuss reports that the Iraq government had asked Berlin for help, nor would they indicate whether there was any prospect of such aid.

Attention again was engaged by the war on English commerce.

The high command's report that submarines, planes and surface craft sank ships totalling 1,211,000 tons in April gave some conception of the intensity of this campaign.

Informed German sources estimated British shipping losses since the beginning of the war at close to 11,000,000 tons and added: "With the exception of the United States, there is no country which can relieve Britain's need for shipping space."

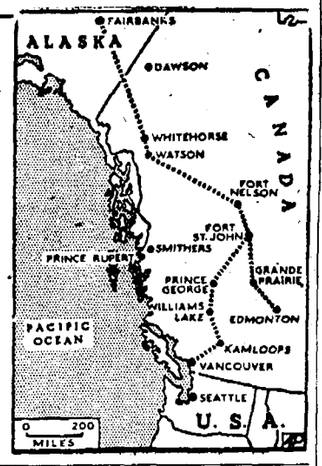
Canada Hastens Airport Chain



Construction work on Pacific coast air bases is being advanced swiftly by Canada as it faces the uncertainties of war. The Canadian government has announced that it would spend $9,000,000 on the project, beginnisg with a base at Edmonton, Alberta, and extending to White Horse in the Yukon. Dots show how bases projected and already completed would form a chain from border to border. Presumably the bases would be available to U. S. planes.

Move To Oust Reynolds As Commitee Head Abandoned

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Administration supporters were reported Saturday to have abandoned—largely because of Republican opposition—an attempt to keep the chairmanship of the important Senate military affairs committee from Senator Reynolds (D-NC.)

Reynolds, senior Democratic member of the committee in point of service, has been in line for the chairmanship since the recent death of Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.)

By Senate tradition, a committee chairmanship goes to the senior member of the majority party. In the case of Reynolds, there were many protests against his advancement in view of his criticism of the administration's program of aiding Britain.

Some administration men attempted to lay the groundwork for a move within the Democratic steering committee, which recommends committee assignments, to pass over Reynolds and place Senator Thomas (D-Utah) in the chairmanship.

While some believed the steering committee might be persuaded to go against precedent and side-track Reynolds, the North Carolina Senator made it known that he would appeal any such decision to the Senate.

A quiet check of the Senate was said to show that practically all of the 28 Republicans would vote to uphold the traditional custom.

Reynolds Supported

In addition, the canvass indicated Reynolds would have the support of several Democrats who entertain views similar to his about the British aid program, and of some Democrats of opposite views who still were firmly against depriving any member of a chairmanship when he was entitled to it by seniority.

For this reason, Reynolds' opponents were said to have concluded that the wisest thing to do was to let matters take their course in the steering committee.

sumed on the Fort Worth and Denver highway where three washouts were reported in northwest Texas.

Red Rampages

The Red River washed across U.S. Highway 283 in Oklahoma disrupting interstate traffic and cutting deep holes in the roadbed.

The north fork of the Red in Oklahoma was rising one foot per hour. The river was a mile wide west of Terrel bridge.

At Union, Okla., the Canadian River was falling.

A bridge between Crowell and Benjamin was washed out.

At Camp Hulen on the Texas coast a heavy wind lashed the camp theater into a welter of muddy canvas and smashed equipment. Torrential rains accompanied the twister.

The rain belt extended roughly over all west Texas from the Panhandle to the gulf and western Oklahoma. Some showers fell in East Texas, and heavy rains fell in some central and north central points. Showers were forecast for East Texas Sunday.

Wichita Falls reported clearing skies in that area after the torrential rains sent the Pease River on a 12-foot rise.

Benefit And Damage

There were both benefits and damages from the precipitation. It was regarded as helpful for pasturage and cotton, but prospect of wheat rust was regarded at Wichita Falls as a serious threat to a bumper grain crop. Bright sunshine and dry night would alleviate this situation, crop authorities said.

Farm damage, if any, was regarded as negligible in the Lubbock area, regarded as typical of the south plains.

Typical reports were: Alice 2:34, Carrizo Springs 1.30, Falfurrias 2, Hondo 1.17, Uvalde 1.28, Corpus Christi 2.48.

In west Texas: Ballinger 1.90, Big Spring 1.86, Brownwood 1.80, Dublin 1.12, Eastland 2.40, Haskell 3.25, Kerrville 1.31, Lampasas 1.12, San Angelo 1.63, Abilene 2.14, Brady 1.37, Clarendon 2.38, Crosbyton 2.12, Graham 1.50, Haskell 3.25, Memphis 2.74, Miami 1.85, Muleshoe 1.78, Plainview .96, Quanah 5.36, Snyder 1.84, Spur 2.25, Amarillo 1.49, Lubbock 1.05.

SP Engine Explodes; Four Train Men Die

SALINAS, Calif.—(AP)—A huge mountain locomotive pulling a 94-car Southern Pacific freight train exploded with a deafening blast Saturday, killing four trainsmen and hurling jagged smoking steel in all directions.

Twenty boxcars and oil tank cars piled up like toys along the right-of-way. Wreckage of the powerful engine rolled 250 feet down the track after the blast and remained right side up. The explosion occurred six miles north of Salinas.

Nazi Plane Downed

LONDON—(AP)—A German plane was shot down off the Kent coast Saturday afternoon, the air ministry announced Saturday night in reporting some air activity near the southeast and southwest coasts of England.

AUTO MAKERS ARE RATIONED

Million Less Cars Due For Next Year

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Automobile manufacturers were advised by the office of Production Management Saturday that they could make 4,224,152 vehicles in the model year beginning August 1.

Individual allotments were assigned to each company, but officials said that the figures would not be disclosed by firms.

It was learned, however, that General Motors Corporation, Chrysler and the Ford Motor Company were reduced 21 1-2 per cent below their production this year.

Total output of the automobile industry this year was estimated at 5,289,974 cars and the overall reduction will amount to 1,057,994 or 16.15 per cent.

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Publicity-conscious southern California has turned even its earthqcakes to advantage.

Finns Seem To Like The Idea Of Taxes

HELSINKI — (AP) — The Finnish government, in need of immediate cash and seeking to speed payment of property taxes, hit upon the idea of interest-bearing certificates.

The citizen could buy a certificate to the amount of his taxes, in advance, and receive six per cent interest on the money for the period between the purchase and the date the taxes were due.

The scheme was so successful that certificates are being sold now as desirable investments.

British Duel Nazi Raiders; 8 Downed

LONDON (Sunday) —(AP)— Britain's night fighters shot down six German bombers Saturday night and early today in the first hours of a terrific duel with strong forces of Nazi raiders.

Liverpool—for the third straight night—appeared the main target. Bombers rained down explosives there without the usual preliminary tactics.

IRAQ FORCES ARE ROUTED

Germans Blamed For New Conflict

fortified cantonment had been blasted by tons of artillery shells.

Some of the guns were smashed by British bombers, but the shelling at point-blank range continues, and the Iraqi air force has tried to raid the airdrome, the British officials stated.

"As regards Iraqui claims to have occupied oil wells and all airdromes of the country," said the ministry of information, "it should be pointed out that these have always been in Iraqi hands with the single exception of Shaiba airdrome near Basra, where so far as is known no hostile action has been attempted."

Authoritative British sources said they were unable to reconcile this declaration with the fact that before the war the RAF was known to have operated several airdromes in Iraq and that this number presumably had been increased rather than decreased.

Nazi Stories Sensational

The German radio kept up a running command of sensational declarations concerning the Iraq struggle even while German officialdom professed relative disinterest.

Overheard in London, these broadcasts included assertions that British planes tried to raid the Baghdad residence of the premier;

That one British plane was shot down in two RAF raids on Iraq troop concentrations at Baghdad's Camp Rashid;

That the Iraq army had taken over all oil wells, pipelines, pump stations and fisheries;

That there was an artillery duel in "the southern area; and that Iraq artillery had set off big oil fires and ammunition explosions at "Cineldebane" airport. (This apparently was a garbled version of Dhibban, the settlement on Lake Habbaniyah near the British air base.)

Britain Worried

While Britain eyed the situation with undisguised concern, a British authority said the oil pipeline still was operating and that in any event the fleet had stored up "numerous and adequate" fuel reserves in the Mediterranean.

On the heels of a German broadcast that Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, British ambassador to Baghdad, had been chased into the embassy by a mob which objected to his distributing propaganda leaflets, Sir Kinahan informed london:

"All is quiet in Baghdad."

A similar report came from Basra, the Persian Gulf seaport which the German radio said that the British had "attacked"

Premier In Charge

(German radio reports heard in New York by CBS said the Iraq premier had personally taken charge of his troops and that the Iraq disturbance "may well grow into a major test between British imperialism and the entire Arab world"

(This was followed by German broadcasts that Egyptian students in Cairo demonstrated against the British and clashed with British soldiers, and that British Indian troops were going over to the Iraq side)

Informed Britons blamed the Germans entirely for the Middle East explosion and speculated that the Nazis were trying to cause discord in neighboring Syria, Palestine, Transjordan, Saudi Arabi and Iran.

The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, long a thorn in the British side, has received help "handsomely and heavily" from Berlin, British sources said, so a new anti-Jewish outbreak by the Palestine Arabs would be no surprise. (Dispatches from Beirut to Vichy, France, said some blood already had been spilled in Palestine and some Jewish leaders kidnapped by Arabs.)

Moslem War Expected

German agents long have been striving to shatter British and French influence by fomenting nationaist movements and encouraging a vague "Pan-Moslem" idea in the Middle East, the British said.

The future of troublous French Syria was designated a major question.

A Saturday meeting of the French cabinet in Vichy was cancelled suddenly when Vice Premier Jean Darlan left for Paris. The Middle East situation caused his trip, Vichy diplomatic circles said.

From French circles expressed belief thta in response to the Iraq premier's plea for German aid, the Nazis might send troops by transport plane or go through Turkey. They hoped Hitler would not decide to go through Syria, though that posisbility obviously was uppermost in their minds.

Laval Sees Abetz

Pierre Laval, chief French advocate of full co-operation with Germany, conferred lengthily in Paris with Hitler's representative, Otto Abetz.

The French expressed belief that the Germans had made a deal promising the anti-British Iraqi leadership in a new all-Arab state.

At the same time, the French were nervously on the lookout for movement of German troops toward Spain for a possible attack on Gibraltar.

She Looks Sweet, She Sings Sweet, But Is She Another Deanna Durbin?

By ROBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Even with a sweet voice, it takes time for a youngster to become an over-night sensation, and Kathryn Grayson, latest entry in the movie singing lists, is no exception to the rule that has held for her quartet of rivals.

Miss Grayson, recently turned 19, joined a field of 'teen-age coloraturas that includes Deanna Durbin, Gloria Jean, Susanna Foster and Edith Fellows. The new singing actress, after a year and a half under contract and "under wraps," makes a pleasant debut in the new Hardy film, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary."

Her Ambition—Opera

She's a shy miss, still a little terrified by pictures, and still clinging to her early ambition for grand opera. She hasn't seen her first picture yet—only parts of it—and is trying, she says, to work up courage to see it all.

It takes no audience courage to see and hear Kathryn, however She has a pert freshness and youthful prettiness further enhanced by the effortless ease with which she sails through arias or popular songs.

Kathryn (real name Zelma Hedrick, of Winston-Salem, N. C.) came to Los Angeles from St. Louis when her father, a real estate man and building contractor, came here to set up business with a former partner. She was continuing her voice lessons, with no thought of movies, when her talents were brought to studio attention and she was persuaded to sign a contract.

"I had thought pictures would mean stopping my studies," she says, "but they assured me I could go on. And I've found I study harder at the studio than I did before."

For a year and a half, Kathryn has had a regular schedule of study under chosen tutors—a full eight-hour day which keeps her watching the minutes between classes.

Mickey Is "A Darling"

She was cast for her first film only when studio bosses deemed her ready. Kathryn herself wasn't so sure.

"I had flu all during the picture," she says, "and I didn't want to start off in such fast company. I'd heard that Mickey Rooney was a scene-stealer, and then there were all the others, such grand actors with so much experience. But Mickey was a darling—he helped me so much."

profit, or John L. Lewis and the hundreds of little Lewises seeking things now at the price of production.

"Depend On Leader"

"The President will not let you down . . . depend on the great heart of your leader, not on the hearts of men who say they lead you rightly, when they order you to lay down the very tools liberty must use to save itself."

Johnson, a member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, said "Britain is mighty wobbly" because it started late, "dawdled, appeased, waited for something to turn up."

"We have adopted the policy England must not fall," he declared. "But it can't continue without arms and planes or resist forever the great dictator who will start after us the day he shakes that island lose."

Energetic, forceful, the young congressman said he was seeking election to the Senate "knowing there is a chance I may be your war Senator."

But he made this promise:

"If the day ever comes when my vote must be cast to send your boy to the trenches, that day Lyndon Johnson will leave his Senate seat to go with him."

Touching on his experience in national affairs, he declared no other man in the Senate race "has that training and no other man can have it now. The time to train the firemen is before the fire breaks out."

Johnson said it was ridiculous to discount warnings that Germany may use bases in Africa and the Azores as springboards for an attack on the United States and South America.

"Modern bombers can hop from the Azores to New York, from Africa to Brazil, in a few hours," he said. 'Don't forget they ferry bombers to England over night).

TEXAS SENATE RACE IN FULL SWING NOW

By The Associated Press

Representative Lyndon Johnson's opening speech in his campaign for U. S. Senator, in which he urged unity behind President Roosevelt and questioned the right of labor to strike in time of danger, highlighted the race this week.

With Attorney General Gerald C. Mann mixing hand shakes with platform appearances, and Representative Martin Dies bearing down on defense and Fifth Column activities, the campaign was gradually picking up speed.

O'Daniel Is Question

Still a question mark was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's decision on whether to run. This was somewhat complicated by a series of north Texas appearances by his friend, Hal Collins of Mineral Wells, publicly asking for a 'go-ahead" sign from the voters. Collins, with an entourage of entertainers smacking of O'Daniel campaign tactics, drew good crowds in several cities last week.

Also undecided was Representative Wright Patman of Texarkana who has been considering a jump into the crowded arena.

In addition to the well-known figures there are numerous lesser known political aspirants including bearded Cyclone Davis, Jr., of Dallas as "the voice of temperance," air-minded John C. Williams of Rockport, a former naval flyer, and others.

Pierce Brooks May Run

Pierce Brooks of Dallas announced Saturday he had received 'hundreds of letters" urging him to announce. Brooks, in past campaigns candidate for railroad commissioner and lieutenant governor, said he had not made up his mind.

Dies spoke Saturday at Paris and next week was moving to Bonham, Monday; Sherman, Tuesday; Gainesville, Wednesday; Wichita Falls, Thursday; Vernon, Friday; Plainview, Saturday. Hometown and county campaign forces were organized and plans made for a speakers bureau to aid in the campaign.

Mann pledged his support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy at a Waco rally Friday and spoke at Weatherford, Waxahachie and Glen Rose Saturday. He planned further appearances and handshaking tours next week, but his headquarters had no definite announcement.

Johnson's forces were also hard at work organizing a statewide campaign. His opening speech indicated he would make political capital of the Roosevelt friendship, expressed soon after his announcement in Washington that he would make the race to succeed the Late Morris Sheppard in the June 28 special election.

RIO HONDO LAD INJURED

to wage a successful war in Europe."

Lindbergh, who started to national fame as an air mail flyer in St. Louis 15 years ago, told of his pre-war visits to England and the continent and the lack of air preparedness he found in the British Isles, France and Russia He told of the air strength of Germany and how he had informed the then Prime Minister Baldwin of England of that strength.

"The prime minister was very courteous but he changed the subject immediately," said Lindbergh. "Time and again, whenever the opportunity arose, I talked to members of the British government about military aviation in Europe. They were aways courteous, but seldom impressed."

"Why must our people be divided over this question of European war?" he asked.

"Defend Civilization".

"Here in America we are prepared to win a victory. Here, we can defend a civilization as great or greater than any the world has ever known. We have every geographical advantage for defense. We have unlimited natural resources. We have the most highly organized industry in the world.

"And we have another advantage in defending our country—the most important of all. It is unity of purpose. Every true American is ready to fight to preserve our nation. Everyone of us is ready to lay down his life if necessary for the defense of America On questions of American defense, our strength is multiplied by the unity among us It is only when we are told that our destiny lies in Europe, in Asia, in the Suez, in Singapore or in Dakar, that we divide"

ALL DRAFTEES TO GET FORMS

Call Order Will Not Be Altered, Said

AUSTIN — (AP) — Questionnaires will be sent immediately to all selective service registrants although the procedure will not alter previously announced draft calls, State Selective Service Director J. Watt Page announced Saturday.

The order which was dispatched to all local draft boards was to expedite classification and cut down time between calls for new selectees and their actual induction, Page said.

With classification complete, draft boards can more readily select the men to be called for physical examinations as quotas are announced, it was explained.

Page also said an amendment to selective service regulations now permits a 10-day lapse between a call for induction and actual induction. Previously the time period was five days. Under the new regulations it can be delayed as much as 60 days within the judgment of a draft board.

Meat Packing Plant Destroyed By Blast

TECUMSEH, Okla. — (AP) — Fire which followed an explosion Saturday night destroyed the Crocker Packing Plant, together with about 75 head of cattle and 75 head of hogs.

J. W. Crocker, manager of the plant, estimated damage at $50,000 and said that only an ice plant in the basement was saved. Cause of the explosion was not determined.

Carol, Lupescu Put Europe Behind Them

ABOARD THE S.S. EXCAMBION, At Sea—(AP)—Cuba-bound and happy about it, former King Carol of Rumania and Mme. Magda Lupescu put distance behind themselves and Europe's war-flaming atmosphere Saturday.

They were exuberant at the prospects of sanctuary in Cuba and the island's "first class climate."

Airplane factories in America are scheduled to turn out 1,800 planes a month by the end of 1941, 4,000 a month by the summer of 1942.

ARMY DEFERS PRE-MEDICS

Move May Avert U. S Doctor Shortage

WASHINGTON—(AP)—To avert a possible national shortage of doctors, the selective service system Saturday ordered deferment of military training for medical students who "give reasonable promise of becoming acceptable medical doctors."

A memorandum from Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service deputy director, instructed state and local boards to continue such deferments as long as the students progressed satisfactorily.

Local boards were urged to make sure that requirements of the armed forces for physicians and surgeons were filled, without summoning to military duty practicing doctors whose services were necessary to the community.

Hershey cited a recent survey by the Office of Production Management estimating a present need of 9,000 medical officers for the army, navy, public health service and veterans administration. To fill that need would remove about 5 per cent of the doctors now engaged in civilian practice.

Doctors Say Flying May Have Cured Old Cough Of Invalid's

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — (AP) — The story is told here of a 12-year-old girl for whom doctors gave up hope because of a persistent, apparently incurable cough.

She could not sleep. Eating was difficult.

As a last resort, the story goes, an aviator loaded her into a plane, flew for an hour at 4,000 feet and brought her back cured.

Doctors are debating whether the cure was due to psychological reaction or to actual benefits from a higher elevation.

Japanese Entering The 'Sufu' Period

TOKYO—(AP)—Planned economy has created a new word for the Japanese—sufu. They use it for anything they don't like.

Originally it was applied to the staple fiber mixed with cotton, wool or silk in order to conserve supplies of these goods.

But now they speak of sufu rice, or a sufu mattress, or sufu sake, the native rice wine.

Sufu sake is double sufu to any good Japanese, but sake brewers are experimenting nevertheless with potatoes, berries and other plants.

This brings an almost universal shout of "Inchiki!" Or in American slang: "We wuz robbed!"

Major Port Of Entry Foreseen For Valley

American Automobile Association To Open McAllen Office For Mexican Travel

McALLEN—Expansion of McAllen as a major international port of entry to Mexico, and an enormous increase in tourist traffic, was predicted by civic leaders here after E. S. C. Coppock, manager of the American Automobile Association activities in South Texas, announced to Chamber of Commerce officials that an official AAA office will be opened in McAllen about two weeks before the paving is completed on the Reynosa-Monterrey highway.

Coppock said AAA officials estimated that 5,500 cars of AAA members would be directed through McAllen the first 12 months after the new road is opened. These cars, he said, would carry an average of three persons each. Coppock said travelers to Mexico spent an estimated $350,000 in Laredo in the past year.

The travel official said McAllen was selected because of its advantages and their analysis presented by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce.

This AAA office will be in addition to the three-man Mexican consulate maintained in McAllen; one of the four largest free Mexican travel information bureaus in the U. S., operated by the McAllen chamber; and regular travel trips operated from McAllen to Monterrey and special trips to Mexico City.

Coppock pointed out that travel expenditures in the U. S. in 1940 amounted to over five billion dollars, the third biggest industry in America. He said the fact that Reynosa was actually west of McAllen as well as south, plus the accommodations at McAllen and the aggressiveness of the Chamber of Commerce would likely perpetually insure McAllen's leadership as a port of entry.

Consul Lauro Izaguirre said records of the Mexican Department of Immigration revealed that during 1940 McAllen ranked next to Laredo on the U. S.-Mexican border in importance as a port of entry to interior Mexico.

To supplement all of these facts, it was pointed out, is the Southern U. S.' finest customs station, to be opened Sunday at the north end of the Reynosa bridge; the new $100,000 suspension bridge, and the soon-to-be completed Reynosa-Monterrey Highway, now lacking only about 32 miles of being paved.

Willacy's Judge To Explain Setup

RAYMONDVILLE — All Willacy county grocers are requested to be present at the courthouse at 8 p m Monday night when a full explanation of the food stamp plan will be given, according to County Judge Charles Johnson.

The stamp plan will be placed into effect in Willacy county on May 15.

Federal, county and city officials will be on hand at the meeting to assist in the full explanation of the plan's details.

BUILDINGS TO BE RESTORED

2 In Brownsville On State Committee

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville citizens are members of a permanent committee for the preservation of historical buildings in Texas. They are Mrs. Volney Taylor and Harbert Davenport. Mrs. J. M. Burris of Dallas heads the committee.

Davenport recently was re-elected president of the Texas State Historical Association.

Under the direction of Samuel E. Gideon, professor of architecture at the University of Texas, the committee is making a study of early Texas buildings and the methods by which they may be restored and saved. Their findings will be reported at a meeting of the Texas State Historical Association in October.

Groundwork for the study has already been laid. Filed with the Library of Congress are blueprints and photographs of 270 historical Texas landmarks.

The shrines preserved on the national records range from Judge Roy Bean's "Hall of Justice" at Langtry to San Antonio's famed San Jose Mission.

One Dead, One Near Death After Hotel Fight Over Woman

SAN MATEO, Calif.—(AP)—One man was shot to death, and another was probably mortally wounded in a fashionable hotel here Saturday in what police called a quarrel over a woman.

William D. McNary, Jr., 26, Pendleton, Oregon, horseman, was found dead in a hotel room. Jack Holmes of nearby Burlingame lay gravely wounded.

Police Inspector Robert O'Brien said Holmes murmured that he had shot McNary; that "He stole my girl."

Britain's Destroyer Toll Now Up To 42

LONDON—(AP)—The loss of two destroyers, the Diamond and Wryneck, in the British troop withdrawal from Greece, raised the acknowledged sinkings of Britain's destroyers since the outbreak of the war to 42, including two Canadian.

At the start of the war Britain had 185 destroyers, subsequently augmented by 50 from the United States.

438 Pounds Too Much

NEW ORLEANS —(AP)— A local selective service board settled a weighty problem Saturday by rejecting 34-year-old Walton Wilson because he was 250 pounds overweight. Wilson, a cabinet maker, is 5 feet 11½ inches in height and weighs 438 pounds.

Interpreting the War News

Despite Nazi Diversions In Other Areas, English Invasion May Be Due

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON

ASSUMING THAT Hitler will waste no time in seeking to exploit his Balkan victories, conjecture as to where he will strike next against Britain runs a wide gamut.

There is little yet of a definite nature yet there is growing belief both in London and in Washington that England itself will bear the brunt of new Nazi blows—this despite Nazi-Fascist diversions in the Mediterranean and Middle East.

Such a conclusion is suggested by American moves to extend sea patrol protection far into the Atlantic and to supplement quickly tonnage available for British war uses. Both London and Washington are increasingly apprehensive that a decisive shipping crisis in the Atlantic might come soon, months earlier than heretofore anticipated.

Crisis Due In 1941

Prime Minister Churchill recently indicated to Parliament that he did not expect Britain's shipping problems to become critical before 1942.

There has been no official statements from London on shipping losses since mid-April. None is due before mid-May. However Berlin claims its air force, submarines and surface craft sank 1,211,000 tons of British merchant shipping space or space used by the British during April. Other sources tend to confirm some if not all German claims.

Rising uneasiness in London parliamentary circles over recent developments in the Atlantic is reported. It has induced a promise by Churchill lieutenants of an accounting, probably in connection with the government-demanded confidence vote test next week.

Churchill Safe?

Escape from Greece of a far larger part of the Imperial forces trapped there than could reasonably have been expected virtually assures an emphatic approval of Churchill's leadership. Cummulative bad news which may be coming on the shipping situation probably can be partially off-set, also, by reference to the American sea patrol and shipping pool measures.

Those American moves must have been dictated by Washington knowledge of actual or anticipated events not available to the public. It may be that this information led to the conclusion, that Nazi gestures eastward to the contrary, Hitler has signaled his forces to turn now on England for a death stroke.

There is a rising tempo to the Nazi attack on England by air and sea and a change in their pattern.

Of greater significance, however, is the British and American official view that it is only by smashing England that Hitler can win the war this year as he has promised, or any year.

Behind it lies the further indicated conclusion in both capitals that if England can survive until winter, her ultimate victory with American resources to back her is assured.

Manila Burns

Refugees Chased In Bay By Big Fire

MANILA—(AP)—Driving thousands of refugees before it into Manila Bay, a raging fire swept through three square miles of tenements in the thickly populated Tondo district of Manila Saturday. At least three persons were killed and 25,000 left homeless.

Authorities reported property damage exceeded $250,000. Three thousand homes were destroyed by flames which burned themselves out on the edge of the bay.

Firemen and troops fought the blaze for nine hours while other soldiers and police controlled an estimated 100,000 onlookers and relatives. The blaze was visible over the entire city.

FORT MOVIE READY SOON

Showhouse Nearing Completion

BROWNSVILLE—The new $13,500 Fort Brown theatre has virtually been completed and will probably be turned over to post officials early next week, it was annbunced here Saturday.

It will have a seating capacity of 350 persons.

Movie projection equipment must still be installed, but this will be done under supervision of Fort Brown authorities.

The U. S. Army Motion Picture Service is planning to work the new theatre into its exchange network.

Only first-run pictures will be shown. Post officials said it is doubtful whether the theatre will be opened before the 124th Cavalry Regiment leaves here for Fort Bliss on May 26.

NEW HIDALGO BUILDING TO GO ON VIEW

Dedication Program Scheduled Sunday

McALLEN—What will probably be the most gala celebration since the opening of the new international bridge between Hidalgo and Reynosa will take place Sunday at 12:30 p. m. on the American side of the river near the same new bridge.

Formal dedication of the new U. S. customs building at the north end of the span is the occasion for the fete. Speeches by prominent U. S., Mexico and Texas officials, military band music, a gesture of international goodwill from the Pan American Round Table of McAllen and a barbecue for invited visitors summarizes the program.

Broadcast Arranged

The ceremonies will be broadcast over KRGV between 12:30 and 1 p. m. All Valley and Reynosa people are invited to attend the dedication and inspect the new structure, Harry Hornby, U. S. collector of customs, said, adding that it is the finest customs house on the United States-Mexican border.

The barbecue at 1 p. m. in honor of distinguished guests will be attended by those wearing badges mailed out recently by those in charge of the program.

The McAllen Pan American Round Table added a new angle to the program which will be in charge of McAllen Chamber of Commerce Manager Paul T. Vickers, when they obtained Bishop William Capers to pronounce a Pan American invocation to open the ceremonies. Mrs. W. W. Dees of McAllen, immediate past director general of the Texas Pan American Round Table, will offer the invocation, and in behalf of the local group, will present the governors of Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon with small gift packages containing products manufactured in McAllen.

Brief Talks Planned

This feature, together with the display of the Pan American flag, was arranged by Mrs. Dees, Mrs. W. H. Moon and Allen F. Vannoy.

The remainder of the program will be taken up by talks of two minutes each by Speaker of the House Homer L. Leonard, Senator Rogers Kelley, Silvino Guzman, customs chief at Reynosa; Harry Hornby, William Whalen, U. S. immigration chief of San Antonio; Immigration Chief Enrique Ochoa Urtiz of Reynosa, General Pedro Lopez Tafoy, Reynosa garrison; Sam L. Miller, president of the Valley Bridge Company which owns the customs house, and Manager Joe E. Pate of the Valley Bridge Company. Music will be furnished by a Mexican orchestra from the Reynosa garrison as a break between the speeches.

LULACS GO TO DALLAS MEET

2 McAllen Members Leave June 12

McALLEN—Two members of the McAllen council of the League of Latin American Citizens will attend the national convention to be held at Dallas June 12 to 14 as official delegates.

Named by the council meeting in special session Friday night were Dr. E. G. Garza and J. R. Alamia with Joe V. Alamia and Dan Ceballos as alternates.

It was reported that a caravan of McAllen cars would make the trip to Dallas. Among those planning to go are F. M. Guerra, Raul Guerra, Ben Hernandez, J. M. Chapa and Romeo Vela.

J. R. Alamia reported that the special committee sent to the state legislature by the district convention here last Sunday met success with its efforts to push the bill now pending in the legislature providing a penalty for discrimination against members of the Caucasian race.

Reports on committee working on the district convention were made.

War May Mean Top Prices For Apples

LORIENT, France— (AP) —An excellent harvest and the British blockade may enable Brittany apple growers to win back domestic markets usurped in normal times by California, Florida and Canada. Border's Newest Customs House Dedicated Sunday

McALLEN—High state officials of Texas, Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon will attend the formal dedication Sunday noon of the newest and most modern United States customs house on the U. S.-Mexican border, according to Paul T. Vickers, manager of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce and master of ceremonies at the dedication exercises.

The $20,000 Spanish-type structure, just completed for use of United States inspection services at the Hidalgo-Reynosa port of entry by the Valley Bridge Co., operators of the new international suspension bridge there, is 125 feet long and 50 feet wide. Of stucco and brick construction, it replaced old frame buildings which had been in use since 1927.

Speaker Homer Leonard of the Texas House of Representatives and State Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg will represent Texas at the ceremonies, which will be broadcast over Station KRGV, Weslaco, at 12:30 p.m. U. S. Customs Collector Harry Hornby and U. S. Immigration Chief William Whalen, both of San Antonio, will represent their respective services.

It was not certain whether Gov. Bonifacio Salinas of Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, and Gov. Magdaleno Aguilar of Victoria, Tamps., would attend in person or whether they would send their representatives. Other federal officials of both the United States and Mexico were expected to be in attendance.—Photo by Brad Smith, McAllen.

ELSA LEADING VALLEY RACE

2720-Car Total Far Ahead Of Others

HARLINGEN—Elsa had almost a thousand car lead over its nearest competitor in the Valley fruit and vegetable shipping race as of April 30, it is shown by combining the monthly shipping reports of the Southern Pacific and Missouri Pacific railroads.

Elsa, on the S. P., had a total of 2,720 cars as of April 30 as compared to 1,844 cars moved by Mercedes, leading shipping point on the Missouri Pacific.

Pharr was third with 1,748, San Benito fourth with 1,682, and Edinburg fifth with 1,680.

Other shipping points with over a thousand cars out by rail this season include Brownsville 1,475, Weslaco 1,329, and McAllen 1,045.

Other shipping points had the following totals: Mission 990, Alamo 988, Engleman 866, Hartlingen 780, Santa Rosa 662, Donna 648, La Feria 426, Barreda 379, Laureles 355, Bayview 320, Edcouch 312, Sharyland 272, Raymondville 247, Lozano 164, Houser 146, Los Fresnos 115, Val Verde 114, San Carlos 84, Lantana 75, Adams Gardens 69, Esoes 65, Rio Hondo 58, San Juan 58, Stuart Place 51, San Perlita 51, Combes 44, Lindsay Gardens 36, McColl 25, Primera 21, Acacia 9, La Paloma 7, Slinkerts 7, Lyford 3, Southmost 3, Gays Switch 1.

Altogether, the railroads had moved only 22,071 cars of fruits and vegetables, a decrease of 4,239 cars over the same date last season.

FARM BUREAU MEET SLATED

Membership Drive To Be Lined Up

EDINBURG—Hidalgo county's 19 local chairmen in the drive to enroll 1,684 Hidalgo county members in a projected new county chapter of the Texas and American Farm Bureau federations will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the 93rd district courtroom here, County Judge J. C. Looney announced. Saturday Looney is county membership chairman.

He said no reports on the progress of the membership work had been received, but that these would be compiled at the Friday session.

All of the 19 chairmen in various county communities have accepted their appointments, Looney said. The work was started about three weeks ago following a meeting at McAllen.

Similar campaigns are under way in Cameron county, where Cleve Tandy is chairman, and in Willacy county.

Red Cross, Utility Company Make Mobile First Aid Units Available

EDINBURG—Three mobile first aid units are due to go into service in Hidalgo county early next week as a result of the cooperation of the Edinburg office of the Central Power and Light Company and the Red Cross, Miss Adele Speed, Red Cross executive secretary for Hidalgo county, said Saturday.

The trucks will be owned and operated by the company, equipped with first aid kits and driven by employes of the C. P. and L. who have been instructed in first aid work.

Employes who will operate the trucks are W. C. Jones, Edinburg, manager; Howard Langston, construction chief; and Jimmy Smith, assistant. Jones and Langston have qualified as first aid instructors under the Red Cross set-up and Smith is an advanced student.

According to Miss Speed the three trucks will be the first mobile first aid units in this section of the state. Up to this time such designations have been limited to companies furnishing at least six trucks for the purpose. Robert F. Eaton, director of first aid, water safety and accident prevention for the Midwestern area of the Red Cross, was so appreciative of the interest of the C. P. and L., Miss Speed said, that the mobile unit program was modified and companies with as few as three operating units may now be included in the program.

All trucks will be equipped with Red Cross markers and the wording "Emergency First Aid, American Red Cross." Drivers in charge will be supplied with arm insignia in cloth with a like wording.

Under Red Cross requirements a mobile emergency unit consists of one or more men attached to the truck in connection with their regular employment. The men attached must have been trained in first aid by the Red Cross and given permission by their employer to give aid to victims of highway accidents as they come upon them in the course of their regular driving.

The service is not a substitute for medical attention, Miss Speed said, but is merely volunteer work in giving intelligent assistance until medical attention can be secured.

MEXICO ARMY TO MANEUVER

Compulsory Training To Follow Soon?

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Mexico's army staged its greatest maneuvers in history Saturday to intensify military preparations.

Two divisions of 6,000 men converged on Puebla state, preparatory to large scale mock battles to be fought Sunday and early Monday.

Military officials said the maneuvers were necessary to lay the foundations for compulsory military training, already approved by Congress but not yet put into operation.

The Mexican army has 52,000 officers and men. In 1940 it had a budget of 96,000,000 pesos (about $19,000,000) and in 1941 it was increased to 210,000,000 pesos (about $22,000,000).

U. S. CAVALRY SET TO HOLD MAY 5 RITES

Fort Brown To Honor Mexico Holiday

BROWNSVILLE — Cinco de Mayo, anniversary of the Mexican victory over French forces at Puebla on May 5, 1862, will be celebrated on both sides of the Rio Grande this week-end with civilian and military populations of Matamoros and Brownsville taking part.

The 124th Cavalry Regiment stationed at Fort Brown will hold its first full-strength mounted review in history on Monday in honor of the occasion, according to Col. Calvin B. Garwood, commanding officer.

Guests Of Honor

Guests of honor will be General Arturo Alaterre y Blanco, commander of the Mexican garrison at Matamoros, Mexican Consul Carlos A. Calderon of Brownsville, Mexican Consul Lauro Izaguirre of McAllen and other Latin-American notables, post officials said.

The review will begin at 10 a.m. Monday. All units of the 124th Regiment will take part. Troopers will ride with full packs and all field equipment.

Hidalgo and Juarez societies of Brownsville are set to open a three-day kermesse on the vacant square to the west of the Cameron county jail at 6 p.m. Saturday here. Mexican foods will be featured, and a representative of the Mexican consulate will probably speak at the opening.

Flag Raising Monday

Flag raising ceremonies at 6 a.m. Monday will feature the start of the celebration in Matamoros.

At 10 o'clock the grand parade will be held. Civil and military authorities will participate. Also students, teachers and labor unions.

At noon salvos will be fired, honoring the Cinco de Mayo heroes.

Special Program

A special program will start at 4:30 p.m. in front of the Matamoros City Hall. The official report will be read by the city secretary. Featured speakers will be Dr. Roberto Munoz Mireles. Musical numbers and declamations are also included in the program.

Special flag ceremonies will be held at 6 p.m.

Athletic Tests Slated

Music by the Matomoros municipal band will be featured at the Main Plaza from 8 to 10 p.m.

Athletic contests pitting civilians against soldiers will be held all day Monday at Mexican control station C1-K9 near Matamoros, beginning with a double-header softball game at 9:30 a.m.

Almacen SCOP will oppose Soliceno in the first game, and the second game will pit control station C1-K9 players against Aduana.

At 4 p.m., soldiers of the Matamoros garrison will oppose workers of the government control projects in tug-of-war, foot races, and other contests. Mexican cavalry troops of the 24th Regiment will also give exhibitions.

BORDER GETS CONSUL SOON

Reynosa Post Will Be Filled By U. S.

REYNOSA—A temporary United States consulate will be established in Reynosa for the second time within recent months, according to a notice issued by Nathaniel P. Davis, chief of the division of foreign service administration.

Davis' notification said, in part, "The department has continued to follow the situation on the Mexcaan border with close interest, and to avoid any possible inconvenience to those residing in and near Reynosa has decided to detail a consular officer temporarily to that place from the consulate at Matamoros for 60 days, commencing June 1, 1941."

A vice consul was placed at Reynosa last year on solicitation of the McAllen Chamber of Commerce, Congressman Milton West and others when a new regulation requiring passport visaes was enacted. The McAllen chamber recently reopened the matter by suggesting transfer of a U. S. officer from Matamoros to Reynosa in anticipation of necessity of renewing passports. More than 5,000 visaes were issued during 1940.

New U.S. Citizens

4 Mission Groups To Observe May 18

MISSION—Four civic and patriotic organizations have accepted invitations to participate in the Mission observance of "I Am an American" day, Sunday, May 18, honoring new citizens, it was announced this week by D. L. Rankin, president of the Mission Lions Club. The latter club is sponsoring the observance which will center on a program to be presented at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Strahle Park, downtown Mission.

Organizations which have announced plans for joining the Lions in conducting the program include the Mission Rotary Club, the Fred H. Morgan American Legion Post, and the Mission unit of the Border Patrol.

Persons who have become 21 years of age or become full-fledged citizens through completing naturalization during the past year will be honored during the program.

Although there are more than 950 varieties of flowers and plants on the Island of New Providence in the Bahamas, the resort's most famous gardens are under ten feet of water.

Getting Ready For 'Charley's Aunt'

BRWNSVILLE—Shown getting ready for a visit to the Valley by "Charley's Aunt" is Mrs. George McGonigle, Jr., wife of the president of the Brownsville Kiwanis Club, who is doing art work on sets for the popular Broadway play which the Kiwis will present at the high school here on May 13 and 14 and in the Harlingen city auditorium on May 15.

The play will star Burt Hinkly, Jr., John Barron, Leo Albritten, Charles Strong, Volney Taylor, Jr., Earl Brown, La Verne Walker, Josephine Taylor, Marjorie Wilson and Ermalee Dodson.

Tickets may be obtained from any Brownsville Kiwanian, from Otto Manske, ticket chairman, or from Mrs. R. N. Currie at the Old Opera House, where reserved seats may be chosen any afternoon. The Harlingen Lions Club will sponsor the showing in that city.

Prices: Reserved, 75 cents; general admission, 50 cents, and children, 35 cents.

Baby Party For All Born At Mercy Hospital In Last 10 Years Slated On May 12, National Hospital Day

BROWNSVILLE — Mercy Hospital will observe National Hospital Day, May 12, with a "Baby Party" in honor of all children born there during the last 10 years.

About 500 honor guests are expected for the occasion, according to Mrs. Joe C. Jordan, president of the Mercy Hospital ladies auxiliary, who, with the Sisters of Mercy, are sponsoring the event.

Invitations are being mailed to all the children whose births are on record at the hospital during the last 10 years. Those children born there during that period, but whose birth may not be recorded, are also invited to attend, Mrs. Jordan declared.

The children will be guests at an ice cream party on the hospital lawn. There will be special entertainment inside the building for adults.

The 124th Cavalry band, Fort Brown, will play on the lawn during the party.

This is the first time a party of the kind has been staged in Brownsville and may be made an annual event.

The party will start at 4 p. m. and continue until 7 p. m.

Invitations being mailed to the children whose births are on record at the hospital state:

"Your very first visit with us
you don't recall,
We know.
Let's see: a winsome baby you
were and quite small.
And so:
A home-coming party we're having just for you.
Please, please,
Won't you come? And invite your mother, too.
"R.S.V.P.'s."

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE STARTS

Cook, Dees To Head McAllen Campaign

McALLEN—A promotion drive to encourage the sale of national defense bonds and stamps in McAllen will get under way next week under the direction of Van E. Cook and W. W. Dees, chairman and vice chairman respectively of the McAllen unit.

Plans for the build-up campaign to promote interest in purchase of the bonds were laid Friday afternoon when the committee met to effect permanent organization. Cook and Dees were named to their positions.

The promotion activities include speeches before the McAllen civic clubs and school children with a special request to local merchants that they urge purchase of the bonds in their newspaper advertising and window display as frequently as possible.

Dees was named in charge of arrangements for the civic club speakers who will explain the purpose of the bond drive and the purchase plan.

Mrs. W. H. Moon was put in charge of arranging programs for the McAllen schools to encourage children to begin a savings stamp plan at the McAllen postoffice.

The committee emphasized the point that there would be no active subscription fund raised, placing purchase of the bonds as a purely voluntary effort on the part of all residents.

Seeking to increase sale here the committee will ask merchants to put a defense bond plug in their newspaper advertising copy and whenever feasible to include a bond display in their show windows.

Births Outnumber Deaths For April

BROWNSVILLE — The city of Brownsville recorded 44 births and 19 deaths for the month of April, according to a report submitted to the city commission by Kermit Cromack, city secretary.

Surplus Foods

Stamp Plan Members Get No Onions

EDINBURG—Nationally designated foods which will be available during May to families taking part in the food stamp plan were announced Saturday by the Surplus Marketing Administration in Edinburg.

Foods will be obtainable in local stores in each of the stamp plan areas in exchange for blue surplus food stamps. May and April lists are identical except that fresh onions have been removed from the list for this month.

Foods available are fresh grapefruit, oranges, apples, carrots, Irish potatoes, butter, raisins, pork lard, all pork except that cooked or packed in metal or glass containers, cornmeal, shell eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, dry edible beans, wheat flower, and whole wheat flour.

SCORE FETED AT EL JARDIN

Annual Banquet Is Staged By Juniors

BROWNSVILLE—Twenty persons were guests at the cleverly arranged annual banquet staged by the high school junior class in honor of the seniors and their guests at El Jardin school Friday evening.

Dotty Kidder, president of the junior class and mistress of ceremonies, presented the following numbers: Welcome, by Albert Drumright; response, Anna Froyd; group singing of "Shipmates Forever," "Red Sails In the Sunset," sung by Anita Mae Loop, Elaine Loop and Doris Martin; skit, "Answering the Navy's Call," Cecilia Ford, Elizabeth Driver and Donald Crow.

Navy Decorations Used

The group sang "Anchors Aweigh" at the close of the program.

In keeping with the program, the United Statest Navy was featured in decorations. Color was provided by model boats furnished by Frank Means of Del Mar, Jean Crow and Billy Ostrander.

The menu included sea food cocktal, shells from the sea, sea foam with seaweed, driftwood, sea biscuit with whale oil, Hawaiian salad, drinks from the briny deep, icebergs and flotsam.

Guests Named

Those attending included members of the senior class: Anna Froyd, Marie Rone, Minerva Rodriguez, Bill H. Ford, Betty Crow, Mary E. Baughman, Trinie Valdez, Lois Martin. Junior class members: T Norval Taylor, Robert Ford, Albert Drumright and Dotty Kidder; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Martin, Misses Ruth Voight, Edna Goad, Katherine Stephens; R. Bruce Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wilson.

Dressed in attractive sailor uniforms, Anita Mae Loop, Elaine Loop and Doris Martin waited tables. Food was prepared by members of the junior class and their assistants including Mrs. Ira Ford and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kidder.

Engineers Busy

Tamm, Fitzgerald Win Two Projects

HARLINGEN—The local firm of Tamm and Fitzgerald has been engaged on two large projects in the Corpus Christi area, according to A. Tamm, member of the firm.

One of the projects is the $250,000 Aransas Pass seawall and the other is a $200,000 flood control project at Sinton.

The local firm has engineering supervision over the construction of the seawall at Aransas Pass intended to protect the city and some of its new national defense industries from the waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Sinton is seeking to protect itself from the flood waters of Chiltipin creek and also is engaging in a $100,000 paving project.

Tamm and Fitzgerald also are the engineers on the expansion of the Harlingen sewage disposal plant.

Sun Oil Employes On Annual Picnic

McALLEN—Forty-one employes of the Sun Oil company and their families spent the day Saturday at Padre Island on their annual outing. The company plays host to the group each year with such an event. Swimming, picnicking and fishing were on the schedule at Padre. Those in the party were employes connected with the McAllen office of the firm.

ENLISTMENTS IN AIR CORPS TO INCREASE

Requirements For Service Cut

BROWNSVILLE — A considerable stepup in Army air corps enlistments from Brownsville was expected next week, following the announcement Saturday by Sgt. E. J. Volkman, local army recruiting officer, that educational requirements for the air corps had been reduced.

An eighth grade education is now considered sufficient for enlistment. Previously four years of high school work was one of the basic qualifications. Physical requirements are unchanged.

The army has formulated a general intelligence quiz to substitute for the high school requirement.

"There is no limit to the number of enlistments that can be taken now," Sgt. Volkman said. "The air corps needs healthy intelligent young men in large numbers to keep pace with the rapidly expanding service."

Corporal Charles S. Moore has been assigned to the army recruiting office in the federal building and will be stationed here permanently as Sgt. Volkman's assistant.

Executive Lost?

Empty Boat Launches Utility Man Hunt

GAY HEAD, Mass. — (AP) — The finding of an unoccupied 27-foot power boat aground on Martha's Vineyard Island with her motor running precipitated a search Saturday for the boat's owner—Isaac T. Haddock, New England utilities executive.

Coast guards found the craft late Friday after island residents reported seeing her travelling aimlessly in choppy seas and a brisk wind.

Haddock, about 60 years old, was believed by coast guards to have spent Thursday night at Vineyard Haven and to have set out Friday in the craft, the Bingo, to fish a few miles south in the No Man's Land area.

FD's Tax Bill May Mean Incomes Levy

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some members of the House Ways and Means Committee said Saturday they viewed President Roosevelt's request for a $3,500,000,000 tax bill that would not "make the rich richer and the poor poorer" as a mandate for higher income taxes rather than new sales taxes.

Legislators charged with the task of drafting the revenue measure said they interpreted the chief executive's letter to the committee's chairman, Rep. Doughton (D-NC), broadly as a plea for enactment of the treasury's tax program which based on stiff increases in the surtaxes on middle bracket incomes.

Ambassador Mobbed

NEW YORK —(AP)— A German broadcast said that British Ambassador Sir Kinahan Cornwallis in Irak was "chased back into the embassy" by a crowd of Iraquis Saturday when he attempted to distribute leaflets in the streets of Baghdad. The broadcast said the leaflets asked the Iraquis to overthrow the Iraq government.

Nazi Freighter Sunk

NEW YORK—(AP)—The 3,290-ton German freighter Lech which left Rio de Janeiro five days ago in an attempt to run the British blockade was intercepted Friday by a British auxiliary cruiser and was reported sinking off Bahia, Brazil, maritime sources said Saturday.

Bundles For Britain Chapter Plans Hospital Relief Drive

McALLEN — Concurrently with the observance of "national hospital day" in England, members of the McAllen Bundles for Britain will stage a one-day hospital relief drive here Tuesday.

Members will solicit funds from McAllen residents in a downtown tag sale the proceeds of which will be turned into the English relief fund. The Sub Deb club will assist.

Meanwhile the group continued its plea for used medical instruments from Valley doctors. Dr J. C. Harrison of McAllen was the first local doctor to donate old used instruments to the organization.

Bundles officials said no instrument was too old or outmoded to be used in English hospitals where the need for them is acute.

Observance of the tag day will mark the second large benefit the McAllen unit has staged within a week. Proceeds from the bridge tournament last week netted $160.

Rev. W. W. Stewart, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church at Pharr, will turn over the collections from the night service Sunday, May 11, to the fund, officials announced at a special meeting held Friday morning.

Efforts to complete the knitting quota by Wednesday were pushed by Mrs. E. A. Polzin who asked that knitting be completed and turned in to her at her home.

Top Student

Melvin Brust, son of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Brust of Mercedes who will be valdictorian of the Mercedes High School graduating class at the commencement ceremonies on the evening of May 22. Brust is graduating with an average grade of 95.5.

Model Plane Notes

By GARVER MURRAY

"ON THE threshold of manhood American boys in their teens stand inspired and impelled to seek self-expression, ready to try their wings. From this urge saints or sinners are born; led into one channel or the other by the instrument of expression put into their hands at this vital moment. It is this instrument that exercises body, mind and spirit for creation or destruction. What will build them into strong, virile manhood? That is the question. What will inspire them, prompt initiative, cultivate patience and tenacity, build their minds and bodies? Here lies no great mystery. Model planes have sired these virtues in the past and bless the future with promise of greater continued service. They give life to the dreams of our young men, in simple form and with little cost guiding them along the road to unbounded scientific study and research. Lillienthal, Langley, Wright, Douglas and a host of others have used them as stepping stones to success and greater aeronautical knowledge.

"In miniature, models present the problems of the large airplane designer and builder and the challenge of solution to those who would become great. Their delicate structures materialize the secret of the craftsman's deft fingers; the magic touch, which also gives form and life to modern air giants in the service of our country. All of these virtues, together with the blessings of vital physical activity in effort to follow fleeting planes, are the heritage of the Aeromodeler. Yes, if Youth makes Models, Models will make Men."

(The above was written by Charles Hampson Grant, editor of Model Airplane News, but I found it so interesting, that I wanted to be sure all you modelers would read it.) The government has recognized the modeler as a very useful person at the experimental laboratory at Langley Field in Virginia.

I had planned on having a meet here this afternoon, but it seems the weather is going to postpone it for me until next Sunday, although the regular gang is going to go out and do a little test flying, if the wind calms down enough. John Maltby is going to try out something he dug out of the heap—putting parts of several together to make one. Wayne Cole thinks he has his Mercury all ready, but he had had those same thoughts before. M. A. Tennison, Jr., is getting ready for some night flying—lights and everything. Scotty is still trying to get his Gladiator together, but he has his old reliable Buzzard ready to go. Harris Lou Bodie has just finished a Thermal Thumber, but his motor is taking a trip back to the factory. It should know the way alone by now.

Have a report that Jim Thomas is getting to see lots of country, and going to lots of places, but his model building is nil. Howell Tom has moved to Brownsville, so I guess Phl Atteberry is happy to have someone to fly with. Didn't get my report from up the Valley this week, but I have learned not to look for it anymore, so I'm not disappointed. I hear some strange reports about Bill Younkin, but I don't believe them. Jimmy Jolly has been making the paper regular since the DeMolay have taken over the swimming pool at San Benito. Wonder if he has been making anything that will fly like a model arplane? Well, if you guys can stand a little wind come on out this afternoon around 2 p. m. and let's see what happens,

ARMY THEME FOR REYNOSA MAY 5 FETE

Valley Residents Get Invitations

REYNOSA — Reynosa's observance of 'Cinco de Mayo" Monday will be centered at the military garrison under the command of Brigadier General Pedro Lopez Tafoya and Colonel Salvador Viramontes.

Gen. Tafoya, chief of the garrison, extended an invitation to Valley residents to attend the celebration at the garrison, when expert horsemen in the 24th cavalry regiment will perform to celebrate the 129th anniversary of the Battle of Puebla in a national Independence day program.

The entire city will join in the observance of the holiday by closing business places and offices.

Formal observance of the day will begin at 6 a.m. with a flag raising at the fort attended by garrison officials.

At 10 a.m. a downtown parade will get under way. In the line of march will be reserve officers in the 43th regiment, civil, military and federal officials with students in the public schools.

At 4 p.m. at El Campo Militar, the Reynosa garrison, a horse race will be the first feature in a military show. Six horses will run in the 00 meter race. The first and second place winners will be awarded metals by the commanders of the garrison.

In addition to the horse race the show will include riding and jumping contests, stunt riding and exhibitions of military formation. Prizes will be given winners of all divisions.

The day's program will close with a flag ceremony at 6 p.m.

Skeeter Control

Will Be Considered At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — Mosquito control and the food stamp plan were on the slate for discussion at a meeting of the Cameron county commissioners' court called for Monday morning by County Judge Oscar C. Dancy.

L. A. Bauer, county auditor, has requested Gerald Mann, Texas attorney general, to rule on the legality of the plan. The attorney general has previously ruled thta county commisioners' courts cannot legally participate in the plan by using money from the general fund.

Society Initiates 17 Honor Students

EDINBURG — Seventeen new members of the National Honor society of the Edinburg high school will be initiated into the chapter at a banquet on May 13 at the Edinburg hotel.

Students to be initiated are Jim Dates, Maxine Beane, John Baldridge, Cherrie Blassingame, Jack Bright, Mary Alice Cole, J. N. Denham, Leonard Freasier, Sidney Merit, Walter Sharp, Ernest Smith, all seniors and Bob Jackson, Jane McElhenney, Jack McWhorter, Isora Tinkler, M. A. Vela and Jack Wallace.

Church Of God Sets Dedication Sunday

McALLEN — Formal dedication ceremonies for the new Church of God, South Broadway and Houston streets, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Inviting all members of the church and McAllen visitors to be present, Pastor Leslie L. Gaylord announced that Rev. M. B. Boucher would speak at the first services. He expressed thanks to church members and others who co-operated in the remodeling and construction of the new building.

Hidalgo Grand Jury Called For Monday

EDINBURG — Hidalgo county's May term grand jury will be empaneled in 92nd District Court Monday and a new schedule of trial settings will be made during the week by District Judge Bryce Ferguson.

District Attorney Tom Hartley said Saturday only a comparatively small number of criminal cases are scheduled for presentation to the jury, since the March jury which only recently completed its deliberations had about "cleaned up" the criminal docket.

Escaped Nazi Flier In Germany Again?

BERLIN—(AP)—To questions about German Fighter Pilot Baron Franz Von Werra, who escaped British internment in Canada and then jumped bail in the United States, a German spokesman replied Saturday he had gone to Peru "and probably isn't there any more." He would not discuss reports that the flier already is in Germany.

Casualty Of Fishing

'Whacky' Whirlaway Wins Kentucky Derby By Eight Lengths

STAR—MONITOR—HERALD

Will Try Again

The Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will make another stab Sunday at getting the season under way. Rain halted festivities in all of the parks except Brownsville last Sunday.

The McAllen Merchants will play the Southern Selects at Harlingen; the Brownsville Merchants go to Mission to battle the 30-30 Rifles; and the Brownsville Edelsteins will visit Comales and play a double-header.

The only thing that will stop the games Sunday will be rain and at the present writing prospects are bright for the sun to shine.

With games scheduled at opposite ends of the Valley, record crowds are predicted for Harlingen and Mission.

Tough Luck

Along with every Valley sports fan, we feel badly over Wade Spilman of Missions losing out in the state tennis meet and Chulo McNair in the golf tourney.

They were the Valley's last chances to grab an athletic title in the Interscholastic League get-together at Austin the past weekend.

Bass Fishing

From what we can learn, bass fishing in the Valley this season is not so hot.

To date we have had no good explanation why the fighters are not striking. Some say it is the weather, others the water, and still others that it is just lack of bass.

We would like to know who has caught the largest bass since the season opened. If you know, send us the dope.

• • •

We Pick One

While it is a bit difficult to believe, we named the winner of the Kentucky Derby.

On April 1st we sent in our selections and entered Frank Menke's Derby Ham and Hat contest for sports writers. It turned out that we were one of 75 who picked Whirlaway to win. And there were 469 entered.

In looking over our selections for the other four places, we find we fell down completely and there is little chance that we will win either a hat or a ham.

Open Tickets In Demand

Golf fans from almost every state in the union and many foreign countries will see the U. S. G. A. Open Championship at Fort Worth in June.

This is indicated by the sale of season tickets, which continues heavy. Requests came last week from such far-away places as Appleton, Wis.; Chicago, Addleborough, Mass.; New York City; Nashville, Tenn.; Independence, Kan.; Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Des Moines, Iowa; Cleveland, Ohio and many others.

Season tickets orders from these places are being filled as rapidly as possible. However, the committee in charge is anxious that all Southwestern fans who wish them obtain the over-all tickets as soon as possible.

Again, fans were warned by Chairman Max Highfill of the committee on tickets and badges that no more season tickets will be available after May 24. After that, only the $2.20 and $3.30 daily tickets will be available.

The season books are good for four days of practice rounds that will be $1.10 otherwise, for the first two days of the meet which will be $2.20 daily, and the big last day which will be $3.30. They are also good for any playoff, which will be $2.20 otherwise. The season tickets are $6.60. Orders are being taken at the Open Headquarters, Seventh and Houston Streets, Fort Worth.

Columbia Wins Blackwell Cup

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Putting on a driving finish, Columbia's eight-oared crew won the Blackwell Cup Regatta on the Schuylkill Saturday, nosing out the University of Pennsylvania by a half-length over the mile and five-sixteenth course. Yale, winner for four successive years, was third.

The Light Blues swept to victory in six minutes and 24 seconds, three seconds off the cup series record of 6:21 for the Henley course, which was set in 1935 by Penn.

Penn, which led until the last half-mile, was one second behind the winners. Yale was three-quarters of a length back in the three-crew event.

It was Columbia's first Blackwell Cup triumph since 1931.

Nazis Force Letters

BATAVIA, Java —(AP)— Highly-placed sources said there are indications Germans are making efforts to establish contact with residents of the Netherlands East Indies through forged messages or letters written under pressure and signed by relatives in Holland.

Staretor In Second Spot At Finish

long-shot, the New York owned Market Wise, from the barn of Lou Tufano, for second place. Porter's Cap, leading money winner among the three year olds up to now and the colt the Far West was writing songs about, finished fourth.

Dispose Runs Sixth

Ten lengths away from "Whirly's" waving tail, was Rocky Palladino's Little Beans, the invader from Boston, fifth; the Texas speed horse, Robert Kleberg, Jr.'s Dispose, sixth; Tom Bragg's Blue Pair, seventh; Our Boots, eighth; J. Fred Byers' Robert Morris, ninth; Emerson F. Woodward's Valdina Paul, tenth, and trailing all the way, Cleveland Putnam's mud-running Swain, the Californian, who just couldn't get started on the lightning fast track.

Everything, crowd, betting, time, the money in the race, and the roar of the backers of the blue grass boy, made this the biggest Derby of all the 67 run here. By his victory, the flying little son of Blenheim II gave his family a Kentucky Derby triumph to join his Daddy's English "Darby" conquest. He brought $61,275 to owner Wright, the largest purse a winner ever picked up in the chase after this $75,000-added rainbow. He rewarded his backers a favorite's price of $7.80 for each $2 winning mutuel ticket held on him in the record-breaking Derby handle of $654,253. And finally, he rewarded the brilliant-riding Arcaro and the wise trainer Ben Jones, plain Ben from out of Missouri, with their second Derby victory in three years.

That was the real story back of this race. Whirlaway wasn't supposed to have a chance after the way he "ran out" in the Derby trial last Tuesday. Plain Ben just couldn't roll up his sleeves and work the magic this time like he did with limping Lawrin when he trained for Herbert Woolf in 1938.

Follows Instructions

So all Plain Ben did was import the generally-ranked best jockey of them all, and told him to ride "Whirly" just one way—lay back of the pack until they straightened out, then uncork the drive no one doubted he had all the time. He did just that—and it was just as simple as that. For three quarters of a mile he was as much as 17 1 2 lengths back of Dispose who set the pace through the first mile. At the mile mark, he started to move up. Arcaro, who also rode Lawrin for Ben, said later, he just couldn't hold him any more. As they straightened out for home, he took the lead as Arcaro piloted him between horses. And from there on, he was strictly the drum major in the parade.

Staretor, owned by a San Francisco fruit extractor, also closed with a mighty rush. So did Market wise. But Porter's Cap, a factor for a mile, weakened, and Our Boots, who whipped Whirlaway in four out of five meetings during their career, was never in it, despite repeated urging by Jockey Conn McCreary.

GRAPHIC GOLF

WARMING UP AND COOLING DOWN

Like the ballplayer warming up before taking his turn at bat, the golfer can also gradually attune his muscles for play. The pros make it a point to find time in which to drive a few off the practice tee but the average golfer, as a rule, has no such opportunity or time to get ready. The player can, however, swing a couple of clubs as shown above in a leisurely and smooth fashion back and forth to loosen up his muscles. The routine, primarily designed to eradicate the kinks, also comes in handy in adjusting one to calmer thought and action. Rushing to the golf course, the golfer is so often saturated with the sense of hurry and jerky action that his play reflects it. For the sake of better playing and enjoyment, a more tranquil temperament must prevail and a pretty fair cure lies in swinging the two clubs in slow motion tempo.

Another purpose is served in that the golfer feels the lightness of one club later in actual play and it can be swung with a more acute sense of feeling and velocity. Continued practice will strengthen the muscles of the arms and shoulder and give the grip. Gene Sarazen similarly employed an overweight driver for practice sessions for greater swing development.

Coffey To Meet Bob Riegel For TGA Title Today

Both In Rare Form Saturday

By WILLIAM T. RIVES

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Through a day of shot-making seldom equalled in the tournament's history, Billy Bob Coffey, the champion, and Bobby Riegel, a former titleholder, emerged into the finals of the Texas Golf Association tourney Saturday.

Riegel started the fireworks in his match with Jack Tinnin, Houston insurance agent who won the medal. Riegel won 2 and 1.

Riegel's drive on the first tee found the rough 70-yards to the left of the green. He sent a 10-iron shot soaring toward the carpet. The ball took two hops, settled into a roll a foot from the hole, and jumped in for an eagle two.

Tinnin chipped one in from a lie of 25 feet off the 12th green for a birdie 3.

Iverson Martin of Fort Worth, who fell before Coffey, 2 and 1, was 25 yards past the 9th green, but holed out his third shot for a winning 4. In his morning match, Coffey chipped in from 4 yards off the fifth green.

Riegel, also a Houston insurance man, was two under par for the day's play. In the morning, he eliminated veteran Horace Young of Houston, 6 and 5, ending the match with three straight birdies and a coasting bogey.

Coffey had a shaky experience in the morning with 15 year old Tyrrell Garth, Jr., home course player competing in his first state tournament.

The slight, black-haired youngster had Coffey one down through No. 16, but Coffey flashed two straight birdies, sinking putts of 10 and 18 feet, to pull out the match, 1 up.

Riegel, who won the championship three years ago, and Coffey will play a 36-hole match Sunday for the title.

Martin entered the semi-finals by defeating Ed Enderson of Houston 5 and 3. Tinnin disposed of Kyle Alford, Beaumont municipal champion in the morning, in 19 holes.

S. W. Conference Baseball

HOUSTON —(AP)— Coach Cecil Grigg's Rice Owls got five hit pitching from Bill Telschow here Saturday to defeat the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, 8-1, and chalk up their fourth straight Southwest Conference triumph.

Telschow walked nine men but tightened up in the clutches to leave 14 Frogs stranded on the bases. The Owls collected nine hits off Brumbaugh, Frank Carswell's triple with the bases filled being the most potent of the day.

Rice plays S. M. U. here Monday afternoon.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)— A Texas Leaguer single by Ballow followed by Bill Buchanan's crashing drive over the left field wall gave the Texas Aggies enough runs Saturday to defeat Southern Methodist 2 to 1.

But the Mustangs were bitter-enders. They scored their lone tally in the ninth and had enough additional ducks on the pond to win. A right field foul line circus catch by Marland Jeffrey and a final Roy Peden throttled the Methodists, splurge of pressure by moundsman

Edelsteins Play Comales Today

BROWNSVILLE — Two Brownsville semi-pro teams will be among a field of six squads who will attempt to continue play in the Valley League in three games scheduled Sunday.

The Brownsville Edelstein's, who are leading the loop with one victory and no defeats, will invade Comales for a double-header, beginning at 2 p.m.

At Mission, the Brownsville Merchants will tangle with the Mission 30-30 Rifles on Legion park at 3:30 p.m.

All but Edelstein's will be playing their opening loop contests.

Townsend Plan Put Into New Tax Bill?

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Downey (D-Calif) asserted Saturday that unless President Roosevelt soon recommended larger old age pensions, 10 to 15 senators would try to write the Townsend plan into the new tax bill.

Downey said Mr. Roosevelt told him last year that he would ask congressional approval of a federal pension system under which payments would be made to old people regardless of need or of state old age benefits.

The first industrial school on the North American continent was started by the Rev. James B. Finley at Upper Sandusky, O., in 1821. Wyandot Indians were the pupils.

Selects Play Merchants In League Opener Today

HARLINGEN—In a baseball game that holds promise of being hard-fought all the way, the Harlingen Southern Selects will meet the McAllen Merchants at Fair Park here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Selects, managed by Santos Bermea, were rained out last Sunday in their scheduled opener of the Valley Semi-Pro League and all the ceremonies scheduled that day will be staged Sunday. Mayor Hugh Ramsey will toss the first ball in the general direction of Joe "Slim" Wright. John Bell, president of the semi-pro circuit, will also be on hand to get the season under way here.

On the roster of the Selects are the following players: Gutierrez, Rios, Montalvo and Rodriquez, infielders; E. Flores, catcher; Esqueda, Fast Contreras and Flores, outfielders; Guevara, Simpson and Mills, pitchers; Mills, Carpenter, Rojas and Chapa, reserves. All are well-known in Valley baseball circles, having played on teams here and over the Valley. Daily workouts have been taken and it is reported that all players are in top condition for the season opener.

The Merchants are one of the "new" teams in the Valley but they boast some of the best semi-pro and amateur players in this section. Among the players listed are: Billy Walsh, Clyde Chisum, Ted Koen and M. Barrero, pitchers; S. Califa, catcher; McLaughlin, Bush, Camillo, Guerra and J. Califa, infielders; R. Garza, Rolo Garza, Chano and Moya, outfielders. Walsh is the manager of the team.

Interest in this opening ball game is running high all over the Valley and the stands at Fair Park are expected to be filled Sunday afternoon.

Golf Champion Lawson Little Discusses Chance To Repeat

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Some say the odds against a National Open golf champion repeating his victory are 25 to 1 but Lawson Little, current king, won't make 'em or take 'em.

"These odds usually are fictitious," he says, "they don't reflect the true situation."

Lawson says there are 30 or 40 players with the shot-making ability to win the title. "The crown is won by the man who happens to be hot during those four rounds and who can avoid one bad round."

Little isn't satisfied with his putting now. He was a red-hot putter as amateur champion but, he says, "Medal play is different. You can't ram that ball at the hole in medal play. You always have to think of the next one. But I wish I had the confidence as a pro that I had as an amateur around the cup."

Little is sure of two things as the time appreaches for the Open meet in Fort Worth, Texas, June 5. First, he isn't going into the tournament with fear that he won't win, and, second, he isn't going to wear himself out practicing.

"I want to hit my peak in the championship itself," he says.

Eligibility Of Player Hits Baseball Play-Off

WESLACO—The Weslaco Panthers were scheduled to play the McAllen Bulldogs in the fourth game of the final series to decide the Rio Grande Valley high school baseball championship here Saturday afternoon—and possibly the fifth game—but due to the failure of the McAllen nine to arrive, no game was played.

Quite a crowd of baseball fans was on hand to see the game, scheduled at 2:30 o'clock, but after some thirty minutes of delay, it was announced that no game would be played. There was nothing for Jack York, umpire, to do except forfeit the game to the Panthers.

The question of the eligibility of a Weslaco player had been brought to the attention of Weslaco and McAllen school officials and it was assumed that this was the reason for the failure of the McAllen team to take the field against the Weslaco nine.

In the final play-off, a three-out-of-five-game-series, the Panthers had won two games and the Bulldogs one. With the forfeiture of the game Saturday, the Weslaco nine is now credited with three wins and one loss.

Due to the question of the eligibility of the Weslaco player causing the high school baseball title to be far from a settled fact, it is quite likely that Bobby Cannon of Edinburg, district athletic director, will have to make a ruling before any definite claim to the crown can be made.

Semi-Pro Season Will Open Today

ENID, Okla.—(AP)—A great revival of the national sport was predicted Saturday night by Ray Dumont, semi-pro booster, as a result of the baseball activity in army camps over the country.

Here for the premier Sunday of the 1941 season of National Semi-Pro Congress, of which he is president, Dumont said:

"Many of the boys who would never have played baseball in their home city will get their chance in the army camps. When they return home, they will still want to play baseball, then, watch more teams than ever spring up!"

The semi-pro president brought with him a 20-foot pennant, emblematic of the 1940 National Championship, which will be raised in the ceremonies here Sunday. The pennant was won by the Champion Refiners of Enid last year in the tournament at Wichita. Enid went on to win the world title in a series at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dumont said approximately 40,000 semi-pro games would be played Sunday over the country.

In the local event, where the Bell Clothiers of Oklahoma City, will meet the Champlins, Gov. Leon C. Phillips will hurl the inaugural pitch. At 3 p.m. George Sisler, baseball great and commissioner of semi-pro baseball, will deliver a radio talk.

Dumont does not think the reign of Oklahoma teams in the semi-pro field is destined to last. Sooner nines have won four out of the past five National championships.

Baseball School Set At McAllen

McALLEN — Several ambitious baseball players in the Valley who desire to try out for a berth with the Columbia, Ogden, Tucson or Riverside, Calif., teams owned and operated by the Cincinnati Reds of the National League, had obtained enrollment blanks from the McAllen Chamber of Commerce Saturday.

A training camp will open in McAllen from June 16 to 20 at Legion Park. Tuition at the baseball training camp is free, but players must pay their own expenses. Full details and enrollment blanks may be obtained by any player sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the McAllen Chamber of Commerce or calling for the blanks, officials said Saturday.

The Works Progress Administration holds contracts for improving more than 350 airports at a cost of $150,000,000.

McAllen Stars Set To Battle SP Ten Today

Double - Header Set At Palm City

McALLEN — The first softball game on the Sabbath in McAllen in several years will be held Sunday when the Southern Pacific ten from Houston meets the McAllen City League All Stars on the local diamond at 3 p.m. in a double header.

The Houston club is doubtless one of the strongest teams that has ever played in McAllen. They have beaten such strong clubs as York Oilers, Lindale and several other powerful clubs in the Houston League. The team roster includes one of the strongest pitching staffs in the country with Staruska, a left hander noted for his speed, and Collins, noted for curve ball twirling, as the stars.

Jack York and Jim Scoggins have been signed to umpire and will share duties Sunday with T. Modglin, portly Houston league arbiter. An admission price of 15 cents will be charged, for the double-header.

McAllen, choosing completely new teams for both games and using a big batch of Hidalgo county's best players, listed the following to start the first game:

In the second, the line-up will be selected from the following:

The Houston line-up:

R. Pruess, catcher; J. McMichael, catcher; J. J. Collins, pitcher; E. Strauska, pitcher; J. Bonneau, first base; A. Partlow, second base; J. Roddy, shortstop; W. Kummings, third base; M. Franks, left field; B Rees, center field; W. Grant, right field; C. Edgley, short center; E. Rutan, utility; E. Jones, pitcher; E. La May, utility; A. Chalmbers, utility.

Members of the McAllen squad will meet the train on which the Houston players arrive at 5:45 a.m. Sunday, take them on a tour of the Upper Valley and play a round of golf before noon. After the game all who desire will accompany the Houston team to Reynosa on a sight-seeing tour.

Rifles To Meet Merchants Today

MISSION— Postponed from last Sunday because of rain, the opening game of the Valley Semi-Pro Baseball League will be staged Sunday afternoon at Legion Ball Park, Mission, when the Mission 30-30's will meet the Brownsville Merchants. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Eddie Town, speedball artist, will be the starting pitcher for the Rifles. Howard Reichle, hustling little catcher, will complete the Rifles' battery. Reichle led the Rifles in hitting averages during the 1939 season, the last season in which the Mission club participated. George Strohmeyer is manager of the Rifles and Le Najo captain.

The Merchants have promised strong competition in Sunday's game, according to the manager, Adolfo Arguillo. The Merchants will be decked out in new uniforms to open their season.

Mission's starting line-up, announced by George Strohmeyer, will be: Barrera, 1b; Langerhans, 2b; Bloomfield, ss; Stevens, 3b; Rameriz, lf; Najo cf; Lowenstein, rf; Reichle, c; and Town, p.

DRAFTEES TO LEAVE

McALLEN—Union Bus Lines will run a special bus Monday to transport 30 Valley selectees to Fort Sam Houston for induction into the army, Manager L. D. Harris announced Saturday. Twenty-three of the boys will be picked up in Mission and seven in Rio Grande City. They will congregate in McAllen and leave together for the San Antonio fort.

Corpus Christi Net Stars Win At State Meet

Doubles Team Grabs Third Victory

AUSTIN—(AP)—For the third successive year, Corpus Christi Saturday won the Interscholastic League title in boys' tennis doubles.

Frank Whaley and Gordon Best of Corpus Christi downed Browne Baker and Perry Menking of Lamar, Houston, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Corpus Christi also won the title in girls' doubles, Alma Lee Sissom and Rosemary Walker defeating Helene McCarther and Gloria Levy of Ball, Galveston, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

It was the first time since 1914 when the competition started that a high school has taken the third successive title in boys doubles to retain the cup.

Richard Elliott of Trinity defeated Jack Urlrich of Thomas Jefferson, San Antonio, 6-0, 8-6, 6-1, to take the title in the boys' tennis singles.

In the girls' singles, Shelby Frizzell of Austin won the title by defeating Mary Jane Bullington of Paschal, Fort Worth, 8-6, 6-3.

State Cage Play Has New Set-Up

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)— Competition in high school basketball will be split into theree divisions next year, the executive committee of the Texas Interscholastic League decided Saturday.

The 1942 basketball tournament will be modeled closely on the three-league football set-up, with competition in AA, A and B conferences.

League Athletics Director R. J. Kidd said the revision will mean a fairer matching of squads. Instead of eight teams meeting each year for state honors, 24 will come to Austin to seek titles in three divisions.

Conference AA will include 106 schools, divided into 16 districts; Conference A, 291 schools, eight regions with four district each; Conference B, 721 schools, eight regions each with several districts.

The eight regional winners in Conference A and Conference B will be eligible to compete in Austin, March 5-7, for state honors. Conference AA will follow the same elimination route as football, district, bi-district, then state championship.

Schools Tie In Class B Meet

DENTON, Tex. — (AP) — Dalton Campbell of Hood county's Lipan High clipped 6.7 seconds off his own mile record of 4:43.6 Saturday at the state high school Class B track and field meet.

It was the only new mark set. Mertzon of Irion county and Orange Grove of Jim Wells county fought to a first-place tie in team honors.

Mertzon caught up with the Rio Grande Valley school by placing second in the final event, the mile relay. Each school registered 14 points.

Individual scoring honors were shared by Biscoe of Bullard High, Smith county, winner of the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Lee Roy Franke of Orange Grove, first in both hurdle races; and Houston Ellison of old glory, victor in the shot and discus. Each of the three tallied 10 points.

The 10 points of Biscoe and Ellison gave their schools a third-place tie with O'Brien high of Haskell county.

Winners in the new events on the state Class B card, whose performances will be written in the books as records, were:

Franke with 15.8 clocking for the lowered high hurdle race and a 23.6 timing for the shortened low hurdle event.

Ellison for his 124-foot, 7-inch heave of the lighter discus.

The Mertzon high 440-yard relay crew of McGregor, Cox, Teague, and Scott for their time of 45.4 seconds.

The word "panzer," referring to the German panzer division, means "armored."

SOUTHERN WILDLIFE

Foxy Farmer

D. W. Kolb, a ranger in McCurtain county, Oklahoma, tells us of one farmer's unique method of safeguarding his quail during the last hunting season. "At the beginning of the season," Kolb informs, "this farmer simply lured all the quail on his farm into a trap, kept them well hidden and well fed during the shooting season, granted entrance to all who desired to hunt on his land, and when the season closed, turned the well fattened birds out upon his broad acres once more!"

Lose A Hook—Save A Life

It is a hard matter to release a fish so skillfully that it will not die later. Once the tender, slimy outer covering is injured, the fish dies. He may look frisky as a colt when you let him go—but an unbelievably high percentage of the fish you handle die later.

Cut your snell or leader and release the fish with hook in him. You only lose a hook which can be bought for a nickel a dozen, and two or three inches of line. The hook will gradually disintegrate inside the fish with no ill effects.

Swallow-Proof Catfish Hook

"Anything that would keep an old cat from swallowing a hook so deep you have to tussle half an hour to get it out would be a boon to civilization!" That's the way most southern fishermen feel. Make a guard wire. Loop a piece of stiff wire through the eye of your hook. Twist the wire around the hook shank and bring both ends out straight to the sides. If a cat is big enough to swallow wire and all, he'd be old and tough and no one would believe he was that big anyhow!

Detour—Quail Nest Ahead

A mother quail and her nest of twenty-one eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Brackettsville in Kinney county and Rock Springs in Edwards county, Texas. The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest. All traffic was detoured around that spot until mama quail hatched nineteen of her twenty-one eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest.

Tough, Eh?

The lady of the house heard a knock at her door. Looking through the screen she saw a Chinese fish peddler. Not wishing to be disturbed, she called to her maid: "You go, Ella."

The Chinaman blinked his little eyes, thrust out his neck and sung out belligerently: "You go 'ella yourself!"

Fish Have Lubrication Too

While we don't know whether fish "change oil" every thousand miles, we do know that, in order to enable a fish to glide easily along in the water, its body is covered with a slimy mucus which is being constantly poured out in large quantities by special glands situated in the epidermis. This mucus makes the body of the fish slippery and also minimizes friction with the surrounding water.

Sorter Stretching It

We've firmly resolved to quit being surprised over anything new in the fishing line anymore. The latest thing that has caused us to lift our eyebrows is a complete line of rubber lures put out by Pachner and Koller, Inc., 2307 West 69th Street, Chicago, Illinois. They tell us that those lures are far more natural looking than the wooden variety and are real fish getters. Now sportsmen needn't stop at stretching the catch—they can stretch the lures too!

Jeff Davis Of Houston Wins State Track And Field Meet

Kingsville's Adame Takes Both Dashes

Paces Coast Team To Second Place

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN —(AP)— Iron-muscled Steve Lobue, mighty man of the Jeff Davis (Houston) Panthers, won the Texas schoolboy track and field championship here Saturday —with a little help from three other fellows in the closing event of a thrill-filled meet.

Lobue, 160-pound football star, scored 10 3-4 points as Jeff Davis staged a startling upset to bag the title over a highly-favored Sunset (Dallas) team that finished in a tie for fifth place.

Adame Paces Brahmas

Another one-man team, Henry Adame of Kingsville, had his school in the running until the last event —the mile relay. Adame had won both dashes and might have won again if he could have had three others to run with him.

Lobue was more fortunate. Anchor on the Davis baton crew, he was leading until the stretch when out of the turn shot driving Larry Wolf of Highland Park (Dallas). Running a 48.4 seconds quarter, Wolf passed Lobue and led him to the tape by four yards. But second place in the relay was good for three points to give Davis a total of 13 and the title.

Adame's Kingsville finished second with 10 points and Highland Park was third with nine.

Highland Park—had Wolf lived up to expectations in the quarter-mile—would have won the meet because Bill Hannum, the pole vaulter, tied for first.

Highland Park Fizzles

A victory in the quarter would have given Highland Park 14 points and the championship.

But Wolf, fading badly at the finish, was jammed between two runners as they raced neck-and-neck in second place, and Carlos Salinas of Laredo fouled the Highland Park star, jostling against Wolf and knocking him flat on the track but seven yards from the finish. However, even if Wolf had not been fouled he would have finished no higher than third. Salinas finished second but was ruled out because of the foul.

Conroe, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), Adamson (Dallas) and Carrizo Springs tied for fourth, each with seven points, while Goose Creek and Woodsboro tied Sunset for fifth; each making six points.

Shot Record Broken

One state record was bettered and one national mark equalled. M. B. Pendleton, Jr., of Woodsboro hurled the shot 54 feet 3-8 inch to better the record of 53 feet 1-2 inches, set in 1936, by Monte Earwood of Rock Springs.

Sunset failed to come through but did produce the outstanding mark of the day when Bill Hamman, blond hurdler, ran the 200-yard low hurdles in 22.1 to equal the national scholastic record set by Pollum of Topeka, Kans., in 1938.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Longview and Brackenridge (San Antonio), tied for sixth place with 5 points each. Other schools scored as follows:

Seminole 4, Reagan (Houston) 4, Smiley 4, Laredo 3 1-2, Port Arthur 3 1-2, Port Neches 3, Iraan 3, Freer 3, Wharton 3, McKinney 3, Amarillo 2, White Oak 2, Baird 2, Doole 2, Uvalde 2, Palestine 2, Farwell 2, Robert Lee 2, Austin 1, El Campo 1, Gaston 1, Livingston 1, Tomball 1, Weatherford 1, Pittsburg 1, Brady 1-2, Marfa 1-2.

Lobue Back In 1942

Lobue, in track for his third season, still has another year to compete but it's the last for Adame.

Upsets were numerous. For instance Doneal Hill of Sunset who led the qualifiers in the 200-yard low hurdles Friday, was shut out in the finals Saturday. Marvin Harry, White Oak's 880-yard star who came to the meet heavily favored to win, finished third with Guy Dewald of Conroe galloping in first in 1:59.3.

Jim Hoff, who had been figured to score Sunset points in the half-mile, was shut out, finishing fifth.

Ralph Nelson of Adamson (Dallas) staged a surprise by winning the discus throw with 149 feet 10 1-4 inches after having been second to Pendleton all season. Pendleton was fourth Saturday.

Aubrey Vaughn, Laredo's highly-rated broad jumper, finished second to Lobue whose 22 feet 8 1-4 inches was three inches back of Vaughn's best jump for the season.

Mile Record Intact

The boy who was expected to break a record failed. Little Jerry Thompson, Woodrow Wilson's picture runner who had previously bettered the state mile mark, was first here Saturday but his time was 4:35.3, more than four seconds over the record.

Archie Jones of Longview beat the touted Raymond Jones of Austin and Alfonso Valls of Laredo in the 120-yard high hurdles in another upset. But the Longview runners' time was 14.1, considered excellent compared to national marks. This is a new event in Texas so there is no comparison with past state marks.

Bill Roark of Seminole and J. B. Patteson of Smiley tied for first place in the high jump at 6 feet, 3 inches, only one-fourth of an inch below the state record.

The Highland Park relay team came within seven-tenths a second of the record with a time of 3:25.9.

Adame ran the 100-yard dash in 9.9 and the 220 in 21.2, the former three-tenths of a second over the record and the latter four-tenths slower than the state standard.

Times in the 12th-yard high hurdles, 200-yard low hurdles and 440-yard relay automatically became state records as these events are new, the high hurdles because they are 3 inches lower than in the past.

Lobue was highpoint man by winning first place in the broad jump, second in the high hurdles, third in the high jump, and ran on the second place relay team.

Among those placing in the finals were:

Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 100-yard dash; Perkins of Port Arthur, fourth in 440-yard dash; Vaughn of Laredo, fourth in 220-yard low hurdles; Vaughn of Laredo and Andrus of Port Arthur tied for second at 22 feet 4 inches in broad jump; Tharpe of Amarillo, fourth in 220-yard dash.

Bobo's The Most Widely Traveled Of Baseball's Travelin'est Trio

AP Feature Service

NEW YORK—Eventually, if you listen long enough as Buck Newsom rattles off his accomplishments and records, you will learn that he is the most-traveled player in the major leagues.

Technically, he is tied with a couple of Polish boys for that record but Buck can shrug that off now for one of these co-holders is virtually an inactive performer and the other is hardly a star as is Newsom. So this practically gives him the No. 1 spot.

Each of the trio has played in both major leagues. Aloysius Szymanski, whose box score moniker is Al Simmons, was first to enter the majors, back in 1924 with the Philadelphia A's. Then came the other youngster of Polish extraction, Pete Appleton, born Peter Jablonowski. He was with Cincinnati in 1927.

Newsom, born Louis Norman, followed, breaking in briefly with Brooklyn in 1929. Comparatively few major leaguers remain with the same club during their entire careers but none has traveled about from team to team as have Al, Pete and Buck.

After a nine-year stretch with the A's, Simmons was sold to Chicago (with Jimmy Dykes and Mule Haas) for $150,000. Then Detroit bought him for $75,000 and a year later Washington paid $15,000 for his services. The Senators sold him to the Boston Bees and Cincinnati took him late last year when Boston released him. The Reds cut him loose after the season and the A's took him on again.

Appleton's itinerary reads like this: Cincinnati - Cleveland - Boston Red Sox-Washington-Chicago White Sox. And the great Bo-Bo who admits the Dodgers of old were daffy because they let him go, began with Brooklyn. After a stretch in the minors, the Chicago Cubs looked him over. Briefly, Buck says. And 'twas the minors again.

Newsom won 30 games in the Coast League in 1933 and the Browns acquired him. Washington paid $40,000 for Buck in 1935 and swapped him two years later to the Red Sox (with Ben Chapman) for Rick and Wes Ferrell and Melo Almada.

Boston exchanged him to the Browns (with Ralph Kress and Colonel Mills) for Joe Vosmik. And the Tigers obtained him two years ago in a swap with St. Louis that involved 10 players.

Strange that Washington, at one time or other, had each of the three. While these players have spent their time rambling around, others like Ted Lyons, Mel Ott and Charles Gehringer have spent their complete playing years with one club. Lyons has been with the White Sox 18 years while Gehringer of Detroit and Ott of the New York Giants have been around 16 seasons.

Dick Bartell, Rollie Hemsley, Bump Hadley and Danny MacFayden have played with five different league clubs. Bruce Campbell, Ben Chapman, Virgil Davis, Leo Durocher, Gus Mancuso, Eric McNair, Julius Solters, Al Todd, Joe Vosmik, Fred Walker, Bill Werber, Gee Walker, Curt Davis, Whitlow Wyatt and Vito Tamulis have worn the uniforms of four clubs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CARDS 6; PHILS 0

PHILADELPHNA—(AP)—A single in the sixth inning ruined Rookie Henry Gornicki's chances of pitching the major league season's first no-hit game Saturday as the tall right-hander hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6 to 0 one-hit victory over the Phillies.

It was the eighth consecutive triumph for the National League leaders and the second sparkling mound performance turned in by Cardinal rookies in the two-game series. Friday, Howard Krist set the Phils down 4 to 2 on five hits.

BROOKLYN—(AP)—A double by Pete Reiser and Ducky Medwick's single to left in the eighth inning gave the Dodgers their winning margin for a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

Kirby Higbe was credited with the triumph which he helped along with a two-run single in the fifth. But the former Philly pitcher wasn't around at the finish. Southpaw Kemp Wicker worked the ninth and, although a pinch-hit double by Lou Novikoff and a walk put two men on, got out of the jam without allowing a run.

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates climbed out of the cellar again Saturday, handing the Giants a 3 to 2 defeat that ran the New Yorkers' streak to six losses and a tie in their last seven starts.

The Bucs got a handsome pitching job from big Max Butcher, who allowed only six hits, all of them singles, and gave up only one through the first six innings.

Kentuckian Recalls Jesse James As Boy

LOUISVILLE, Ky. —(AP)— John Payton Carrico, 92, likes to tell of riding to dances with Jesse James in Nelson county, Kentucky, "before Jesse got such a bad name."

James was "wild but a good-hearted boy and more—was laid to him than he ever did," Carrico says.

Mrs. Carrico is 84. They have been married 64 years.

Easy Payment Plan For Utilities Told

OMAHA, Neb.—(AP)—Dr. William Quigley, utilities district director, would make it easy for Omahans to pay their gas and water bills.

He suggested the district hire a uniformed doorman to meet customers at the curb, take their money to the cashier inside, and return a receipts. Other directors withheld comment.

Texas Sport Chatter

By TONY SLAUGHTER

And it wasn't on April Fool's Day. It happened last Thursday morning in the Tyler Telegraph.

And Sports Editor Cauley Munson had to get married to make the page one spread.

It seems Munson scooped his fellow workers with his wedding story. He was married a week ago in broad open daylight with no efforts to conceal it. All of the preparations, including the purchase of the ring and license took place right under the nose of Telegraph reporters. Open congratulations reached him at his office. Still he scooped the boys laboring around him.

My, my, what some folks do to make page one.

It looks like that trip to Hawaii erstwhile Coach Mose Simms at St. Mary's promised football players in 1941 is all off.

Simms has departed. He's looking around for a ranch in Coke county while San Antonio interests are having difficulties raising $25,000 to keep the grid program going.

Simms' silvery tongue could arrange for enough boats to transport four squads of D. X. Bible's University of Texas gridiron squad to Ankara and back.

INDIANS 4; RED SOX 2

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The amazing Cleveland Indians ran their winning streak to nine games Saturday by the simple expedient of jumping on Mike Ryba for four runs in the first inning. The resultant 4 to 2 triumph over the Boston Red Sox was Southpaw Al Milnar's third in four decisions.

Mr. Ryba, so versatile that he's frequently called a "one-man team," and all eight of his mates, couldn't prevent the quartet of extra-base blows which gave the league leaders the two-game series.

Roy Weatherly opened the Indians' first with a double and scored on Ken Keltner's triple. Lou Boudreau walked and Keltner tallied on Hal Trosky's fly. With the count three and two, Jeff Heath then lined his fourth home run of the season over the exit gate in League Park's right-center field. Ray Mack's triple later in the inning was wasted.

Ryba settled down and pitched four hitless innings and his two successors permitted no runs but the damage was done.

CHICAGO—(AP)—The New York Yankees had to hit two extra-inning home runs to down the White Sox, 6 to 5, Saturday. Buddy Rosar's four-bagger to lead off the 13th finally settling the issue.

The Yanks had looked like winners three innings before, when Rolfe and DiMaggio got on base and Flash Gordon promptly brought them in with his fifth circuit blow of the season. But in their half the Sox got those three back.

DETROIT—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers' star rescue man, big Al Benton, did his job again Saturday to safeguard a victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, 4 to 3, and give the home club a sweep of the two-game series.

Taking over with young Hal Newhouser in a jam in the eighth, Benton befuddled the A's with his sinker ball to hold the Philadelphia rally to two runs. It was Detroit's fourth victory in five games.

PATROLS NOT ADEQUATE TO HAMPER SUBS

Favors 'Delivering Goods To British'

By WILLIAM B. ARDERY

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Wendell L. Willkie, saying that the administration's existing sea patrol "is not adequate," declared Saturday that "we have got to get the goods delivered to Great Britain."

"The rate of sinkings is so serious that we should protect our cargoes of arms and food to England," the 1940 Republican presidential nominee asserted in an interview.

It was reported authoritatively that Willkie had sent word to President Roosevelt that he would support him in any move the chief executive might make to assure the delivery of American goods to Britain. Willkie himself told reporters:

Patrol Not Adequate

"If my information is correct, the present patrol method is not adequate to prevent our products from going to the bottom of the ocean."

Replying to reporters' questions, Willkie asserted that if he were president he would have military, naval and air experts advise him regarding the best method of protecting shipments to Britain and then would proceed on their advice.

"I am absolutely in favor of delivering the goods," he said, "whether it be by convoy, airplane accompaniment or any other method deemed best."

At the capitol, meantime, there were indications that Congress would hear increasing demands from some of its members for American convoys.

Sen. Guffey First

Senator Guffey (D-Pa) voiced the first such plea on Thursday, and it was disclosed Saturday that Senator Pepper (D-Fla) would express similar views in a Senate speech on Monday. Several other legislators were said to be withholding public statements of that nature because of uncertainty as to whether they might prove embarrassing to President Roosevelt.

Senator Tobey (R-NH), author of an anti-convoy resolution, contended Guffey's statement and Pepper's projected speech were part of an administration program to pave the way for convoys.

Willkie, questioned about public reaction to his recent article in Collier's magazine, advocating further help for Britain, asserted:

"I find that the people are confused and are searching earnestly, hoping that the administration will give them information and leadership."

Referring to the recent resignation of Charles A. Lindbergh from the air corps and President Roosevelt's decision not to renew the army reserve commission of General Hugh S. Johnson, Willkie said:

Says Lindy Wrong

"I don't think it contributes to leading the people to get into personal controversies with those of a different viewpoint. I wholly disagree with Col. Lindbergh, but in the words of Voltaire, 'I do not agree with a word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it.'

"The best way to dissipate any influence that Lindbergh might have is not to attack him personally, but to show the fallacy of his position.

"Likewise, no one has criticized me more of late than has General Hugh Johnson, but I think it exceedingly unfortunate that the failure to reappoint him came at a time when he was critical of the administration's foreign policy and those of us who disagree with his viewpoint."

Hitler Wants Discord

Willkie asserted that "nothing would delight Hitler more" than to see the American people "fall into the use of violent language about each other." He added:

"I am so firmly convinced that our foreign policy, enunciated by the administration and approved by an overwhelming majority of Congress in the enactment of the Lease-Lend Bill, is so right that we can finally convince all Americans of its wisdom. Certainly we can if we keep the channels of public discussion free and unclogged with the bitterness of personal recrimination.

Administrator Bert Ford said the increased liquor impost was not collectable until 30 days after May 1 and full instructions for dealers and drug store permittees were being forwarded immediately.

Confessed Dynamite Slaying Held Hoax

LUISA, Ky.—(AP)—District Attorney M. J. Eagen of Scranton, Pa., said Saturday that Dwight O. Thorne admitted to him that he concocted a "confession" of being responsible for the dynamite slaying of William and Lois Rebhorn in Scranton last November.

Asked why he did it, Thorne replied:

"Even if I have to spend the rest of my life in the penitentiary, I can't tell you why I did it."

Convict Sentenced In Prison Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Henri Young, convict-killer from Alcatraz, was labeled a cold-blooded murderer Saturday by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche who sentenced him for the knife-slaying of a fellow-convict.

A jury this week returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, although the government had asked death for 29-year-old Young, who knifed Rufus McCain to death in the prison last year. The jury thought "terrible conditions" at the prison for incorrigibles had temporarily deranged Young.

FD Okays Extending Insurance On Crops

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Roosevelt has approved the principle of extending federal crop insurance to commodities other than wheat, Chairman Fulmer (S-SC) of the House agricultural committee disclosed Saturday.

Fulmer made public a letter the President wrote Secretary Wickard saying that in view of "proven benefits" of crop insurance "consideration might now be given to the extension of federal insurance to other crops" as "reliable acturial bases are developed."

CAR LICENSE SALES CLIMB

$160,194 In Income For First Quarter

EDINBURG — Income from the sale of auto license plates in Hidalgo county in February, March and April reached a total of $160,194.56, County Treasurer K. W. Bonham announced Saturday.

The figure, one of the largest in recent years for this department of county and state revenue, includes virtually final reports on sales of truck licenses. The auto department of the tax collector's office turned in $5,364.32 in funds from such licenses for the week of April 26-May 3, Bonham announced.

The county and state share in the funds, the county receiving a majority of the early payments and the state receiving all above a total of $175,000 in county money.

Former Valley Girl Lecturer On Music

MISSION—Miss Martha McCurdy, graduate music student at Texas State College for Women, formerly of Mission and Pharr, presented a lecture recital of Texas folk songs at the college last week. Lecturing between numbers, Miss McCurdy was assisted by 21 senior music major students. She discussed the songs, using material from her master's thesis, "Choral Arrangements of Texas Folk Songs for Boys' Changing Voices."

Miss McCurdy was director of vocal music for three years at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School until she resigned to re-enter T.S.C.W. to secure her master's degree. She received her B.S. degree from that college in 1936. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCurdy of Kingsville, formerly of Mission.

"ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS"

MOTHER'S DAY LUNCHEON SET

San Benito Kiwanis Expect 60 Guests

SAN BENITO—San Benito Kiwanians have made their "dates" and an excellent program has been completed for the annual Mother's Day luncheon at noon Wednesday at the Stonewall Jackson hotel.

This Kiwanis party, begun by the local organization, has received national recognition and originated with Mrs. C. L. Milner, wife of the current president of the club.

About 60 mothers will attend the party for which the program has been planned by Grady St. Clair, vice president assisted by a committee of J. P. Ellis, Lee Roy Crawford and Elmer Morris.

Minister Speaker

Rev. R. O. Cawker, past president of the Corpus Christi club and pastor of that city's First Baptist church, will be the principal speaker. Other distinguished visitors will include Bob Sorrell, lieut. governor of division four of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district, also of Corpus Christi, who will induct five new members into the club.

Lee Roy Crawford will be master of ceremonies and welcoming address will be given by President C. L. Milner. Mayor Louis S. Witte, first president of the local club, will present awards to five mothers, as is the annual custom—to the one with the most children, the most grandchildren, the most great grandchildren, the oldest mother and the mother who was born furtherest distance away from San Benito.

Music Program

The program will open with group singing. S. V. Neely, past president, and Rev. C. S. McKinney will offer the invocation. Luncheon music will be presented by Miss Ruth Atkinson, pianist and Kiwanian Louis Valle, violinist, and novelty numbers will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden and Tol Boswell Sr.

The decorating committee is composed of Mrs. John Prentiss, chairman; Mrs. Lee Roy Crawford, Mrs. J. K. Frater, Mrs. Jesse Welch and Mrs. W. D. Collins.

Rev. C. S. McKinney, Rev. L. J. Rode and Clay Hall are on the "cupid" committee to make dates for all club members.

Violinist Will Be Methodist Soloist

HARLINGEN — Mrs G. Garabedian, violinist, will be guest soloist at the 11 a. m. Sunday service at the First Baptist church. She will play her own arrangement of the "Ave Marias" by Bach, Gounod and Schubert. The guest artist is presented by the church choir as a special entertainment marking the opening of National Music Week.

Chrysler Turns Out First Tank To Army

DETROIT —(AP)— Fully equipped and ready for combat, the first M-3 medium 28-ton tank was placed aboard a freight car at the Chrysler tank arsenal Saturday and shipped to the United States Army.

Completed in less than four months time, and described by army experts as the best weapon of its type available, the mobile fortress is one of hundreds of Chrysler Corporation has contracted to build.

Manila Constabulary Move To Stamp Out Uprising Of Moros

MANILA— (AP) —Constabulary reinforcements moved Saturday to stamp out an incipient uprising of Moro tribesmen bent on avenging the death of 21 kinsmen killed Thursday in a fanatical attack on the Taglibi military outpost in Sulu province.

Reports from the isolated region said the situation was growing more serious, and observers expressed the opinion that numerous recent disturbances in Sulu and Mindanao provinces were the result of outside agitation aimed at inflaming the Mohammedan Moros against Christians.

Average dividends earned by the petroleum industry for the past nineteen years have been slightly over 2 per cent a year.

'Free French' Deny Preparing For Push

LONDON—(AP)—Headquarters of the "Free French" denied "in the most categorical way" Saturday that any De Gaullist forces had been sent to Zeila, in British Somaliland near the French Somaliland border, or that "Free French" and British forces had gathered at Daouanlch, just inside the French frontier for an attack.

The French government at Vichy recently reported that De Gaullist forces were at these two places and were attempting to induce the French garrison to join the "Free French."
